Christmastide

Cloudy, Colder

Cloudy, colder, light drizzle or snow flurries tonight. Christmas Day, partly cloudy, somewhat colder. Yesterday's high, 55; low, 40. Year ago high, 47; low, 35. Temperature at 8 a. m. today, 40.

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

★ An Independent Newspaper ★

FULL SERVICE

Associated Press leased wire for state, national and world news, Central Press picture service, leading columnists and artists, full local news coverage

Monday, December 24, 1956 — 7c Per Copy — 73rd Year—302

YULE THOUGHTS TURN TO BETHLEHEM

Sumatra Chief Seen Quitting

Crisis Growing Near In Army-Backed Revolt

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian government circles indicated today that the end is near for the government of Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo as a result of the army revolt on Sumatra.

The government sources said Sastroamidjojo has only two alternatives—to resign or to send troops to quell the rebellion. But "the army will not fight against itself," political circles declared.

The leader of the bloodless army coup on the richest and second largest of the 3,000 Indonesian islands, Col. Malaudin Simbolon, called for a reunion of President Sukarno and ex-Vice President Mohammed Hatta. The Sumatrans want to get back more of the revenue from the rubber, coal and oil their island produces and less control of their local affairs by the Javanese, who dominate the national government.

Sukarno met today with a non-party member of Parliament from Sumatra, Mohammed Jamin. Afterward Jamin told newsmen it would be better to have a Cabinet crisis now so Sukarno and Hatta could take over the government.

* * *

INFORMED sources said there is a good chance the revolt, in which an army junta already has seized control in north and central Sumatra, may engulf south Sumatra.

Plane communications were resumed with central Sumatra today, but not with north Sumatra. In Jakarta, outgoing news cables were still being censored heavily.

Many political leaders feared Sukarno would seize on the present crisis to set up a dictatorship. Long the most popular man in the country, he urged just over a month ago that a constitution be drafted rejecting capitalism, a federal form of government and the "liberal democracy of the West."

The recent resignation of Hatta, a Sumatran, is supposed to have irked his fellow islanders and led to the revolt. The island produces half the country's wealth but its leaders think smaller Java gets most of the benefits.

Phony Santa Claus Rough On Kiddies

DOVER (AP)—A phony Santa Claus has been roaming the streets of Dover.

The impersonator, fully clad in St. Nick's attire, was drunk and abusive to children, police said.

The town's "real" Santa Claus, sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce, is Robert Heller, a high school teacher.

Heller's impersonator made the rounds of taverns, getting loaded with free booze, and told children, "Get away from me, you brats."

Postman Presented With Giant Card

RESEDA, Calif. (AP) — When 100 persons crowded into the postoffice here it wasn't a last-minute Christmas rush. They were there to bring a Christmas card to a postman—34-year - old Maurice W. Breeze, their mailman in this Los Angeles suburb.

The card, a giant-size model, was accompanied by a $350 gift collected by the citizens in appreciation of Breeze's services.

Keeping Score On The Rainfall

RAINFALL FOR 48 HOUR PERIOD

Ending at 8 a. m.	.01
Normal for December to date	2.01
Actual for December to date	3.24
AHEAD 1.23 INCH
Normal since Jan. 1	39.13
Actual since Jan. 1	42.88
Normal year	39.86
Actual last year	34.78
River (feet)	2.34
Sunrise	7:52
Sunset	5:11

Confusion Amusin' At Kiddie Drama

KUNA, Idaho (AP)—Some children, all in their early school years, got out of line while putting on a Christmas pageant in church this week. It was disconcerting.

Thirteen of them were to walk across the stage, each carrying a letter-bearing placard. All together—if they're in correct order and line—spell: B-E-T-H-L-E-H-E-M S-T-A-R.

But the "star" bearers got turned around and went in back wards, so to speak, spelling out: B-E-T-H-L-E-H-E-M R-A-TS.

Suez Canal Cleanup Plan Snagged Again

Egypt Slow In OKing French-British Crews In Salvage Operation

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP) — The question of using British and French salvage crews in clearing the Suez Canal again today delayed work on the blocked waterway. A United Nations salvage fleet, including British and French ships, is ready to go to work but Egypt has given no go-ahead.

It was thought salvage operations could be started south of Port Said as soon as British and French troops completed their withdrawal from Egypt. The last of the soldiers left Saturday.

Some British and French salvage ships remained behind as part of the U. N. salvage fleet, with their crews wearing civilian clothes and the blue-and-white U. N. flag flying in place of their national pennants at the insistence of Egypt.

But the fleet has not moved from Port Said harbor. An Egyptian Suez Canal authority official said a hitch remains on the use of British-French salvage crews. He said U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold is expected to go to Cairo to talk over the use of the British and French vessels.

* * *

U. S. LT. GEN. Raymond A. Wheeler, in charge of the U. N. clearance operation, said he hoped to move some salvage equipment into the canal today, but that he still had not received permission from Egyptian authorities.

Before the British-French forces left, they announced Egypt had agreed to the use of the salvage crews as 'U. N. volunteers."

(Continued on Page Two)

Kremlin-Tito Feud Continues

Russian Chiefs Order Chill For Yugoslavia

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Even as friends, the ruling regimes of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia are acutely uncomfortable with each other.

Take a recent example: On Dec. 19 the Yugoslav Communist newspaper Borba published the full text of an article from the Soviet Communist party's Pravda, while declaring that, "as regards its ideological, intellectual and moral qualities, the article does not deserve to be reprinted."

Borba accused the Soviet regime of hiding facts from the Russian people. The Belgrade radio called the Pravda piece, which of course reflected he official Soviet view, "malicious."

Just two days later an official Yugoslav spokesman declared ideological differences need not cause official governmental relations between the two nations to deterlorate. He said Soviet-Yugoslav economic relations are developing normally.

Thus a swat on one Soviet cheek and a caress on the other.

Tito once seemed to be Moscow's staunchest ally. From 1944 to 1948, no one was more anti-Western than he in the whole Soviet orbit.

In mid-1948 came the break between Tito and Stalin.

* * *

SHORTLY AFTER Stalin died in 1953 the Soviet hate campaign ceased. The two countries established more or less normal, but aloof, relations.

Nikita Khrushchev, the Soviet Communist party boss, went to attempt to woo Tito back into the Kremlin fold. Tito responded, but with a highly independent air. There followed a year of intense efforts by the Kremlin to play up to Tito—involving cultural, political and economic exchanges. Tito visited the Soviet Union in mid-1956 and was received as a hero.

Since that moment the leaders in the Kremlin have had second thoughts about him.

The Kremlin warned the satellites again not to imitate Tito and gave the green light for them to attack him. This brought further Yugoslav replies. That is where the situation stands now.

Flood Kills 35

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Disaster workers today counted 35 dead in a flash flood which washed over the dairy center of Passaquatro, 200 miles from here. Others were feared to be missing.

Ohio Weatherman Forecasts Christmas Day To Be Dismal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The weatherman took another look today and declared that there will be no "white Christmas" in Ohio.

In fact, it probably will not be a very nice day at all—rainy, dismal and wholly in need of the cheerful spirit that the holiday represents.

The warmish trend may end with the temperatures tending to slip downward. Even so, the forecast for the next five days calls for above - normal temperatures.

Here is the complete five-day forecast for Ohio:

"Temperatures will average near to 2 degrees above normal; normal high 35 in north to 40 in south; normal low 21-24. A little colder Tuesday, little change Wednesday or Thursday; colder Friday and Saturday. Precipitation will average about one-quarter inch in snow mixed with rain about Thursday, and in snow flurries northeast Tuesday and Friday."

* * *

HERE ARE forecasts for specific areas:

Central Ohio—Cloudy with falling temperatures tonight. Chance of a few snow flurries this afternoon or tonight. Partly cloudy and cold Christmas Day. Low tonight 27. High Tuesday 38.

South Central Ohio—Cloudy and turning colder tonight preceded by a few sprinkles. Partly cloudy and cold Christmas Day. Low tonight 28-31. High Tuesday 37-40.

Northwest Ohio — Cloudy and colder with a few snow flurries tonight. Low tonight 25-30. Tuesday, mostly cloudy and continued cold.

Northeast Ohio — Cloudy and colder tonight and Tuesday with a few snow flurries tonight and along Lake Erie Tuesday. Low tonight 25-30.

Kentucky—Warmer in extreme west, colder extreme east Tuesday. Low tonight 27-34.

West Virginia—Cloudy and colder tonight with a few snow flurries in the mountains. Low 28-34. Tuesday, partly cloudy and moderately cold.

Western Pennsylvania — Cloudy and colder with occasional rain turning to snow flurries tonight. Low 30-36. Tuesday, cloudy and colder and snow flurries.

Indiana — Rain ending today. Colder Tuesday. High 35-40.

Defensive War Against Communism Is Granted Approval By Pope Pius

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII has proclaimed the morality of defensive war and called on the world to give the United Nations "the right and power" to prevent aggression.

In some of the strongest words of his 18-year reign, the head of the Roman Catholic Church condemned communism in his annual Christmas message for trying "to impose on all peoples, in one way or another, a special and intolerable way of life."

The message was carried by radio to hundreds of millions in countries around the world.

The pope made it clear that, in the eyes of his church, the freedom fighters of Hungary had the moral right to resist Russian force with force.

'It is clear," he declared, 'that in the present circumstances there can be verified in a nation the situation wherein, every effort to avoid war being expended in vain, war—for effective self-defense and with the hope of a favorable outcome against unjust attack—could not be considered unlawful."

Against communism, he said, "only the unanimous and courageous behavior of all who love the truth and the good can preserve peace, and will preserve it." As usual, he did not call communism by name but he left no doubt of his target.

The 80-year-old pontiff said nations, such as Hungary, which refuse to admit U. N. observers should be refused membership in the United Nations.

The world organization, he continued, should have "the right and power of forestalling all military intervention of one state in another . . . and also the right and power of assuming by means of sufficient police force, the safeguarding of order in the state which is threatened.

"Only in the ambit of an institution like the United Nations can promises of nations to reduce armament, especially to abandon production and use of certain arms, be mutually exchanged under the strict obligation of international law."

For the second successive year, the pope endorsed President Eisenhower's "open skies" disarmament inspection plan, which provides for aerial inspection to assure observance of disarmament pledges. And he solidly backed the West's demands for disarmament with iron-clad controls.

Newspaper Helps Bring Family Cheer

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Public response to a newspaper story today means that a Birmingham area family can plan for a cheery Christmas.

The Birmingham Post - Herald, after investigating, told about the plight of the family Saturday: 45-year-old father jobless; hardly enough money for food; no money for heat; and four boys, aged 11, 9, and 8 years, and 9 months.

From persons who read the story the father has three offers of jobs; half a ton of coal; groceries; $60 in cash; an offer of clothes.

6 Texas Jail Escapees Hide In Tennessee

DOVER, Tenn. (AP)—Highway patrolmen used helicopters, boats, patrol cars and roadblocks Sunday in rounding up six Texas jailbreakers who had robbed a motel and wounded a state trooper here.

The six had slugged a jailer in escaping from their cells in Georgetown, Tex., Friday. They were accused of these offenses in making their way east:

Locking up the Texas jailer and his wife.

Looting the jail of firearms.

Breaking into an apartment to get a woman's auto key at gunpoint and taking her car.

Robbing a Groesbeck, Tex., couple of cash and their auto and leaving them locked up.

Robbing a motel near here at midnight Saturday and leaving two men and a woman bound.

Taking a Tennessee patrol car at gunpoint, wrecking it and shooting the patrolman who had chased them for speeding.

Stealing and abandoning three other cars in the escape effort.

The patrol immediately threw 75 troopers into a massive manhunt. They set up roadblocks around the area, launched patrol boats on the Cumberland River and borrowed three radio-equipped helicopters from the Army at nearby Ft. Campbell, Ky.

All six were captured and bound over to the grand jury on armed robbery and attempted murder charges. Then they were taken to a jail in Nashville, some 80 miles to the southeast, for safekeeping pending further proceedings.

GI To Get Visit With Refugee Kin

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP) — A 21-year-old Hungarian-born GI was flying back to the United States today on a month-long "morale" furlough from Korea for a reunion with his parents, Hungarian refugees themselves.

This Christmas holiday is going to be an extremely merry one for Pfc. Victor Laczo for it will be the first time he has seen his mother and father, Karoly and Gizella Laczo, since he came to America seven years ago.

The Laczos and an adopted daughter, Erika, arrived at Camp Kilmer, N. J., Dec. 13 and are now living in Bethlehem.

Many Autoists Give Selves Tragedy As Christmas 'Gift'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Christmas will never be quite the same for some Ohio families. On rain-slick, fog-shrouded streets and highways holiday motorists were making a tragedy for them of this most joyous of seasons.

The death toll since 6 p. m. Friday from highway accidents alone stood at 19, according to an Associated Press survey. The survey showed also seven other accidental deaths.

Ohio was not alone in the presentation of these tragic "gifts."

Throughout the nation, the toll of dead and injured mounted steadily as the four-day Christmas holiday slipped past the midway point.

By mid-morning today, highway accidents alone had taken 405 lives. Twenty-six persons died in fires and 45 in miscellaneous accidents. That brought the overall death toll to 476 as the four-day holiday period headed into its final 40 hours.

The National Safety Council reported that unless drivers used greater caution during the remainder of the period from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Tuesday, the council forecast of a record 660 killed on the highways will be exceeded.

* * *

COUNCIL PRESIDENT Ned H. Dearborn renewed his appeal for motoring Americans to drive as a national emergency. He warned:

"Look out for the other driver. Don't trust him."

Last year's three-day Christmas weekend holds the present traffic death record of 609. The over-all accident total was 782 then, which was 23 less than the all-time holiday total set during a four-day Independence Day period in 1955. The Christmas record toll is 789 for 1951's four-day Christmas period.

A mixture of snow, fog, freezing drizzle and rain made driving conditions hazardous Saturday and Sunday over much of the eastern portion of the country.

Safety experts cited the poor weather and drinking drivers as important factors in the growing accident list.

A comparative lull in the slaughter was predicted by safety officials until Christmas afternoon when many travelers were expected to end holiday visits and take to the roads again.

Checking a nonholiday weekend, the Associated Press recorded 500 traffic deaths from 6 p. m. Friday, Dec. 14, to midnight, Tuesday, Dec. 18.

The National Safety Council estimated that for each person killed outright or dying soon after a traffic accident, 32 are injured.

In the non-traffic categories, six persons were killed and seven critically injured in a fire in Doctors Hospital at Minneapolis Sunday. The blaze apparently was touched off by a short circuit in Christmas tree lights. About 60 persons were evacuated.

Cincy Medics Stall Plans Of Probers

CINCINNATI (AP)—Doctors have shelved plans of investigators to learn from Mrs. Helen Aue details of the shooting outburst that killed three persons and injured Mrs. Aue critically last Friday.

Physicians at General Hospital said that potentially dangerous sedation would likely be necessary for the socially-prominent woman if she learned of the other deaths. She now has difficulty breathing.

She won't know of the private funeral services and cremation scheduled today for her husband, Lester, 54, and attractive daughter, Susan Elaine, 17, who died in the gunfire.

The body of the third victim of the shooting—Susan's boy friend, Gordon Pape Jr., 19,—was released Sunday by the coroner's office to his parents, who also plan cremation.

Basic clues in the case are the weapon, a .32 caliber revolver belonging to Pape's father, and a letter the boy wrote Susan, threatening to "release all the hell back on you" for refusing to "go steady with him again.

Aue was vice president of a chemical firm. The elder Pape is an investment broker and heads an outdoor movie firm.

Yeggs Miss Loot

LONDON (AP)—Robbers dropped through the ceiling of a London bank Sunday and tried to cut their way into a safe containing nearly $280,000. Bt they ran out of oxyacetylene gas after burning through all but a quarter inch of the safe door.

Moslems Kill 6

ALGIERS (AP)—Moslem nationalist grenade attacks killed 6 Europeans and wounded 26 in Algeria over the weekend, French authorities reported today. The French reported military patrols killed 65 rebels.

Sciotoville Gets Emergency Service

PORTSMOUTH (AP)— Emergency service has now been restored at two of this area's three telephone exchanges. The Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. Sunday restored service at nearby Sciotoville exchange.

Service was restored a week ago at the Portsmouth exchange, leaving only subscribers at the suburban New Boston exchange without service.

The three exchanges were closed last Oct. 15 following stonings of company installations during a strike by the Communications Workers of America.

U.S. Airlines Chalking Up Safety Mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — Commercial Airlines racked up an improved safety record this year and non-scheduled air carriers entered the final week of 1956 without a single passenger fatality, the Civil Aeronautics Administration says.

The CAA estimated the 1956 domestic safety mark for scheduled carriers at 0.62 fatalities per 100 million passenger miles, compared with 0.76 in 1955. A passenger mile is one passenger flown one mile.

No passenger deaths occurred in U. S. lines' international flights. Nonscheduled carriers, flying much less total mileage than the scheduled lines, have recorded no passenger fatalities since Nov. 17, 1955.

CAA estimated total domestic passenger miles flown in 1956 will be 23,183,000,000, compared with 20,550,940,000 in 1955.

The year-end survey made public Sunday said nonscheduled lines have flown some 1,400,000,000 revenue passenger miles since their last fatality.

Scheduled airline passengers totaled 45,860,000 in 1956, CAA estimated, up 11 per cent from the 41,441,000 recorded in 1955.

'Twas Night Before—Well, Here Is Another Version

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

'Twas the night before Christmas, a time one expects
A gent in red flannels to pay his respects.
He's generous, mirthful, inclined to be shy.
But never forget he's a little bit sly.
For some of the gifts he has deep in his sack
Are things you may wish you could make him take back.
It's not that he's mean. He has lots of regrets
That he can't fill in full all the orders he gets.
The trouble of course with some gifts that he brings
Is how long you must wait before cutting the strings.
A recent example was Adlai who thought
Last year at this time he could get what he sought:
A brand new address, for he had a desire
To live in the White House, then maybe retire.
It's a rather nice place, very large, and rent free.
Not modern, but clean, and with more than one tree.
But Ike was the tenant, refusing to budge.
Yet Santa was conscious of Stevenson's nudge.
It made him as nervous as if he had hives,
Since the gifts that he gave they'd recall all their lives.
To Ike he presented a new White House pass
And to Adlai a sign that said "Keep off the Grass."
The moral in this, if there's one to relate,
Is that many a package gets opened up late.

Little Town Is Focal Point For Christmas

Old Tensions Present As Small Pilgrimage Follows Holy Route

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Christians, wherever they are in this troubled world, turned their thoughts today to the little town of Behlehem as Chrismas observances again emphasized the age-old hopes for peace on earth and good will to all men.

In America, the commercial world was tapering off its contribution to the holiday. Tonight, many a church will be packed as the faithful pay tribute to the birth of the Christ.

In Washington, the President is settling down to a family Christmas in the White House. He and Mrs. Eisenhower will be surrounded by their family.

Over in the Holy Land, ancient Jerusalem saw a procession of 1,700 Christian Arabs from Israel crossed into Jordan today on a Yuletide pilgrimage to Christendom's holy places.

The aftermath of recent Middle East hostilities made this a somber, almost sad Christmas in the Holy Land.

* * *

THE CROSSING began at dawn, and by midmorning hundreds had passed through the Mandelbaum Gate into the Jordanian Old City of Jerusalem.

Usually 7,000 to 10,000 make the pilgrimage. But there was only a sprinkling of pilgrims from foreign lands. The annual influx of tourists, churchmen, scholars and others was all but halted by the recent open warfare.

Many of the pilgrims who made the crossing arrived in Jerusalem by bus from Biblical Nazareth, Jaffa and other Arab communities in Israel.

They will return Tuesday evening after visits to Christian shrines in the Old City and to Bethlehem, two miles south of Jerusalem in Jordan.

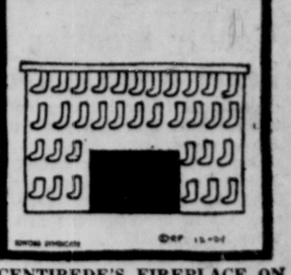
Even as Christian pilgrims gathered in Jerusalem, an Israeli army spokesman reported a raid by Jordanian infiltrators. He said they wrecked a dispensary in a village in northern Israel with a time bomb.

In Jerusalem, the divided holy city where barbed wire fences separate Arab and Jew, Arab Legionnaires and Israeli soldiers

(Continued on Page Two)

DROODLES

By ROGER PRICE



"CENTIPEDE'S FIREPLACE ON CHRISTMAS EVE"

This Droodle reminds me of last Christmas Eve when I got so confused from decorating the tree and wrapping the gifts I put my stocking to bed and hung over the fireplace all night. It was a dopey mistake on my part because when I woke up my mouth was filled with two pairs of Argyle Shorts, a Cigarette Lighter and a Hand Painted Necktie. Actually it was my colleague, Dr. Schwine, who shoved the gifts into my mouth because he was the one who was playing Santa Claus. He admitted it seemed kind of strange for a stocking to have teeth and a tongue but he said he just couldn't think straight because he was so full of Christmas Spirit (Four Roses). Certainly proved to me that it's much better to give than to receive.

Christmastide

Cloudy, Colder

Cloudy, colder, light drizzle or snow flurries tonight. Christmas Day, partly cloudy, somehwat colder. Yesterday's high, 55; low, 40. Year ago high, 47; low, 35. Temperature at 8 a. m. today, 40.

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

★ An Independent Newspaper ★

FULL SERVICE

Associated Press leased wire for state, national and world news, Central Press picture service, leading columnists and artists, full local news coverage

Monday, December 24, 1956 — 7c Per Copy — 73rd Year—302

YULE THOUGHTS TURN TO BETHLEHEM

Sumatra Chief Seen Quitting

Crisis Growing Near In Army-Backed Revolt

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian government circles indicated today that the end is near for the government of Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo as a result of the army revolt on Sumatra.

The government sources said Sastroamidjojo has only two alternatives—to resign or to send troops to quell the rebellion. But "the army will not fight against itself," political circles declared.

The leader of the bloodless army coup on the richest and second largest of the 3,000 Indonesian islands, Col. Malaudin Simbolon, called for a reunion of President Sukarno and ex-Vice President Mohammed Hatta. The Sumatrans want to get back more of the revenue from the rubber, coal and oil their island produces and less control of their local affairs by the Javanese, who dominate the national government.

Sukarno met today with a non-party member of Parliament from Sumatra, Mohammed Jamin. Afterward Jamin told newsmen it would be better to have a Cabinet crisis now so Sukarno and Hatta could take over the government.

• • •

INFORMED sources said there is a good chance the revolt, in which an army junta already has seized control in north and central Sumatra, may engulf south Sumatra.

Plane communications were resumed with central Sumatra today, but not with north Sumatra. In Jakarta, outgoing news cables were still being censored heavily.

Many political leaders feared Sukarno would seize on the present crisis to set up a dictatorship. Long the most popular man in the country, he urged just over a month ago that a constitution be drafted rejecting capitalism, a federal form of government and the "liberal democracy of the West."

The recent resignation of Hatta, a Sumatran, is supposed to have irked his fellow islanders and led to the revolt. The island produces half the country's wealth but its leaders think smaller Java gets most of the benefits.

Phony Santa Claus Rough On Kiddies

DOVER (AP)—A phony Santa Claus has been roaming the streets of Dover.

The impersonator, fully clad in St. Nick's attire, was drunk and abusive to children, police said.

The town's "real" Santa Claus, sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce, is Robert Heller, a high school teacher.

Heller's impersonator made the rounds of taverns, getting loaded with free booze, and told children, "Get away from me, you brats."

Postman Presented With Giant Card

RESEDA, Calif. (AP) — When 100 persons crowded into the postoffice here it wasn't a last-minute Christmas rush. They were there to bring a Christmas card to a postman—34-year - old Maurice W. Breeze, their mailman in this Los Angeles suburb.

The card, a giant-size model, was accompanied by a $350 gift collected by the citizens in appreciation of Breeze's services.

Keeping Score On The Rainfall

RAINFALL FOR 48 HOUR PERIOD

Ending at 8 a. m.	.01
Normal for December to date	2.01
Actual for December to date	3.24
AHEAD 1.23 INCH
Normal since Jan. 1	39.13
Actual since Jan. 1	42.88
Normal year	39.86
Actual last year	34.78
River (feet)	2.34
Sunrise	7:52
Sunset	5:11

Confusion Amusin' At Kiddie Drama

KUNA, Idaho (AP)—Some children, all in their early school years, got out of line while putting on a Christmas pageant in church this week. It was disconcerting.

Thirteen of them were to walk across the stage, each carrying a letter-bearing placard. All together—if they're in correct order and line—spell: B-E-T-H-L-E-H-E-M S-T-A-R.

But the "star" bearers got turned around and went in back wards, so to speak, spelling out: B-E-T-H-L-E-H-E-M R-A-TS.

Suez Canal Cleanup Plan Snagged Again

Egypt Slow In OKing French-British Crews In Salvage Operation

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP) — The question of using British and French salvage crews in clearing the Suez Canal again today delayed work on the blocked waterway. A United Nations salvage fleet, including British and French ships, is ready to go to work but Egypt has given no go-ahead.

It was thought salvage operations could be started south of Port Said as soon as British and French troops completed their withdrawal from Egypt. The last of the soldiers left Saturday.

Some British and French salvage ships remained behind as part of the U. N. salvage fleet, with their crews wearing civilian clothes and the blue-and-white U. N. flag flying in place of their national pennants at the insistence of Egypt.

But the fleet has not moved from Port Said harbor. An Egyptian Suez Canal authority official said a hitch remains on the use of British-French salvage crews. He said U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold is expected to go to Cairo to talk over the use of the British and French vessels.

• • •

U. S. LT. GEN. Raymond A. Wheeler, in charge of the U. N. clearance operation, said he hoped to move some salvage equipment into the canal today, but that he still had not received permission from Egyptian authorities.

Before the British-French forces left, they announced Egypt had agreed to the use of the salvage crews as 'U. N. volunteers."

The end of the seven-week Brit-

(Continued on Page Two)

Kremlin-Tito Feud Continues

Russian Chiefs Order Chill For Yugoslavia

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Even as friends, the ruling regimes of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia are acutely uncomfortable with each other.

Take a recent example: On Dec. 19 the Yugoslav Communist newspaper Borba published the full text of an article from the Soviet Communist party's Pravda, while declaring that, "as regards its ideological, intellectual and moral qualities, the article does not deserve to be reprinted."

Borba accused the Soviet regime of hiding facts from the Russian people. The Belgrade radio called the Pravda piece, which of course reflected he official Soviet view, "malicious."

Just two days later an official Yugoslav spokesman declared ideological differences need not cause official governmental relations between the two nations to deterlorate. He said Soviet-Yugoslav economic relations are developing normally.

Thus a swat on one Soviet cheek and a caress on the other.

Tito once seemed to be Moscow's staunchest ally. From 1944 to 1948, no one was more anti-Western than he in the whole Soviet orbit.

In mid-1948 came the break between Tito and Stalin.

• • •

SHORTLY AFTER Stalin died in 1953 the Soviet hate campaign ceased. The two countries established more or less normal, but aloof, relations.

Nikita Khrushchev, the Soviet Communist party boss, went to attempt to woo Tito back into the Kremlin fold. Tito responded, but with a highly independent air. There followed a year of intense efforts by the Kremlin to play up to Tito—involving cultural, political and economic exchanges. Tito visited the Soviet Union in mid-1956 and was received as a hero.

Since that moment the leaders in the Kremlin have had second thoughts about him.

The Kremlin warned the satellites again not to imitate Tito and gave the green light for them to attack him. This brought further Yugoslav replies. That is where the situation stands now.

Flood Kills 35

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Disaster workers today counted 35 dead in a flash flood which washed over the dairy center of Passaquatro, 200 miles from here. Others were feared to be missing.

Ohio Weatherman Forecasts Christmas Day To Be Dismal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The weatherman took another look today and declared that there will be no "white Christmas" in Ohio.

In fact, it probably will not be a very nice day at all—rainy, dismal and wholly in need of the cheerful spirit that the holiday represents.

The warmish trend may end with the temperatures tending to slip downward. Even so, the forecast for the next five days calls for above - normal temperatures.

Here is the complete five-day forecast for Ohio:

"Temperatures will average near to 2 degrees above normal; normal high 35 in north to 40 in south; normal low 21-24. A little colder Tuesday, little change Wednesday or Thursday, colder Friday and Saturday. Precipitation will average about one-quarter inch in snow mixed with rain about Thursday, and in snow flurries northeast Tuesday and Friday."

• • •

HERE ARE forecasts for specific areas:

Central Ohio—Cloudy with falling temperatures tonight. Chance of a few snow flurries this afternoon or tonight. Partly cloudy and cold Christmas Day. Low tonight 27. High Tuesday 38.

South Central Ohio—Cloudy and turning colder tonight preceded by a few sprinkles. Partly cloudy and cold Christmas Day. Low tonight 28-31. High Tuesday 37-40.

Northwest Ohio — Cloudy and colder with a few snow flurries tonight. Low tonight 25-30. Tuesday, mostly cloudy and continued cold.

Northeast Ohio — Cloudy and colder tonight and Tuesday with a few snow flurries tonight and along Lake Erie Tuesday. Low tonight 25-30.

Kentucky—Warmer in extreme west, colder extreme east Tuesday. Low tonight 27-34.

West Virginia—Cloudy and colder tonight with a few snow flurries in the mountains. Low 28-34. Tuesday, partly cloudy and moderately cold.

Western Pennsylvania — Cloudy and colder with occasional rain turning to snow flurries tonight. Low 30-36. Tuesday, cloudy and colder and snow flurries.

Indiana — Rain ending today. Colder Tuesday. High 35-40.

Defensive War Against Communism Is Granted Approval By Pope Pius

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII has proclaimed the morality of defensive war and called on the world to give the United Nations "the right and power" to prevent aggression.

In some of the strongest words of his 18-year reign, the head of the Roman Catholic Church condemned communism in his annual Christmas message for trying "to impose on all peoples, in one way or another, a special and intolerable way of life."

The message was carried by radio to hundreds of millions in countries around the world.

The pope made it clear that, in the eyes of his church, the freedom fighters of Hungary had the moral right to resist Russian force with force.

'It is clear," he declared, 'that in the present circumstances there can be verified in a nation the situation wherein, every effort to avoid war being expended in vain, war—for effective self-defense and with the hope of a favorable outcome against unjust attack—could not be considered unlawful."

Against communism, he said, "only the unanimous and courageous behavior of all who love the truth and the good can preserve peace, and will preserve it." As usual, he did not call communism by name but he left no doubt of his target.

The 80-year-old pontiff said nations, such as Hungary, which refuse to admit U. N. observers should be refused membership in the United Nations.

The world organization, he continued, should have "the right and power of forestalling all military intervention of one state in another . . . and also the right and power of assuming by means of sufficient police force, the safeguarding of order in the state which is threatened.

"Only in the ambit of an institution like the United Nations can promises of nations to reduce armament, especially to abandon production and use of certain arms, be mutually exchanged under the strict obligation of international law."

For the second successive year, the pope endorsed President Eisenhower's "open skies" disarmament inspection plan, which provides for aerial inspection to assure observance of disarmament pledges. And he solidly backed the West's demands for disarmament with iron-clad controls.

Newspaper Helps Bring Family Cheer

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Public response to a newspaper story today means that a Birmingham area family can plan for a cheery Christmas.

The Birmingham Post - Herald, after investigating, told about the plight of the family Saturday: 45-year-old father jobless; hardly enough money for food; no money for heat; and four boys, aged 11, 9, and 8 years, and 9 months.

From persons who read the story the father has three offers of jobs; half a ton of coal; groceries; $60 in cash; an offer of clothes.

6 Texas Jail Escapees Hide In Tennessee

DOVER, Tenn. (AP)—Highway patrolmen used helicopters, boats, patrol cars and roadblocks Sunday in rounding up six Texas jailbreakers who had robbed a motel and wounded a state trooper here.

The six had slugged a jailer in escaping from their cells in Georgetown, Tex., Friday. They were accused of these offenses in making their way east:

Locking up the Texas jailer and his wife.

Looting the jail of firearms.

Breaking into an apartment to get a woman's auto key at gunpoint and taking her car.

Robbing a Groesbeck, Tex., couple of cash and their auto and leaving them locked up.

Robbing a motel near here at midnight Saturday and leaving two men and a woman bound.

Taking a Tennessee patrol car at gunpoint, wrecking it and shooting the patrolman who had chased them for speeding.

Stealing and abandoning three other cars in the escape effort.

The patrol immediately threw 75 troopers into a massive manhunt. They set up roadblocks around the area, launched patrol boats on the Cumberland River and borrowed three radio-equipped helicopters from the Army at nearby Ft. Campbell, Ky.

All six were captured and bound over to the grand jury on armed robbery and attempted murder charges. Then they were taken to a jail in Nashville, some 80 miles to the southeast, for safekeeping pending further proceedings.

GI To Get Visit With Refugee Kin

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP) — A 21-year-old Hungarian-born GI was flying back to the United States today on a month-long "morale" furlough from Korea for a reunion with his parents, Hungarian refugees themselves.

This Christmas holiday is going to be an extremely merry one for Pfc. Victor Laczo for it will be the first time he has seen his mother and father, Karoly and Gizella Laczo, since he came to America seven years ago.

The Laczos and an adopted daughter, Erika, arrived at Camp Kilmer, N. J., Dec. 13 and are now living in Bethlehem.

Many Autoists Give Selves Tragedy As Christmas 'Gift'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Christmas will never be quite the same for some Ohio families. On rain-slick, fog-shrouded streets and highways holiday motorists were making a tragedy for them of this most joyous of seasons.

The death toll since 6 p. m. Friday from highway accidents alone stood at 19, according to an Associated Press survey. The survey showed also seven other accidental deaths.

Ohio was not alone in the presentation of these tragic "gifts."

Throughout the nation, the toll of dead and injured mounted steadily as the four-day Christmas holiday slipped past the midway point.

By mid-morning today, highway accidents alone had taken 405 lives. Twenty-six persons died in fires and 45 in miscellaneous accidents. That brought the overall death toll to 476 as the four-day holiday period headed into its final 40 hours.

The National Safety Council reported that unless drivers used greater caution during the remainder of the period from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Tuesday, the council forecast of a record 660 killed on the highways will be exceeded.

• • •

COUNCIL PRESIDENT Ned H. Dearborn renewed his appeal for motoring Americans to drive as a national emergency. He warned:

"Look out for the other driver. Don't trust him."

Last year's three-day Christmas weekend holds the present traffic death record of 660. The over-all accident total was 782 then, which was 23 less than the all-time holiday total set during a four-day Independence Day period in 1955. The Christmas record toll is 789 for 1951's four-day Christmas period.

A mixture of snow, fog, freezing drizzle and rain made driving conditions hazardous Saturday and Sunday over much of the eastern portion of the country.

Safety experts cited the poor weather and drinking drivers as important factors in the growing accident list.

A comparative lull in the slaughter was predicted by safety officials until Christmas afternoon when many travelers were expected to end holiday visits and take to the roads again.

Checking a nonholiday weekend, the Associated Press recorded 500 traffic deaths from 6 p. m. Friday, Dec. 14, to midnight, Tuesday, Dec. 18.

The National Safety Council estimated that for each person killed outright or dying soon after a traffic accident, 32 are injured.

In the non-traffic categories, six persons were killed and seven critically injured in a fire in Doctors Hospital at Minneapolis Sunday. The blaze apparently was touched off by a short circuit in Christmas tree lights. About 60 persons were evacuated.

Cincy Medics Stall Plans Of Probers

CINCINNATI (AP)—Doctors have shelved plans of investigators to learn from Mrs. Helen Aue details of the shooting outburst that killed three persons and injured Mrs. Aue critically last Friday.

Physicians at General Hospital said that potentially dangerous sedation would likely be necessary for the socially-prominent woman if she learned of the other deaths. She now has difficulty breathing.

She won't know of the private funeral services and cremation scheduled today for her husband, Lester, 54, and attractive daughter, Susan Elaine, 17, who died in the gunfire.

The body of the third victim of the shooting—Susan's boy friend, Gordon Pape Jr., 19,—was released Sunday by the coroner's office to his parents, who also plan cremation.

Basic clues in the case are the weapon, a .32 caliber revolver belonging to Pape's father, and a letter the boy wrote Susan, threatening to "release all the hell back on you" for refusing to "go steady with him again.

Aue was vice president of a chemical firm. The elder Pape is an investment broker and heads an outdoor movie firm.

Yeggs Miss Loot

LONDON (AP)—Robbers dropped through the ceiling of a London bank Sunday and tried to cut their way into a safe containing nearly $280,000. Bt they ran out of oxyacetylene gas after burning through all but a quarter inch of the safe door.

Moslems Kill 6

ALGIERS (AP)—Moslem nationalist grenade attacks killed 6 Europeans and wounded 26 in Algeria over the weekend, French authorities reported today. The French reported military patrols killed 65 rebels.

Sciotoville Gets Emergency Service

PORTSMOUTH (AP)— Emergency service has now been restored at two of this area's three telephone exchanges. The Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. Sunday restored service at nearby Sciotoville exchange.

Service was restored a week ago at the Portsmouth exchange, leaving only subscribers at the suburban New Boston exchange without service.

The three exchanges were closed last Oct. 15 following stonings of company installations during a strike by the Communications Workers of America.

U.S. Airlines Chalking Up Safety Mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — Commercial Airlines racked up an improved safety record this year and non-scheduled air carriers entered the final week of 1956 without a single passenger fatality, the Civil Aeronautics Administration says.

The CAA estimated the 1956 domestic safety mark for scheduled carriers at 0.62 fatalities per 100 million passenger miles, compared with 0.76 in 1955. A passenger mile is one passenger flown one mile.

No passenger deaths occurred in U. S. lines' international flights. Nonscheduled carriers, flying much less total mileage than the scheduled lines, have recorded no passenger fatalities since Nov. 17, 1955.

CAA estimated total domestic passenger miles flown in 1956 will be 23,183,000,000, compared with 20,550,940,000 in 1955.

The year-end survey made public Sunday said nonscheduled lines have flown some 1,400,000,000 revenue passenger miles since their last fatality.

Scheduled airline passengers totaled 45,860,000 in 1956, CAA estimated, up 11 per cent from the 41,441,000 recorded in 1955.

'Twas Night Before—Well, Here Is Another Version

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

'Twas the night before Christmas, a time one expects
A gent in red flannels to pay his respects.
He's generous, mirthful, inclined to be shy.
But never forget he's a little bit sly.
For some of the gifts he has deep in his sack
Are things you may wish you could make him take back.
It's not that he's mean. He has lots of regrets
That he can't fill in full all the orders he gets.
The trouble of course with some gifts that he brings
Is how long you must wait before cutting the strings.
A recent example was Adlai who thought
Last year at this time he could get what he sought:
A brand new address, for he had a desire
To live in the White House, then maybe retire.
It's a rather nice place, very large, and rent free.
Not modern, but clean, and with more than one tree.
But Ike was the tenant, refusing to budge.
Yet Santa was conscious of Stevenson's nudge.
It made him as nervous as if he had hives,
Since the gifts that he gave they'd recall all their lives.
To Ike he presented a new White House pass
And to Adlai a sign that said "Keep off the Grass."
The moral in this, if there's one to relate,
Is that many a package gets opened up late.

Little Town Is Focal Point For Christmas

Old Tensions Present As Small Pilgrimage Follows Holy Route

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Christians, wherever they are in this troubled world, turned their thoughts today to the little town of Behlehem as Chrismas observances again emphasized the age-old hopes for peace on earth and good will to all men.

In America, the commercial world was tapering off its contribution to the holiday. Tonight, many a church will be packed as the faithful pay tribute to the birth of the Christ.

In Washington, the President is settling down to a family Christmas in the White House. He and Mrs. Eisenhower will be surrounded by their family.

Over in the Holy Land, ancient Jerusalem saw a procession of 1,700 Christian Arabs from Israel crossed into Jordan today on a Yuletide pilgrimage to Christendom's holy places.

The aftermath of recent Middle East hostilities mad this a somber, almost sad Christmas in the Holy Land.

• • •

THE CROSSING began at dawn, and by midmorning hundreds had passed through the Mandelbaum Gate into the Jordanian Old City of Jerusalem.

Usually 7,000 to 10,000 make the pilgrimage. But there was only a sprinkling of pilgrims from foreign lands. The annual influx of tourists, churchmen, scholars and others was all but halted by the recent open warfare.

Many of the pilgrims who made the crossing arrived in Jerusalem by bus from Biblical Nazareth, Jaffa and other Arab communities in Israel.

They will return Tuesday evening after visits to Christian shrines in the Old City and to Bethlehem, two miles south of Jerusalem in Jordan.

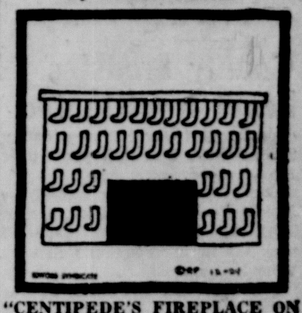
Even as Christian pilgrims gathered in Jerusalem, an Israeli army spokesman reported a raid by Jordanian infiltrators. He said they wrecked a dispensary in a village in northern Israel with a time bomb.

In Jerusalem, the divided holy city where barbed wire fences separate Arab and Jew, Arab Legionnaires and Israeli soldiers

(Continued on Page Two)

DROODLES

By ROGER PRICE



"CENTIPEDE'S FIREPLACE ON CHRISTMAS EVE"

This Droodle reminds me of last Christmas Eve when I got so confused from decorating the tree and wrapping the gifts I put my stocking to bed and hung over the fireplace all night. It was a dopey mistake on my part because when I woke up my mouth was filled with two pairs of Argyle Shorts, a Cigarette Lighter and a Hand Painted Necktie. Actually it was my colleague, Dr. Schwine, who shoved the gifts into my mouth because he was the one who was playing Santa Claus. He admitted it seemed kind of strange for a stocking to have teeth and a tongue but he said he just couldn't think straight because he was so full of Christmas Spirit (Four Roses). Certainly proved to me that it's much better to give than to receive.

COVERING UP THE DIRTY SPOTS AGAIN

ONCE UPON A CHRISTMAS EVE

By WILLIAM RITT

ESKI dries the frightened twins' tears and then gently puts the toy space helmets on them. The Eskimo child is too happy to give the little children the scolding they deserve for so foolishly running off in the Star Ship.

NOT knowing how to operate the Star Ship, Eski decides to leave it behind. Then, with an arm around Dilly and the other around Dally, the Eskimo child steps back onto the Rainbow which waits to return them to Earth.

DOWN, DOWN they glide to Earth where Santa and Mrs. Claus await them. She hugs brave little Eski while Santa beams on the twins. "Now," says Santa, "I can make my Big Trip of the Year with a happy heart!"

AS ESKI waves goodby to Santa, taking off on the Big Trip, the child sees the Rainbow still standing in the sky. "Merry Christmas, Rainbow and Storm King," Eski whispers. "Merry Christmas everyone!" (The End)

Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

To 'Chuck' Harrison, From Circleville's Yuletide Heart

By PAUL SMALLWOOD
Herald Staff Writer

Christmas this year will indeed have a special meaning for Charles Harrison, 524 E. Franklin St.

"Chuck", as he is known by just about everyone in Circleville, has been crippled almost all of his 38 years and confined to a wheel-chair. For the past few years, Chuck's fondest dream has been that some day he might have a motor-equipped scooter to replace his time worn wheel-chair.

Thanks to the efforts of two local men, Forrest Easterday and Ned Harden, plus help from many other community friends and business firms, Chuck's long-awaited dream came true this morning when he was presented with a sparkling new three-wheeled Cushman scooter, equipped with a battery-run motor.

The presentation, made in a true Christmas spirit, took place at Harden's Chevrolet garage on E. Franklin St. The gift came as a complete surprise to Harrison.

* * *

THE ALL-OUT project to get a scooter for the popular invalid got underway about three weeks ago when Harold Dresbach, formerly of this community and now living in California, sent a letter to Easterday and Harden, along with $50, suggesting the idea.

Carrying the ball from there, Easterday and Harden promptly launched a fund raising campaign to carry out Dresbach's suggestion. The drive was a little difficult in that the whole plan had to be conducted secretly so that the presentation, if all went well, would come as a surprise to Harrison.

One of the first contributions came from the local New Car Dealers Association which kicked in with $75. The rest of the money came from well-wishing friends in the community who felt that the project was a worthy Christmas gesture.

The electrical-operated scooter was purchased in Frankfort, Ky., at a cost of $375. It was picked up by Easterday and Harden who traveled there several days ago after being advised that the three-wheeler could be obtained in the Kentucky city at a bargain. The original sale price amounted to over $600.

In order that Chuck could easily and safely operate his new means of transportation, many alterations had to be made. Determined to reach their goal at all costs, Easterday and Harden engineered the changes.

Business friends who assisted in making changes on the scooter included welding done by the Circleville Metal Works, Edison Ave., upholstering seats by Stauffers, E. Franklin St., and body changes by the Ankrom Lumber Co., W. Main St.

* * *

EASTERDAY and Harden performed the necessary mechanical work which included changing gears around so the buggy will be easy to operate. The vehicle also includes a headlight and a horn, both of which will more than serve their intended purposes.

A coat of bright yellow-orange paint was added by the Harden auto agency. The soft and comfortable seat and back-rest was upholstered with a pink colored fabric, giving the scooter a handsome appearance.

Not satisfied with making Harrison undoubtedly the happiest man in Circleville today, Easterday and Harden have gone a little further. They are now in the process of setting up a fund for future operation and maintenance of the scooter.

Local persons desiring to contribute to this fund may do so by contacting Easterday at his service station on Court and Franklin Streets, or Harden at the E. Franklin St. auto agency.

Chuck, who has no source of income, lives with his brother, Vernon and wife.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MARVIN KUHN

Marvin J. Kuhn, 50, of 336 Gurnsey Ave., Columbus, died Sunday in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Mr. Kuhn, raised in the Circleville-Tarlton area, was production manager of a Columbus shoe company. He was a member of the Tarlton Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Esther.

Other survivors include: his father, Jesse Kuhn of Tarlton; a daughter, Cathrine of the home; a son, William of the home; two sisters, Miss Viola Kuhn of Tarlton and Mrs. Bessie Milligan of Columbus and a brother, Alva Kuhn of Logan.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Schoedinger Hilltop Chapel of 3030 W. Broad St. in Columbus.

Burial will be in Sunset Cemetery, Columbus.

Friends may call at the funeral home at any time.

Too Late To Classify

EXPERIENCED cook wanted Fairmont Restaurant. Apply in person.

MAN'S BILLFOLD lost. Contained valuable papers and cash. Generous reward. Ph. 5030.

Midnight Mass Planned Tonight At St. Joseph's

Traditional Midnight Mass will be celebrated here tonight at St. Joseph's Church.

The Senior Choir will sing. Fast for Midnight Mass is three hours before receiving Holy Communion. Fast from liquids is one hour before.

Tomorrow, Christmas Day, Masses at St. Joseph's will be at 8:15 a. m. and 10:15 a. m.

Children of the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades will sing at the early Mass tomorrow. Benediction Tuesday will be at 4:30 p. m.

County Breakins Being Investigated

department today is investigating two breakins that took place over the weekend.

One of the burglaries was at the James Creamer residence, Orient Route 1, where thieves made off with $35 in currency and articles valued at about $50.

The other breakin was at the Vernon Roberts residence, New Holland Route 1. Intruders took approximatey $60 worth of indianhead nickels which were in a piggy-bank.

The burglaries are being investigated by deputies Dwight Radcliff and Charles Felkey.

MARKETS

CASH quotations made to farmers in Circleville:

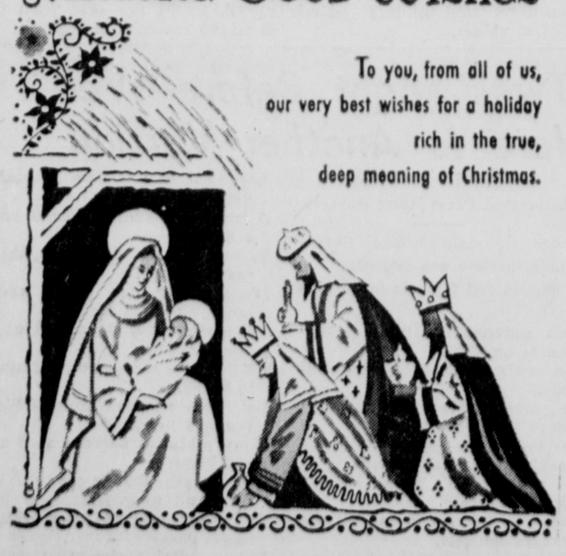
Cream, Regular	.47
Cream, Premium	.52
Eggs	.30
Butter	.69
POULTRY
Heavy Hens	.13
Light Hens	.10
Old Roosters	.09

CIRCLEVILLE CASH GRAIN PRICES

Wheat	2.25
Corn	1.23
Barley	.86
Oats	.66
Beans	2.25

SINCERE GOOD WISHES

To you, from all of us, our very best wishes for a holiday rich in the true, deep meaning of Christmas.



DEFENBAUGH FUNERAL HOME
151 E. Main St. — Phone 411

Little Town Is Focal Point For Christmas

(Continued from Page One)

maintained frontier watch from sandbagged rooftops.

For the first time since the state of Israel was founded eight years ago, Jordanian authorities banned the traditional consular corps procession from Jerusalem to Bethlehem along the route taken by Mary and Joseph.

Suez Canal Cleanup Plan Snagged Again

(Continued from Page One)

ish-French occupation brought a big celebration in Port Said. Thousands paraded in the streets.

The U. N. Emergency Force announced it would shift its attention now from Port Said to the Sinai Peninsula, still largely in the hands of Israeli troops.

The U. N. police are under instructions to supervise Israel's withdrawal from all territory occupied since the Oct. 29 invasion.

New Citizens

MASTER CONLEY

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen Conley of 219 N. Prospect, Ypsilanti, Mich., at 7:08 p. m. Friday in Beyers Hospital in Ypsilanti. Mrs. Conley, the former Martha Sue Johnson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Johnson of 584 Woodland Dr.

MISS RAMSEY

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ramsey of 433 Abernathy Ave. are the parents of a daughter born at 3:37 p. m. Sunday in Berger Hospital.

MISS CHRISTENSEN

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Christensen of Orient are the parents of a daughter born Saturday in Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus.

MASTER JONES

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones of Ashville are the parents of a son born in Mercy Hospital, Columbus, Saturday.

Music Tonight

Hark ye carolers! Christmas music will be played on the organ at the Ray E. Beery home this evening in accordance with neighborhood tradition. The Christmas Eve program will be from midnight until 12:30 a. m. The Beery residence is located at 567 Renick Ave.

The PRAYER FOR TODAY FROM The Upper Room

He came to his own home, and his own people received him not. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God. (John 1:11,12. RSV.)

PRAYER: O God, may the Christ of Christmas abide in our hearts, so that we will not allow earthly cares and responsibilities, not all the festivities of our own devising, to crowd him out. We pray in Christ's name. Amen.

Mainly About People

Mrs. Albert McCain of 369 E. Mound St. was admitted Saturday and released Sunday from Berger Hospital, where she was a medical patient.

Pickaway County Youth Canteen will hold an open dance for all members and guests Wednesday, Dec. 26 from 9 to 12. Music by Rhythmaires. —ad

Linda Stutler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stutler of Amanda Route 1, was admitted Sunday to Berger Hospital as a medical patient.

Wells Restaurant, Rt. 23 North will be closed Tuesday and Wednesday. Open Thursday as usual. —ad.

Mrs. Elmer Davis and son of Circleville were released Saturday from Berger Hospital.

The Mistletoe Ball preparations have been made and all is in readiness. Do you have your baby sitter? Your friends will be dancing to Dick Welches orchestra on Dec. 28 so be sure you enjoy this fine music also. —ad.

Grover Cromley of 406 E. Ohio St. was released Saturday from Berger Hospital, where he was a surgical patient.

Real Silk hosiery. Famous year end half price sale now on. Ph. 830R. Mrs. Roscoe Warren. —ad.

Mrs. Guy Jacobs and daughter of 736 S. Washington St. were released Saturday from Berger Hospital.

Crist Bros. store, W. Main St. will be closed all day Wednesday Dec. 26. —ad.

Mrs. Glen Stevens of Laurelville was released Saturday from Berger Hospital, where she was a medical patient.

PTO of New Holland will sponsor a card party in the school Saturday Dec. 29 starting at 8 p. m. —ad.

Mrs. Troy White of Circleville Route 1 was released Sunday from Berger Hospital, where she was a medical patient.

Mrs. Florence Dean of 334 Walnut St. was released Sunday from Berger Hospital, where she was a surgical patient.

Holiday Dance, Thursday Dec. 27 from 9 to 12 p. m. in the New Holland high school will be sponsored by the PTO. Harold Wilson's Orchestra will furnish music. —ad.

Mrs. Carl Ramsey and daughter of 433 Abernathy Ave. were released Monday from Berger Hospital.

The J. C. Penney Co. store, W. Main St. will remain open all day Wednesday Dec. 26. —ad.

Mrs. Bernard Mogan and son of 142 W. Water St. were released Monday from Berger Hospital.

Darlene Brown of Tarlton was released Monday from Berger Hospital, where she was a surgical patient.

Mrs. Charles Hutchison of Circleville Route 4 was released Sunday from White Cross Hospital, Columbus, where she was a surgical patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Wantz and son John of Wilmington, Del., former residents of Circleville, are spending the holidays in the home of John G. Boggs of W. Union St.

Hospital Death Boosts Local Highway Toll

Pickaway County recorded its first traffic fatality for the month and 22nd of the year when William Dearth, 32, Albany, died of injuries suffered in a crash last Monday on Route 23, about nine miles north of Circleville.

The victim died in University Hospital, Columbus late Friday. Death was caused by severe head injuries.

A member of the U. S. Air Force, Dearth was en route home for the Christmas holidays when the accident happened.

The man's car crashed into a small embankment, plunged through a fence and then rolled over several times.

* * *

DEARTH WAS taken to Lockbourne Air Force Base Hospital and later was transferred to the Columbus Hospital. His condition was critical until the time he died.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Writsel Funeral Home, McArthur.

The airman's death is the first traffic fatality marked against Pickaway County since November 23. No highway fatals were recorded in December of last year.

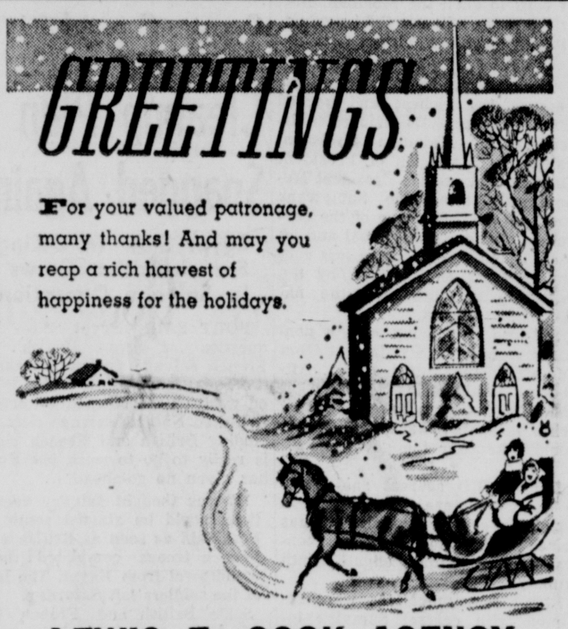
Merry Christmas

May all the delights of this happy Christmas season be enjoyed by you and your family.

EAST END AUTO SALES

GREETINGS

For your valued patronage, many thanks! And may you reap a rich harvest of happiness for the holidays.



LEWIS E. COOK AGENCY
INSURANCE and BONDS
105 West Main St. Phone 17

A Chakeres Theatre
GRAND
Circleville, O.

Last Time Tonight
Randolph Scott
"7 Men From Now"
Bowery Boys
"Spy Chasers"

OUR—
Xmas Treat for You!
A Twin Rock 'N' Sock Show!

ROCK 'N' ROLL vs. "THE SQUARES"
SHAKE, RATTLE AND ROCK!
See FATS DOMINO
JOE TURNER & CHOKER CAMPBELL & His Band
TOMMY CHARLES · ANNITA RAY

AND THEN

SHOCKING STORY OF TEENAGERS IN REVOLT!
RUNAWAY DAUGHTERS
Starring Marla ENGLISH · Anne STEN · John LITEL · Lance FULLER · Adele JERGENS

Spirit of Christmas

As you worship in the Church of your choice, may Christmas bring you the most precious gift of all... peace and contentment. And may the spirit of Him whose birth we celebrate abide with you now and throughout the coming year. May all the true joys of Christmas be yours.

FRED K. MAVIS
EAST MAIN and MOUND PHONE 12-L
SOHIO SERVICE

COVERING UP THE DIRTY SPOTS AGAIN

ONCE UPON A CHRISTMAS EVE

By WILLIAM RITT

ESKI dries the frightened twins' tears and then gently puts the toy space helmets on them. The Eskimo child is too happy to give the little children the scolding they deserve for so foolishly running off in the Star Ship.

NOT knowing how to operate the Star Ship, Eski decides to leave it behind. Then, with an arm around Dilly and the other around Dally, the Eskimo child steps back onto the Rainbow which waits to return them to Earth.

DOWN, DOWN they glide to Earth where Santa and Mrs. Claus await them. She hugs brave little Eski while Santa beams on the twins. "Now," says Santa, "I can make my Big Trip of the Year with a happy heart!"

AS ESKI waves goodby to Santa, taking off on the Big Trip, the child sees the Rainbow still standing in the sky. "Merry Christmas, Rainbow and Storm King," Eski whispers. "Merry Christmas everyone!" (The End)

Distributed by King Features Syndicate

To 'Chuck' Harrison, From Circleville's Yuletide Heart

By PAUL SMALLWOOD
Herald Staff Writer

Christmas this year will indeed have a special meaning for Charles Harrison, 524 E. Franklin St.

"Chuck", as he is known by just about everyone in Circleville, has been crippled almost all of his 38 years and confined to a wheel-chair. For the past few years, Chuck's fondest dream has been that some day he might have a motor-equipped scooter to replace his time worn wheel-chair.

Thanks to the efforts of two local men, Forrest Easterday and Ned Harden, plus help from many other community friends and business firms, Chuck's long-awaited dream came true this morning when he was presented with a sparkling new three-wheeled Cushman scooter, equipped with a battery-run motor.

The presentation, made in a true Christmas spirit, took place at Harden's Chevrolet garage on E. Franklin St. The gift came as a complete surprise to Harrison.

* * *

THE ALL-OUT project to get a scooter for the popular invalid got underway about three weeks ago when Harold Dresbach, formerly of this community and now living in California, sent a letter to Easterday and Harden, along with $50, suggesting the idea.

Carrying the ball from there, Easterday and Harden promptly launched a fund raising campaign to carry out Dresbach's suggestion. The drive was a little difficult in that the whole plan had to be conducted secretly so that the presentation, if all went well, would come as a surprise to Harrison.

One of the first contributions came from the local New Car Dealers Association which kicked in with $75. The rest of the money came from well-wishing friends in the community who felt that the project was a worthy Christmas gesture.

The electrical-operated scooter was purchased in Frankfort, Ky., at a cost of $375. It was picked up by Easterday and Harden who traveled there several days ago after being advised that the three-wheeler could be obtained in the Kentucky city at a bargain. The original sale price amounted to over $600.

In order that Chuck could easily and safely operate his new means of transportation, many alterations had to be made. Determined to reach their goal at all costs, Easterday and Harden engineered the changes.

Business friends who assisted in making changes on the scooter included welding done by the Circleville Metal Works, Edison Ave., upholstering seats by Stauffers, E. Franklin St., and body changes by the Ankrom Lumber Co., W. Main St.

* * *

EASTERDAY and Harden performed the necessary mechanical work which included changing gears around so the buggy will be easy to operate. The vehicle also includes a headlight and a horn, both of which will more than serve their intended purposes.

A coat of bright yellow-orange paint was added by the Harden auto agency. The soft and comfortable seat and back-rest was upholstered with a pink colored fabric, giving the scooter a handsome appearance.

Not satisfied with making Harrison undoubtedly the happiest man in Circleville today, Easterday and Harden have gone a little further. They are now in the process of setting up a fund for future operation and maintenance of the scooter.

Local persons desiring to contribute to this fund may do so by contacting Easterday at his service station on Court and Franklin Streets, or Harden at the E. Franklin St. auto agency.

Chuck, who has no source of income, lives with his brother, Vernon and wife.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MARVIN KUHN

Marvin J. Kuhn, 50, of 336 Gurnsey Ave., Columbus, died Sunday in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Mr. Kuhn, raised in the Circleville-Tarlton area, was production manager of a Columbus shoe company. He was a member of the Tarlton Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Esther.

Other survivors include: his father, Jesse Kuhn of Tarlton; a daughter, Cathrine of the home; a son, William of the home; two sisters, Miss Viola Kuhn of Tarlton and Mrs. Bessie Milligan of Columbus and a brother, Alva Kuhn of Logan.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Schoedinger Hilltop Chapel of 3030 W. Broad St. in Columbus.

Burial will be in Sunset Cemetery, Columbus.

Friends may call at the funeral home at any time.

Too Late To Classify

EXPERIENCED cook wanted Fairmont Restaurant. Apply in person.

MAN'S BILLFOLD lost. Contained valuable papers and cash. Generous reward. Ph. 5030.

Midnight Mass Planned Tonight At St. Joseph's

Traditional Midnight Mass will be celebrated here tonight at St. Joseph's Church.

The Senior Choir will sing. Fast for Midnight Mass is three hours before receiving Holy Communion. Fast from liquids is one hour before.

Tomorrow, Christmas Day, Masses at St. Joseph's will be at 8:15 a. m. and 10:15 a. m.

Children of the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades will sing at the early Mass tomorrow. Benediction Tuesday will be at 4:30 p. m.

County Breakins Being Investigated

department today is investigating two breakins that took place over the weekend.

One of the burglaries was at the James Creamer residence, Orient Route 1, where thieves made off with $35 in currency and articles valued at about $50.

The other breakin was at the Vernon Roberts residence, New Holland Route 1. Intruders took approximatey $60 worth of indianhead nickels which were in a piggy-bank.

The burglaries are being investigated by deputies Dwight Radcliff and Charles Felkey.

MARKETS

CASH quotations made to farmers in Circleville:

Cream, Regular	.47
Cream, Premium	.52
Eggs	.30
Butter	.69
POULTRY
Heavy Hens	.13
Light Hens	.10
Old Roosters	.09
CIRCLEVILLE CASH GRAIN PRICES
Wheat	2.25
Corn	1.23
Barley	.86
Oats	.66
Beans	2.25

Little Town Is Focal Point For Christmas

(Continued from Page One)

maintained frontier watch from sandbagged rooftops.

For the first time since the state of Israel was founded eight years ago, Jordanian authorities banned the traditional consular corps procession from Jerusalem to Bethlehem along the route taken by Mary and Joseph.

Suez Canal Cleanup Plan Snagged Again

(Continued from Page One)

ish-French occupation brought a big celebration in Port Said. Thousands paraded in the streets.

The U. N. Emergency Force announced it would shift its attention now from Port Said to the Sinai Peninsula, still largely in the hands of Israeli troops.

The U. N. police are under instructions to supervise Israel's withdrawal from all territory occupied since the Oct. 29 invasion.

New Citizens

MASTER CONLEY

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen Conley of 219 N. Prospect, Ypsilanti, Mich., at 7:08 p. m. Friday in Beyers Hospital in Ypsilanti. Mrs. Conley, the former Martha Sue Johnson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Johnson of 584 Woodland Dr.

MISS RAMSEY

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ramsey of 433 Abernathy Ave. are the parents of a daughter born at 3:37 p. m. Sunday in Berger Hospital.

MISS CHRISTENSEN

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Christensen of Orient are the parents of a daughter born Saturday in Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus.

MASTER JONES

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones of Ashville are the parents of a son born in Mercy Hospital, Columbus, Saturday.

Music Tonight

Hark ye carolers! Christmas music will be played on the organ at the Ray E. Beery home this evening in accordance with neighborhood tradition. The Christmas Eve program will be from midnight until 12:30 a. m. The Beery residence is located at 567 Renick Ave.

The PRAYER FOR TODAY FROM The Upper Room

He came to his own home, and his own people received him not. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God. (John 1:11,12. RSV.)

PRAYER: O God, may the Christ of Christmas abide in our hearts, so that we will not allow earthly cares and responsibilities, not all the festivities of our own devising, to crowd him out. We pray in Christ's name. Amen.

Mainly About People

Mrs. Albert McCain of 369 E. Mound St. was admitted Saturday and released Sunday from Berger Hospital, where she was a medical patient.

Pickaway County Youth Canteen will hold an open dance for all members and guests Wednesday, Dec. 26 from 9 to 12. Music by Rhythmaires. —ad

Linda Stutler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stutler of Amanda Route 1, was admitted Sunday to Berger Hospital as a medical patient.

Wells Restaurant, Rt. 23 North will be closed Tuesday and Wednesday. Open Thursday as usual. —ad.

Mrs. Elmer Davis and son of Circleville were released Saturday from Berger Hospital.

The Mistletoe Ball preparations have been made and all is in readiness. Do you have your baby sitter? Your friends will be dancing to Dick Welches orchestra on Dec. 28 so be sure you enjoy this fine music also. —ad.

Grover Cromley of 406 E. Ohio St. was released Saturday from Berger Hospital, where he was a surgical patient.

Real Silk hosiery. Famous year end half price sale now on. Ph. 830R. Mrs. Roscoe Warren. —ad.

Mrs. Guy Jacobs and daughter of 736 S. Washington St. were released Saturday from Berger Hospital.

Crist Bros. store, W. Main St. will be closed all day Wednesday Dec. 26. —ad.

Mrs. Glen Stevens of Laurelville was released Saturday from Berger Hospital, where she was a medical patient.

PTO of New Holland will sponsor a card party in the school Saturday Dec. 29 starting at 8 p. m. —ad.

Mrs. Troy White of Circleville Route 1 was released Sunday from Berger Hospital, where she was a medical patient.

Mrs. Florence Dean of 334 Walnut St. was released Sunday from Berger Hospital, where she was a surgical patient.

Holiday Dance, Thursday Dec. 27 from 9 to 12 p. m. in the New Holland high school will be sponsored by the PTO. Harold Wilson's Orchestra will furnish music. —ad.

Mrs. Carl Ramsey and daughter of 433 Abernathy Ave. were released Monday from Berger Hospital.

The J. C. Penney Co. store, W. Main St. will remain open all day Wednesday Dec. 26. —ad.

Mrs. Bernard Mogan and son of 142 W. Water St. were released Monday from Berger Hospital.

Darlene Brown of Tarlton was released Monday from Berger Hospital, where she was a surgical patient.

Mrs. Charles Hutchison of Circleville Route 4 was released Sunday from White Cross Hospital, Columbus, where she was a surgical patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Wantz and son John of Wilmington, Del., former residents of Circleville, are spending the holidays in the home of John G. Boggs of W. Union St.

Hospital Death Boosts Local Highway Toll

Pickaway County recorded its first traffic fatality for the month and 22nd of the year when William Dearth, 32, Albany, died of injuries suffered in a crash last Monday on Route 23, about nine miles north of Circleville.

The victim died in University Hospital, Columbus late Friday. Death was caused by severe head injuries.

A member of the U. S. Air Force, Dearth was en route home for the Christmas holidays when the accident happened.

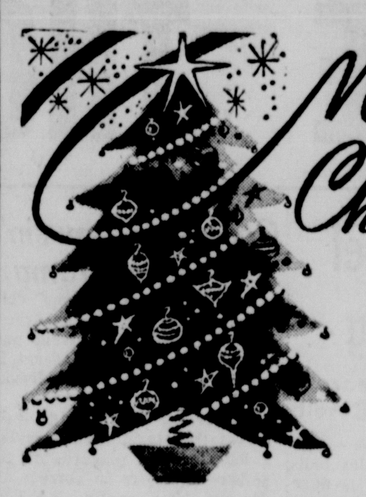
The man's car crashed into a small embankment, plunged through a fence and then rolled over several times.

* * *

DEARTH WAS taken to Lockbourne Air Force Base Hospital and later was transferred to the Columbus Hospital. His condition was critical until the time he died.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Writsel Funeral Home, McArthur.

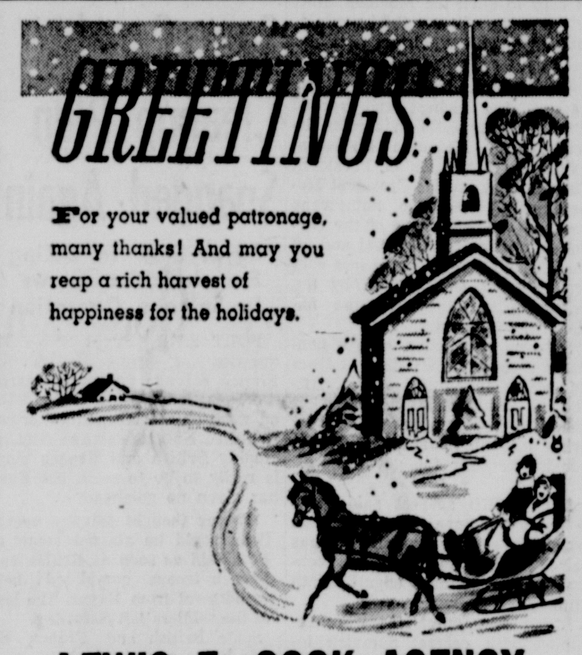
The airman's death is the first traffic fatality marked against Pickaway County since November 23. No highway fatals were recorded in December of last year.



Merry Christmas

May all the delights of this happy Christmas season be enjoyed by you and your family.

EAST END AUTO SALES



GREETINGS

For your valued patronage, many thanks! And may you reap a rich harvest of happiness for the holidays.

LEWIS E. COOK AGENCY
INSURANCE and BONDS
105 West Main St. Phone 17

Spirit of Christmas

As you worship in the Church of your choice, may Christmas bring you the most precious gift of all... peace and contentment. And may the spirit of Him whose birth we celebrate abide with you now and throughout the coming year. May all the true joys of Christmas be yours.

FRED K. MAVIS
EAST MAIN and MOUND PHONE 12-L
SOHIO SERVICE

Sincere Good Wishes

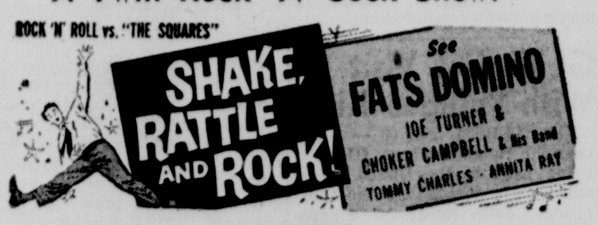
To you, from all of us, our very best wishes for a holiday rich in the true, deep meaning of Christmas.

DEFENBAUGH FUNERAL HOME
151 E. Main St. — Phone 411

Chakeres Theatre
GRAND
Circleville, O.

Last Time Tonight
Randolph Scott
"7 Men From Now"
Bowery Boys
"Spy Chasers"

OUR— Xmas Treat for You!
A Twin Rock 'N' Sock Show!



AND THEN

No Dickering Being Made By Lausche

Friends Say New Ohio Senator Would Shun Any Advance By GOP

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche's friends say he will make no deal with Republicans for control of the U. S. Senate.

Associates of the Democratic senator-elect made the assertion in answer to published reports that "dickering" is under way through intermediaries.

The reports attributed behind-the-scenes activities to White House desire to control the next Senate. Republicans hold only 47 seats and Democrats 49, including the seat Lausche won from Republican Sen. George H. Bender.

Lausche disdains official cognizance of the reports.

"I will not make comment on rumors and gossip," he told newsmen. "My position has been stated. If, at any time, I change my judgment, I will so announce."

But friends of the five-term governor said that privately he termed They quoted him to this effect:

"The story that there has been dickering is positively false, absolutely untrue. No one has spoken to me or contacted me, either directly or indirectly. Any attempt would be resisted and would be futile."

Statements by the governor before the Democratic National Convention last summer and during the senatorial election campaigning may have invited the rumors.

Lausche hinted that under certain conditions he might vote with Republicans to organize the Senate that convenes Jan. 3.

Later he said he would remain governor until the Jan. 14 inauguration of his Republican successor, Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill. By that time the Senate probably will be organized.

The governor declines to say when he actually will go to Washington. Mrs. Lausche is busy packing at the E. Broad Street mansion. After nearly eight consecutive years, she says the problem of separating the Lausche possessions from the mansion inventory adds to the turmoil.

Lausche's secretary, Ray M. White of Millersburg, headed for the national capital to complete living arrangements for himself and attend to details for his boss.

Joseph J. Scanlon of Cincinnati preceded White. The state administrator of workmen's compensation will be on Lausche's Washington staff. An attorney, Scanlon formerly served as Lausche's executive secretary.

The governor appointed Scanlon to the newly-created administrator's post and he continued to serve after a Republican - controlled Ohio Senate failed to confirm him. His new Washington job relieved Scanlon of the certainty of being bumped after O'Neill becomes governor.

Others who will accompany Lausche to Washington are Miss Celie M. Jirsa, Cleveland, his private secretary, and Miss Marie M. King, Washington Court House, his office manager.

Does Your Home Have Dog That Answers Phone?

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — The telephone company trouble shooter was puzzled after Mrs. J. R. Jones told him:

"We never leave the receiver off the hook. We never answer any ring on the party line but our own."

The telephone rang. Into the room bounded Lindy, the family's sheep dog. With a sweep of his paw, Lindy knocked the phone from its stand, the receiver flying to the end of the cord.

There's no more trouble — the phone is now out of Lindy's battering reach.

Snakes Alive!

YORK, Pa. — Farmer Lawrence Barbour dug into a pile of sawdust and spotted a copperhead snake. Then he spotted another. And another. And still more. He called his wife and before the afternoon was over they had killed 150 copperheads ranging from 16 to 18 inches long.

Noted Minister Warns Spirit Of Service Needed

When you've caught the secret of giving, and of sharing with others, you just can't worry, Dr. Harvey C. Hahn, pastor of the Otterbein church, Dayton, told Ohio 4-H club advisers and guests at a luncheon meeting in the Youth Center on the Ohio State fairgrounds.

The noted minister, who, as a boy in Cleveland, sold newspapers and shined shoes to help support his five sisters and brother, blamed lack of security for many of our present-day troubles.

"The great majority of people in the United States today," he said, "look on security as something you can hold. But security is not what we can hold, what we can count, or what we can place a price tag on. It is what we can translate into service to our fellow men.

"Think of the five persons who have contributed most to the development of your own character and personality," the speaker told members of his audience. "Then ask yourself how much of the world's goods they possess . . . . What you have isn't too important. It's what you give away that counts. . . . The more you give away, the more God and society will try to give back to you."

Dr. Hahn's audience included 4-H club advisers in tractor, auto and electrical projects who were attending a series of training clinics at the fairgrounds.

Just One Thing

MERRILL, Wis.—Here's another unusual occupation. S. G. Browman makes and sells totem poles.

Greetings

From

BOYER'S SANDWICH SHOP

Wishing one and all a Merry Christmas, Good Health, Happiness and God's richest blessing all thro the New Year!

Air Force Pilots To Get New Type Pressure Suits

An improved, emergency partial pressure suit for high altitude flight is being prepared for the Air Force.

Developed for the Air Research and Development Command's Wright Air Development Center, the new suit, which comes in two versions, already has been used successfully for several record flights.

It was used by Air Force pilots flying the X-2 rocket research aircraft to altitudes never before reached by man; it was used by two Navy officers who recently set a balloon ltitude record of 75,000 feet, and even more recently, was worn by a WADC officer to an altitude of 198,770 feet in an altitude chamber test.

Like previous emergency pressure garments, it is worn by pilots and crewmen flying at high altitude for protection in the event the aircraft cabin pressure fails and they are exposed to the extremely low air pressure found at those altitudes. Without such protection a man would die above 50,000 feet.

The new suit, which will replace the Air Force's present T-1 suit, is more comfortable, and provides more protection and mobility.

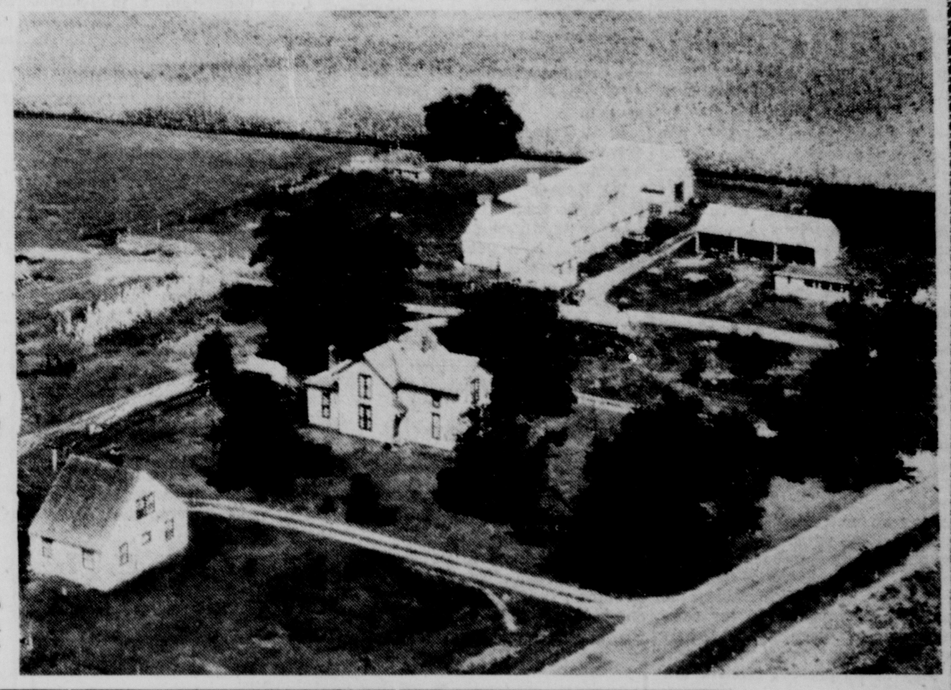
COME SEE! COME SAVE! at A&P

Powdered Sugar	2	1-lb. boxes	27c
Sauer Kraut A&P, No. 2½ can	2	for	33c
Corn Beef Armour	12-oz. can		39c
Apple Sauce A&P	4	16-oz. cans	59c

Read The Daily Herald Classifieds

Can You Identify This "Mystery Farm"?

Nobody knows whose farm the aerial photographer has snapped . . . so its up to the owner to identify his farm.



Each week the owner of the "Mystery Farm" shown will receive—

FREE

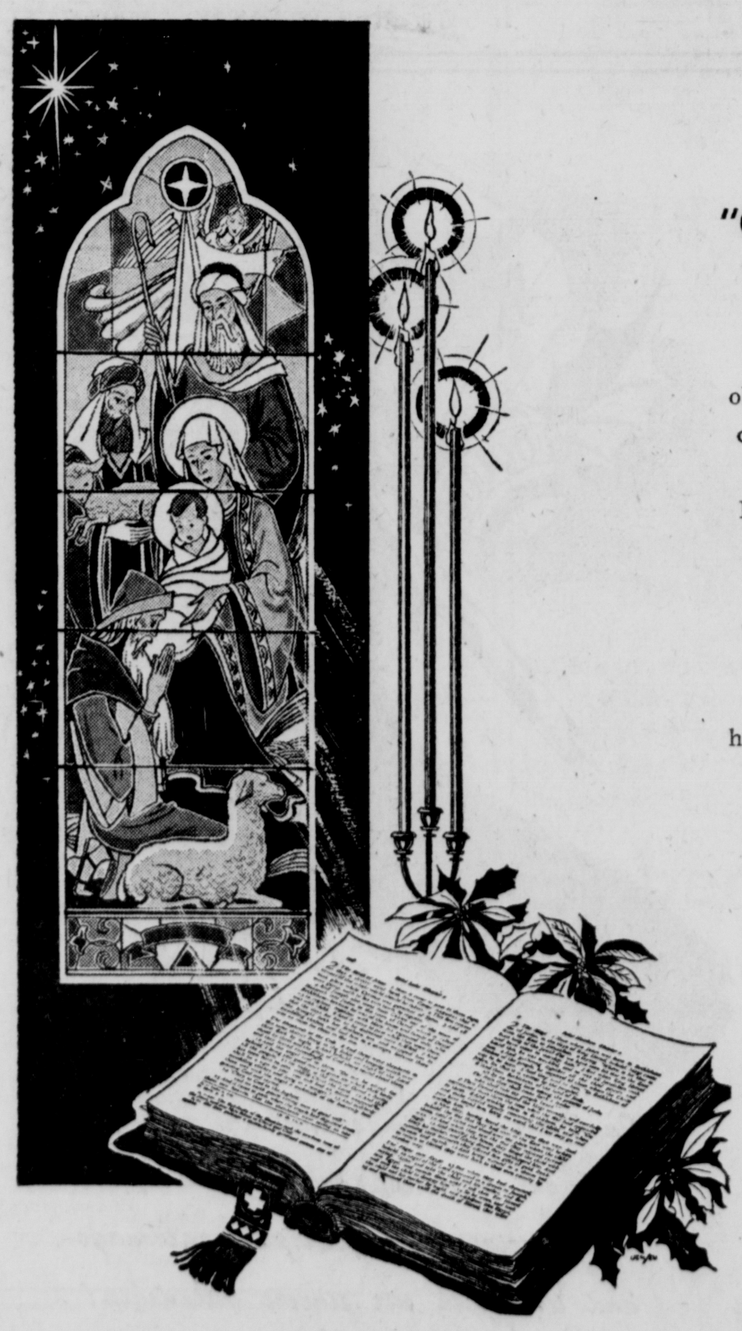
A Beautiful Mounted Photo Of His Farm By Calling At Mason Furniture

We invite you to watch our Ad each week and identify the "Mystery Farm".

LAST WEEK'S MYSTERY FARM WINNER: T. D. Van Camp
Route 2 — Williamsport

This Series Is Published In The Interest of Better Farming In Pickaway County Each Monday By Mason Furniture — 121 - 23 N. Court — Circleville, Ohio.

Attend Your Church on Christmas Day

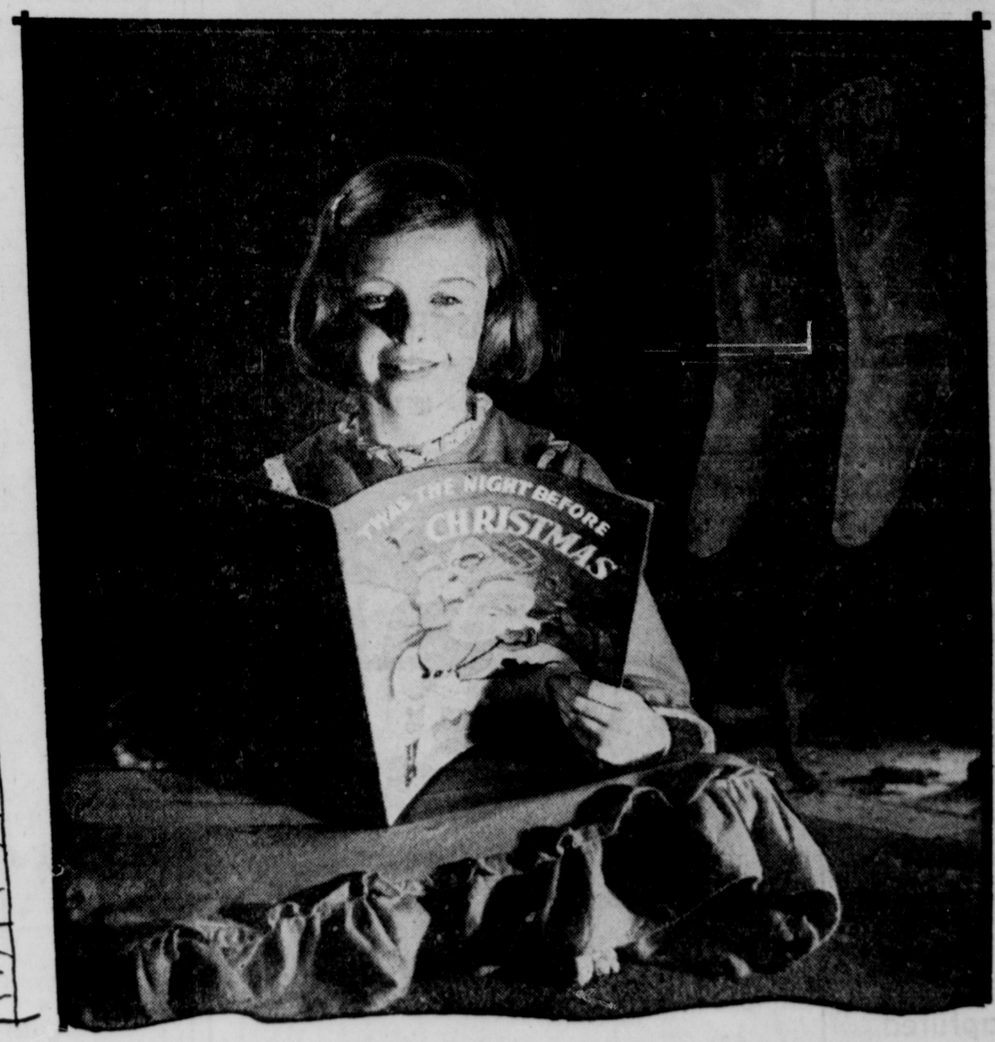


"O, COME LET US ADORE HIM"

Let us remember and observe the true meaning of Christmas . . . the birth of the little Child in Bethlehem, and all that is good in the world. Christmas belongs to everyone, for it expresses all that is happy and peaceful in the human heart. Enrich your appreciation of Christmas by planning to attend the church of your choice.

Glitt's Restaurant ● Dairy Bar
Glitt's Ice Cream

Merry Christmas From All Of Us To All Of You



What magic Christmas holds for children . . . Santa Claus and sugar plums and wonderful, glittering dreams! May you recapture the enchantment of the Yuletide Season, and may all your fondest hopes and dreams come true at Christmas!

Mason Furniture

121 - 23 N. COURT CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO PHONE 225

No Dickering Being Made By Lausche

Friends Say New Ohio Senator Would Shun Any Advance By GOP

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche's friends say he will make no deal with Republicans for control of the U. S. Senate.

Associates of the Democratic senator-elect made the assertion in answer to published reports that "dickering" is under way through intermediaries.

The reports attributed behind-the-scenes activities to White House desire to control the next Senate. Republicans hold only 47 seats and Democrats 49, including the seat Lausche won from Republican Sen. George H. Bender.

Lausche disdains official cognizance of the reports.

"I will not make comment on rumors and gossip," he told newsmen. "My position has been stated. If, at any time, I change my judgment, I will so announce."

But friends of the five-term governor said that privately he termed They quoted him to this effect:

"The story that there has been dickering is positively false, absolutely untrue. No one has spoken to me or contacted me, either directly or indirectly. Any attempt would be resisted and would be futile."

Statements by the governor before the Democratic National Convention last summer and during the senatorial election campaigning may have invited the rumors.

Lausche hinted that under certain conditions he might vote with Republicans to organize the Senate that convenes Jan. 3.

Later he said he would remain governor until the Jan. 14 inauguration of his Republican successor, Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill. By that time the Senate probably will be organized.

The governor declines to say when he actually will go to Washington. Mrs. Lausche is busy packing at the E. Broad Street mansion. After nearly eight consecutive years, she says the problem of separating the Lausche possessions from the mansion inventory adds to the turmoil.

Lausche's secretary, Ray M. White of Millersburg, headed for the national capital to complete living arrangements for himself and attend to details for his boss.

Joseph J. Scanlon of Cincinnati preceded White. The state administrator of workmen's compensation will be on Lausche's Washington staff. An attorney, Scanlon formerly served as Lausche's executive secretary.

The governor appointed Scanlon to the newly-created administrator's post and he continued to serve after a Republican - controlled Ohio Senate failed to confirm him. His new Washington job relieved Scanlon of the certainty of being bumped after O'Neill becomes governor.

Others who will accompany Lausche to Washington are Miss Celie M. Jirsa, Cleveland, his private secretary, and Miss Marie M. King, Washington Court House, his office manager.

Does Your Home Have Dog That Answers Phone?

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — The telephone company trouble shooter was puzzled after Mrs. J. R. Jones told him:

"We never leave the receiver off the hook. We never answer any ring on the party line but our own."

The telephone rang. Into the room bounded Lindy, the family's sheep dog. With a sweep of his paw, Lindy knocked the phone from its stand, the receiver flying to the end of the cord.

There's no more trouble — the phone is now out of Lindy's battering reach.

Snakes Alive!

YORK, Pa. — Farmer Lawrence Barbour dug into a pile of sawdust and spotted a copperhead snake. Then he spotted another. And another. And still more. He called his wife and before the afternoon was over they had killed 150 copperheads ranging from 16 to 18 inches long.

Noted Minister Warns Spirit Of Service Needed

When you've caught the secret of giving, and of sharing with others, you just can't worry, Dr. Harvey C. Hahn, pastor of the Otterbein church, Dayton, told Ohio 4-H club advisers and guests at a luncheon meeting in the Youth Center on the Ohio State fairgrounds.

The noted minister, who, as a boy in Cleveland, sold newspapers and shined shoes to help support his five sisters and brother, blamed lack of security for many of our present-day troubles.

"The great majority of people in the United States today," he said, "look on security as something you can hold. But security is not what we can hold, what we can count, or what we can place a price tag on. It is what we can translate into service to our fellow men.

"Think of the five persons who have contributed most to the development of your own character and personality," the speaker told members of his audience. "Then ask yourself how much of the world's goods they possess . . . . What you have isn't too important. It's what you give away that counts. . . . The more you give away, the more God and society will try to give back to you."

Dr. Hahn's audience included 4-H club advisers in tractor, auto and electrical projects who were attending a series of training clinics at the fairgrounds.

Just One Thing

MERRILL, Wis.—Here's another unusual occupation. S. G. Browman makes and sells totem poles.

Greetings

From

BOYER'S SANDWICH SHOP

Wishing one and all a Merry Christmas, Good Health, Happiness and God's richest blessing all thro the New Year!

Air Force Pilots To Get New Type Pressure Suits

An improved, emergency partial pressure suit for high altitude flight is being prepared for the Air Force.

Developed for the Air Research and Development Command's Wright Air Development Center, the new suit, which comes in two versions, already has been used successfully for several record flights.

It was used by Air Force pilots flying the X-2 rocket research aircraft to altitudes never before reached by man; it was used by two Navy officers who recently set a balloon ltitude record of 75,000 feet, and even more recently, was worn by a WADC officer to an altitude of 198,770 feet in an altitude chamber test.

Like previous emergency pressure garments, it is worn by pilots and crewmen flying at high altitude for protection in the event the aircraft cabin pressure fails and they are exposed to the extremely low air pressure found at those altitudes. Without such protection a man would die above 50,000 feet.

The new suit, which will replace the Air Force's present T-1 suit, is more comfortable, and provides more protection and mobility.

COME SEE! COME SAVE! at A&P

Powdered Sugar	2	1-lb. boxes	27c
Sauer Kraut A&P, No. 2½ can	2	for	33c
Corn Beef Armour	12-oz. can		39c
Apple Sauce A&P	4	16-oz. cans	59c

Read The Daily Herald Classifieds

Can You Identify This "Mystery Farm"?

Nobody knows whose farm the aerial photographer has snapped . . . so its up to the owner to identify his farm.

★

Each week the owner of the "Mystery Farm" shown will receive—

FREE

A Beautiful Mounted Photo Of His Farm By Calling At Mason Furniture

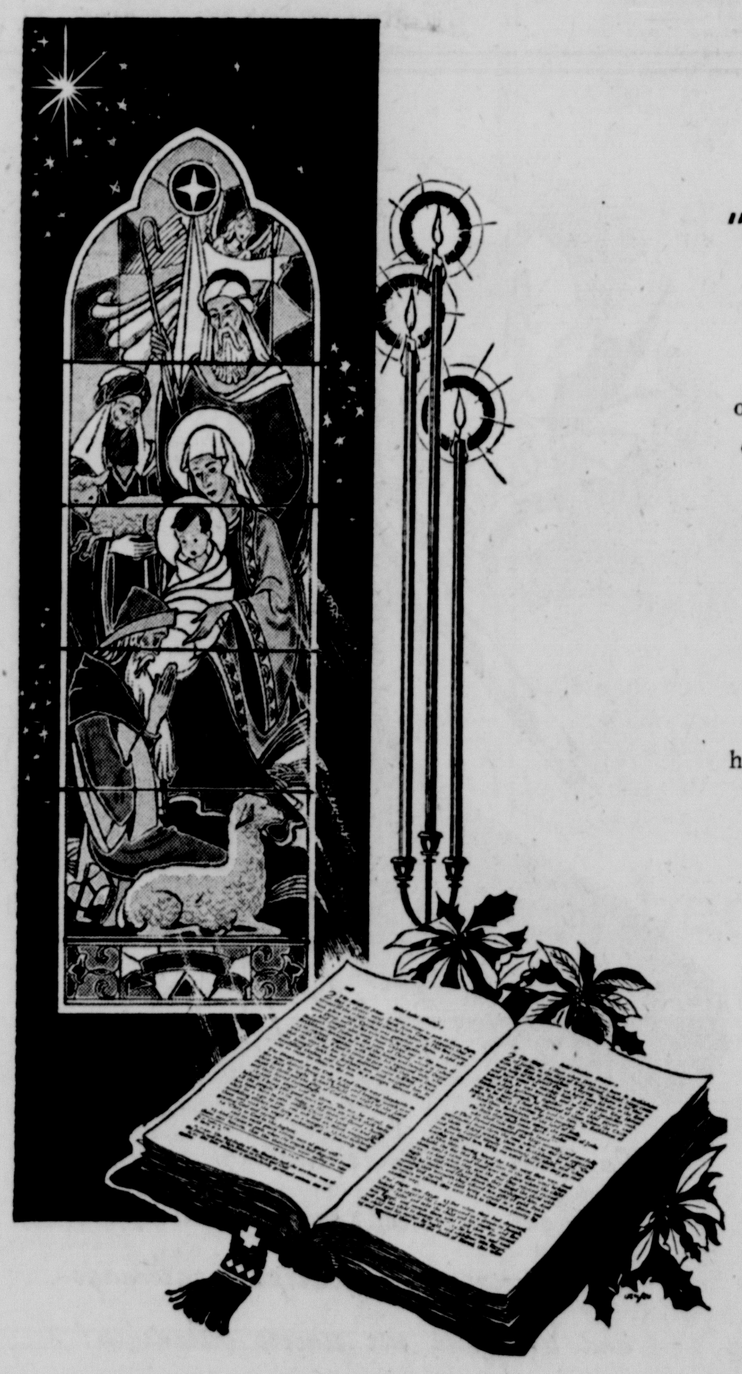
★

We invite you to watch our Ad each week and identify the "Mystery Farm".

LAST WEEK'S MYSTERY FARM WINNER: T. D. Van Camp
Route 2 — Williamsport

This Series Is Published In The Interest of Better Farming In Pickaway County Each Monday By Mason Furniture — 121 - 23 N. Court — Circleville, Ohio.

Attend Your Church on Christmas Day



"O, COME LET US ADORE HIM"

Let us remember and observe the true meaning of Christmas . . . the birth of the little Child in Bethlehem, and all that is good in the world. Christmas belongs to everyone, for it expresses all that is happy and peaceful in the human heart. Enrich your appreciation of Christmas by planning to attend the church of your choice.

Glitt's Restaurant ● Dairy Bar
Glitt's Ice Cream

Merry Christmas From All Of Us To All Of You

What magic Christmas holds for children . . . Santa Claus and sugar plums and wonderful, glittering dreams! May you recapture the enchantment of the Yuletide Season, and may all your fondest hopes and dreams come true at Christmas!

Mason Furniture

121 - 23 N. COURT CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO PHONE 225

Santa Bringing Nice Prospects For Business

Statisticians Waxing Optimistic Although Contradictory Now

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—For consumers Santa Claus is bringing tonight the promise of a two month let up in the rise of the cost of living. For many industrial workers he is bringing the contractual pledge of higher wage scales. He is putting price rises in the stockings of the railroads, steel mills, producers of industrial materials.

For many factories the benign saint offers the prospect of full production for several months more. For wage earners in general he is promising plentiful jobs through the winter. For merchants he has a flock of well heeled if more sober minded customers.

If some of these things — like rising wage scales, higher prices but a steady cost of living — seem contradictory, remember it's Christmas Eve when even government statisticians and credit executives take the most pleasant view.

The Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics thinks living costs should hold steady through February and maybe dip a little because of upcoming clothing sales. As a whole they never were higher than at present.

Polling 146 credit executives of manufacturing, wholesale, financial and service companies, the Credit Research Foundation reports more than half of them expecting an increase in capital outlay for plant expansion and look for government purchasing to stay as high. Three fourths of them expect prices and sales volume to increase next year, and for competition to get keener, too. Nearly two thirds look for unemployment to stay at its present relative low level.

But the managers of business credit also fear there will be more marginal accounts, many of them short of working capital and slower collections.

The National Assn. of Credit Men polled 100 financial executives and found their average guess of where the wholesale price index of all commodities would be at midyear in 1957 as 115.97, compared with 114.2 July 1, 1956. They thought, however, that the industrial production index of the Federal Reserve Board, now at 145, would drop back to 142.5 next summer.

Take home pay of the average factory worker is now at a new record high, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, which says the gain in the buying power of the worker was more than the rise in the cost of living.

The living cost increase will mean a three cents an hour boost in pay for steel workers. Many long term labor contracts also call for automatic wage scale boosts.

Prices are going up, too. Freight rates and passenger fares are going up on the railroads. Steel mills are boosting the prices of some products and talking more about a general price increase. So are the oil men.

But balancing it all out, almost everyone can find at least one bright prospect this Christmas. — either higher pay or a steady job or a higher price on his products.

Something New: Class 'Thinks'!

BENTON HARBOR, Mich.—The air is filled with brain waves at Benton Harbor's class in "creative thinking."

The idea factory was thought up by Michigan State University Prof. Harold E. Gray. His students are junior executives, research engineers and advertising men.

The class gets together for two hours once a week and thinks. It starts out with fantastic ideas, then narrows discussion to practical solutions for local problems.

Prof. Gray says he hopes eventually the class will be able to "free its thought" to develop new ideas in work and hobbies.

2 Boys Captured For Theft Series

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two 16-year-old boys, described by police as from 'well-to-do" Hamilton families, were taken into custody Sunday by officers who said they admitt series of thefts here and in Middletown, and Newport and Covington, Ky.

Investigators said the two were stopped by an off-duty officer who became suspicious when he saw eight cases of liquor in the back seat of their auto. Police said the boys said they committed the thefts for 'thrills."

Wesleyan Receives $57,300 Grant

DELAWARE (AP)—A $57,300 grant has been awarded to Ohio Wesleyan University by the National Science Foundation to finance a summer training course for high school physics and chemistry teachers.

Dr. Alan T. Waterman, foundation director, announced Sunday that the course would run from June 17 t August 10.

Cork 'Paving' Reduces Noise

DENVER—A two-inch blanket of cork was laid under a downtown Denver street to keep traffic noise out of the basement of a new hotel and department store.

After excavating under the street for the basement, workmen placed a new surface on one block of Court Place, between 15th and 16th streets.

The cork was placed atop a concrete slab that makes up the ceiling of the fourth floor of the huge basement. Five layers of waterproofing were placed on the cork before a 10-inch concrete slab was poured to form the foundation for a two-inch asphalt street surface.

'Shine' In Alaska Can Break You

FAIRBANKS, Alaska — Prices are high in Alaska, but a guy normally doesn't hand over $1,265 for a shoeshine.

Dale Webb did — and got the shine while standing in the snow at Fairbanks' busiest street intersection.

It all came about because of a drive to raise funds for a new YMCA building.

Ed Hansen, his team captain, told Webb that if he reported next week with $1,000 pledged for the campaign, he'd get a shoe shine at the corner of Second and Cushman.

Webb came through with pledges for $1,265. Hansen paid off his end of the bargain the next day.

Relatives Always Come In Crowds

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kremer had to rent a lodge when they invited relatives to celebrate Thanksgiving with them.

Their own modern home didn't provide enough elbow room for the Kremers, 12 children and 28 grandchildren.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Why do women wish to have children? Let's pass over the ready notion that "a wife's instinctive desire is to reproduce her husband" — for this can't be the only reason. But is love of husband the ruling motive?

I suppose my instinct should give me the answer to the question, but it doesn't. And I wish I could find someone with whom to discuss this (would a marriage counsellor be appropriate?)—but, as I can't think of a suitable confidante, I would appreciate your comment.

I can understand a man's motives for parenthood: If he is dissatisfied with his work situation, he may count on children to make his life seem more worthwhile. Or he may want children to "carry on the family name." And of course he doesn't have to bear the primary physical burden of caring for children.

I am not altogether a cynic. I realize that life contains joy and satisfaction as well as sorrow. But still it seems to me that everyone born undergoes so much unpleasantness and sorrow that it is decidedly better not to have offspring.

I believe there are many fine people in the world, whose lives are governed by unselfishness and high principles. And I remember, too, that God instructed the creatures who came out of the Ark to "Go forth and multiply." Yet, judging from comment I have heard, most parents are selfishly motivated.

I've heard women say they desire the special love that children give you. Or that they want children to take care of them in their old age. Or they think children are interesting and "cute."

Obviously I've missed something in life, for judging by the number of children born, there must be very good reasons for having them. And why the great demand for children to adopt, if they aren't much to be desired?

E. J.

DEAR E. J.: There are many things one might say in response to your inquiry. First, women who wish to bear children are in tune with universal life, truly accepting their biological function in the cosmic scheme of things. The urge to parenthood issues from Creation itself—from the power back of all things—hence has "reasons" that transcend mere human reckoning.

Second, the gist of your preoccupation, as I see it, is a gnawing conviction that you neglected to "cash in" on a vital potential, now cancelled, when you failed to bear children in years when it might have been possible.

You don't specify whether you are a spinster or a married woman. But whichever you are, it is a safe guess that: (1) You are now either past, or nearing the end, of the child bearing age, (2) a sense of diminishing physical life in yourself stirs a haunting anxiety that you haven't developed adequately (much less fully) the life that's been given you.

Such a reaction to regret amounts to taking an escapist tack, as regards the pain of reality. The better attitude is: (1) Face "what is"—for example, the fact that one didn't have children: for reasons that seemed sufficient in the past, even if they don't quite satisfy now and (2) try to discover, or establish, some on-going, profoundly significant relationship to the whole-of-life.

This is the only way to outgrow mistakes and losses, and be of good cheer in making best use of the here-and-now, without further waste of life. For help in seeing life whole, and getting your bearings for future years, you might read Frank Sheed's book "Society And Sanity" (Sheed & Ward).

M. H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

Dragnet Stuff

CHEYENNE, Wyo. — Cheyenne police had no trouble tracking down one stolen car. They simply followed the tire tracks in fresh snow to a garage where the stolen vehicle was being hidden.

Parisians Head For Mountains

PARIS (AP) — A lot of Parisians are spending the Christmas holiday in the snow-capped mountains—to get warm.

The snug ski lodges in the Alps looked increasingly attractive as the government announced new cuts in the fuel oil for homes and apartments. Ski lodges laid in their fuel early and are now warm as toast.

Some 300,000 Parisians headed for the mountains, compared with 200,000 last year. Railroad stations were jammed.

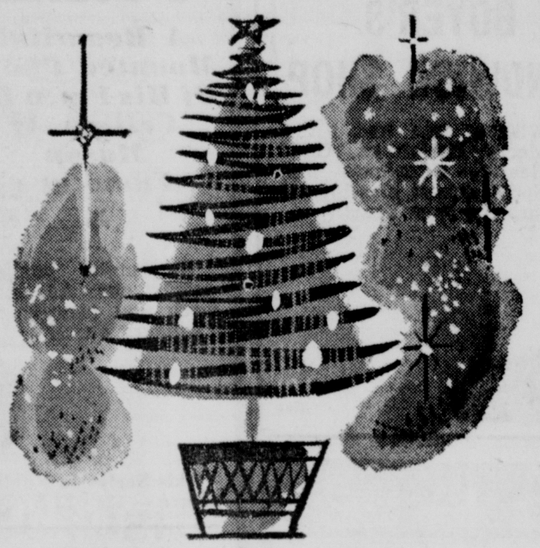
Termite Control

Extermination — Fumigation
INSECTS — RODENTS
Columbus Pest Control
1284 W. Broad St. — Columbus, Ohio
C. O. LEIST—958-X
Local Representative

Read The Daily Herald Classifieds

To greet you at Christmas... our warm, sincere wishes for a glad and glorious holiday. May the inspiration of the Christmas story ever be a comfort and a joy to you and yours.

NED DRESBACH
Suppliers of Sinclair Products
768 S. PICKAWAY — PHONE 331



Wishing you all the joys of the Season — Good health, good friends, good cheer!

FAIRMONT RESTAURANT
138 W. Main — Circleville

HARTRANFT'S GAS SERVICE
TARLTON, OHIO
Phone Circleville 4072

Just a friendly greeting to wish you and yours all the joys of a Merry Christmas and a New Year full of healthy and happy days.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Fosnaugh
Bonnie and Connie

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fosnaugh
Linda and Jimmy Allen

Charles Sabine | Johnnie Howard
Kathryn Spangler | Frank Drake

to All -- at this Merry Christmas Time!

Your John Deere Dealer
MARSHALL IMPLEMENT CO.

In Your Christmas stocking, may you find our warmest greetings, wrapped in appreciation for your past patronage and tied with our sincere friendship!

Pickaway Dairy
Producer Owned and Operated

Santa Bringing Nice Prospects For Business

Statisticians Waxing Optimistic Although Contradictory Now

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—For consumers Santa Claus is bringing tonight the promise of a two month let up in the rise of the cost of living. For many industrial workers he is bringing the contractual pledge of higher wage scales. He is putting price rises in the stockings of the railroads, steel mills, producers of industrial materials.

For many factories the benign saint offers the prospect of full production for several months more. For wage earners in general he is promising plentiful jobs through the winter. For merchants he has a flock of well heeled if more sober minded customers.

If some of these things — like rising wage scales, higher prices but a steady cost of living — seem contradictory, remember it's Christmas Eve when even government statisticians and credit executives take the most pleasant view.

The Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics thinks living costs should hold steady through February and maybe dip a little because of upcoming clothing sales. As a whole they never were higher than at present.

Polling 146 credit executives of manufacturing, wholesale, financial and service companies, the Credit Research Foundation reports more than half of them expecting an increase in capital outlay for plant expansion and look for government purchasing to stay as high. Three fourths of them expect prices and sales volume to increase next year, and for competition to get keener, too. Nearly two thirds look for unemployment to stay at its present relative low level.

But the managers of business credit also fear there will be more marginal accounts, many of them short of working capital and slower collections.

The National Assn. of Credit Men polled 100 financial executives and found their average guess of where the wholesale price index of all commodities would be at midyear in 1957 as 115.97, compared with 114.2 July 1, 1956. They thought, however, that the industrial production index of the Federal Reserve Board, now at 145, would drop back to 142.5 next summer.

Take home pay of the average factory worker is now at a new record high, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, which says the gain in the buying power of the worker was more than the rise in the cost of living.

The living cost increase will mean a three cents an hour boost in pay for steel workers. Many long term labor contracts also call for automatic wage scale boosts.

Prices are going up, too. Freight rates and passenger fares are going up on the railroads. Steel mills are boosting the prices of some products and talking more about a general price increase. So are the oil men.

But balancing it all out, almost everyone can find at least one bright prospect this Christmas, — either higher pay or a steady job or a higher price on his products.

Something New: Class 'Thinks'!

BENTON HARBOR, Mich.—The air is filled with brain waves at Benton Harbor's class in "creative thinking."

The idea factory was thought up by Michigan State University Prof. Harold E. Gray. His students are junior executives, research engineers and advertising men.

The class gets together for two hours once a week and thinks. It starts out with fantastic ideas, then narrows discussion to practical solutions for local problems.

Prof. Gray says he hopes eventually the class will be able to "free its thought" to develop new ideas in work and hobbies.

2 Boys Captured For Theft Series

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two 16-year-old boys, described by police as from 'well-to-do" Hamilton families, were taken into custody Sunday by officers who said they admitt series of thefts here and in Middletown, and Newport and Covington, Ky.

Investigators said the two were stopped by an off-duty officer who became suspicious when he saw eight cases of liquor in the back seat of their auto. Police said the boys said they committed the thefts for 'thrills."

Wesleyan Receives $57,300 Grant

DELAWARE (AP)—A $57,300 grant has been awarded to Ohio Wesleyan University by the National Science Foundation to finance a summer training course for high school physics and chemistry teachers.

Dr. Alan T. Waterman, foundation director, announced Sunday that the course would run from June 17 t August 10.

Cork 'Paving' Reduces Noise

DENVER—A two-inch blanket of cork was laid under a downtown Denver street to keep traffic noise out of the basement of a new hotel and department store.

After excavating under the street for the basement, workmen placed a new surface on one block of Court Place, between 15th and 16th streets.

The cork was placed atop a concrete slab that makes up the ceiling of the fourth floor of the huge basement. Five layers of waterproofing were placed on the cork before a 10-inch concrete slab was poured to form the foundation for a two-inch asphalt street surface.

'Shine' In Alaska Can Break You

FAIRBANKS, Alaska — Prices are high in Alaska, but a guy normally doesn't hand over $1,265 for a shoeshine.

Dale Webb did — and got the shine while standing in the snow at Fairbanks' busiest street intersection.

It all came about because of a drive to raise funds for a new YMCA building.

Ed Hansen, his team captain, told Webb that if he reported next week with $1,000 pledged for the campaign, he'd get a shoe shine at the corner of Second and Cushman.

Webb came through with pledges for $1,265. Hansen paid off his end of the bargain the next day.

Relatives Always Come In Crowds

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kremer had to rent a lodge when they invited relatives to celebrate Thanksgiving with them.

Their own modern home didn't provide enough elbow room for the Kremers, 12 children and 28 grandchildren.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Why do women wish to have children? Let's pass over the ready notion that "a wife's instinctive desire is to reproduce her husband" — for this can't be the only reason. But is love of husband the ruling motive?

I suppose my instinct should give me the answer to the question, but it doesn't. And I wish I could find someone with whom to discuss this (would a marriage counsellor be appropriate?)—but, as I can't think of a suitable confidante, I would appreciate your comment.

I can understand a man's motives for parenthood: If he is dissatisfied with his work situation, he may count on children to make his life seem more worthwhile. Or he may want children to "carry on the family name." And of course he doesn't have to bear the primary physical burden of caring for children.

I am not altogether a cynic. I realize that life contains joy and satisfaction as well as sorrow. But still it seems to me that everyone born undergoes so much unpleasantness and sorrow that it is decidedly better not to have offspring.

I believe there are many fine people in the world, whose lives are governed by unselfishness and high principles. And I remember, too, that God instructed the creatures who came out of the Ark to "Go forth and multiply." Yet, judging from comment I have heard, most parents are selfishly motivated.

I've heard women say they desire the special love that children give you. Or that they want children to take care of them in their old age. Or they think children are interesting and "cute."

Obviously I've missed something in life, for judging by the number of children born, there must be very good reasons for having them. And why the great demand for children to adopt, if they aren't much to be desired?

E. J.

DEAR E. J.: There are many things one might say in response to your inquiry. First, women who wish to bear children are in tune with universal life, truly accepting their biological function in the cosmic scheme of things. The urge to parenthood issues from Creation itself—from the power back of all things—hence has "reasons" that transcend mere human reckoning.

Second, the gist of your preoccupation, as I see it, is a gnawing conviction that you neglected to "cash in" on a vital potential, now cancelled, when you failed to bear children in years when it might have been possible.

You don't specify whether you are a spinster or a married woman. But whichever you are, it is a safe guess that: (1) You are now either past, or nearing the end, of the child bearing age, (2) a sense of diminishing physical life in yourself stirs a haunting anxiety that you haven't developed adequately (much less fully) the life that's been given you.

Such a reaction to regret amounts to taking an escapist tack, as regards the pain of reality. The better attitude is: (1) Face "what is"—for example, the fact that one didn't have children: for reasons that seemed sufficient in the past, even if they don't quite satisfy now and (2) try to discover, or establish, some on-going, profoundly significant relationship to the whole-of-life.

This is the only way to outgrow mistakes and losses, and be of good cheer in making best use of the here-and-now, without further waste of life. For help in seeing life whole, and getting your bearings for future years, you might read Frank Sheed's book "Society And Sanity" (Sheed & Ward).

M. H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

Dragnet Stuff

CHEYENNE, Wyo. — Cheyenne police had no trouble tracking down one stolen car. They simply followed the tire tracks in fresh snow to a garage where the stolen vehicle was being hidden.

Parisians Head For Mountains

PARIS (AP) — A lot of Parisians are spending the Christmas holiday in the snow-capped mountains—to get warm.

The snug ski lodges in the Alps looked increasingly attractive as the government announced new cuts in the fuel oil for homes and apartments. Ski lodges laid in their fuel early and are now warm as toast.

Some 300,000 Parisians headed for the mountains, compared with 200,000 last year. Railroad stations were jammed.

Termite Control

Extermination — Fumigation

INSECTS — RODENTS

Columbus Pest Control

1284 W. Broad St. — Columbus, Ohio

C. O. LEIST—958-X

Local Representative

Read The Daily Herald Classifieds

HARTRANFT'S GAS SERVICE

TARLTON, OHIO

Phone Circleville 4072

Wishing you all the joys of the Season — Good health, good friends, good cheer!

FAIRMONT RESTAURANT

138 W. Main — Circleville

To greet you at Christmas... our warm, sincere wishes for a glad and glorious holiday. May the inspiration of the Christmas story ever be a comfort and a joy to you and yours.

NED DRESBACH

Suppliers of Sinclair Products

768 S. PICKAWAY — PHONE 331

Just a friendly greeting to wish you and yours all the joys of a Merry Christmas and a New Year full of healthy and happy days.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Fosnaugh
Bonnie and Connie

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fosnaugh
Linda and Jimmy Allen

Charles Sabine | Johnnie Howard

Kathryn Spangler | Frank Drake

In Your Christmas stocking, may you find our warmest greetings, wrapped in appreciation for your past patronage and tied with our sincere friendship!

Pickaway Dairy

Producer Owned and Operated

to All -- at this Merry Christmas Time!

Your John Deere Dealer

MARSHALL IMPLEMENT CO.

Merry Christmas

Ed Wallace
STATE REPRESENTATIVE

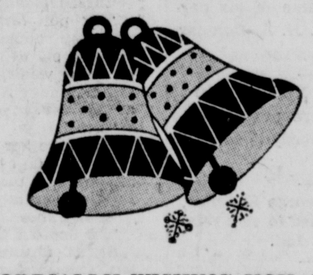
Noel

May joy be with you during this Holiday Season!

Charles Radcliffe
SHERIFF

Sincerest wishes for a very Merry Christmas to all our friends!

Paul Brown
INSURANCE



CORDIALLY WISHING YOU ALL
A JOLLY YULETIDE SEASON!

Optometrists of Circleville
BILL SPEAKMAN, D. S. GOLDSCHMIDT,
R. E. HEDGES

A Christmas carol of joyous wishes for a very Happy Holiday!

Johnson Insurance Agy
216 S. Court — Phone 146

Our best wishes for the very happiest of Holiday Seasons!

Circleville Staff of the Prudential Insurance Co.

Leroy Slusser	Roscoe Warren
Howard Glitt	Ted Culp
Eugene Owens	Paul O'Day
Franklin Glitt	Luella Lape

Just dropped in to wish you a holiday seasons as jolly as old St. Nick himself, and to thank you for the pleasure and privilege of serving you.

Bob Colville
COUNTY TREASURER

May peace of mind, good health and lasting friendships shine among the brightest of your Christmas ornaments.

Mack Parrett
REALTOR

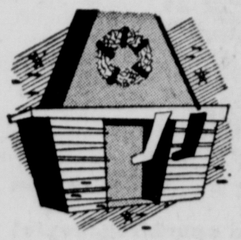
May your Holidays be filled with peace and happiness in all ways.

Henry McCrady
COUNTY ENGINEER

May your home be warm and bright with the holiday spirit, at Christmas and all through the New Year.

Season's Greetings

Boyd Horn
CITY COUNCILMAN



Warmest wishes for a joy-filled Holiday Season!

Ray Carroll
M. D.

In the spirit of Christmas, we wish our friends and patrons a happy holiday season, filled with all of the good things of life.

Robert Huffer
Attorney-At-Law

MERRY CHRISTMAS

FLORENCE CAMPBELL
County Recorder

A HAPPY HOLIDAY TO ALL!

BEN H. GORDON
Chairman
City Council

Here's hoping Santa brings you and your family a wealth of Christmas blessings and a bright, prosperous New Year.

P. C. ROUTZAHN
D. O.

I join Santa in wishing you lots of good cheer. May all your Christmas dreams come true, and may you have the brightest, merriest Yuletide ever.

Verna O'Hara
COUNTY AUDITOR

MAY YOU HAVE THE BEST
CHRISTMAS EVER!

CIRCLEVILLE POLICE FORCE

ELMER MERRIMAN — Chief
Sgt. George Green — Sgt. Leroy Hawks
Sgt. Samuel Ross

Ptl. Rod List	Ptl. Richard Anderson
Ptl. Robert Temple	Ptl. William Brungs
Ptl. Russel Ogan	Ptl. Donald Adams
Ptl. Forrest Sowards	Ptl. Fred Vogt

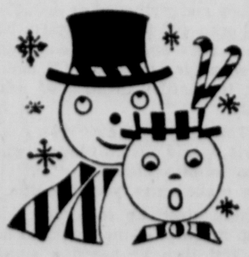
— Special Police —
Ptl. John Lockard, Ptl. Wesley Barton
Ptl. Homer Adams

Greetings Friends!
Wishing you all
Holiday Happiness

KENNETH ROBBINS
Attorney-At-Law

A time for joy, a time for peace, a time for season's cheer . . . a time to wish you all the happiest New Year.

Dentists of Circleville



BEST WISHES

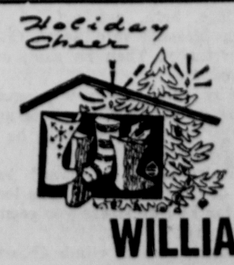
Earl Smith
Attorney-At-Law

Merry Christmas

Ned Griner, M.D.
Ruth — Angie — Tommy

. . . and best wishes for the happiest of Holidays!

JAMES MOWERY
CLERK OF COURTS



May your gifts include all the best life has to offer . . . good health, good fortune . . . true friends and deep happiness.

WILLIAM AMMER
Prosecuting Attorney

Merry Christmas

Ed Wallace
STATE REPRESENTATIVE

May joy be with you during this Holiday Season!

Charles Radcliffe
SHERIFF

Sincerest wishes for a very Merry Christmas to all our friends!

Paul Brown
INSURANCE

Our best wishes for the very happiest of Holiday Seasons!

Circleville Staff of the Prudential Insurance Co.

Leroy Slusser	Roscoe Warren
Howard Glitt	Ted Culp
Eugene Owens	Paul O'Day
Franklin Glitt	Luella Lape

CORDIALLY WISHING YOU ALL A JOLLY YULETIDE SEASON!

Optometrists of Circleville
BILL SPEAKMAN, D. S. GOLDSCHMIDT, R. E. HEDGES

A Christmas carol of joyous wishes for a very Happy Holiday!

Johnson Insurance Agy
216 S. Court — Phone 146

Just dropped in to wish you a holiday seasons as jolly as old St. Nick himself, and to thank you for the pleasure and privilege of serving you.

Bob Colville
COUNTY TREASURER

May peace of mind, good health and lasting friendships shine among the brightest of your Christmas ornaments.

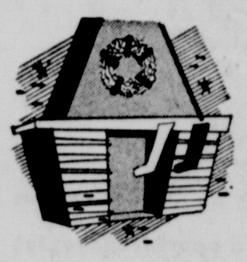
Mack Parrett
REALTOR

May your Holidays be filled with peace and happiness in all ways.

Henry McCrady
COUNTY ENGINEER

May your home be warm and bright with the holiday spirit, at Christmas and all through the New Year.

Boyd Horn
CITY COUNCILMAN



Warmest wishes for a joy-filled Holiday Season!

Ray Carroll
M. D.

In the spirit of Christmas, we wish our friends and patrons a happy holiday season, filled with all of the good things of life.

Robert Huffer
Attorney-At-Law

MERRY CHRISTMAS

FLORENCE CAMPBELL
County Recorder

A HAPPY HOLIDAY TO ALL!

BEN H. GORDON
Chairman
City Council

Here's hoping Santa brings you and your family a wealth of Christmas blessings and a bright, prosperous New Year.

P. C. ROUTZAHN
D. O.

I join Santa in wishing you lots of good cheer. May all your Christmas dreams come true, and may you have the brightest, merriest Yuletide ever.

Verna O'Hara
COUNTY AUDITOR

MAY YOU HAVE THE BEST CHRISTMAS EVER!

CIRCLEVILLE POLICE FORCE

ELMER MERRIMAN — Chief
Sgt. George Green — Sgt. Leroy Hawks
Sgt. Samuel Ross

Ptl. Rod List	Ptl. Richard Anderson
Ptl. Robert Temple	Ptl. William Brungs
Ptl. Russel Ogan	Ptl. Donald Adams
Ptl. Forrest Sowards	Ptl. Fred Vogt

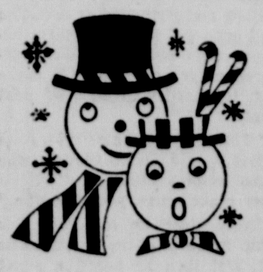
— Special Police —
Ptl. John Lockard, Ptl. Wesley Barton
Ptl. Homer Adams

Merry Christmas

Ned Griner, M.D.
Ruth — Angie — Tommy

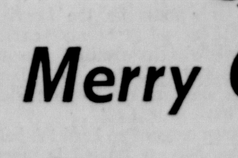
A time for joy, a time for peace, a time for season's cheer . . . a time to wish you all the happiest New Year.

Dentists of Circleville



BEST WISHES

Earl Smith
Attorney-At-Law



May your gifts include all the best life has to offer . . . good health, good fortune . . . true friends and deep happiness.

WILLIAM AMMER
Prosecuting Attorney

. . . and best wishes for the happiest of Holidays!

JAMES MOWERY
CLERK OF COURTS

Greetings Friends! Wishing you all Holiday Happiness

KENNETH ROBBINS
Attorney-At-Law

The Circleville Herald

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, Established 1883 and The Daily Union Herald, Established 1894

Published Evenings Except Sunday By THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY 210 North Court Street, Circleville

T. E. WILSON ..... PUBLISHER

Member Ohio Newspaper Association, Associated Press, Central Press Association and the Ohio Select List.

SUBSCRIPTION

Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory. By carrier in Circleville, 35c per week. By mail per year within Pickaway County, $7 in advance. Zones one and two $10 per year in advance. Beyond first and second postal zones, per year $12 in advance.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

CHRISTMAS

SUPERNATURALLY heralded, Jesus came into a world of slavery and oppression nearly 2,000 years ago. His appearance was good tidings to relatively few who appreciated the significance: That the Heavenly Power had sent a representative to walk among men and suggest a chart for their troubled course.

The Great Physician penetrated all the pains and fears of the earthbound, and prescribed the simple remedy of love. He realized the difficulty of fulfillment in a man-made order accenting intolerance and hatred. The hatred pressed closely upon the Teacher who moved always in the shadow of the Cross.

During woe-ridden generations that have come and gone only a handful have approached the high ideal of loving your neighbor as yourself. But the ideal is as much a must for this era as for the world of the despotic Caesars. Indeed it is more imperative now that man rein in his ungoverned passions. The discovery of ingenious devices will be self-destructive unless the prescription of love hems in our eating cancers.

The wonder of the Child born long ago in Bethlehem, the gift of God to his children here on earth, cannot be compassed in a phase or an observance or even a gift. All we can do falls short of the splendor that shone around on that night long ago when the angels sang of peace on earth and good will among men.

But who would give up trying, even for such a reason. Lighting the trees, hanging the stockings, doing the things we do at Christmas—all that is keeping faith with the spirit of the day. It is giving, and at this time we know in truth that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

No, we can never quite catch the spirit of this festival in any net of words or deeds. We can only say, out of the depths of our hearts, "Merry Christmas."

H-BOMB WAR OR NONE?

INEVITABLY the world military situation continues to shift toward major reliance on nuclear weapons by the major powers.

Agreement by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations to equip a shrunken NATO army with nuclear weapons produced in the United States is one indication of the trend. Building military forces along traditional lines would be impossibly burdensome and would deprive NATO nations of too much manpower needed in civilian production.

Russia likewise is building up its nuclear striking power rapidly. Moscow has a manpower problem as a result of satellite uncertainty and the necessity of keeping many Russian divisions in satellite countries.

Russia is shifting from reliance on infantry strength to reliance on a nuclear arsenal.

This isn't a pleasant thought. The nations had large supplies of lethal gas in World War II but withheld it in fear of reprisals. They had other weapons and ample manpower with which to wage war.

Now all plans are centering on weapons of terrific explosive power that require smaller concentrations of armed personnel. Thus will the sense of self-survival be put to a test. If the knowledge that the next war has to be waged with nuclear weapons or not at all doesn't give ambitious aggressors pause, nothing can do so.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

It will be a cold Christmas for many people in this world this year—for cold and homeless and frightened folks who have made their fight for freedom and who have seen their folks, their women and children crushed under the Russian tanks. Zhukov, the murderer, has visited their land and has left his footmarks in blood.

In Poland, it is cold, very cold. It is always cold in Poland during the Winter, but this year, it is something special. Nobody can know what will happen and whatever it is, it will not be good. The tanks are riding over human bodies in Hungary. Will they ride over human bodies in Poland soon? Will they tear up Czechoslovakia as they have torn up Hungary? Who can know what will come when Butcher Zhukov comes to the other satellites as he came to Hungary?

Will they sing their ancient carol:
"Good king Wenceslas look'd out,
On the Feast of Stephen,
When the snow lay round about,
Deep and crisp and even: . . ."
This reminds men of happier days:
". . . Therefore, Christian men, be sure,
Wealth or rank possessing,
Ye who now will bless the poor,
Shall yourselves find blessing."

But those were cheerful days when young people could sing because they did not fear to sing, as now they fear everything. And they even fear Christmas because they cannot imagine what the atheists will do this Christmas. How will they get out of their dilemma? Will they make war to make men and women and children forget? And if they make war, who will be hurt?

In those countries now the nights are long and folks must be silent because who is the spy? Who will tell about what one says to the other? Who is the spy? Who will tell the secret police?

And so folks just sit. They are not talk. They dare not listen to the radio lest they hear something they should not hear. They dare not speak; they dare not listen. They dare not worship; they dare not sing the ancient Christmas carols, some of which curiously were sung originally during the Spring festivals when men were pagans but not theists and that does make a difference somehow.

So it is not to be the kind of Christmas they are accustomed to in Hungary or Poland or Bohemia where the food was always so plentiful and good to eat and there were always special cakes which were only baked for the Christmas and toward which all the children looked forward for a whole year.

Now they look for the road to refuge and for the airplane that will bring them to sanctuary in the United States. And some will manage to get to the United States before Christmas and they will hear the carol which have somehow become universal throughout Europe, Catholic and Protestant.

Adeste Fideles!

"O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant, O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem."

(Continued on Page Nine)

LAFF-A-DAY

"Will somebody please take a letter?"

Looking Back In Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Approximately 1,000 Circleville youngsters were given Christmas treats by Santa Claus during a special program held beside the community Christmas tree at the courthouse lawn.

Robert Moon arrived home from the U. S. Navy for a 15-day leave.

Dr. and Mrs. V. D. Kerns, N. Scioto St., returned home from a two-weeks visit in Florida.

TEN YEARS AGO

Circleville was all set to observe its second post war Christmas.

Howard Moore was spending the Christmas holidays with his mother Mrs. Howard B. Moore, S. Court St.

Pvt. Richard Bumgarner was on furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bumgarner, Ashville.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

City firemen were preparing to distribute toys to needy children in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Crites, S. Court St., planned to visit relatives in Madison, Ind.

Charles Morris, a student at Ohio University, Athens, was spending his Christmas vacation at his home in Saltcreek Township.

You're Telling Me!

By WILLIAM RITT
Central Press Writer

Just around the corner—of the calendar—are the football Bowl games. They go under various names but no matter what the monicker, for the participating colleges they're loaded with gravy.

For a generation or so the original Bowl game, the Rose, bloomed in solitary grandeur.

Then a number of ambitious southern towns made a great discovery—there's gold in them there post-season grid games!

Now, New Year's Day is noted for three things—good resolutions, hangovers and spectacular football kaffee klatches.

When it comes to names for these mid-winter pigskin pageants, the sky's the limit. There's even one named after the Sun.

Considering the season there's one Bowl extravaganza that has a perfect tag—it's called the Refrigerator.

Promoters of these annual Jan. 1 jamborees always try to match outstandingly good grid teams. This could become monotonous. Why not a game between the two worst clubs of the season? It could be called the Zero Bowl!

The Liberty Bell in Philadelphia cracked in 1835 while tolling for the funeral of John Marshall, chief justice of the Supreme Court.

The most notable and best preserved prehistoric cliff dwellings in the United States are in Mesa Verde National park in southwestern Colorado.

The original cost of the White House was defrayed from the state of land in Maryland and Virginia.

Bennett Cerf's

Try, Stop Me

Ralph Johnston, of Colorado State College, tells of a bookseller who found the pickings so slender, he wound up with only one asset of any value: a somewhat battered grand piano. His one customer who could afford to buy it was a wealthy but persnickety widow. She was not interested—and told him so emphatically.

"But, grandma," he insisted, "you can't take your money with you." She replied, "I can take it a darn sight easier than that —— pianner."

Henny Youngman was trying to describe the splendors of a big TV producer's new domicile. "He's become so elegant," proclaimed Henny, "that his foyer is now covered with a Persian rug—made out of real Persians!"

Dr. Morris Fishbein dropped into Lindy's delicatessen and boasted that he had lunched that day at the White House. Mr. Lindy had only one question: "What did they serve for dessert?"

Small Venom

By WILLIAM MOLE

© 1955 by William Mole. Reprinted by permission of the book's publisher, Dodd, Mead & Co. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER 23

STRUTT paused to take a sip of lager, and then continued to report on Macfarlane.

"Yesterday evening Mac goes out to Putney and collects his fiancee . . ."

"Fiancee?"

"Girl named Jean Shaw. Disraeli Road, Putney. She lodges there. They go out for a walk on the Heath. They have a row, poor souls. She walks off with her head in the air, trying not to cry. Mac goes back to his flat in Shaftesbury Avenue. We keep an eye on the joint. After half-and-hour in goes Perry. Three-quarters of an hour out they come, Mr. Perry looking as pleased as anything. They go to a pub. The argument goes on. Macfarlane looks pretty harrassed. He drinks gin, too much gin, but he gets home all right. There you are."

"They've quarrelled?"

"Yes."

"About what?"

"The loot. Crooks always do."

"I think it's the girl. Perry's afraid of her. He thinks Marfarlane might spill to her. He thinks she might go to the Police."

"She wouldn't go to the Police if her boy-friend's mixed up in blackmail," Strutt observed wryly.

"What's the girl's address?" Casson asked.

Strutt gave it to him.

"You're not going to try your deadly charm on her?"

Casson grinned.

"I'll put Mrs. Baker on the job, my housekeeper. She's a friendly old dear and as cunning as you wouldn't suspect. Has Macfarlane got a daily cleaner at his flat?"

"Yes."

"Give me her address too. Mrs. Baker can do her as well as Macfarlane and the girl. Does Macfarlane normally drink?"

"Don't know. Too early to say."

"I'll find out."

Strutt finished his lager and left. Casson went back to Mount Street to instruct Mrs. Baker.

Her reports were tantalizing. The young man and the girl continued to quarrel. A nice, quiet girl, commented Mrs. Baker, Lowland Scots and a decent sort. Macfarlane saw Perry almost every evening, always in a pub. He drank more than Perry and he drank more than was good for him. From his daily cleaner Mrs. Baker learned that her young man never had a drop of drink in the house and, as far as she knew, never drank anyway.

For Casson and Strutt the strain grew. Obviously the moment was approaching ripeness but Strutt counselled delay. Let the plum drop, he urged. Casson was compelled to agree.

Strutt's reports on Perry produced only one new factor. He went to Brighton for the day. He took a room in the same hotel. He stayed in his room the whole time. He travelled back to London in the evening. It was identical with the outing which he had made before he blackmailed Mrs. Gordonstoun.

Later that week Mrs. Baker returned to Mount Street at a quarter to one, smelling strongly of port but completely sober.

"Had a regular do, they did, sir," she related. "Thought I'd better come and tell you. The two gentlemen sat in the saloon bar from seven till half-past ten and had to see each other home. That's to say Mr. Perry saw the young gentleman home because he wasn't so unsteady, sir. He stays in the young gentleman's flat till a bit before midnight. He comes out and shuts the door. Least, he starts to. He fumbles in his sleeve . . ."

"In his sleeve?"

"In both sleeves. He looks fussed. He hunts in his pockets. He brings a handkerchief out of his trousers pocket, looks at it for a moment, and tucks it up his sleeve. He shuts the door. He goes off to the Underground at Piccadilly. Sober as a judge he was then. Least, that's how he looked."

It seemed as though Macfarlane was breaking at last.

Casson tossed in bed, listening to the wind sighing in Farm Street Gardens. Why was Perry fussed about his handkerchief? He obviously did not want to blow his nose and, if he had left it in the flat he could have got it back from Macfarlane the next day. Unless there was some reason why it shouldn't be left there. What reason? Something had happened.

He woke early and was out of the flat before breakfast. He was heavy with doubt, certain that somehow he and Strutt had miscalculated. He walked quickly to Shaftesbury Avenue, found the apartment house in which Macfarlane lived, and went in.

He stopped on the fourth floor. There was a smell of gas. He sniffed and raced up the last flight. The smell got stronger. He found the door and hammered on it. There was no reply. He bent down to sniff at the keyhole and recoiled. He hammered on the door again, then turned to run down the stairs and fetch the porter.

He got down two flights when he met a stout, red-cheeked woman puffing her way up.

"Are you Mr. Macfarlane's — do you clean for him?" he demanded.

"Yes."

"Give me the key," he said. "Something's happened."

Casson grabbed it and opened the door. He choked.

"Stay in the hall," he shouted behind him, groping his way into a dark room beyond it and switching on the lights. He saw a door ahead of him. He wrenched the handle, opened it and rushed in. He tripped and fell with a crash against the bed, coughing with the cloying intensity of the smell. He staggered into the other room, took a deep breath, and went back into the bedroom, making a rush at the window. He found it, ripped back the flimsy curtains, and flung up the bottom sash. Daylight and fresh air flooded in.

He took one look at the rumpled bed and a second at the fireplace. But the cleaner had followed him, coughing continually, and was lumbering towards the gas fire.

"Don't touch it!" Casson yelled. He pulled his handkerchief out of his pocket, wound it round his hand, gripped the gas-tap by its edges, and turned it off.

"Out of here! Quick!" he ordered the woman.

He turned towards the bed. Macfarlane lay there, fully dressed, his tie pulled down from his throat, tousled, unshaven, sprawling.

Casson bent over him and felt for his heart. He straightened up and walked carefully back to the door. Jim Marfarlane was not only tousled; he was also dead.

Casson is convinced Macfarlane was murdered. Don't miss tomorow's installment of Small Venom.

© 1955 by William Mole. Reprinted by permission of the book's publisher, Dodd, Mead & Co. Distributed by King Features Syndicate

Santa's Right On Schedule --By Hal Boyle

Editor's Note: "Will Santa Claus really come to our house?" That is the most anxious question in America today. It is answered in the following column, written for parents to read aloud to their children. Since its first appearance in 1948, it has become a scrapbook favorite in many homes.

NORTH POLE (AP)—He's off!

Santa Claus is on his way at last!

The jolly old saint and his famous reindeer are zooming through the Arctic skies right now, heading for the American border. He will reach it tonight.

The northern lights switched on to a clear steady green—the 'go ahead' signal. And the Royal Canadian Mounted Police sent Santa this message:

'We are clearing all air lanes in your path, old boy. There is no speed limit for you tonight. The sky is yours. Go as fast as you like. Good luck!'

And Santa needed that wide, clear road in the sky. For his big red sled was piled so high with gifts if overflowed. It looked like a flying hayrack as it raced through the crisp cold air.

'Oh, dear, oh dear,' worried Santa, just before the takeoff. 'I do hope none of these presents fall out and bean some poor innocent rabbit down below. I believe this must be the heaviest load I've had in twenty years.'

"What is he fretting about?' whispered Donder to Vixen. 'He's only riding in that sled. We have to pull it.'

Vixen laughed so hard the bells on his harness tinkled in merry music. And all the other reindeer laughed, too.

As Santa Claus climbed up into the seat of the sled, panting a little because he has gained some weight this winter, three black and white penguins waddled across the snow in front of the reindeer.

'Here, here, get out of the way, please," said Santa Claus importantly. Then he said, surprised:

'Why what are you penguins doing up at the North Pole anyway? You're supposed to be at the South Pole."

"We're on a vacation,' said one of the penguins. 'We're looking for Florida. Have you seen it anywhere?'

"Climb aboard, climb aboard,' boomed Santa. "I'll drop you off there. But I must say this is the first time I ever picked up three hitchhikers wearing tuxedoes."

Just then Mrs. Santa Claus came running out waving a long piece of paper.

"You almost forgot your list of good children," she said.

"Never mind," said Santa ,"I don't need it. This year I am going to give a present to every little boy and girl, good or bad. The bad ones will feel sorry then, because they know they don't deserve a nice present. It'll make 'em try harder to be good next year."

"That isn't according to Hoyle," said Mrs. Claus, who likes to play bridge. "But it does make sense, you old softie."

Santa stood up to crack his whip in the air—the signal to be off. But then he heard a small voice crying:

It was Cluny, Santa's favorite little elf. The other elves gossiped about Cluny and said she was clumsy at making toys. But Santa knew it was only because she was so young. He liked her because she had a good heart.

"Here," said the tiny elf, holding up a small shiny figure.

"What's this? What's this?" grumbled Santa. "You're too late. My pack is already loaded."

"It is only my present to the world," said Cluny. "I made it at night in my room—all by myself."

Santa took the little figure from her hands. It was a beautiful angel with butterfly wings and a robe of purest white. In her hand the angel held a small magic wand.

"It is the angel of peace," explained Cluny.

"Why, Cluny!" said Santa.

"This is better than all the other gifts put together. I'll see that your angel waves her wand for one day at least over every home in the land."

And he picked up Cluny and gave her a big whisker-tickly kiss on her cheek. Then he picked up his long whip again and cracked it sharply in the frosty air.

"Ho, ho, ho, here we go!" he roared. "Ho, ho, ho! Here we go!"

The eight reindeer leaped forward and the big sled began sliding through the snow. Faster, faster, faster, faster—and then they were off the round and into the air.

Santa was on his way. And tonight, if you go to bed, he will come to your house, wherever you are.

The Circleville Herald

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, Established 1883 and The Daily Union Herald, Established 1894.

Published Evenings Except Sunday By THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY 210 North Court Street, Circleville

T. E. WILSON ..... PUBLISHER

Member Ohio Newspaper Association, Associated Press, Central Press Association and the Ohio Select List.

SUBSCRIPTION

Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory. By carrier in Circleville, 35c per week. By mail per year within Pickaway County, $7 in advance. Zones one and two $10 per year in advance. Beyond first and second postal zones, per year $12 in advance.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

CHRISTMAS

SUPERNATURALLY heralded, Jesus came into a world of slavery and oppression nearly 2,000 years ago. His appearance was good tidings to relatively few who appreciated the significance: That the Heavenly Power had sent a representative to walk among men and suggest a chart for their troubled course.

The Great Physician penetrated all the pains and fears of the earthbound, and prescribed the simple remedy of love. He realized the difficulty of fulfillment in a man-made order accenting intolerance and hatred. The hatred pressed closely upon the Teacher who moved always in the shadow of the Cross.

During woe-ridden generations that have come and gone only a handful have approached the high ideal of loving your neighbor as yourself. But the ideal is as much a must for this era as for the world of the despotic Caesars. Indeed it is more imperative now that man rein in his ungoverned passions. The discovery of ingenious devices will be self-destructive unless the prescription of love hems in our eating cancers.

The wonder of the Child born long ago in Bethlehem, the gift of God to his children here on earth, cannot be compassed in a phase or an observance or even a gift. All we can do falls short of the splendor that shone around on that night long ago when the angels sang of peace on earth and good will among men.

But who would give up trying, even for such a reason. Lighting the trees, hanging the stockings, doing the things we do at Christmas—all that is keeping faith with the spirit of the day. It is giving, and at this time we know in truth that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

No, we can never quite catch the spirit of this festival in any net of words or deeds. We can only say, out of the depths of our hearts, "Merry Christmas."

H-BOMB WAR OR NONE?

INEVITABLY the world military situation continues to shift toward major reliance on nuclear weapons by the major powers.

Agreement by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations to equip a shrunken NATO army with nuclear weapons produced in the United States is one indication of the trend. Building military forces along traditional lines would be impossibly burdensome and would deprive NATO nations of too much manpower needed in civilian production.

Russia likewise is building up its nuclear striking power rapidly. Moscow has a manpower problem as a result of satellite uncertainty and the necessity of keeping many Russian divisions in satellite countries.

Russia is shifting from reliance on infantry strength to reliance on a nuclear arsenal.

This isn't a pleasant thought. The nations had large supplies of lethal gas in World War II but withheld it in fear of reprisals. They had other weapons and ample manpower with which to wage war.

Now all plans are centering on weapons of terrific explosive power that require smaller concentrations of armed personnel. Thus will the sense of self-survival be put to a test. If the knowledge that the next war has to be waged with nuclear weapons or not at all doesn't give ambitious aggressors pause, nothing can do so.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

It will be a cold Christmas for many people in this world this year—for cold and homeless and frightened folks who have made their fight for freedom and who have seen their folks, their women and children crushed under the Russian tanks. Zhukov, the murderer, has visited their land and has left his footmarks in blood.

In Poland, it is cold, very cold. It is always cold in Poland during the Winter, but this year, it is something special. Nobody can know what will happen and whatever it is, it will not be good. The tanks are riding over human bodies in Hungary. Will they ride over human bodies in Poland soon? Will they tear up Czechoslovakia as they have torn up Hungary? Who can know what will come when Butcher Zhukov comes to the other satellites as he came to Hungary?

Will they sing their ancient carol:

"Good king Wenceslas look'd out,
On the Feast of Stephen,
When the snow lay round about,
Deep and crisp and even: . . ."

This reminds men of happier days:

". . . Therefore, Christian men, be sure,
Wealth or rank possessing,
Ye who now will bless the poor,
Shall yourselves find blessing."

But those were cheerful days when young people could sing because they did not fear to sing, as now they fear everything. And they even fear Christmas because they cannot imagine what the atheists will do this Christmas. How will they get out of their dilemma? Will they make war to make men and women and children forget? And if they make war, who will be hurt?

In those countries now the nights are long and folks must be silent because who is the spy? Who will tell about what one says to the other? Who is the spy? Who will tell the secret police?

And so folks just sit. They are not talk. They dare not listen to the radio lest they hear something they should not hear. They dare not speak; they dare not listen. They dare not worship; they dare not sing the ancient Christmas carols, some of which curiously were sung originally during the Spring festivals when men were pagans but not theists and that does make a difference somehow.

So it is not to be the kind of Christmas they are accustomed to in Hungary or Poland or Bohemia where the food was always so plentiful and good to eat and there were always special cakes which were only baked for the Christmas and toward which all the children looked forward for a whole year.

Now they look for the road to refuge and for the airplane that will bring them to sanctuary in the United States. And some will manage to get to the United States before Christmas and they will hear the carol which have somehow become universal throughout Europe, Catholic and Protestant.

Adeste Fideles!

"O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant, O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem."

(Continued on Page Nine)

LAFF-A-DAY

"Will somebody please take a letter?"

Looking Back In Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Approximately 1,000 Circleville youngsters were given Christmas treats by Santa Claus during a special program held beside the community Christmas tree at the courthouse lawn.

Robert Moon arrived home from the U. S. Navy for a 15-day leave.

Dr. and Mrs. V. D. Kerns, N. Scioto St., returned home from a two-weeks visit in Florida.

TEN YEARS AGO

Circleville was all set to observe its second post war Christmas.

Howard Moore was spending the Christmas holidays with his mother Mrs. Howard B. Moore, S. Court St.

Pvt. Richard Bumgarner was on furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bumgarner, Ashville.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

City firemen were preparing to distribute toys to needy children in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Crites, S. Court St., planned to visit relatives in Madison, Ind.

Charles Morris, a student at Ohio University, Athens, was spending his Christmas vacation at his home in Saltcreek Township.

You're Telling Me!

By WILLIAM RITT
Central Press Writer

Just around the corner—of the calendar—are the football Bowl games. They go under various names but no matter what the monicker, for the participating colleges they're loaded with gravy.

For a generation or so the original Bowl game, the Rose, bloomed in solitary grandeur.

Then a number of ambitious southern towns made a great discovery—there's gold in them there post-season grid games!

Now, New Year's Day is noted for three things—good resolutions, hangovers and spectacular football kaffee klatches.

When it comes to names for these mid-winter pigskin pageants, the sky's the limit. There's even one named after the Sun.

Considering the season there's one Bowl extravaganza that has a perfect tag—it's called the Refrigerator.

Promoters of these annual Jan. 1 jamborees always try to match outstandingly good grid teams. This could become monotonous. Why not a game between the two worst clubs of the season? It could be called the Zero Bowl!

The Liberty Bell in Philadelphia cracked in 1835 while tolling for the funeral of John Marshall, chief justice of the Supreme Court.

The most notable and best preserved prehistoric cliff dwellings in the United States are in Mesa Verde National park in southwestern Coloraco.

The original cost of the White House was defrayed from the state of land in Maryland and Virginia.

Bennett Cerf's

Try, Stop Me

Ralph Johnston, of Colorado State College, tells of a bookseller who found the pickings so slender, he wound up with only one asset of any value: a somewhat battered grand piano. His one customer who could afford to buy it was a wealthy but persnickety widow. She was not interested—and told him so emphatically.

"But, grandma," he insisted, "you can't take your money with you." She replied, "I can take it a darn sight easier than that —— pianner."

Henny Youngman was trying to describe the splendors of a big TV producer's new domicile. "He's become so elegant," proclaimed Henny, "that his foyer is now covered with a Persian rug—made out of real Persians!"

Dr. Morris Fishbein dropped into Lindy's delicatessen and boasted that he had lunched that day at the White House. Mr. Lindy had only one question: "What did they serve for dessert?"

Small Venom

By WILLIAM MOLE

© 1955 by William Mole. Reprinted by permission of the book's publisher, Dodd, Mead & Co. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER 23

STRUTT paused to take a sip of lager, and then continued to report on Macfarlane.

"Yesterday evening Mac goes out to Putney and collects his fiancee . . ."

"Fiancee?"

"Girl named Jean Shaw. Disraeli Road, Putney. She lodges there. They go out for a walk on the Heath. They have a row, poor souls. She walks off with her head in the air, trying not to cry. Mac goes back to his flat in Shaftesbury Avenue. We keep an eye on the joint. After half-and-hour in goes Perry. Three-quarters of an hour out they come, Mr. Perry looking as pleased as anything. They go to a pub. The argument goes on. Macfarlane looks pretty harrassed. He drinks gin, too much gin, but he gets home all right. There you are."

"They've quarrelled?"

"Yes."

"About what?"

"The loot. Crooks always do."

"I think it's the girl. Perry's afraid of her. He thinks Marfarlane might spill to her. He thinks she might go to the Police."

"She wouldn't go to the Police if her boy-friend's mixed up in blackmail," Strutt observed wryly.

"What's the girl's address?" Casson asked.

Strutt gave it to him.

"You're not going to try your deadly charm on her?"

Casson grinned.

"I'll put Mrs. Baker on the job, my housekeeper. She's a friendly old dear and as cunning as you wouldn't suspect. Has Macfarlane got a daily cleaner at his flat?"

"Yes."

"Give me her address too. Mrs. Baker can do her as well as Macfarlane and the girl. Does Macfarlane normally drink?"

"Don't know. Too early to say."

"I'll find out."

Strutt finished his lager and left. Casson went back to Mount Street to instruct Mrs. Baker.

Her reports were tantalizing. The young man and the girl continued to quarrel. A nice, quiet girl, commented Mrs. Baker, Lowland Scots and a decent sort. Macfarlane saw Perry almost every evening, always in a pub. He drank more than Perry and he drank more than was good for him. From his daily cleaner Mrs. Baker learned that her young man never had a drop of drink in the house and, as far as she knew, never drank anyway.

For Casson and Strutt the strain grew. Obviously the moment was approaching ripeness but Strutt counselled delay. Let the plum drop, he urged. Casson was compelled to agree.

Strutt's reports on Perry produced only one new factor. He went to Brighton for the day. He took a room in the same hotel. He stayed in his room the whole time. He travelled back to London in the evening. It was identical with the outing which he had made before he blackmailed Mrs. Gordonstoun.

Later that week Mrs. Baker returned to Mount Street at a quarter to one, smelling strongly of port but completely sober.

"Had a regular do, they did, sir," she related. "Thought I'd better come and tell you. The two gentlemen sat in the saloon bar from seven till half-past ten and had to see each other home. That's to say Mr. Perry saw the young gentleman home because he wasn't so unsteady, sir. He stays in the young gentleman's flat till a bit before midnight. He comes out and shuts the door. Least, he starts to. He fumbles in his sleeve . . ."

"In his sleeve?"

"In both sleeves. He looks fussed. He hunts in his pockets. He brings a handkerchief out of his trousers pocket, looks at it for a moment, and tucks it up his sleeve. He shuts the door. He goes off to the Underground at Piccadilly. Sober as a judge he was then. Least, that's how he looked."

It seemed as though Macfarlane was breaking at last.

Casson tossed in bed, listening to the wind sighing in Farm Street Gardens. Why was Perry fussed about his handkerchief? He obviously did not want to blow his nose and, if he had left it in the flat he could have got it back from Macfarlane the next day. Unless there was some reason why it shouldn't be left there. What reason? Something had happened.

He woke early and was out of the flat before breakfast. He was heavy with doubt, certain that somehow he and Strutt had miscalculated. He walked quickly to Shaftesbury Avenue, found the apartment house in which Macfarlane lived, and went in.

He stopped on the fourth floor. There was a smell of gas. He sniffed and raced up the last flight. The smell got stronger. He found the door and hammered on it. There was no reply. He bent down to sniff at the keyhole and recoiled. He hammered on the door again, then turned to run down the stairs and fetch the porter.

He got down two flights when he met a stout, red-cheeked woman puffing her way up.

"Are you Mr. Macfarlane's — do you clean for him?" he demanded.

"Yes."

"Give me the key," he said. "Something's happened."

Casson grabbed it and opened the door. He choked.

"Stay in the hall," he shouted behind him, groping his way into a dark room beyond it and switching on the lights. He saw a door ahead of him. He wrenched the handle, opened it and rushed in. He tripped and fell with a crash against the bed, coughing with the cloying intensity of the smell. He staggered into the other room, took a deep breath, and went back into the bedroom, making a rush at the window. He found it, ripped back the flimsy curtains, and flung up the bottom sash. Daylight and fresh air flooded in.

He took one look at the rumpled bed and a second at the fireplace. But the cleaner had followed him, coughing continually, and was lumbering towards the gas fire.

"Don't touch it!" Casson yelled. He pulled his handkerchief out of his pocket, wound it round his hand, gripped the gas-tap by its edges, and turned it off.

"Out of here! Quick!" he ordered the woman.

He turned towards the bed. Macfarlane lay there, fully dressed, his tie pulled down from his throat, tousled, unshaven, sprawling.

Casson bent over him and felt for his heart. He straightened up and walked carefully back to the door. Jim Marfarlane was not only tousled; he was also dead.

Casson is convinced Macfarlane was murdered. Don't miss tomorow's installment of Small Venom.

© 1955 by William Mole. Reprinted by permission of the book's publisher, Dodd, Mead & Co. Distributed by King Features Syndicate

SILENT NIGHT...

... may it bring wondrous joy to your blessed Christmas

Scioto BUILDING & LOAN
157 W. Main Circleville

We wish you a sparkling, joyful and Happy Holiday Season!

PICKAWAY MOTORS
586 N. Court Phone 686

Joyous Christmas Wishes

Lots of holiday cheer to you and your family this Christmastime.

Millirons Barber Shop
110 N. Court St.

SINCERE Greetings

Our warmest wishes for a Christmas abounding in all the spiritual joys of this holy time.

CIRCLEVILLE FAST FREEZE and LOCKER PLANT
MR. AND MRS. P. J. GRIFFIN
HAROLD NAGEL, Plant Mgr.

Santa's Right On Schedule --By Hal Boyle

Editor's Note: "Will Santa Claus really come to our house?" That is the most anxious question in America today. It is answered in the following column, written for parents to read aloud to their children. Since its first appearance in 1948, it has become a scrapbook favorite in many homes.

NORTH POLE—He's off!

Santa Claus is on his way at last!

The jolly old saint and his famous reindeer are zooming through the Arctic skies right now, heading for the American border. He will reach it tonight.

The northern lights switched on to a clear steady green—the 'go ahead' signal. And the Royal Canadian Mounted Police sent Santa this message:

'We are clearing all air lanes in your path, old boy. There is no speed limit for you tonight. The sky is yours. Go as fast as you like. Good luck!'

And Santa needed that wide, clear road in the sky. For his big red sled was piled so high with gifts if overflowed. It looked like a flying hayrack as it raced through the crisp cold air.

'Oh, dear, oh dear,' worried Santa, just before the takeoff. 'I do hope none of these presents fall out and bean some poor innocent rabbit down below. I believe this must be the heaviest load I've had in twenty years.'

"What is he fretting about?' whispered Donder to Vixen. 'He's only riding in that sled. We have to pull it.'

Vixen laughed so hard the bells on his harness tinkled in merry music. And all the other reindeer laughed, too.

As Santa Claus climbed up into the seat of the sled, panting a little because he has gained some weight this winter, three black and white penguins waddled across the snow in front of the reindeer.

'Here, here, get out of the way, please," said Santa Claus importantly. Then he said, surprised:

'Why what are you penguins doing up at the North Pole anyway? You're supposed to be at the South Pole."

"We're on a vacation,' said one of the penguins. 'We're looking for Florida. Have you seen it anywhere?'

"Climb aboard, climb aboard,' boomed Santa. "I'll drop you off there. But I must say this is the first time I ever picked up three hitchhikers wearing tuxedoes."

Just then Mrs. Santa Claus came running out waving a long piece of paper.

"You almost forgot your list of good children," she said.

"Never mind," said Santa ,"I don't need it. This year I am going to give a present to every little boy and girl, good or bad. The bad ones will feel sorry then, because they know they don't deserve a nice present. It'll make 'em try harder to be good next year."

"That isn't according to Hoyle," said Mrs. Claus, who likes to play bridge. "But it does make sense, you old softie."

Santa stood up to crack his whip in the air—the signal to be off. But then he heard a small voice crying:

It was Cluny, Santa's favorite little elf. The other elves gossiped about Cluny and said she was clumsy at making toys. But Santa knew it was only because she was so young. He liked her because she had a good heart.

"Here," said the tiny elf, holding up a small shiny figure.

"What's this? What's this?" grumbled Santa. "You're too late. My pack is already loaded."

"It is only my present to the world," said Cluny. "I made it at night in my room—all by myself."

Santa took the little figure from her hands. It was a beautiful angel with butterfly wings and a robe of purest white. In her hand the angel held a small magic wand.

"It is the angel of peace," explained Cluny.

"Why, Cluny!" said Santa.

"This is better than all the other gifts put together. I'll see that your angel waves her wand for one day at least over every home in the land."

And he picked up Cluny and gave her a big whisker-tickly kiss on her cheek. Then he picked up his long whip again and cracked it sharply in the frosty air.

"Ho, ho, ho, here we go!" he roared. "Ho, ho, ho! Here we go!"

The eight reindeer leaped forward and the big sled began sliding through the snow. Faster, faster, faster, faster—and then they were off the round and into the air.

Santa was on his way. And tonight, if you go to bed, he will come to your house, wherever you are.

Annual Christmas Party Held By Ralston Purina

Dance Followed Company Banquet

The annual Christmas party of the Ralston Purina Company was held in the First Evangelical United Brethren community center.

Miss Lucille Kirkwood furnished organ music for the event and Mr. Joe Nitka was in charge of registration.

The Rev. Carl Zehner offered prayer preceding the dinner.

The group was led in singing by Mr. Ray Friend, following which Mr. Larry Varble gave the welcoming address and introductions. Mr. Fred Kessler was introduced as the master of ceremonies for the evening.

Five year service anniversary awards were presented by Mr. Varble. Those receiving awards were: Mr. Marcus Coffland, Mr. Ralph Elick, Mr. Irl McKnight, Mr. Buford Newman and Mr. Emery Pritchard.

Ten year service anniversary awards were received by: Mr. Robert Bower, Mr. Robert Woodward, Mr. Kenneth Azbell, Mr. Charles Flaker, Mr. Aaron L. Barr, Mr. Marion Hupp, Mr. Ray Friend, Mr. Donald Hammel, Mr. James Steele, Mr. Ernest Davis and Mr. Glennel Weaver.

Mr. Ray Friend presented additional awards for truck driver recognition to: Mr. Ray O'Neal, 13 years; Mr. Chester Starkey, 10 years; Mr. Harry Shell, nine years; Mr. James S. Steele, seven years and Mr. Elis Norman, five years.

Mr. Varble then presented 15 year and 20 year service anniversary awards. Fifteen year awards were presented to: Mr. Norman MacNeil, Mr. Marvin Jenkins, Mr. Roy McNeal, Mr. Robert Miller and Mr. Walter May.

Mr. Marion Steinhauser was in charge of the entertainment. A skit was presented with the following participating: Mr. Glenn Hines, Mr. Glenn Weiler, Mr. Edward Bach and Mr. Jack Miller.

Mr. Friend introduced the Rev. Mr. Zehner, who presented a Christmas message.

Closing remarks were made by Mr. Varble.

Following the banquet, a round and square dance was held in Memorial Hall with Russ Thomas and his band furnishing the music.

* * *

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Johnson of 706 N. Court St. had as their week-end guests her brothers and their families, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Cook and children, Susan and Tim of Akron and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cook of Mt. Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cummins of near Ashville entertained their children and families to a holiday dinner. Those present were: William H. Cummins and family of Ashville, Kenneth Thomas and family of Washington C. H., Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Al DelVecchio, Clara Alyce Cummins and Hugh Looker of Columbus.

Mrs. R. P. Fellmeth has returned home from Mexico City, Mexico. She was accompanied by Professor and Mrs. W. E. Nehrenz and children, who are here to spend the holidays. The Nehrenz family is located in Mexico City, where Prof. Nehrenz is the director of Mexican Missions for the American Lutheran Church.

Pleasantview Evangelical United Brethren Ladies Aid Society will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Collins of 632 Beverly Rd. had as their dinner guest Mr. Richard Neikirk of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Al DelVecchio of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cummins of near Ashville are spending a few days in White Plains, N. Y., visiting DelVecchio's mother, his sister and family.

* * *

Glamour Gifts Make Treats As Stocking Stuffers

Have all your Christmas shopping done? Let's hope so.

Tomorrow is the big day, but there usually are last-minute things to buy and, among them, many families number stocking stuffers. They're the little extra treats, the small items that get overlooked in the mad, merry scramble for the big presents.

Stocking stuffers are a cinch to pick up at the last minute. Buy beauty gifts and you can do your hurry-up buying at drug or dime store.

If you are about to dash out in search of stocking stuffers, here are a few suggestions:

Look for a perfume purse dispenser that is a real conversation piece. It is a vial of fragrance in a black faille case edged with mink trim. Very glamorous!

A cream powder compact is another inexpensive beauty buy. The compacts are attractive, look as if they cost more than they do.

Consider lipstick, too. There is one in a new case that eliminates the trouble of removing the top to get out the lipstick. Instead, all that needs to be done is to flick up a switch on the side of the case and — presto! — the lipstick pops open.

Even kids can have cosmetic stocking stuffers. If they are in the 4 to 12 age bracket, look for beauty gifts especially styled for small fry. These include toilet water, bubble bath, scented soap, liquid shampoo, hand lotion, dusting powder and a powder mitt — all budget-priced.

You will need about two cups of mashed cooked potatoes to combine with a four-ounce package of shredded dried codfish for codfish balls. Soak the codfish according to package directions before using.

Christmas Party Held By Calvary EUB Congregation

The Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church held its church-wide Christmas party. The evening's event was opened with a carry-in supper, served in the church annex.

Mrs. Ray Anderson was chairman of the food committee; Mrs. Manley Carothers and Mrs. Harry Betz, decorating; Mrs. Clark Zwayer, program and Mrs. C. O. Leist served as song leader.

Following the supper, Santa Claus paid a visit to the minister, the Rev. Dale Rough and Mrs. Rough and children. He also visited with all the children present.

The program was opened with the devotions by Dale DeLong's Busy Bees Class, and the congregation sang "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing."

A poem, "The First Christmas" was given by Rosemary Flowers. Dickie Carothers recited "Night Before Christmas."

Patty Young and Annabelle Arledge sang a duet, "I Heard the Bells On Christmas Day," Mrs. Talmer Wise read a legend entitled, "Christmas Trees." A trombone solo, "O Holy Night" was given by Dale DeLong and Mrs. Betz read "The Inn Keeper's Story."

"Candles To Light Christmas Thoughts" was given by Mrs. Betz and Mrs. Carothers and the Crusader Class sang "Silver Bells" and "Deck The Halls."

A solo, "Christmas Morn" was presented by Ruth Goeller; the congregation sang "Silent Night," following which the children sang "Jingle Bells" and the Rev. Rough closed the program with prayer.

Short Time Left To Make Small Holiday Decorations

Don't worry! Relax! Be calm! It is true Christmas is almost here. But you still have a little time left for last-minute jobs, such as decking the house for the festive holiday. There is still time, in fact, to whip up your own trimmings quickly and easily.

How about a Christmas cookie tree, like the one shown in the above picture? Make the tree outline with wire or wood. For decorations, use big packaged cookies.

First, cover the cookies with a frosting made with the white of an egg, a half pound of sugar and a teaspoon of lemon juice. While the icing sets, draw a design with a toothpick. Fill it in with cinnamon candies or little silver ball candles. You can also paint on designs with vegetable colorings.

Using a large-eyed darning needle, threaded with Christmas twine, work the needle through the cookies about one-third inch from the top. The twine will enable you to tie them on your tree.

At dime stores, you will find all the makings for another kind of Christmas tree ornament. Buy big white plastic snowballs and a kit of sparkling sequins, pearls and other glittering items to deck the snowballs with. Little half-inch pins are used to attach the sequins to the snowballs and make it possible for you to create your own designs. You can make tree outlines, star designs or spell out names or initials.

A Christmas stocking kit is another do-it-yourself item at dime store counters. Stitch the felt stocking together yourself. Then stitch on Christmas motif appliques. Each applique has a pattern that you can fill in with glittering sequins and beads — also included in the kit.

Pickaway PTO Conducts Meet

The December meeting of the Pickaway Township Parent-Teacher Organization was held, at which time room mothers were appointed for the coming year.

They are: Mrs. William Weller, Mrs. Frank Gifford, Mrs. N. D. Huffines, Mrs. Earl Steel, Mrs. Charles Mowery and Mrs. Courtwright.

At this meeting, the Christmas program, "A Journey With Santa On Christmas Eve," was presented by grades 1 to 6 under the direction of Miss Joann Valentine.

Christmas in other countries throughout the world was portrayed.

Nebraska Grange Members Enjoy Yuletide Party

The Yuletide hymn, "Hark the Angels Sing," opened the Nebraska Grange meeting with forty five members present. Worthy Master Everett Beers presided over the short business session.

A contribution was made to the State Grange Youth Committee for the promotion of its work. Members voted to sponsor the county Grange basketball team.

The membership of Robert and Eleanor Barr and Rose Mary Lower was established. Mary Teegardin requested and was granted a demit.

Greeting cards were signed by all the members present to be sent to Mr. Robert Barr Sr. and to the Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Thomas.

Mrs. John Barr, lecturer, presented the Christmas program, given by the children for their parents. The group led the assembly in song, "O Come All Ye Faithful." Ross Barr read the Christmas story from the scripture.

Dean Barr recited, "Greetings" and Larry Hall and Gayle Fosnaugh had a dialogue, "Why Christmas." The children united in singing, "Silent Night" and "Away in a Manger".

Mrs. Ralph Barr read, "The Spirit of Christmas" to the children. The hymn "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was led by the young entertainers for all to sing. They finished with the song, "Jingle Bells."

Ray Noecker concluded their program with a "Closing Thought." Gift exchange, pop corn and candy closed the evening on a festive note.

The theme for the meeting of January 1 will be, "Let Your Light Shine." And the committee for the evening is; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Plum, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Noecker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wharton and Bill Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles LaRue, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Keffer, Mr. and Mrs. John White, and Ray Marburger.

Calendar

WEDNESDAY

PAST CHIEFS CLUB OF PYTHian Sisters, 7:30 p. m., in the home of Miss Nellie Bolender of E. Mound St.

PLEASANTVIEW EUB LADIES Aid, 2 p. m., in the church.

Yams Tradition For Holiday Fete

Yams are as much a part of holiday dinners as the traditional turkey, so be prepared to serve them in many differenf and tasty ways.

A favorite Southern way to fix yams is to combine them with marshmallows. New recipes designed for this year's holiday season call for pineapple and orange plus the marshmallows in casserole specialties.

In another delicious serving suggestion, sliced Louisiana yams are sauteed with onion, green pepper and pimiento for a delicious vegetable special.

To serve six, melt ¼ cup butter or margarine and add 2 thinly sliced, medium-sized onions and ¼ cup chopped green pepper. Cook until onions are lightly browned.

Add six medium-sized Louisiana yams, cooked, peeled and sliced, and 1 canned pimiento, cut in strips. Cook until yams are browned, about 10 minutes.

For a fancy dish, yams with pineapple and marshmallow, here is a favorite New Orleans recipe.

To serve four, drain a 13½-ounce can pineapple chunks, reserving ¼ cup syrup. Combine 2 cups cooked, mashed yams, ¼ cup pinepple syrup and salt to taste. Mix well.

Fold in ½ cup miniature marshmallows and pineapple. Turn into lightly greased, 1-quart casserole. Bake, covered, at 350 degrees F. for 30 minutes or until thoroughly heated.

Louisiana yams go beautifully with orange flavor you will find when you try the following dish.

To serve four, cook and peel 4 medium-sized yams and force them through a sieve or food mill. Combine sieved yams, ¼ cup orange juice, tablespoon grated orange rind, ½ teaspoon salt, dash each of cloves and cinnamon. Mix well.

Spread in greased, shallow 1-quart baking dish. Top with 6 6 marshmallows. Bake at 350 degrees F. 20 minutes or until thoroughly heated.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name *Preparation H. At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

*Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

— NOTICE —

The

L. M. BUTCH CO.

Jewelers

will be

CLOSED

ALL DAY

WEDNESDAY

Dec. 26th

PENNEY'S

ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY!

Open All Day Wednesday, December 26

GREETINGS

We hope that this Holiday Season brings you the best of everything.

AMERICAN LOAN and FINANCE CO.

Merry Christmas

To all our friends, an old-fashioned Christmas wish. May all the joys of the season enrich your heart this day and forever.

GALLAHER'S DRUG STORE

Our sincere wishes for a happy holiday to all the good friends whom it has been such a pleasure to serve.

Blanche Joseph Personal Shopping Center

317 E. Main St. Phone 729

Holiday Greetings

Wishing you season's cheer in abundance. And may it linger in your heart all year!

THE CHILDREN'S SHOP

151 W. Main St. Circleville, Ohio

SEASON'S GREETINGS

TO YOU—

Who helped to make our year so very pleasant our warm and sincere wishes for a Merry Christmas. We sincerely hope the New Year brings you health, happiness and everything you wish for.

Glitt's Grocery

Royal Gelatine Assorted Flavors ..... 5 boxes 25c

Sweet Potatoes 3 lbs. 25c

Head Lettuce 19c

California Celery Jumbo size, ea. 29c

Popcorn 2-lb. pkg. 29c lb. pkg. 15c

Kraft Orange Ade 46 oz. can 21c

Kraft Apple Jelly .. jar only 15c

Stevenson's Potatoes ..... 50 lb. sack, No. 2s 89c; No. 1's $1.59—pk. 55c

Vacuum Super Value Coffee ..... lb. can, only 79c

Nescafe ..... 2 oz. jar only 49c

Chase and Sanborn ..... lge. 6 oz. jar—only $1.25

Peanut Clusters lb. 59c

Chocolate Drops lb. 25c

Pre New Year Special Cabbage . . . . lb. 5c Pork Roast . . lb. 39c

Mozart Cream Style Yellow Corn ..... 2 cans 25c

Open Christmas and New Year's Eve 'Til 7:30

Closed All Day Christmas and New Year's Day

Glitt's Grocery

OPEN FRI. NITE 7 O'CLOCK——OPEN SAT. NITE 9 O'CLOCK

Franklin at Mingo Open Wednesday Afternoon

Annual Christmas Party Held By Ralston Purina

Dance Followed Company Banquet

The annual Christmas party of the Ralston Purina Company was held in the First Evangelical United Brethren community center.

Miss Lucille Kirkwood furnished organ music for the event and Mr. Joe Nitka was in charge of registration.

The Rev. Carl Zehner offered prayer preceding the dinner.

The group was led in singing by Mr. Ray Friend, following which Mr. Larry Varble gave the welcoming address and introductions. Mr. Fred Kessler was introduced as the master of ceremonies for the evening.

Five year service anniversary awards were presented by Mr. Varble. Those receiving awards were: Mr. Marcus Coffland, Mr. Ralph Elick, Mr. Irl McKnight, Mr. Buford Newman and Mr. Emery Pritchard.

Ten year service anniversary awards were received by: Mr. Robert Bower, Mr. Robert Woodward, Mr. Kenneth Azbell, Mr. Charles Flaker, Mr. Aaron L. Barr, Mr. Marion Hupp, Mr. Ray Friend, Mr. Donald Hammel, Mr. James Steele, Mr. Ernest Davis and Mr. Glennel Weaver.

Mr. Ray Friend presented additional awards for truck driver recognition to: Mr. Ray O'Neal, 13 years; Mr. Chester Starkey, 10 years; Mr. Harry Shell, nine years; Mr. James S. Steele, seven years and Mr. Elis Norman, five years.

Mr. Varble then presented 15 year and 20 year service anniversary awards. Fifteen year awards were presented to: Mr. Norman MacNeil, Mr. Marvin Jenkins, Mr. Roy McNeal, Mr. Robert Miller and Mr. Walter May.

Mr. Marion Steinhauser was in charge of the entertainment. A skit was presented with the following participating: Mr. Glenn Hines, Mr. Glenn Weiler, Mr. Edward Bach and Mr. Jack Miller.

Mr. Friend introduced the Rev. Mr. Zehner, who presented a Christmas message.

Closing remarks were made by Mr. Varble.

Following the banquet, a round and square dance was held in Memorial Hall with Russ Thomas and his band furnishing the music.

* * *

Christmas Party Held By Calvary EUB Congregation

The Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church held its church-wide Christmas party. The evening's event was opened with a carry-in supper, served in the church annex.

Mrs. Ray Anderson was chairman of the food committee; Mrs. Manley Carothers and Mrs. Harry Betz, decorating; Mrs. Clark Zwayer, program and Mrs. C. O. Leist served as song leader.

Following the supper, Santa Claus paid a visit to the minister, the Rev. Dale Rough and Mrs. Rough and children. He also visited with all the children present.

The program was opened with the devotions by Dale DeLong's Busy Bees Class, and the congregation sang "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing."

A poem, "The First Christmas" was given by Rosemary Flowers. Dickie Carothers recited "Night Before Christmas."

Patty Young and Annabelle Arledge sang a duet, "I Heard the Bells On Christmas Day," Mrs. Talmer Wise read a legend entitled, "Christmas Trees." A trombone solo, "O Holy Night" was given by Dale DeLong and Mrs. Betz read "The Inn Keeper's Story."

"Candles To Light Christmas Thoughts" was given by Mrs. Betz and Mrs. Carothers and the Crusader Class sang "Silver Bells" and "Deck The Halls."

A solo, "Christmas Morn" was presented by Ruth Goeller; the congregation sang "Silent Night," following which the children sang "Jingle Bells" and the Rev. Rough closed the program with prayer.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Johnson of 706 N. Court St. had as their week-end guests her brothers and their families, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Cook and children, Susan and Tim of Akron and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cook of Mt. Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cummins of near Ashville entertained their children and families to a holiday dinner. Those present were: William H. Cummins and family of Ashville, Kenneth Thomas and family of Washington C. H., Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Al DelVecchio, Clara Alyce Cummins and Hugh Looker of Columbus.

Mrs. R. P. Fellmeth has returned home from Mexico City, Mexico. She was accompanied by Professor and Mrs. W. E. Nehrenz and children, who are here to spend the holidays. The Nehrenz family is located in Mexico City, where Prof. Nehrenz is the director of Mexican Missions for the American Lutheran Church.

Pleasantview Evangelical United Brethren Ladies Aid Society will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Collins of 632 Beverly Rd. had as their dinner guest Mr. Richard Neikirk of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Al DelVecchio of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cummins of near Ashville are spending a few days in White Plains, N. Y., visiting DelVecchio's mother, his sister and family.

* * *

Glamour Gifts Make Treats As Stocking Stuffers

Have all your Christmas shopping done? Let's hope so.

Tomorrow is the big day, but there usually are last-minute things to buy and, among them, many families number stocking stuffers. They're the little extra treats, the small items that get overlooked in the mad, merry scramble for the big presents.

Stocking stuffers are a cinch to pick up at the last minute. Buy beauty gifts and you can do your hurry-up buying at drug or dime store.

If you are about to dash out in search of stocking stuffers, here are a few suggestions:

Look for a perfume purse dispenser that is a real conversation piece. It is a vial of fragrance in a black faille case edged with mink trim. Very glamorous!

A cream powder compact is another inexpensive beauty buy. The compacts are attractive, look as if they cost more than they do.

Consider lipstick, too. There is one in a new case that eliminates the trouble of removing the top to get out the lipstick. Instead, all that needs to be done is to flick up a switch on the side of the case and — presto! — the lipstick pops open.

Even kids can have cosmetic stocking stuffers. If they are in the 4 to 12 age bracket, look for beauty gifts especially styled for small fry. These include toilet water, bubble bath, scented soap, liquid shampoo, hand lotion, dusting powder and a powder mitt — all budget-priced.

You will need about two cups of mashed cooked potatoes to combine with a four-ounce package of shredded dried codfish for codfish balls. Soak the codfish according to package directions before using.

Short Time Left To Make Small Holiday Decorations

Don't worry! Relax! Be calm! It is true Christmas is almost here. But you still have a little time left for last-minute jobs, such as decking the house for the festive holiday. There is still time, in fact, to whip up your own trimmings quickly and easily.

How about a Christmas cookie tree, like the one shown in the above picture? Make the tree outline with wire or wood. For decorations, use big packaged cookies.

First, cover the cookies with a frosting made with the white of an egg, a half pound of sugar and a teaspoon of lemon juice. While the icing sets, draw a design with a toothpick. Fill it in with cinnamon candies or little silver ball candles. You can also paint on designs with vegetable colorings.

Using a large-eyed darning needle, threaded with Christmas twine, work the needle through the cookies about one-third inch from the top. The twine will enable you to tie them on your tree.

At dime stores, you will find all the makings for another kind of Christmas tree ornament. Buy big white plastic snowballs and a kit of sparkling sequins, pearls and other glittering items to deck the snowballs with. Little half-inch pins are used to attach the sequins to the snowballs and make it possible for you to create your own designs. You can make tree outlines, star designs or spell out names or initials.

A Christmas stocking kit is another do-it-yourself item at dime store counters. Stitch the felt stocking together yourself. Then stitch on Christmas motif appliques. Each applique has a pattern that you can fill in with glittering sequins and beads — also included in the kit.

Pickaway PTO Conducts Meet

The December meeting of the Pickaway Township Parent-Teacher Organization was held, at which time room mothers were appointed for the coming year.

They are: Mrs. William Weller, Mrs. Frank Gifford, Mrs. N. D. Huffines, Mrs. Earl Steel, Mrs. Charles Mowery and Mrs. Courtwright.

At this meeting, the Christmas program, "A Journey With Santa On Christmas Eve," was presented by grades 1 to 6 under the direction of Miss Joann Valentine.

Christmas in other countries throughout the world was portrayed.

Nebraska Grange Members Enjoy Yuletide Party

The Yuletide hymn, "Hark the Angels Sing," opened the Nebraska Grange meeting with forty five members present. Worthy Master Everett Beers presided over the short business session.

A contribution was made to the State Grange Youth Committee for the promotion of its work. Members voted to sponsor the county Grange basketball team.

The membership of Robert and Eleanor Barr and Rose Mary Lower was established. Mary Teegardin requested and was granted a demit.

Greeting cards were signed by all the members present to be sent to Mr. Robert Barr Sr. and to the Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Thomas.

Mrs. John Barr, lecturer, presented the Christmas program, given by the children for their parents. The group led the assembly in song, "O Come All Ye Faithful." Ross Barr read the Christmas story from the scripture.

Dean Barr recited, "Greetings" and Larry Hall and Gayle Fosnaugh had a dialogue, "Why Christmas." The children united in singing, "Silent Night" and "Away in a Manger".

Mrs. Ralph Barr read, "The Spirit of Christmas" to the children. The hymn "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was led by the young entertainers for all to sing. They finished with the song, "Jingle Bells."

Ray Noecker concluded their program with a "Closing Thought." Gift exchange, pop corn and candy closed the evening on a festive note.

The theme for the meeting of January 1 will be, "Let Your Light Shine." And the committee for the evening is; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Plum, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Noecker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wharton and Bill Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles LaRue, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Keffer, Mr. and Mrs. John White, and Ray Marburger.

Calendar

WEDNESDAY

PAST CHIEFS CLUB OF PYTHIAN Sisters, 7:30 p. m., in the home of Miss Nellie Bolender of E. Mound St.

PLEASANTVIEW EUB LADIES Aid, 2 p. m., in the church.

Yams Tradition For Holiday Fete

Yams are as much a part of holiday dinners as the traditional turkey, so be prepared to serve them in many differenf and tasty ways.

A favorite Southern way to fix yams is to combine them with marshmallows. New recipes designed for this year's holiday season call for pineapple and orange plus the marshmallows in casserole specialties.

In another delicious serving suggestion, sliced Louisiana yams are sauteed with onion, green pepper and pimiento for a delicious vegetable special.

To serve six, melt ¼ cup butter or margarine and add 2 thinly sliced, medium-sized onions and ¼ cup chopped green pepper. Cook until onions are lightly browned.

Add six medium-sized Louisiana yams, cooked, peeled and sliced, and 1 canned pimiento, cut in strips. Cook until yams are browned, about 10 minutes.

For a fancy dish, yams with pineapple and marshmallow, here is a favorite New Orleans recipe.

To serve four, drain a 13½-ounce can pineapple chunks, reserving ¼ cup syrup. Combine 2 cups cooked, mashed yams, ¼ cup pineapple syrup and salt to taste. Mix well.

Fold in ½ cup miniature marshmallows and pineapple. Turn into lightly greased, 1-quart casserole. Bake, covered, at 350 degrees F. for 30 minutes or until thoroughly heated.

Louisiana yams go beautifully with orange flavor you will find when you try the following dish.

To serve four, cook and peel 4 medium-sized yams and force them through a sieve or food mill. Combine sieved yams, ¼ cup orange juice, tablespoon grated orange rind, ½ teaspoon salt, dash each of cloves and cinnamon. Mix well.

Spread in greased, shallow 1-quart baking dish. Top with 6 6 marshmallows. Bake at 350 degrees F. 20 minutes or until thoroughly heated.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name *Preparation H. At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

*Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

— NOTICE —

The

L. M. BUTCH CO.

Jewelers will be

CLOSED ALL DAY WEDNESDAY

Dec. 26th

PENNEY'S

ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY!

Open All Day Wednesday, December 26

GREETINGS

We hope that this Holiday Season brings you the best of everything.

AMERICAN LOAN and FINANCE CO.

Merry Christmas

To all our friends, an old-fashioned Christmas wish. May all the joys of the season enrich your heart this day and forever.

GALLAHER'S DRUG STORE

Holiday Greetings

Wishing you season's cheer in abundance. And may it linger in your heart all year!

THE CHILDREN'S SHOP

151 W. Main St. Circleville, Ohio

Holiday Wishes

Our sincere wishes for a happy holiday to all the good friends whom it has been such a pleasure to serve.

Blanche Joseph Personal Shopping Center

317 E. Main St.

Phone 729

SEASON'S GREETINGS TO YOU—

Who helped to make our year so very pleasant our warm and sincere wishes for a Merry Christmas. We sincerely hope the New Year brings you health, happiness and everything you wish for.

Glitt's Grocery

Royal Gelatine Assorted Flavors ..... 5 boxes 25c

Sweet Potatoes 3 lbs. 25c

California Celery Jumbo size, ea. 29c

Head Lettuce 19c

Popcorn 2-lb. pkg. 29c, lb. pkg. 15c

Kraft Orange Ade 46 oz. can 21c

Kraft Apple Jelly .. jar only 15c

Stevenson's Potatoes ..... 50 lb. sack, No. 2s 89c; No. 1's $1.59—pk. 55c

Vacuum Super Value Coffee ..... lb. can, only 79c

Nescafe .... 2 oz. jar only 49c

Chase and Sanborn ..... lge. 6 oz. jar—only $1.25

Peanut Clusters lb. 59c

Chocolate Drops lb. 25c

Pre New Year Special — Cabbage .... lb. 5c; Pork Roast .. lb. 39c

Mozart Cream Style Yellow Corn ..... 2 cans 25c

Open Christmas and New Year's Eve 'Til 7:30

Closed All Day Christmas and New Year's Day

Glitt's Grocery

OPEN FRI. NITE 7 O'CLOCK——OPEN SAT. NITE 9 O'CLOCK

Franklin at Mingo — Open Wednesday Afternoon

Steel Strike Hikes Idleness

3 Million Man-Days Lost In Ohio Report

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state Industrial Relations Department reported today that work stoppage in the basic steel industry last July boosted third-quarter work idleness in Ohio to more than three million man-days.

Due to the steel stoppage, said Margaret A. Mahoney, department director, 86 per cent of the 3.1 million man-days of idleness in the quarter took place in the primary metals industry. This was a loss of 21 per cent of the work time in that industry during the quarter.

She said Ohio's idleness was three times what it was in the second quarter and in the third quarter a year ago. The idleness amounted to an average of almost an eight-hour day for every Ohio worker.

The third quarter had 117 work stoppages idling 150,000 workers. The steel stoppage was responsible also for the high idleness in Youngstown, which lost 11 per cent of its work time in the third quarter.

Man-days of idleness in the eight largest metropolitan areas were: Youngstown, 1,300,000; Cleveland, 680,000; Canton, 450,000; Akron, 36,000; Columbus, 26,000; Toledo 25000; Cincinnati, 6,40; and Dayton, 1,200.

Gorilla Baby Said Doing OK

COLUMBUS (AP)—Christina's kid seems to be doing OK.

The little beast was born here at 8:45 a. m. Saturday, the first gorilla, officials say, ever to be born in captivity. Her father, The Baron, is a 400-pound hunk of ape. The mother, Christina, is a slender 280 pound.

The baby has no name yet. Some zoo officials call her "Baby" or "Her Highness." Others refer to her as "that little gorilla."

She weighed four and a half pounds at birth, but was down to three and a quarter today. Zoo veterinarian Robert Vesper said the loss may be normal.

How Many Drinks Make One Mile?

OKLAHOMA CITY—A visitor to Oklahoma City complained to police he was "taken for a ride" by a taxi-driver.

He said he took a taxi to a nightclub, then invited the driver to join him in a drink.

After they had finished drinking, the cab driver demanded $8.95. The driver claimed that was how much time had been run up on the meter while they were inside.

This Is Hunting Living Room Style

SAN JOSE, Ill. — Mrs. Leonard Nelson just smiled when her husband and son-in-law, Kenneth Ragsdale, returned empty-handed after a pheasant hunt.

While she and her daughter, Mardelle, were watching TV, a pheasant crashed through the living room window.

Hurry, Hurry, Girls! Only Few Leap Year Days Left

By Hoyt McAfee
Written Especially for Central Press Association and This Newspaper

King Baudouin | J. Edgar Hoover | Senator Jackson | Dag Hammarskjold

Marlon Brando | Herb Score | Duke of Kent | Sheik Gaafar

Calling all bachelor girls and other eligible women in search of husbands: Only a few more days of Leap Year remain!

You must act swiftly — and boldly—if you want to "catch" one of the too-many bachelors in circulation. Custom decrees that from now till midnight of Dec. 31, 1956, you may—in the event you meet the man who suits you —"pop" the question.

Some of the more "forward-looking" and equality-conscious girls may even endorse a proposal made by the Rev. Leslie Conrad, Jr., not long ago. He—the executive secretary of the Lutheran League of America—went on record thusly:

"I am for changing our cultural pattern to such a degree that young ladies might have just as much freedom in choosing their husbands as husbands have in picking their wives."

* * *

THE minister went further and sounded out a flock of eligible young men and women on the worthwhileness of that idea: Almost 95 per cent of the men opposed it, while the girls almost without exception voiced enthusiasm for it!"

In short, if the Rev. Conrad's suggestion were adopted generally, you women would be free to take the initiative in your matehunting, Leap Year or not!

However, for the time being, you're no doubt concerned with your "prospects" for the remainder of 1956. They are, as I'll presently demonstrate, usually stimulating. To cite one detail alone: Census bureau figures reveal that there are more eligible bachelors now (in 1956) than at any time in the past 21 years!

In case you pass up the more casual bachelors and set your sights on something choice or special, the "pickings" for you are decidedly "green."

True enough, Grace Kelly, earlier in 1956, took the No. 1 eligible bachelor — Prince Rainier III of Monaco—out of circulation. Just the same, numerous other great catches, equally or more enticing, remain "unhooked," or outside the marriage fold.

To develop the most eligible list possible, I questioned a group of bachelor girls among the movie stars and starlets—from sultry Ann Sheridan to the teenage sensation, Natalie Wood. I had them name their choices of the world's desirable bachelors. Additionally, I sent out one hundred questionnaires to:

* * *

NEW YORK models, newspaper women covering Washington, D. C., world-traveling business women, career girls employed by the State department in foreign lands, women who attend the major political conventions, and glamorous girls who get invited to gala social affairs in various parts of the U.S.A. One and all, I urged them to single out their favorite bachelors.

In the break-down, their recommendations go like this:

1 — Dag Hammarskjold, the suave, handsome, "pleasant-mannered" Swede (and secretary-general of the United Nations) — the number one eligible bachelor from the world of diplomacy. He's 49.

2 — From the political world: U. S. Senator Henry Jackson of Washington state. Still unattached, and a genial, "young 43 years old," he—a Democrat—greatly impresses bachelor women by dint of his warmth of charm and "homespun simplicity," to quote several of them.

* * *

3—MOST eligible bachelor from the world of law-enforcement: J. Edgar Hoover, ever-popular G-man "commander in chief." Although the bane of all public enemies, the women in the market for a husband warmly welcome his attentions!

4 — Among the oil millionaires, Robert Neal, a 34-year-old "tall, dark and handsome" Texan emerges as the "best bet," judging from the replies I received. He, it would appear, assumes responsibility, works hard, and then plays hard. There are those who consider him the "yum-yum number" among all eligible bachelors.

5—John Williamson, 48, owner of the world's second largest diamond mine (at Lake Victoria, South Africa), was identified as the "most elusive catch of the lot." It would seem that he's "in the mood" to get married, but due to extremely "bashful habits" has difficulty in meeting the woman of his desire.

6 — An Englishman also made the bachelor hit parade—namely, the dashing Duke of Kent. Comments regarding him noted his "lack of all trace of snobbery," "his friendly way," his "human touch," and "charming deviltry." Another point in his favor: He has oodles of that "green stuff!"

7—A real-for-sure king — King Baudouin of Belgium, just turning 25—was selected as one of the most "desirable bachelors." His weaknesses: skiing, racing cars, and sports-minded (or outdoor) women. Whoever "bags" him will have a choice of two palaces to live in!

* * *

8—A GENUINE shiek — 39-year-old Ezzat Gaafar of Arabia—was boosted into a prominent spot on the eligible bachelor roster. Traveling women and State department career girls (stationed in foreign lands) paid him unusually warm tribute. For example: "He's so modest and down-to-earth you forget about his title of sheik." "His smile gets you!" He—an oil millionaire, on the side—seems to prefer blondes.

9—From the world of sports: Herb Score, the Cleveland Indians' sensational strikeout king of the major leagues, age 23, was voted —by the bachelorets I sounded out —as the "best catch" among bachelors.

10 — Regardless of all the "knocks" Marlon Brando has received in print, he won—by a landslide—as the No. 1 eligible bachelor among male movie stars.

Cigar Box Radio Passes Its Test

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — Engineers here have successfully tested a new lightweight mobile radio transmitting and receiving set the size of a cigar box. It has an operating range of 30 miles.

The eight pound unit is called Avcom Mark I and was designed for both heavy duty military and civilian uses.

Refugee Couple To Wed In Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP)—A young couple who fought together against Russians in Budapest will be married here Thursday.

Otto Szeratics, 27, and Ida Halma, 23, will be wed in the First Hungarian Reformed Church.

The bride's cousin, Ilona Hencz, 26, who escaped with her from Hungary, will be maid of honor.

World Harmony In The Kitchen

OKLAHOMA CITY — When the St. James Episcopal Church decided to hold an "international bazaar", it didn't have to settle for imitations.

Ten foreign born women — all members of the church — cooked up dishes favored in their former homelands of Scotland, Ireland, France, New Zealand, Iceland, Australia, Germany, Holland and Japan.

Dad Has Plenty Taken Off Top

OKLAHOMA CITY — When the barber asked Robert Butkin, 3, the usual question about how he wanted his hair cut, he gave the usual answer: "Like my daddy's."

He wasn't satisfied with the barber's efforts so when he got home he took the scissors and finished the job.

His dad, Morris Butkin, is bald.

Firefighters Take Blaze To Water

TULARE, Calif.—Firemen from the Division of Forestry saved 84 bales of cotton from flames by taking the fire to the water.

The blaze broke out inside a box car at the Southern Pacific depot. Firemen moved the burning car to a siding beneath a water tank and doused the flames.

Greetings

AS THE OLD YEAR FADES INTO THE PAST OUR THOUGHTS REVERT GRATEFULLY TO THOSE WHOSE GOOD WILL AND CONFIDENCE HAVE MADE OUR PROGRESS POSSIBLE. IT IS OUR SINCERE WISH THAT ALL THAT IS GOOD SHALL BE YOURS IN THE APPROACHING NEW YEAR.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gosnell and Associates

Once again the gleam of candles prompts our wishes for you for a Yuletide shining with joy and gladness!

HILL IMPLEMENT CO.

123 E. FRANKLIN ST.

Our very best wishes to all our friends for a happy Holida.

YATES BUICK CO.

1220 S. Court Phone 790

At this Holiday Season, we would like to wish all of you, our friends and patrons, a Wonderful Christmas!

CIRCLEVILLE APPLIANCE & REFRIGERATION

Dealer For Frigidaire Products

Refrigerators—Washers—Dryers—Ranges—Heating

147 W. Main Circleville, Ohio

Steel Strike Hikes Idleness

3 Million Man-Days Lost In Ohio Report

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state Industrial Relations Department reported today that work stoppage in the basic steel industry last July boosted third-quarter work idleness in Ohio to more than three million man-days.

Due to the steel stoppage, said Margaret A. Mahoney, department director, 86 per cent of the 3.1 million man-days of idleness in the quarter took place in the primary metals industry. This was a loss of 21 per cent of the work time in that industry during the quarter.

She said Ohio's idleness was three times what it was in the second quarter and in the third quarter a year ago. The idleness amounted to an average of almost an eight-hour day for every Ohio worker.

The third quarter had 117 work stoppages idling 150,000 workers. The steel stoppage was responsible also for the high idleness in Youngstown, which lost 11 per cent of its work time in the third quarter.

Man-days of idleness in the eight largest metropolitan areas were: Youngstown, 1,300,000; Cleveland, 680,000; Canton, 450,000; Akron, 36,000; Columbus, 26,000; Toledo 25000; Cincinnati, 6,40; and Dayton, 1,200.

Gorilla Baby Said Doing OK

COLUMBUS (AP)—Christina's kid seems to be doing OK.

The little beast was born here at 8:45 a. m. Saturday, the first gorilla, officials say, ever to be born in captivity. Her father, The Baron, is a 400-pound hunk of ape. The mother, Christina, is a slender 280 pound.

The baby has no name yet. Some zoo officials call her "Baby" or "Her Highness." Others refer to her as "that little gorilla."

She weighed four and a half pounds at birth, but was down to three and a quarter today. Zoo veterinarian Robert Vesper said the loss may be normal.

How Many Drinks Make One Mile?

OKLAHOMA CITY—A visitor to Oklahoma City complained to police he was "taken for a ride" by a taxi-driver.

He said he took a taxi to a nightclub, then invited the driver to join him in a drink.

After they had finished drinking, the cab driver demanded $8.95. The driver claimed that was how much time had been run up on the meter while they were inside.

This Is Hunting Living Room Style

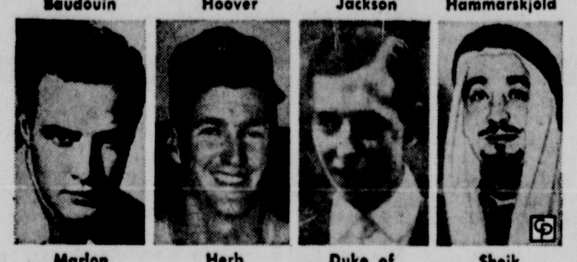
SAN JOSE, Ill. — Mrs. Leonard Nelson just smiled when her husband and son-in-law, Kenneth Ragsdale, returned empty-handed after a pheasant hunt.

While she and her daughter, Mardelle, were watching TV, a pheasant crashed through the living room window.

Hurry, Hurry, Girls! Only Few Leap Year Days Left

By Hoyt McAfee
Written Especially for Central Press Association and This Newspaper

King Baudouin | J. Edgar Hoover | Senator Jackson | Dag Hammarskjold



Marlon Brando | Herb Score | Duke of Kent | Sheik Gaafar

Calling all bachelor girls and other eligible women in search of husbands: Only a few more days of Leap Year remain!

You must act swiftly — and boldly—if you want to "catch" one of the too-many bachelors in circulation. Custom decrees that from now till midnight of Dec. 31, 1956, you may—in the event you meet the man who suits you —"pop" the question.

Some of the more "forward-looking" and equality-conscious girls may even endorse a proposal made by the Rev. Leslie Conrad, Jr., not long ago. He—the executive secretary of the Lutheran League of America—went on record thusly:

"I am for changing our cultural pattern to such a degree that young ladies might have just as much freedom in choosing their husbands as husbands have in picking their wives."

* * *

THE minister went further and sounded out a flock of eligible young men and women on the worthwhileness of that idea: Almost 95 per cent of the men opposed it, while the girls almost without exception voiced enthusiasm for it!"

In short, if the Rev. Conrad's suggestion were adopted generally, you women would be free to take the initiative in your matehunting, Leap Year or not!

However, for the time being, you're no doubt concerned with your "prospects" for the remainder of 1956. They are, as I'll presently demonstrate, usually stimulating. To cite one detail alone: Census bureau figures reveal that there are more eligible bachelors now (in 1956) than at any time in the past 21 years!

In case you pass up the more casual bachelors and set your sights on something choice or special, the "pickings" for you are decidedly "green."

True enough, Grace Kelly, earlier in 1956, took the No. 1 eligible bachelor — Prince Rainier III of Monaco—out of circulation. Just the same, numerous other great catches, equally or more enticing, remain "unhooked," or outside the marriage fold.

To develop the most eligible list possible, I questioned a group of bachelor girls among the movie stars and starlets—from sultry Ann Sheridan to the teenage sensation, Natalie Wood. I had them name their choices of the world's desirable bachelors. Additionally, I sent out one hundred questionnaires to:

* * *

NEW YORK models, newspaper women covering Washington, D. C., world-traveling business women, career girls employed by the State department in foreign lands, women who attend the major political conventions, and glamorous girls who get invited to gala social affairs in various parts of the U.S.A. One and all, I urged them to single out their favorite bachelors.

In the break-down, their recommendations go like this:

1 — Dag Hammarskjold, the suave, handsome, "pleasant-mannered" Swede (and secretary-general of the United Nations) — the number one eligible bachelor from the world of diplomacy. He's 49.

2 — From the political world: U. S. Senator Henry Jackson of Washington state. Still unattached, and a genial, "young 43 years old," he—a Democrat—greatly impresses bachelor women by dint of his warmth of charm and "homespun simplicity," to quote several of them.

* * *

3—MOST eligible bachelor from the world of law-enforcement: J. Edgar Hoover, ever-popular G-man "commander in chief." Although the bane of all public enemies, the women in the market for a husband warmly welcome his attentions!

4 — Among the oil millionaires, Robert Neal, a 34-year-old "tall, dark and handsome" Texan emerges as the "best bet," judging from the replies I received. He, it would appear, assumes responsibility, works hard, and then plays hard. There are those who consider him the "yum-yum number" among all eligible bachelors.

5—John Williamson, 48, owner of the world's second largest diamond mine (at Lake Victoria, South Africa), was identified as the "most elusive catch of the lot." It would seem that he's "in the mood" to get married, but due to extremely "bashful habits" has difficulty in meeting the woman of his desire.

6 — An Englishman also made the bachelor hit parade—namely, the dashing Duke of Kent. Comments regarding him noted his "lack of all trace of snobbery," "his friendly way," his "human touch," and "charming deviltry." Another point in his favor: He has oodles of that "green stuff!"

7—A real-for-sure king — King Baudouin of Belgium, just turning 25—was selected as one of the most "desirable bachelors." His weaknesses: skiing, racing cars, and sports-minded (or outdoor) women. Whoever "bags" him will have a choice of two palaces to live in!

* * *

8—A GENUINE shiek — 39-year-old Ezzat Gaafar of Arabia—was boosted into a prominent spot on the eligible bachelor roster. Traveling women and State department career girls (stationed in foreign lands) paid him unusually warm tribute. For example: "He's so modest and down-to-earth you forget about his title of sheik." "His smile gets you!" He—an oil millionaire, on the side—seems to prefer blondes.

9—From the world of sports: Herb Score, the Cleveland Indians' sensational strikeout king of the major leagues, age 23, was voted —by the bachelorets I sounded out —as the "best catch" among bachelors.

10 — Regardless of all the "knocks" Marlon Brando has received in print, he won—by a landslide—as the No. 1 eligible bachelor among male movie stars.

Cigar Box Radio Passes Its Test

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — Engineers here have successfully tested a new lightweight mobile radio transmitting and receiving set the size of a cigar box. It has an operating range of 30 miles.

The eight pound unit is called Avcom Mark I and was designed for both heavy duty military and civilian uses.

Refugee Couple To Wed In Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP)—A young couple who fought together against Russians in Budapest will be married here Thursday.

Otto Szeratics, 27, and Ida Halma, 23, will be wed in the First Hungarian Reformed Church.

The bride's cousin, Ilona Hencz, 26, who escaped with her from Hungary, will be maid of honor.

World Harmony In The Kitchen

OKLAHOMA CITY — When the St. James Episcopal Church decided to hold an "international bazaar", it didn't have to settle for imitations.

Ten foreign born women — all members of the church — cooked up dishes favored in their former homelands of Scotland, Ireland, France, New Zealand, Iceland, Australia, Germany, Holland and Japan.

Dad Has Plenty Taken Off Top

OKLAHOMA CITY — When the barber asked Robert Butkin, 3, the usual question about how he wanted his hair cut, he gave the usual answer: "Like my daddy's."

He wasn't satisfied with the barber's efforts so when he got home he took the scissors and finished the job.

His dad, Morris Butkin, is bald.

Firefighters Take Blaze To Water

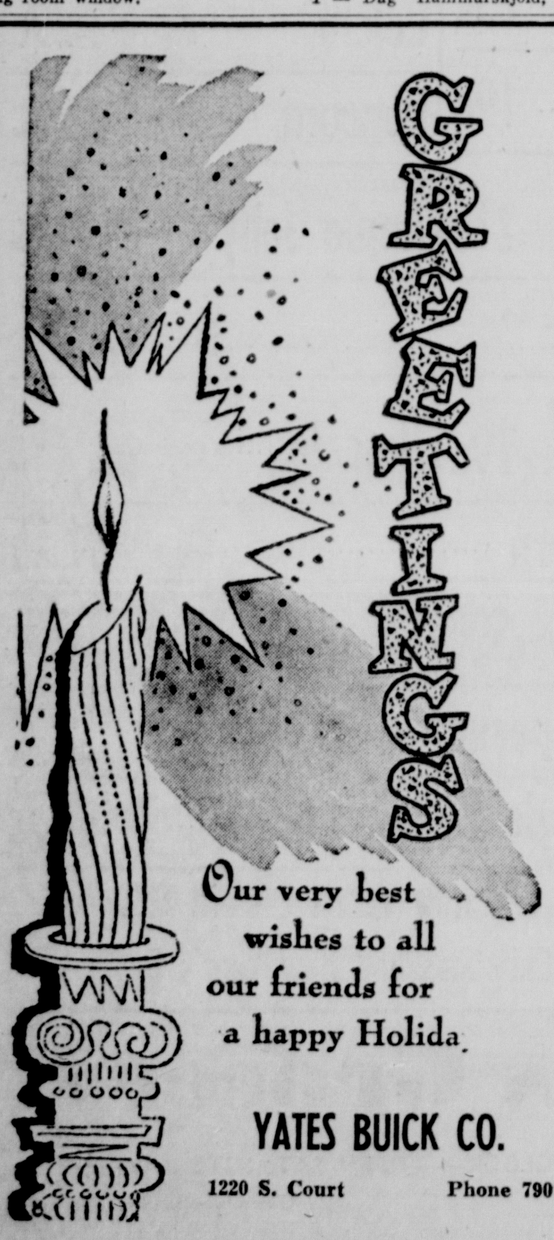
TULARE, Calif.—Firemen from the Division of Forestry saved 84 bales of cotton from flames by taking the fire to the water.

The blaze broke out inside a box car at the Southern Pacific depot. Firemen moved the burning car to a siding beneath a water tank and doused the flames.

Greetings

AS THE OLD YEAR FADES INTO THE PAST OUR THOUGHTS REVERT GRATEFULLY TO THOSE WHOSE GOOD WILL AND CONFIDENCE HAVE MADE OUR PROGRESS POSSIBLE. IT IS OUR SINCERE WISH THAT ALL THAT IS GOOD SHALL BE YOURS IN THE APPROACHING NEW YEAR.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gosnell and Associates



Cage Tourney Madness Set For This Week

Many Questions Due To Be Answered On Location Of Power

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The annual tournament madness hits college basketball this week and when the last shot is fired these questions will have been answered:

1. Will Kansas and Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain continue their drive toward an unbeaten season?

2. Will favored North Carolina manage to escape defeat in the tough Dixie Classic, in which powerful West Virginia and Duke teams also will participate?

3. Is Kentucky headed toward the top rung of he national rankings?

4. Do setbacks by Ohio State and Illinois last weekend mean the Big Ten will not have a strong representative this season?

Kansas, top-rated in the latest Associated Press poll, will attempt to boost its 6-0 mark in the Big Seven tourney at Kansas City starting Wednesday.

North Carolina takes an 8-0 record into the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N. C., Thursday. This should be the most hotly contested tournament. Utah, Wake Forest, DePaul, Iowa and North Carolina State round out the field.

Seventh-ranked Kentucky pulled one of the surprises of the year Saturday night in beating Illinois 91-70 to win the Kentucky Invitation Tourname.. The Wildcats next move into the Sugar Bowl competition Friday night. Alabama, Houston and Virginia Tech are also in this one.

The Illinois setback, coupled with Ohio State's 74-71 loss to Tulane Saturday, left the Big Ten without an undefeated quintet.

However, with Ohio State, Iowa, Minnesota, Northwestern and Michigan State all down for tournament play, the Big Ten has an opportunity to recover prestige.

The Buckeyes will compete in the ECAC Holidays Festival at Madison Square Garden, which opens Tuesday. Temple and St. John's along with Ohio State are rated stronger than the other entries, Villanova, NYU, Fordham, Brigham Young, Niagara, Notre Dame and Manhattan.

Minnesota is in the Queen City Tourney at Buffalo, N.Y., Thursday. Northwestern is booked for the Motor City Classic at Detrit, which starts Friday. Michigan State is the "guest" team in the Big Seven shindig.

The Southwest Conference tourney at Houston, which numbers fourth-ranked Southern Methodist among its entries, begins Thursday. And the Blue Grass Festival kicks off Friday night with sixth-ranked Louisville, St. Louis, Duquense and Dayton in the field.

Long Pass Wins For Baltimore '11'

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Colts almost fumbled away a National Football League victory Sunday before taking advantage of their one big break in the final 6 seconds to edge the Washington Redskins 19-17.

With time running out, rookie quarterback John Unitas heaved a long pass downfield. The ball bounced off the shoulder of Washington's Norb Hecker and into the hands of Colt end Jim Mutscheller.

Mutscheller took two steps and a hard tackle drove him into the end zone for a 53-yard touchdown play that put Baltimore ahead.

Macklin Field, home of Michigan State football games, will seat 76,000 fans for 1957.

Mantle Proud Of Title As Top Athlete

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—"Just like hitting a grand slam home run in the World Series."

Mickey Mantle says that's the way it feels to be named Male Athlete of the Year in the annual Associated Press poll.

"This is a real big thrill," he says, "The biggest I've ever known off the baseball field."

Mantle piled up almost twice as many ballot points (333 to 168) as his nearest rival Bobby Morrow, Olympic triple gold medal winner.

In third place was heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson. Bill Russell of basketball fame was fourth and the Yanks' no-hit, no-run, no-anything pitcher, Don Larsen, ranked fifth.

Mantle has been in Anchorage with the Bob Hope troupe entertaining servicemen in Alaska.

Mantle just about cornered baseball's honors this year. He won the "triple crown" of batting in the American League — the hitting, home run and runs batted in championships. He also led the league in scoring and wound up as unanimous choice as the league's Most Valuable Player.

He was a hero, along with Larsen, of the Yanks' World Series triumph over Brooklyn.

Bowling Scores

K of P LEAGUE

Circleville No. 1	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
Turner	138	121	185	454
Stout	166	134	152	452
Neff	148	127	89	364
Styers	153	173	143	469
Woodward	159	145	139	443
Actual Total	764	710	708	2182
Handicap	53	53	53	159
Total	817	763	761	2341
Ashville No. 1	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
Grant	123	122	125	370
Peters	137	131	166	434
Schiff	131	155	136	422
Tosca	135	157	157	449
Trego	150	148	126	424
Total	676	713	710	2099
Ashville No. 2	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
B. Hedges	141	116	127	384
R. Badger	129	92	113	334
P. Kuhlwein	118	155	112	385
R. Courtright	134	133	126	393
R. Lindsey	159	179	199	537
Total	681	675	677	2033
Circleville No. 3	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
G. Lane	144	106	118	368
G. Wharton	145	134	115	394
D. Glick	113	114	140	367
R. Reichelderfer	161	179	192	532
A. Strawser	162	158	151	471
Handicap	5	5	5	15
Total	730	696	721	2147
Ashville No. 3	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
C. Morrison	138	118	163	419
C. Helser	131	167	166	464
E. Barr	118	131	171	420
J. Brinker	101	102	95	298
N. Barr	149	121	143	413
Actual Total	637	639	738	2016
Handicap	123	123	123	369
Total	760	762	861	2385
Circleville No. 2	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
B. Barnes	156	140	156	452
C. Radcliffe	123	154	126	403
W. Edstrom	127	148	133	408
C. Andrews	161	148	141	450
L. Davis	138	170	113	421
Total	705	760	669	2134

Sokolsky's

These Days

(Continued from Page Six)

And even there in Bethlehem the clouds of war are black and men hate who have no reason for hate. They have become black with the bitterness of their hatred for each other. And so there, where many come to look at sacred places, to see the physical traces of the patriarchs and teachers of their various nations, war is taking its measure of life. The sons of Isaac and of Ishmael, who believe that they had the same progenitor, are battling as though to the death.

Long have they lived in their desert and somehow most of the time they lived passably well together but there have been outbreaks before. And always Egypt was the seat of much trouble but always it was the rich area to which men turned from time to time for quiet and wealth.

But not all Egyptians are Ishmaelites. There are many who have forgotten the past. They know not Joseph nor do they know Moses. They have forgotten much; they have forgotter mostly that men must live at peace or they die by the sword. Today, it is not the sword but atomic warheads or guided missiles.

This is not a business for Christmas no matter what is the religion that one professes or preaches. The atmosphere of the world does not suit the Christmas season which is devoted not only to God but to peace — peace on Earth.

Crossword Puzzle

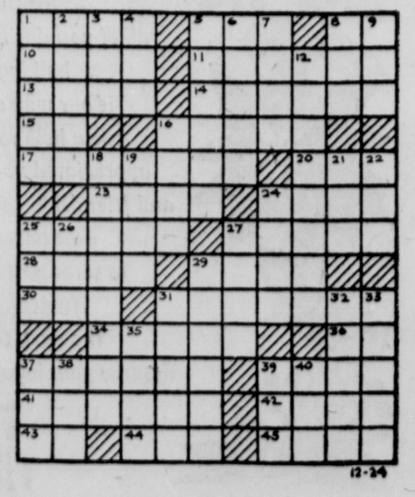
ACROSS

1. Story
5. Insane
8. Prefecture (Chin.)
10. Hodgepodge
11. A state (poss.)
13. Tilts
14. Essence
15. Half an em
16. Borders
17. Arbitrator
20. Sanskrit school
23. Greedy
24. Adhesive substance
25. Frequently
27. Dens
28. Costly
29. Brother of Abel
30. Lamprey
31. Fawned
34. Hebrew patriarch
36. Greek letter
37. The fall
39. Sleeveless garment
41. English poet
42. Incite
43. Sloth
44. Foxy
45. Chums

DOWN

1. A stone roller (fish)
2. Straighten (var.)
3. Back talk
4. Goddess of dawn
5. Heeded
6. Maxim
7. Fruit of the palm
8. Preposition
9. Employ
12. Hurrying
16. Ireland (poet.)
18. A death
19. Always
21. Belonging to us
22. Man's nickname
24. Win
25. Poem
26. Charge for services
27. Of the laity
29. Wall crevice
31. Humped animal
32. Oust
33. Legislatures
35. Soapy water
37. Girl's name
38. Swiss canton
39. Crown
40. Arabian garment

Saturday's Answer



12-24

Basketball Scores

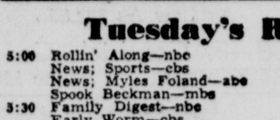
Ohio College
Saturday
Watauga Invitational
Ohio U. 85, Austin Peay 65
Kentucky Invitational
Southern Methodist 67, Dayton 59
Cincinnati Invitational
Miami 84, George Wash. 70
Other Scores
Tulane 75, Ohio State 71
Cincinnati 73, Fordham 67

MONDAY'S TELEVISION PROGRAMS

ASK US ABOUT OUR MANY SERVICES WE HAVE TO OFFER YOU
Visit Our Local Art Display
The Circleville Savings and Banking Co.

SAVE on low cost BANK LOANS

5:00 (4) Santa Claus
(6) Mickey Mouse Club
(10) Western Roundup
6:00 (4) Front Row Theater
(6) Looney Tunes
(10) Kingdom of the Sea
6:30 (4) Meetin' Time
(6) Columbus Close-Up
(10) Public Defender
7:00 (4) News; Ohio Story
(6) Jingle Christmas
(10) News
7:30 (4) Nat King Cole
(6) Jingle Christmas
(10) Robin Hood
8:00 (4) Sir Lancelot
(6) Danny Thomas
(10) Burns and Allen
8:30 (4) Stanley
(6) Voice of Firestone
(10) Talent Scouts
9:00 (4) Can Do
(6) Life is Worth Living
(10) I Love Lucy
9:30 (4) Montgomery Presents
(6) Lawrence Welk
(10) December Bride
10:00 (4) Montgomery Presents
(6) Lawrence Welk
(10) Studio One
10:30 (4) Studio 57
(6) Stage 7
(10) Studio One
11:00 (4) News
(6) News; Home Theater
(10) News; Armchair Theatre
11:30 (4) Christmas Films
(6) Home Theater
(10) Christmas Eve Program
(6) Christmas Carols
12:00 (4) Midnight Mass
(10) Christmas Eve Program
(6) Midnight Mass
12:30 (4) Midnight Mass
The Small One—abc
(10) Refugees' Christmas



Stop and See Our Large Selection of 2 and 3 Bedroom Mobile Homes Completely Furnished
Circleville Mobile Home Sales
Ventoura and Alma Trailers
N. Court St. — Circleville, O.

Monday's Radio Programs

5:00 Rollin' Along—nbc
News; Sports—cbs
News; Myles Foland—abc
Spook Beckman—mbs
3:30 Family Digest—nbc
Early Worm—cbs
Bob Linville—abc
Spook Beckman—mbs
6:00 Weather; Rollin' Along—nbc
News—cbs
News—abc
Sports; Party Line—mbs
6:30 News; Weather—nbc
Star Time—cbs
News—abc
Party Line—mbs
7:00 Counterspy—nbc
Amos 'n' Andy—cbs
Ed Morgan—abc
Fulton Lewis—mbs
7:30 Morgan Beatty—nbc
Bing Crosby—cbs
(6) Midnight Mass
New World—mbs
8:00 Bob and Ray—nbc
Robert Q. Lewis—cbs
Christmas Carol—abc
Cavalcade—mbs
8:30 Voice of Firestone—nbc
Listen—cbs
Christmas Carol—abc
The Messiah—mbs
9:00 Telephone Hour—nbc
Christmas Singing—cbs
Fred Waring—abc
The Messiah—mbs
9:30 Contrasts in Music—nbc
Christmas Singing—cbs
Percy Faith—abc
Chorus—mbs
10:00 News & variety all stations

Hi Test Gasoline At Regular Price
Gib and Joe's Sunoco
600 N. Court St.
Phone 9400

TUESDAY'S TELEVISION PROGRAMS

5:00 (4) Mr. Widgett
(6) Mickey Mouse Club
(10) Western Roundup
6:00 (4) Front Row Theater
(6) Range Rider
(10) Wild Bill Hickok
6:30 (4) Meetin' Time
(6) Columbus Close-Up
(10) Outdoors
7:00 (4) News; Ohio Story
(6) Rosemary Clooney
(10) News
7:30 (4) Johnathan Winters
(6) Cheyenne
(10) Crunch and Des
8:00 (4) Big Surprise
(6) Chyenne
(10) Phil Silvers
8:30 (4) Noah's Ark
(6) Wyatt Earp
(10) Christmas Legend
9:00 (4) Jane Wyman
(6) Broken Arrow
(10) To Tell The Truth
9:30 (4) Circle Theatre
(6) Theatre
(10) Red Skelon
10:00 (4) Circle Theatre
(6) Wrestling
(10) $64,000 Question
10:30 (4) Autograph Row
(6) Wrestling
(10) Highway Patrol
11:00 (4) News
(6) News; Home Theater
(10) News; Armchair Theatre
11:30 (4) Tonight
(6) Home Theater
(10) Armchair Theatre
12:00 (4) Tonight
(6) Home Theater
(10) Armchair Theatre
12:30 (4) News Headlines
(6) Home Theatre
(10) Armchair Th'tre; Playhouse

Ashville Farm Equipment
R. C. BELT
Sales — Service — Parts
Phone 4601 — Ashville, O.

Tuesday's Radio Programs

5:00 Rollin' Along—nbc
News; Sports—cbs
News; Myles Foland—abc
Spook Beckman—mbs
3:30 Family Digest—nbc
Early Worm—cbs
Bob Linville—abc
Spook Beckman—mbs
6:00 Rollin' Along—nbc
News; Sports—cbs
News; Sports—abc
Party Line—mbs
6:30 News; Weather—nbc
Star Time—cbs
Furniss News—abc
Party Line—mbs
7:00 True Detective—nbc
Amos 'n' Andy—cbs
Ed Morgan—abc
Fulton Lewis—mbs
7:30 News—nbc
Bing Crosby—cbs
Bob Linville—abc
Gene Fullen—mbs
8:00 Bob and Ray—nbc
Robert Q. Lewis—cbs
Bob Linville—abc
Gene Fullen—mbs
8:30 Dragnet—nbc
Listen—cbs
Bliss Basketball—abc
Gene Fullen—mbs
9:00 Weather; News—nbc
World Tonight—cbs
Bliss Basketball—abc
City Council—mbs
10:00 News and Variety all stations

RENT A FROZEN FOOD LOCKER
DAILEY'S
"Custom Slaughtering"
Home Dressed Beef and Pork
Nicholas Drive—Phone 68

WEDNESDAY'S TELEVISION PROGRAMS

5:00 (4) Mr. Widgett
(6) Mickey Mouse
(10) Western Roundup
6:00 (4) Front Row Theatre
(6) Foreign Legionnaire
(10) Superman
6:30 (4) Meetin' Time
(6) Columbus Close-Up
(10) Soldiers of Fortune
7:00 (4) News; Ohio Story
(6) China Smith
(10) News
7:30 (4) Eddie Fisher
(6) Disneyland
(10) Giant Step
8:00 (4) Hiram Holliday
(6) Disneyland
(10) Arthur Godfrey
8:30 (4) Father Knows Best
(6) Navy Log
(10) Arthur Godfrey
9:00 (4) TV Theatre
(6) Ozzie and Harriet
(10) The Millionaire
9:30 (4) TV Theatre
(6) Theater
(10) I've Got A Secret
10:00 (4) This Is Your Life
(6) Fights
(10) Drama Hour
10:30 (4) TBA
(6) Fights
(10) Drama Hour
11:00 (4) News
(6) News; Home Theater
(10) News; Armchair Theatre
11:30 (4) Tonight
(6) Home Theater
(10) Armchair Theatre
12:00 (4) Tonight
(6) Home Theater
(10) Armchair Theatre
12:30 (4) News
(6) Home Theater
(10) Armchair Th'tre; Playhouse

Wednesday's Radio Programs

5:00 Rollin' Along—nbc
News; Sports—cbs
Bob Linville—abc
Spook Beckman—mbs
5:30 Family Digest—nbc
Early Worm—cbs
Bob Linville—abc
Spook Beckman—mbs
6:00 Rollin' Along—nbc
News; Sports—cbs
News; Sports—abc
Party Line—mbs
6:30 News—nbc
Star Time—cbs
News—abc
Party Line—mbs
7:00 Treasury Agent—nbc
Amos 'n' Andy—cbs
Ed Morgan—abc
Fulton Lewis—mbs
7:30 News—nbc
Bing Crosby—cbs
Bob Linville—abc
Melody Mart—mbs
8:00 Bob and Ray—nbc
Robert Q. Lewis—cbs
Bob Linville—abc
Melody Mart—mbs
8:30 People Here Now—nbc
Listen—cbs
Bob Linville—abc
Melody Mart—mbs
9:00 X-Minus One—nbc
World Tonight—cbs
Showbar—abc
Melody Mart—mbs
9:30 People Are Funny—nbc
Listen—cbs
Showbar—abc
Melody Mart—mbs
10:00 News and variety all stations

Bill Russell Slow On Pro Scoresheet

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Russell, who boosted San Francisco's Dons to a record-shattering college victory string and the U. S. team to the Olympic title at Melbourne, has yet to give Boston's NBA club the help they expected.

With Russell connecting for only five points, the Celts lost a full game of their Eastern Division lead Sunday. They lost 95-87 to the Fort Wayne Pistons. Russell scored six points in his pro debut Saturday as Bowton downed St. Louis 95-93.

Only 11 Ohio College Quints Facing Action

COLUMBUS (AP)—Only 11 of Ohio's 40 collegiate cage teams see action this week as the majority take time out to greet Santa Claus.

Nine of the 11 will appear in holiday tournaments in six different states. In regularly scheduled games Miami visits Southern Illinois Friday, and Cincinnati entertains Bradley Saturday.

As the Buckeye squads ran into the holiday lull, only Defiance's Yellow Jackets, with a six-game winning streak, were unbeaten. Four squads—Ohio State, Ohio University, Muskingum and Mount Union—suffered their first setbacks last week to give Defiance the unquestioned statewide lead.

The Ohioans played 29 games last week, 24 against out-of-state quintets. The Buckeyes won 13 and lost 11 of the interstate frays, giving them 46 wins and 34 losses, with a scoring edge of 6,187 to 5,727 against the outside teams.

This week's tournaments:

Wednesday through Saturday: Ohio State at Madison Square Garden Classic in New York; Muskingum at Mid-West Event in Terre Haute, Ind.

Thursday through Saturday: Xavier at Queen City Tourney in Buffalo.

Friday and Saturday: Dayton at Bluegrass Tourney in Louisville, Ky.; Akron Invitational, featuring Akron, Denison, Mt. Union and Wooster; Central State at Hope College Invitational at Holland Mich.

The New York Giants attracted the fewest home fans in the National League in 1956. A total of 629,179 paid to see games in the Polo Grounds, a drop of almost 200,000 from the 1955 attendance.

Cage Tourney Madness Set For This Week

Many Questions Due To Be Answered On Location Of Power

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The annual tournament madness hits college basketball this week and when the last shot is fired these questions will have been answered:

1. Will Kansas and Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain continue their drive toward an unbeaten season?

2. Will favored North Carolina manage to escape defeat in the tough Dixie Classic, in which powerful West Virginia and Duke teams also will participate?

3. Is Kentucky headed toward the top rung of he national rankings?

4. Do setbacks by Ohio State and Illinois last weekend mean the Big Ten will not have a strong representative this season?

Kansas, top-rated in the latest Associated Press poll, will attempt to boost its 6-0 mark in the Big Seven tourney at Kansas City starting Wednesday.

North Carolina takes an 8-0 record into the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N. C., Thursday. This should be the most hotly contested tournament. Utah, Wake Forest, DePaul, Iowa and North Carolina State round out the field.

Seventh-ranked Kentucky pulled one of the surprises of the year Saturday night in beating Illinois 91-70 to win the Kentucky Invitation Tourname.. The Wildcats next move into the Sugar Bowl competition Friday night. Alabama, Houston and Virginia Tech are also in this one.

The Illinois setback, coupled with Ohio State's 74-71 loss to Tulane Saturday, left the Big Ten without an undefeated quintet.

However, with Ohio State, Iowa, Minnesota, Northwestern and Michigan State all down for tournament play, the Big Ten has an opportunity to recover prestige.

The Buckeyes will compete in the ECAC Holidays Festival at Madison Square Garden, which opens Tuesday. Temple and St. John's along with Ohio State are rated stronger than the other entries, Villanova, NYU, Fordham, Brigham Young, Niagara, Notre Dame and Manhattan.

Minnesota is in the Queen City Turney at Buffalo, N.Y., Thursday. Northwestern is booked for the Motor City Classic at Detrit, which starts Friday. Michigan State is the "guest" team in the Big Seven shindig.

The Southwest Conference tourney at Houston, which numbers fourth-ranked Southern Methodist among its entries, begins Thursday. And the Blue Grass Festival kicks off Friday night with sixth-ranked Louisville, St. Louis, Duquense and Dayton in the field.

Long Pass Wins For Baltimore '11'

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Colts almost fumbled away a National Football League victory Sunday before taking advantage of their one big break in the final seconds to edge the Washington Redskins 19-17.

With time running out, rookie quarterback John Unitas heaved a long pass downfield. The ball bounced off the shoulder of Washington's Norb Hecker and into the hands of Colt end Jim Mutscheller.

Mutscheller took two steps and a hard tackle drove him into the end zone for a 53-yard touchdown play that put Baltimore ahead.

Macklin Field, home of Michigan State football games, will seat 76,000 fans for 1957.

Mantle Proud Of Title As Top Athlete

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—"Just like hitting a grand slam home run in the World Series."

Mickey Mantle says that's the way it feels to be named Male Athlete of the Year in the annual Associated Press poll.

"This is a real big thrill," he says. "The biggest I've ever known off the baseball field."

Mantle piled up almost twice as many ballot points (333 to 168) as his nearest rival Bobby Morrow, Olympic triple gold medal winner.

In third place was heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson. Bill Russell of basketball fame was fourth and the Yanks' no-hit, no-run, no-anything pitcher, Don Larsen, ranked fifth.

Mantle has been in Anchorage with the Bob Hope troupe entertaining servicemen in Alaska.

Mantle just about cornered baseball's honors this year. He won the "triple crown" of batting in the American League — the hitting, home run and runs batted in championships. He also led the league in scoring and wound up as unanimous choice as the league's Most Valuable Player.

He was a hero, along with Larsen, of the Yanks' World Series triumph over Brooklyn.

Bowling Scores

K of P LEAGUE

Circleville No. 1	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
Turner	138	131	185	454
Stout	166	134	152	452
Neff	148	127	89	364
Styers	153	173	143	469
Woodward	159	145	139	443
Actual Total	764	710	708	2182
Handicap	53	53	53	159
Total	817	763	761	2341
Ashville No. 1	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
Grant	123	122	125	370
Peters	137	131	166	434
Schiff	131	155	136	422
Tosca	135	157	157	449
Trego	150	148	126	424
Total	676	713	710	2099
Ashville No. 2	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
B. Hedges	141	116	127	384
R. Badger	129	92	113	334
P. Kuhlwein	118	155	112	385
R. Courtright	134	133	126	393
R. Lindsey	159	179	199	537
Total	681	675	677	2033
Circleville No. 3	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
G. Lane	144	106	118	368
G. Wharton	145	134	115	394
D. Glick	113	114	140	367
R. Reichelderfer	161	179	192	532
A. Strawser	162	158	151	471
Handicap	5	5	5	15
Total	730	696	721	2147
Ashville No. 3	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
C. Morrison	138	118	163	419
C. Helser	131	167	166	464
E. Barr	118	131	171	420
J. Brinker	101	102	95	298
N. Barr	149	121	143	413
Actual Total	637	639	738	2016
Handicap	123	123	123	369
Total	760	762	861	2385
Circleville No. 2	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
B. Barnes	156	140	156	452
C. Radcliffe	123	154	126	403
W. Edstrom	127	148	133	408
C. Andrews	161	148	141	450
L. Davis	138	170	113	421
Total	705	760	669	2134

Sokolsky's These Days

(Continued from Page Six)

And even there in Bethlehem the clouds of war are black and men hate who have no reason for hate. They have become black with the bitterness of their hatred for each other. And so there, where many come to look at sacred places, to see the physical traces of the patriarchs and teachers of their various nations, war is taking its measure of life. The sons of Isaac and of Ishmael, who believe that they had the same progenitor, are battling as though to the death.

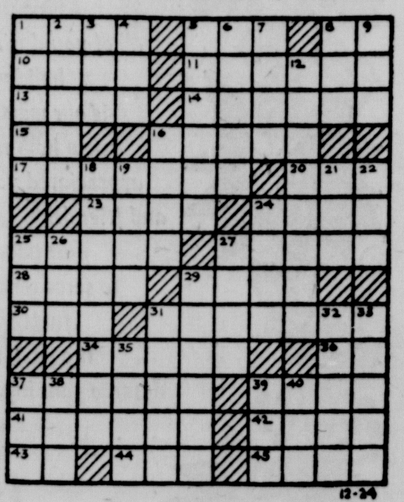
Long have they lived in their desert and somehow most of the time they lived passably well together but there have been outbreaks before. And always Egypt was the seat of much trouble but always it was the rich area to which men turned from time to time for quiet and wealth.

But not all Egyptians are Ishmaelites. There are many who have forgotten the past. They know not Joseph nor do they know Moses. They have forgotten much; they have forgotter mostly that men must live at peace or they die by the sword. Today, it is not the sword but atomic warheads or guided missiles.

This is not a business for Christmas no matter what is the religion that one professes or preaches. The atmosphere of the world does not suit the Christmas season which is devoted not only to God but to peace — peace on Earth.

Crossword Puzzle

Saturday's Answer



ACROSS
1. Story
5. Insane
8. Prefecture (Chin.)
10. Hodgepodge
11. A state (poss.)
13. Tilts
14. Essence
15. Half an em
16. Borders
17. Arbitrator
20. Sanskrit school
23. Greedy
24. Adhesive substance
25. Frequently
27. Dens
28. Costly
29. Brother of Abel
30. Lamprey
31. Fawned
34. Hebrew patriarch
36. Greek letter
37. The fall
39. Sleeveless garment
41. English poet
42. Incite
43. Sloth
44. Foxy
45. Chums

DOWN
1. A stone roller (fish)
2. Straighten (var.)
3. Back talk
4. Goddess of dawn
5. Heeded
6. Maxim
7. Fruit of the palm
8. Preposition
9. Employ
12. Hurrying
16. Ireland (poet.)
18. A death
19. Always
21. Belonging to us
22. Man's nickname
24. Win
25. Poem
26. Charge for services
27. Of the laity
29. Wall crevice
31. Humped animal
32. Oust
33. Legislatures
35. Soapy water
37. Girl's name
38. Swiss canton
39. Crown
40. Arabian garment

Basketball Scores

Ohio College
Saturday
Watauga Invitational
Ohio U. 85, Austin Peay 65
Kentucky Invitational
Southern Methodist 67, Dayton 59
Cincinnati Invitational
Miami 84, George Wash. 70
Other Scores
Tulane 75, Ohio State 71
Cincinnati 73, Fordham 67

MONDAY'S TELEVISION PROGRAMS

ASK US ABOUT OUR MANY SERVICES WE HAVE TO OFFER YOU
Visit Our Local Art Display
The Circleville Savings and Banking Co.
SAVE BANK LOANS

5:00	(4)	Santa Claus		(10)	I Love Lucy
	(8)	Mickey Mouse Club	9:30	(4)	Montgomery Presents
	(10)	Western Roundup		(6)	Lawrence Welk
6:00	(4)	Front Row Theater		(10)	December Bride
	(6)	Looney Tunes	10:00	(4)	Montgomery Presents
	(10)	Kingdom of the Sea		(6)	Lawrence Welk
6:30	(4)	Meetin' Time		(10)	Studio One
	(6)	Columbus Close-Up	10:30	(4)	Studio 57
	(10)	Public Defender		(6)	Stage 7
7:00	(4)	News; Ohio Story		(10)	Studio One
	(6)	Jingle Christmas	11:00	(4)	News
	(10)	News		(6)	News; Home Theater
7:30	(4)	Nat King Cole		(10)	News; Armchair Theatre
	(6)	Jingle Christmas	11:30	(4)	Christmas Films
	(10)	Robin Hood		(6)	Home Theater
8:00	(4)	Sir Lancelot		(10)	Christmas Eve Program
	(6)	Danny Thomas		(6)	Christmas Carols
	(10)	Burns and Allen	12:00	(4)	Midnight Mass
8:30	(4)	Stanley		(10)	Christmas Eve Program
	(6)	Voice of Firestone		(6)	Midnight Mass
	(10)	Talent Scouts	12:30	(4)	Midnight Mass
9:00	(4)	Can Do			The Small One—abc
	(6)	Life is Worth Living		(10)	Refugees' Christmas

Stop and See Our Large Selection of 2 and 3 Bedroom Mobile Homes Completely Furnished
Circleville Mobile Home Sales
Ventoura and Alma Trailers
N. Court St. — Circleville, O.

Monday's Radio Programs

5:00	Rollin' Along—nbc	7:30	Morgan Beatty—nbc
	News; Sports—cbs		Bing Crosby—cbs
	News; Myles Foland—abc		(6) Midnight Mass
	Spook Beckman—mbs		New World—mbs
5:30	Family Digest—nbc	8:00	Bob and Ray—nbc
	Early Worm—cbs		Robert Q. Lewis—cbs
	Bob Linville—abc		Christmas Carol—abc
	Spook Beckman—mbs		Cavalcade—mbs
6:00	Weather; Rollin' Along—nbc	8:30	Voice of Firestone—nbc
	News—cbs		Listen—cbs
	News—abc		Christmas Carol—abc
	Sports; Party Line—mbs		The Messiah—mbs
6:30	News; Weather—nbc	9:00	Telephone Hour—nbc
	Star Time—cbs		Christmas Singing—cbs
	News—abc		Fred Waring—abc
	Party Line—mbs		The Messiah—mbs
7:00	Counterspy—nbc	9:30	Contrasts in Music—nbc
	Amos 'n' Andy—cbs		Christmas Singing—cbs
	Ed Morgan—abc		Percy Faith—abc
	Fulton Lewis—mbs		Chorus—mbs
		10:00	News & variety all stations

Hi Test Gasoline At Regular Price
Gib and Joe's Sunoco
600 N. Court St.
Phone 9400

TUESDAY'S TELEVISION PROGRAMS

5:00	(4)	Mr. Widgett		(8)	Broken Arrow
	(6)	Mickey Mouse Club		(10)	To Tell The Truth
	(10)	Western Roundup	9:30	(4)	Circle Theatre
6:00	(4)	Front Row Theater		(6)	Theatre
	(6)	Range Rider		(10)	Red Skelon
	(10)	Wild Bill Hickok	10:00	(4)	Circle Theatre
6:30	(4)	Meetin' Time		(6)	Wrestling
	(6)	Columbus Close-Up		(10)	$64,000 Question
	(10)	Outdoors	10:30	(4)	Autograph Row
7:00	(4)	News; Ohio Story		(6)	Wrestling
	(6)	Rosemary Clooney		(10)	Highway Patrol
	(10)	News	11:00	(4)	News
7:30	(4)	Johnathan Winters		(6)	News; Home Theater
	(6)	Cheyenne		(10)	News; Armchair Theatre
	(10)	Crunch and Des	11:30	(4)	Tonight
8:00	(4)	Big Surprise		(6)	Home Theatre
	(6)	Chyenne		(10)	Armchair Theatre
	(10)	Phil Silvers	12:00	(4)	Tonight
8:30	(4)	Noah's Ark		(6)	Home Theater
	(6)	Wyatt Earp		(10)	Armchair Theatre
	(10)	Christmas Legend	12:30	(4)	News Headlines
9:00	(4)	Jane Wyman		(6)	Home Theatre
				(10)	Armchair Th'tre; Playhouse

Ashville Farm Equipment
R. C. BELT
Sales — Service — Parts
Phone 4601 — Ashville, O.

Tuesday's Radio Programs

5:00	Rollin' Along—nbc		Fulton Lewis—mbs
	News; Sports—cbs	7:30	News—nbc
	News; Myles Foland—abc		Bing Crosby—cbs
	Spook Beckman—mbs		Bob Linville—abc
5:30	Family Digest—nbc		Gene Fullen—mbs
	Early Worm—cbs	8:00	Bob and Ray—nbc
	Bob Linville—abc		Robert Q. Lewis—cbs
	Spook Beckman—mbs		Bob Linville—abc
6:00	Rollin' Along—nbc		Gene Fullen—mbs
	News; Sports—cbs	8:30	Dragnet—nbc
	News; Sports—abc		Listen—cbs
	Party Line—mbs		Bliss Basketball—abc
6:30	News; Weather—nbc		Gene Fullen—mbs
	Star Time—cbs	9:00	Weather; News—nbc
	News—abc		World Tonight—cbs
	Party Line—mbs		Bliss Basketball—abc
	Furniss News—abc		City Council—mbs
7:00	Party Line—mbs	10:00	News and Variety all stations
	True Detective—nbc
	Amos 'n' Andy—cbs
	Ed Morgan—abc

RENT A FROZEN FOOD LOCKER
DAILEY'S
"Custom Slaughtering"
Home Dressed Beef and Pork
Nicholas Drive—Phone 68

WEDNESDAY'S TELEVISION PROGRAMS

5:00	(4)	Mr. Widgett	8:00	(4)	TV Theatre
	(6)	Mickey Mouse		(6)	Ozzie and Harriet
	(10)	Western Roundup		(10)	The Millionaire
6:00	(4)	Front Row Theatre	9:30	(4)	TV Theatre
	(6)	Foreign Legionnaire		(6)	Theater
	(10)	Superman		(10)	I've Got A Secret
6:30	(4)	Meetin' Time	10:00	(4)	This Is Your Life
	(6)	Columbus Close-Up		(6)	Fights
	(10)	Soldiers of Fortune		(10)	Drama Hour
7:00	(4)	News; Ohio Story	10:30	(4)	TBA
	(6)	China Smith		(6)	Fights
	(10)	News		(10)	Drama Hour
7:30	(4)	Eddie Fisher	11:00	(4)	News
	(6)	Disneyland		(6)	News; Home Theater
	(10)	Giant Step		(10)	News; Armchair Theatre
8:00	(4)	Hiram Holliday	11:30	(4)	Tonight
	(6)	Disneyland		(6)	Home Theater
	(10)	Arthur Godfrey		(10)	Armchair Theatre
8:30	(4)	Father Knows Best	12:00	(4)	Tonight
	(6)	Navy Log		(6)	Home Theater
	(10)	Arthur Godfrey		(10)	Armchair Theatre
			12:30	(4)	News
				(6)	Home Theater
				(10)	Armchair Th'tre; Playhouse

Wednesday's Radio Programs

5:00	Rollin' Along—nbc	7:30	News—nbc
	News; Sports—cbs		Bing Crosby—cbs
	Bob Linville—abc		Bob Linville—abc
	Spook Beckman—mbs		Melody Mart—mbs
5:30	Family Digest—nbc	8:00	Bob and Ray—nbc
	Early Worm—cbs		Robert Q. Lewis—cbs
	Bob Linville—abc		Bob Linville—abc
	Spook Beckman—mbs		Melody Mart—mbs
6:00	Rollin' Along—nbc	8:30	People Here Now—nbc
	News; Sports—cbs		Listen—cbs
	News; Sports—abc		Bob Linville—abc
	Party Line—mbs		Melody Mart—mbs
6:30	News—nbc	9:00	X-Minus One—nbc
	Star Time—cbs		World Tonight—cbs
	News—abc		Showbar—abc
	Party Line—mbs		Melody Mart—mbs
7:00	Treasury Agent—nbc	9:30	People Are Funny—nbc
	Amos 'N' Andy—cbs		Listen—cbs
	Ed Morgan—abc		Showbar—abc
	Fulton Lewis—mbs		Melody Mart—mbs
		10:00	News and variety all stations

Bill Russell Slow On Pro Scoresheet

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Russell, who boosted San Francisco's Dons to a record-shattering college victory string and the U. S. team to the Olympic title at Melbourne, has yet to give Boston's NBA club the help they expected.

With Russell connecting for only five points, the Celts lost a full game of their Eastern Division lead Sunday. They lost 95-87 to the Fort Wayne Pistons. Russell scored six points in his pro debut Saturday as Bowton downed St. Louis 95-93.

Only 11 Ohio College Quints Facing Action

COLUMBUS (AP)—Only 11 of Ohio's 40 collegiate cage teams see action this week as the majority take time out to greet Santa Claus.

Nine of the 11 will appear in holiday tournaments in six different states. In regularly scheduled games Miami visits Southern Illinois Friday, and Cincinnati entertains Bradley Saturday.

As the Buckeye squads ran into the holiday lull, only Defiance's Yellow Jackets, with a six-game winning streak, were unbeaten. Four squads—Ohio State, Ohio University, Muskingum and Mount Union—suffered their first setbacks last week to give Defiance the unquestioned statewide lead.

The Ohioans played 29 games last week, 24 against out-of-state quintets. The Buckeyes won 13 and lost 11 of the interstate frays, giving them 46 wins and 34 losses, with a scoring edge of 6,187 to 5,727 against the outside teams.

This week's tournaments:

Wednesday through Saturday: Ohio State at Madison Square Garden Classic in New York; Muskingum at Mid-West Event in Terre Haute, Ind.

Thursday through Saturday: Xavier at Queen City Tourney in Buffalo.

Friday and Saturday: Dayton at Bluegrass Tourney in Louisville, Ky.; Akron Invitational, featuring Akron, Denison, Mt. Union and Wooster; Central State at Hope College Invitational at Holland Mich.

The New York Giants attracted the fewest home fans in the National League in 1956. A total of 629,179 paid to see games in the Polo Grounds, a drop of almost 200,000 from the 1955 attendance.

OHIO OUTDOORS

from THE OHIO DIVISION OF WILDLIFE

Ohio deer hunters who were fortunate enough to kill a big buck may be eligible for membership in the newly founded honorary organization, the Buckeye Big Buck Club, established by the Ohio Division of Wildlife. To be eligible for membership, the hunter must have killed, in fair chase, a buck whose antlers score high enough to be recognized officially by the Boone & Crockett club.

If you kill a buck with a big rack, have the head scored by a local taxidermist who will be glad to assist you. If the head scores more than 140 points for a typical set of antlers or 150 points for a freak or non-typical head, it should be entered officially on a Boone & Crockett club application form.

These forms are available from the secretary, Mrs. Grancel Fitz, 5 Tudor City Place, New York 17, New York.

All deer heads must be measured by the official measurer for Ohio, Dr. William Scheele, Director, Cleveland Museum of Natural History, 2717 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, to be eligible for an official Boone & Crockett club award. If a head qualifies for listing by the club, the lucky hunter will receive a certificate from this organization in addition to the membership scroll from the division of wildlife. All bucks scoring 135 points or more should be entered.

ANY BUCK KILLED in Ohio this season, or in past years, if the time and place of kill is known, is eligible for entry. This drive to discover some of the big deer heads in Ohio should do much to assure Ohio deer of their rightful place in the annals of American big game records.

Be sure to have that big buck's head measured and scored if you think it deserves a place in the record books, for Ohio deer are known for their large size and big antlers.

Ohio waterfow hunters, particularly those down state, keep looking northward for the large flocks of ducks which normally start moving south about this time each year. So far, however, most of the ducks and geese in Ohio are staying in and around Sandusky Bay and on a few of the larger inland lakes.

In making a recent survey of the waterfowl situation in Ohio, Delmar Handley, waterfowl biologist in the Ohio Division of Wildlife, estimated there were approximately 100,000 ducks and 3,000 geese in the state, most of them in the Sandusky Bay area.

According to Handley, there were 40 per cent more waterfowl in Ohio last year on December 1 than this year. Handley says further that while the preliminary surveys looked promising for a successful waterfowl season in 1956, apparently the northern "duck factory" which normally produces the ducks for this area, just did not come up to expectations.

With the current waterfowl season rapidly coming to a close (December 22 is the last day) hunters are still hopefully waiting for the mallards and blacks to put in an appearance on the lakes and streams down state.

WHILE MOST Mourning Doves have left the state of Ohio, and are now being taken by hunters in southern states where they are considered one of the top game birds, some will remain here in Ohio through the Winter months.

Although Ohio is one of the few states not permitting dove shooting, they are considered the most important migratory game bird in the United States. During the last year 19 million doves were killed, while during the same period only 15 million waterfowl were taken.

Secretary of the Interior, Fred A. Seaton, has announced that the 1957-58 Migratory Bird hunting stamp, which will feature two American eider ducks in flight, has been chosen as the winning design.

Jackson Miles Abbott of New Alexandria, Virginia, is the artist who drew the winning design for the eighth annual "duck stamp" competition. This will be the 24th stamp to be issued in the Federal duck stamp series.

A panel of six waterfowl experts judged Abbott's design as the best of the 106 submitted in the competition.

During the judging, the artists' names were masked. The second choice of the judges was a design featuring brants, also drawn by Abbott.

THIS YEAR A total of 106 designs was submitted by 60 artists from twenty-eight states and the District of Columbia.

The first of the annual series of migratory waterfowl hunting stamps was designed by Jay N. Darling, famous cartoonist and noted conservationist, in 1934.

Heavy Contenders Set For Bouts

NEW YORK (AP)—While Floyd Patterson celebrates Christmas with his family and thinks about a long reign as heavyweight champion, two of his leading contenders will be busy trying to climb up the ladder.

Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, No. 1 contender, returns to the ring after a three-month layoff, to box Julio Mederos, a Cuban, Thursday at Milwaukee.

Willie Pastrano, No. 3 in the rankings, takes on Charley Norkus of Floral Park, N. Y., on the Wednesday card at Miami Beach.

Jackson won't be on television but the Pastrano-Norkus bout will.

Colorado Road Big Money-Maker

BOULDER, Colo. — Revenue from Colorado's first modern toll road, the Denver-Boulder turnpike, has passed the two million dollar mark two years ahead of schedule.

Engineers estimated the road, opened Jan. 21, 1952, would collect two million dollars by November 1958 but revenue has already surpassed that figure.

The toll is 25 cents an automobile for the 18-mile route.

Flam, Seixas Carry Yankee Tennis Hopes

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—California's Herbie Flam definitely will join Vic Seizas as America's singles hopes Wednesday when the Davis Cup challenge round gets underway, coach Bill Talbert announced today.

The draw for the 45th renewal will be held Christmas Day. Cup play begins Wednesday afternoon and ends Friday.

After watching Flam whip through a stiff practice session against pro star Tony Trabert, Talbert said there was no doubt in his mind about Flam's ability to go the distance against either Lew Hoad or Ken Rosewall.

Some question had arisen Sunday when Flam came back from a workout and asked to have his leg treated by the team trainer. But he said his leg is now fine and he has no complaints.

Over in the Australian camp, coach Harry Hopman has his boys razor sharp and experts here say Lew Hoad is playing better and hitting the ball harder than he has in recent weeks.

Hoad and Ken Rosewall are the key men expected to lead Australia to its second straight 5-0 victory over the U. S.

The challenge round competition between the two countries is a long standing affair, dating back to 1908. Each country has won 10 times in the showdown for the coveted cup. This is the tie breaker.

Indiana Center Sets Big 10 Pace

CHICAGO (AP) —Indiana center Archie Dees maintained his Big Ten all-games basketball scoring lead despite a dip in his scoring average.

Dees has a total of 148 points in six games for a 24.6 average. Two games last week saw his average fall from 27.2.

George Bon Salle of Illinois remained in second place with 121 points in six games while Michigan's George Lee moved into third place with 119 points.

7 Thugs Cart Off Cigaret Shipment

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—Seven masked men tied up two watchmen and stole 400 cases of cigarets and a truck from the Century Food Markets Co. warehouse in suburban Wickliffe Saturday.

The men broke in and overcame one watchman, then waited for his relief to report at midnight and tied him up, too. Both watchmen were put in a rest room. One got loose several hours later and called the sheriff's office.

Classified

Phone 782

To order a classified ad just telephone 782 and ask for an ad-taker. She will quote rates and help you write your ad. You may mail your ad to The Circleville Herald if you prefer.

WORD RATE

Per word, one insertion	8c
Per word, 3 consecutive insertions	10c
Per word, 6 insertions	20c
Minimum charge one time	60c

Obituaries $2.00 minimum

Card of Thanks $1.50 per insertion. 75 word maximum on obituaries and cards of thanks. Each additional word 5 cents.

Publisher reserves the right to edit or reject all classified advertising copy. Ads ordered for more than one time and cancelled before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appears and adjustments made at the rate earned. Publishers reserve the right to classify ads under the appropriate headings.

Publishers are responsible for only one incorrect insertion of an ad. Out of town advertising must be cash with the order.

Classified ads must be in The Herald office before 1:30 p. m. the day before publication.

Business Service

FOR QUICK, dependable TV ond radio service Ph. Johnston TV and Radio Sales and Service. Dealer for RCA and Zenith TV and radios.

BARTHELMAS SHEET METAL AND PLUMBING
241 E. Main St. Phone 127

IKE'S
Septic Tank & sewer cleaning service. Phone 784-L or 253.

PLASTERING
And Stucco Work
New and Repair
GEORGE R. RAMEY
722 S. Scioto St. Phone 1040L or 313Y

FOR EXPERT lubrication and car washes, go to 514 E. Main St. Pick-up and delivery anywhere in town. H. B. Conrad, 514 E. Main.

FOR NEW homes or to remodel see RAYMOND MOATS — PH. 1941

ALUMINUM and asbestos siding, roofing and spouting. Clarence Miller, Kingston, Ph. Ni. 2-3493.

ED HELWAGEN
PONTIAC AGENCY
400 N. Court St. Phone 843

SEWER AND DRAIN SERVICE
Inexpensive and effective. Only Roto Rooter can give complete cleaning service without unnecessary digging. Circleville 455 or Lancaster 3663.

WATER WELL DRILLING
JOE CHRISTY Ph. 987 and 1730

HOUSEHOLD DRAIN SERVICE
See E. W. Weiler. Newest types of equipment. Ph. 1012R Evenings

E. W. WEILER
Bldg. contractor, Heating, Plumbing Remodeling
Phone 616 Evenings 1012-R

Ward's Upholstery
225 E. Main St. Phone 135

BODY REPAIR
PAINTING
Over 50 Years Experience
By The Two Best Body
Repair Men In The Country
LEE VALENTINE
LLOYD FISHER
Let Us Give You An Estimate
YATES BUICK CO.
1220 S. Court St.

FARM EQUIPMENT

RALPH Strahler, Agt. for MARIETTA SILOS Bloomingburg Ph. 77336.

OLIVER AND NEW IDEA
Sales and Service
BECKETT IMPLEMENT CO.
119 E. Franklin St. Phone 122

Personal

NO NEED to wax, just relax. Use Glaxo transparent linoleum coating. Lasts months. Circleville Hardware.

Financial

NEXT TIME! Save when you borrow for any worthy purpose. Use a low-cost BancPlan Loan on your own security. Call at The Second National Bank.

FARMERS' LOANS: At low cost and convenient terms to refinance debts, purchase machinery, livestock, appliances, automobiles, fertilizer, seeds, land and all farm needs. See Don Clump, Production Credit, 231 North Court Street.

NOTICE OF STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Scioto Building and Loan Company, Circleville, Ohio will be held at its office at 157 West Main Street, Circleville Ohio at 4 o'clock p. m. on Monday, January 14, 1957 for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

F. W. Sieverts, Secretary

Dec. 24, 31, Jan. 7.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Detailed Reference to Business Facilities of Circleville

DAIRY PRODUCTS DEALERS

PICKAWAY DAIRY ASSN.
Pickaway Butter Phone 28

ELECTRIC APPLIANCES

PETTIT'S
130 S. Court St. Phone 214

LOCKER PLANT

CIRCLEVILLE FAST FREEZE
Slaughtering, processing and curing
P. J. Griffin, owner-operator
161 Edison Ave. Phone 133

L. B. Dailey
Custom Butchering
Lovers Lane Phone 68

LOANS

AMERICAN LOAN and FINANCE CO.
120 E. Main St. Phone 286

MOLDED PRODUCTS

JONES AND BROWN INC.
Corwin and Clinton Sts. Phone 984

RETAIL LUMBER DEALERS

CIRCLEVILLE BUILDING SUPPLIES INC.
766 S. Pickaway St. Phone 976

ANRKOM LUMBER AND SUPPLY
325 W. Main St. Phone 237

CIRCLEVILLE LUMBER CO.
150 Edison Ave. Phone 269

Bargain Basement

NEW BRASS Magazine racks. Regular $2.98 now $1.50. Ford Furniture.

FOLD-A-WAY travel iron, reg. $7.95 now $4.95. Mac's, 113 E. Main.

NEW large size Base rockers $29.95. Ford Furniture.

USED LETZ Burr Mill with dust collector. Beckett Implement Co., 119 E. Franklin.

CLOSE OUT — New Blonde Mahogany end tables and coffee tables $5.95 each. Ford Furniture. 155 W. Main St.

BELL CENTER Ice Cream cut and wrapped 8 slices per quart 62c a qt. Paul's Dairy Store, W. Main St.

LARGE SELECTION good used furniture of all kind. Ford Furniture, 155 W. Main St.

2 LAYER 8 inch Holiday Eggnog Cake with rum cream icing, just 99c. Lindsey Bakery, W. Main.

5 PIECE Maple bedroom suite, only one to go $85.00. Ford Furniture.

GOOD used maple desk just $10.00. Ford Furniture, 155 W. Main.

Employment

SOME ONE to live in and care for three small children aged from 1½ to 8 yrs. Ph. 1093X Tuesday only.

MAN WANTED for General Service work. Experience helpful. Must have references. Company paid benefits and paid vacation. Apply Mr. Hadsell, Manager Firestone Store, 116 W. Main St. Phone 410.

MAN IN wheel chair desires work, shoe shiner, etc. Wm. A. Varney, R 3 Circleville c-o Montford Pollick.

SALESMAN
$12,000 YEARLY POSSIBLE
A GENUINE OPPORTUNITY
AGE 28 - 38

Salary of $90.00 per week plus hotel allowances during training. Liberal commission with drawing account upon commencement on territory. Excellent opportunities for alert, aggressive, qualified man to associate himself with America's leading good service equipment and supply company. Schooling in Chicago to sell China, glassware, silverware, kitchen utensils, and equipment, furniture and furnishings, linens, paper goods, janitor supplies to hotels, restaurants, hospitals, clubs, and institutions. Territory now available consists of: Circleville, Zanesville, Steubenville, Barnesville, Ashland, Portsmouth, Chillicothe Area. Free profit sharing and retirement plan, hospitalization asd surgical benefits.

Current model car required or we will help finance one. We will keep all correspondence confidential. Write full particulars to:

PHILIP J. GREEN
SALES PERSONNEL DIRECTOR
EDWARD DON & COMPANY
2201 SOUTH LA SALLE STREET
CHICAGO 16, ILLINOIS

Wanted To Buy

BIG TYPE Poland China Boar between 300 and 400 lbs. Milton Renick, Phone Ashville 3137.

LEGHORNS AND heavy hens. Drake Produce. Ph. 260 Circleville or 3187 Williamsport.

WILL PAY premium for good yellow corn. Lloyd Reiterman and Son, Kingston. Ph. Ni 2-3484 Kingston ex.

USED FURNITURE
WEAVER FURNITURE
159 W. Main St. Phone 210

Highest Prices Paid
FOR YELLOW CORN
Kingston Farmers Exchange
Kingston, Ohio—Ph. Ni 2-2781

Used Furniture
FORD'S
155 W. Main St. Ph. 895

RAW FURS. John Hooks, 4 miles north Williamsport on Cronover Mill Rd.

For Rent

4 ROOM House with bath, located Main & Harrison in Tarlton, Don Ricketts, Tarlton.

APARTMENT, 3 rooms and bath, close uptown. Contact Del Puckett Ph. 3600 after 6 p. m.

Real Estate For Sale

NEW and older houses, all sizes and locations with G.I., F.H.A. and conventional financing.
GEORGE C. BARNES, Realtor

For Prompt and Efficient Real Estate Action, Call
EASTERN REALTY CO.
WILLIAM BRESLER, Broker Ph. 5023

MACK D. PARRETT, Realtor
HOMES- INVESTMENT PROPERTIES
214 E. Main St. Phone 303

WOODED LOTS
in
KNOLLWOOD VILLAGE
All types of Real Estate
ED WALLACE, Realtor
Phone 1063
Salesmen
Tom Bennett Phone 7015
Mrs. Paul McGinnis Phone 399

ADKINS REALTY
BOB ADKINS, BROKER
Mortgage Loans
Masonic Temple
Call 107 or 1176R

DARRELL
Hatfield Realty
133 W. Main St.
Phone Office 889
Residence 1089-J

2 Bedrooms and Bath, Large Living Room, Kitchen, Plenty Cabinets and Utility Room, Gas Furnace, 1½ Car Garage. Easy Financing.

2 Bedrooms, Bath, Living Room, Kitchen and Utility Room, Gas Furnace. FHA mortgage can be assumed.

New National Homes—Bloom-Dale Addition. Small Down Payment. Low Monthly Payments.

FRANK L. GORSUCH,
Realtor
603 W. Wheeling St. Lancaster, O.
Phone OL 3-3583
Call Lancaster Collect
PHONE EVENINGS
Ken Smith—Phone OL 3-2938
Bill Turner—OL 4-0466
Dave Grove—Phone OL 3-7801

Articles For Sale

BANK RUN gravel. Fine, medium, coarse. Will load or haul. Raleigh Spradlin at Red River Bridge on Island Rd. Ph. 6011.

SINGER Sewing Center. Ph. 197.

FACTORY REBUILT generators and Starters.
CLIFTON AUTO PARTS
116 E. High St. Ph. 75

TERRAMYCIN Egg Formula increases production 6 to 37 per cent. Get it at Croman's Chick Store.

JAMESWAY thermostatic controlled electric ventilation will keep your hen house warm and dry. We carry in stock the right size to meet your requirements. See them in operation here.

BOWERS
WHITE LEGHORNS
4 miles north just off Route 23
Ph. 5034

FURNITURE SLIP COVERS
For chairs, davenports, sofa beds, studio couches. Well made in beautiful materials. Fit perfectly. Mason Furniture. Ph. 225.

Crawford Door Sales
Delco-Matic Operator
Installation and Service
GEORGE NEFF
Ph. 676 471 E. Franklin St

EAST END AUTO SALES
E. Mound St. Ph. 6066

COAL, Phone 338 Roy Parks Coal Yard, 215 W. Ohio St.

CIRCLEVILLE MOTORS. Ph. 1202.

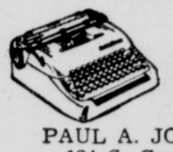
Storm Windows — Doors,
Jalousies — Awnings
F. B. GOEGLEIN
DEALER
Ph. 1133Y
Mrs. Paul McGinnis, Agt. Ph. 399

Get
DEAN and BARRY
PAINTS
at
Goeller's Paint Store
219 E. Main St. Phone 546

OK Used Cars & Trucks
The Harden Chevrolet Co.
Your Chevrolet Dealer Since 1928
132 E. Franklin Phone 522

Concrete Blocks
Ready Mixed Concrete
Brick and Tile
Truscon Steel Windows
Basement Sash
Allied Building Materials
BASIC
Construction Materials
E. Corwin St. Phone 461

IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFTS



No Down Payment
Only $1.00 per week
PAUL A. JOHNSON
124 S. Court St.

One 10 cubic ft. International Harvester Refrigerator only 1½ years old. Like new, just $129.95.

Used T.V. Sets
12½ Inch Screen $29.95
17 Inch Screen $39.95
21 Inch Screens
As Low As $99.95
B. F. Goodrich Co.
115 E. Main Phone 140

Place Orders Now
Heavy Duty
Cattle Feed Racks
For Hay and Ground Feeds
Standard Sizes for Immediate Delivery
Special Sizes Made To Order
DELIVERY SERVICE
McAfee Lumber & Supply Company
Kingston, Ohio Phone NI-23431

Real Estate For Sale

Farms, City Property and Business Locations
B. S. (TIM) MILLAR, Realtor
Phone 5172 Ashville
Robert Bausum, Salesman
Phone 3331 Ashville
Milton H. Renick, Salesman
Phone 3137 Ashville

Farms—City Property—Loans
W. D. HEISKELL and SON
REALTORS
Williamsport
Phones: Office 3261 — Res. 2751
CIRCLEVILLE BRANCH OFFICE
129½ W. Main St.
Ph. 707

All Types South Central Ohio Real Estate
DONALD H. WATT
and Associates
Realtors
88 W. Main St. Chillicothe
112½ N. Court St. Circleville
745 S. High St. Columbus
Largest Real Estate Sales Organization In South Central Ohio

Articles For Sale

USED POP case. Inq. Puckett's Hamburger Inn, 113 N. Court St.

YOU'LL be glad you read this ad, when you buy Sanidyne for dandruff. Bingman Drugs.

CLIFTON MOTOR SALES
FOR THE best in used cars stop at the Ford Sign — Pickaway Motors 596 North Court St Our selection is complete—our cars are clean—our prices are right.

ED STARKEY—good Ohio, lump, egg and oil treated stoker coal Ph 622R

1950 PONTIAC convertible. Good top, good tires, excellent condition. $345. 'Wes' Edstrom Motors, 150 E. Main St. Ph. 321.

HEADQUARTERS for vitamins and cold medicines. Rexal Drugs.

8 PONIES 36 ro 46 inches high, saddles, new and used. Harness, carts, pony colts all colors out of 38 inch mares. H. J. Swaim, McArthur, Ohio. Phone 795.

B. F. GOODRICH
115 E. Main St. Ph. 140

HARDWOOD lumber for industrial and farm use, fence boards. O. V. McFadden, Rt. 1 Laurelville, Ph. 3180.

BSA 1956 CF will trade. Cy's Garage, 105 Highland Ave. Ph. 457.

JOE MOATS MOTOR SALES—Ph. 301

USE PLENTY fresh eggs for nutritious eating—ask for Pickaway Dairy Eggs at your favorite stores.

FOR THAT useful gift that everyone enjoys at Christmas time, shop Kochheisers Hardware Co., 113 W. Main.

MAC'S Tires, Appliances and sporting goods, 113 E. Main St. Ph. 689.

ASK ABOUT W. T. Grant's "Charge-it" plan. New revolving credit — easy monthly payments

Articles For Sale

FLANAGAN MOTORS

BOYER'S HARDWARE 810 S. Court St Ph. 635 Open every eve 'till 9 o'clock.

WHITT LUMBER YARD
Ph. 1067 — Pickaway and Ohio Sts.

POLE BARNS
We will build them or draw your plans and show you how. Largest retail stock of poles & creosoted lumber in Ohio. Phone 2721
LaRay Farm Lumber Co.
Pataskala Ohio
Ohio. Phone 2723. Pataskala, Ohio.

Just popped in with a bright 'n cheerful Yuletide message for you. We hope you enjoy a holiday season that's really jolly.

B. S. "Tim" Millar
Realtor

May the true spirit of Christmas inspire us all to live together in peace and brotherhood.

Mecca Restaurant
128 W. Main

May the bright and shining joys of Christmas light your way to a whole new year of health and happiness . . . deep contentment and peace.

George R. Ramey
722 So. Scioto
Ph. 1040L or 313Y

To the many friends, whose patronage has made this past year such a good one for us, we send our very best Christmas wishes.

D&W Meat Market
116 E. Main

"Wes" Edstrom Motors
150 E. Main

Christmas Greetings

It isn't too late to get that new Portable typewriter for only
$5.00 per month
and NO down payment
PAUL A. JOHNSON
Office Equipment — 124 S. Court Street

Since we can't visit all of you during this joyous holiday season, this is our way of letting you know how much we have appreciated your patronage and friendship throughout the past year. We promise to serve you as well in the future as we have in the past, to continue to deserve your loyalty and trust.

TINKS TAVERN

Rates of Taxation for 1956
PICKAWAY COUNTY

In pursuance to law, I, R. G. Colville, Treasurer of Pickaway County, Ohio, do hereby give notice that the number of mills levied on each dollar of property listed for taxation within said county for the year 1956 is as follows: State Levy .20 Mills.

County Levy: General Fund 2.86 Mills; T. B. Hospital, 0.30; Bond Fund, .04 Mill; Total 3.20 Mills.

Taxing District	State	County	Fire	Twp. General	Twp. Road	Twp. Bond	Twp. Total Twp.	School General	School Bond	School Total School	Corp. Fire	Corp. General	Corp. Bond	Corp. Total Corp.	Total Tax Levy
CIRCLEVILLE TWP.	.20	3.20		.10	.10		.20	14.00	4.25	18.25					21.85
Jackson S. D.	.20	3.20		.10	.10		.20	13.00	1.00	14.00					17.60
Pickaway S. D.	.20	3.20		.10	.10		.20	8.50		8.50					12.10
Walnut S. D.	.20	3.20		.10	.10		.20	10.10	2.00	12.10					15.70
Circleville City	.20	3.20		.10	.10		.20	14.00	4.25	18.25	1.00	3.90	.50	5.40	27.25
DARBY TWP.	.20	3.20		2.10	1.00		3.10	12.50	1.50	14.00					20.50
Harrisburg S. D.	.20	3.20		2.10	1.00		3.10	11.85	4.65	16.50					23.00
Harrisburg Corp.	.20	3.20		2.10	1.00		3.10	11.85	4.65	16.50		1.00		1.00	24.00
DEERCREEK TWP.	.20	3.20		.70	1.00	2.00	3.70	10.90	1.70	12.60					19.70
Deerfield S. D.	.20	3.20		.70	1.00	2.00	3.70	13.00	1.00	14.00					21.10
Perry S. D.	.20	3.20		.70	1.00	2.00	3.70	13.10	.80	13.90					21.00
Williamsport Village	.20	3.20		.70	1.00	2.00	3.70	10.90	1.70	12.60	2.00	3.00		5.00	24.70
HARRISON TWP.	.20	3.20		.40	.50		.90	5.00		5.00					9.30
Ashville S. D.	.20	3.20		.40	.50		.90	10.00	4.00	14.00					18.30
Ashville Village	.20	3.20		.40	.50		.90	10.00	4.00	14.00		3.90	1.00	4.90	23.20
South Bloomfield Village	.20	3.20		.40	.50		.90	5.00		5.00		1.00		1.00	10.30
JACKSON TWP.	.20	3.20		1.20	.80		2.00	13.00	1.00	14.00					19.40
Deercreek Twp. S. D.	.20	3.20		1.20	.80		2.00	10.90	1.70	12.60					18.00
MADISON TWP.	.20	3.20		1.70	.30		2.00	12.10		12.10					17.50
Harrison S. D.	.20	3.20		1.70	.30		2.00	5.00		5.00					10.40
MONROE TWP.	.20	3.20		.80	1.35		2.15	11.45	.30	11.75					17.30
Deercreek S. D.	.20	3.20		.80	1.35		2.15	10.90	1.70	12.60					18.15
Muhlenberg S. D.	.20	3.20		.80	1.35		2.15	13.30		13.30					18.85
MUHLENBERG TWP.	.20	3.20		1.40	.40		1.80	13.30		13.30					18.50
Darby S. D.	.20	3.20		1.40	.40		1.80	12.50	1.50	14.00					19.20
Jackson S. D.	.20	3.20		1.40	.40		1.80	13.00	1.00	14.00					19.20
Monroe S. D.	.20	3.20		1.40	.40		1.80	11.45	.30	11.75					16.95
Darbyville Village	.20	3.20		1.40	.40		1.80	13.30		13.30		1.00		1.00	19.50
PERRY TWP.	.20	3.20		.40	4.60		5.00	13.10	.80	13.90					22.30
Deerfield S. D.	.20	3.20		.40	4.60		5.00	13.00	1.00	14.00					22.40
Waterloo S. D.	.20	3.20		.40	4.60		5.00	10.00		10.00					18.40
Deercreek S. D.	.20	3.20		.40	4.60		5.00	10.90	1.70	12.60					21.00
New Holland S. D.	.20	3.20		.40	4.60		5.00	11.50		11.50					19.90
New Holland Village	.20	3.20		.40	1.60		2.00	11.50		11.50		3.10	.80	4.90	21.80
PICKAWAY TWP.	.20	3.20		.50	2.00		2.50	8.50		8.50					14.40
SALTCREEK TWP.	.20	3.20		1.40	1.40		2.80	10.30	3.50	13.80					20.00
Tarlton Village	.20	3.20		1.40	1.40		2.80	10.30	3.50	13.80		.80		.80	20.80
SCIOTO TWP.	.20	3.20		.80	1.30		2.10	10.50	4.00	14.50					20.00
Commercial Point	.20	3.20		.80	1.30		2.10	10.50	4.00	14.50		5.50		5.50	25.50
Orient Village	.20	3.20		.80	1.30		2.10	10.50	4.00	14.50		.50		.50	20.50
WALNUT TWP.	.20	3.20		.90	1.10		2.00	10.10	2.00	12.10					17.50
WASHINGTON TWP.	.20	3.20		.50	2.70		3.20	13.50		13.50					20.10
WAYNE TWP.	.20	3.20		1.00	1.20		2.20	10.40	.80	11.20					16.80

New Holland Village Cemetery Added 1 Mill.

CERTIFICATE

Circleville, Ohio, Dec. 20, 1956.

I hereby certify that the levies set forth on this sheet are correct and in accordance with the provisions of the statutes.

VERNA M. O'HARA, Auditor of Pickaway County, Ohio

Tax books will close Feb. 1, 1957, for the first half of the 1956 taxes.

R. G. COLVILLE, Treasurer of Pickaway County, Ohio

OHIO OUTDOORS
from THE OHIO DIVISION OF WILDLIFE

Ohio deer hunters who were fortunate enough to kill a big buck may be eligible for membership in the newly founded honorary organization, the Buckeye Big Buck Club, established by the Ohio Division of Wildlife. To be eligible for membership, the hunter must have killed, in fair chase, a buck whose antlers score high enough to be recognized officially by the Boone & Crockett club.

If you kill a buck with a big rack, have the head scored by a local taxidermist who will be glad to assist you. If the head scores more than 140 points for a typical set of antlers or 150 points for a freak or non-typical head, it should be entered officially on a Boone & Crockett club application form.

These forms are available from the secretary, Mrs. Grancel Fitz, 5 Tudor City Place, New York 17, New York.

All deer heads must be measured by the official measurer for Ohio, Dr. William Scheele, Director, Cleveland Museum of Natural History, 2717 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, to be eligible for an official Boone & Crockett club award. If a head qualifies for listing by the club, the lucky hunter will receive a certificate from this organization in addition to the membership scroll from the division of wildlife. All bucks scoring 135 points or more should be entered.

ANY BUCK KILLED in Ohio this season, or in past years, if the time and place of kill is known, is eligible for entry. This drive to discover some of the big deer heads in Ohio should do much to assure Ohio deer of their rightful place in the annals of American big game records.

Be sure to have that big buck's head measured and scored if you think it deserves a place in the record books, for Ohio deer are known for their large size and big antlers.

Ohio waterfow hunters, particularly those down state, keep looking northward for the large flocks of ducks which normally start moving south about this time each year. So far, however, most of the ducks and geese in Ohio are staying in and around Sandusky Bay and on a few of the larger inland lakes.

In making a recent survey of the waterfowl situation in Ohio, Delmar Handley, waterfowl biologist in the Ohio Division of Wildlife, estimated there were approximately 100,000 ducks and 3,000 geese in the state, most of them in the Sandusky Bay area.

According to Handley, there were 40 per cent more waterfowl in Ohio last year on December 1 than this year. Handley says further that while the preliminary surveys looked promising for a successful waterfowl season in 1956, apparently the northern "duck factory" which normally produces the ducks for this area, just did not come up to expectations.

With the current waterfowl season rapidly coming to a close (December 22 is the last day) hunters are still hopefully waiting for the mallards and blacks to put in an appearance on the lakes and streams down state.

WHILE MOST Mourning Doves have left the state of Ohio, and are now being taken by hunters in southern states where they are considered one of the top game birds, some will remain here in Ohio through the Winter months.

Although Ohio is one of the few states not permitting dove shooting, they are considered the most important migratory game bird in the United States. During the last year 19 million doves were killed, while during the same period only 15 million waterfowl were taken.

Secretary of the Interior, Fred A. Seaton, has announced that the 1957-58 Migratory Bird hunting stamp, which will feature two American eider ducks in flight, has been chosen as the winning design.

Jackson Miles Abbott of New Alexandria, Virginia, is the artist who drew the winning design for the eighth annual "duck stamp" competition. This will be the 24th stamp to be issued in the Federal duck stamp series.

A panel of six waterfowl experts judged Abbott's design as the best of the 106 submitted in the competition.

During the judging, the artists' names were masked. The second choice of the judges was a design featuring brants, also drawn by Abbott.

THIS YEAR A total of 106 designs was submitted by 60 artists from twenty-eight states and the District of Columbia.

The first of the annual series of migratory waterfowl hunting stamps was designed by Jay N. Darling, famous cartoonist and noted conservationist, in 1934.

Heavy Contenders Set For Bouts

NEW YORK (AP)—While Floyd Patterson celebrates Christmas with his family and thinks about a long reign as heavyweight champion, two of his leading contenders will be busy trying to climb up the ladder.

Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, No. 1 contender, returns to the ring after a three-month layoff, to box Julio Mederos, a Cuban, Thursday at Milwaukee.

Willie Pastrano, No. 3 in the rankings, takes on Charley Norkus of Floral Park, N. Y., on the Wednesday card at Miami Beach.

Jackson won't be on television but the Pastrano-Norkus bout will.

Colorado Road Big Money-Maker

BOULDER, Colo. — Revenue from Colorado's first modern toll road, the Denver-Boulder turnpike, has passed the two million dollar mark two years ahead of schedule.

Engineers estimated the road, opened Jan. 21, 1952, would collect two million dollars by November 1958 but revenue has already surpassed that figure.

The toll is 25 cents an automobile for the 18-mile route.

Flam, Seixas Carry Yankee Tennis Hopes

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—California's Herbie Flam definitely will join Vic Seizas as America's singles hopes Wednesday when the Davis Cup challenge round gets underway, coach Bill Talbert announced today.

The draw for the 45th renewal will be held Christmas Day. Cup play begins Wednesday afternoon and ends Friday.

After watching Flam whip through a stiff practice session against pro star Tony Trabert, Talbert said there was no doubt in his mind about Flam's ability to go the distance against either Lew Hoad or Ken Rosewall.

Some question had arisen Sunday when Flam came back from a workout and asked to have his leg treated by the team trainer. But he said his leg is now fine and he has no complaints.

Over in the Australian camp, coach Harry Hopman has his boys razor sharp and experts here say Lew Hoad is playing better and hitting the ball harder than he has in recent weeks.

Hoad and Ken Rosewall are the key men expected to lead Australia to its second straight 5-0 victory over the U. S.

The challenge round competition between the two countries is a long standing affair, dating back to 1908. Each country has won 10 times in the showdown for the coveted cup. This is the tie breaker.

Indiana Center Sets Big 10 Pace

CHICAGO (AP) —Indiana center Archie Dees maintained his Big Ten all-games basketball scoring lead despite a dip in his scoring average.

Dees has a total of 148 points in six games for a 24.6 average. Two games last week saw his average fall from 27.2.

George Bon Salle of Illinois remained in second place with 121 points in six games while Michigan's George Lee moved into third place with 119 points.

7 Thugs Cart Off Cigaret Shipment

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—Seven masked men tied up two watchmen and stole 400 cases of cigarets and a truck from the Century Food Markets Co. warehouse in suburban Wickliffe Saturday.

The men broke in and overcame one watchman, then waited for his relief to report at midnight and tied him up, too. Both watchmen were put in a rest room. One got loose several hours later and called the sheriff's office.

Rates of Taxation for 1956
PICKAWAY COUNTY

In pursuance to law, I, R. G. Colville, Treasurer of Pickaway County, Ohio, do hereby give notice that the number of mills levied on each dollar of property listed for taxation within said county for the year 1956 is as follows: State Levy .20 Mills.

County Levy: General Fund 2.86 Mills; T. B. Hospital, 0.30; Bond Fund, .04 Mill; Total 3.20 Mills.

Taxing Districts	State	County	Fire	Twp. General	Twp. Road	Twp. Bond	Twp. Total Twp.	School General	School Bond	School Total School	Corp. Fire	Corp. General	Corp. Bond	Corp. Total Corp.	Total Tax Levy
CIRCLEVILLE TWP.	.20	3.20		.10	.10		.20	14.00	4.25	18.25					21.85
Jackson S. D.	.20	3.20		.10	.10		.20	13.00	1.00	14.00					17.60
Pickaway S. D.	.20	3.20		.10	.10		.20	8.50		8.50					12.10
Walnut S. D.	.20	3.20		.10	.10		.20	10.10	2.00	12.10					15.70
Circleville City	.20	3.20		.10	.10		.20	14.00	4.25	18.25	1.00	3.90	.50	5.40	27.25
DARBY TWP.	.20	3.20		2.10	1.00		3.10	12.50	1.50	14.00					20.50
Harrisburg S. D.	.20	3.20		2.10	1.00		3.10	11.85	4.65	16.50					23.00
Harrisburg Corp.	.20	3.20		2.10	1.00		3.10	11.85	4.65	16.50		1.00		1.00	24.00
DEERCREEK TWP.	.20	3.20		.70	1.00	2.00	3.70	10.90	1.70	12.60					19.70
Deerfield S. D.	.20	3.20		.70	1.00	2.00	3.70	13.00	1.00	14.00					21.10
Perry S. D.	.20	3.20		.70	1.00	2.00	3.70	13.10	.80	13.90					21.00
Williamsport Village	.20	3.20		.70	1.00	2.00	3.70	10.90	1.70	12.60	2.00	3.00		5.00	24.70
HARRISON TWP.	.20	3.20		.40	.50		.90	5.00		5.00					9.30
Ashville S. D.	.20	3.20		.40	.50		.90	10.00	4.00	14.00					18.30
Ashville Village	.20	3.20		.40	.50		.90	10.00	4.00	14.00		3.90	1.00	4.90	23.20
South Bloomfield Village	.20	3.20		.40	.50		.90	5.00		5.00		1.00		1.00	10.30
JACKSON TWP.	.20	3.20		1.20	.80		2.00	13.00	1.00	14.00					19.40
Deercreek Twp. S. D.	.20	3.20		1.20	.80		2.00	10.90	1.70	12.60					18.00
MADISON TWP.	.20	3.20		1.70	.30		2.00	12.10		12.10					17.50
Harrison S. D.	.20	3.20		1.70	.30		2.00	5.00		5.00					10.40
MONROE TWP.	.20	3.20		.80	1.35		2.15	11.45	.30	11.75					17.30
Deercreek S. D.	.20	3.20		.80	1.35		2.15	10.90	1.70	12.60					18.15
Muhlenberg S. D.	.20	3.20		.80	1.35		2.15	13.30		13.30					18.85
MUHLENBERG TWP.	.20	3.20		1.40	.40		1.80	13.30		13.30					18.50
Darby S. D.	.20	3.20		1.40	.40		1.80	12.50	1.50	14.00					19.20
Jackson S. D.	.20	3.20		1.40	.40		1.80	13.00	1.00	14.00					19.20
Monroe S. D.	.20	3.20		1.40	.40		1.80	11.45	.30	11.75					16.95
Darbyville Village	.20	3.20		1.40	.40		1.80	13.30		13.30		1.00		1.00	19.50
PERRY TWP.	.20	3.20		.40	4.60		5.00	13.10	.80	13.90					22.30
Deerfield S. D.	.20	3.20		.40	4.60		5.00	13.00	1.00	14.00					22.40
Waterloo S. D.	.20	3.20		.40	4.60		5.00	10.00		10.00					18.40
Deercreek S. D.	.20	3.20		.40	4.60		5.00	10.90	1.70	12.60					21.00
New Holland S. D.	.20	3.20		.40	4.60		5.00	11.50		11.50					19.90
New Holland Village	.20	3.20		.40	1.60		2.00	11.50		11.50		3.10	.80	4.90	21.80
PICKAWAY TWP.	.20	3.20		.50	2.00		2.50	8.50		8.50					14.40
SALTCREEK TWP.	.20	3.20		1.40	1.40		2.80	10.30	3.50	13.80					20.00
Tarlton Village	.20	3.20		1.40	1.40		2.80	10.30	3.50	13.80		.80		.80	20.80
SCIOTO TWP.	.20	3.20		.80	1.30		2.10	10.50	4.00	14.50					20.00
Commercial Point	.20	3.20		.80	1.30		2.10	10.50	4.00	14.50		5.50		5.50	25.50
Orient Village	.20	3.20		.80	1.30		2.10	10.50	4.00	14.50		.50		.50	20.50
WALNUT TWP.	.20	3.20		.90	1.10		2.00	10.10	2.00	12.10					17.50
WASHINGTON TWP.	.20	3.20		.50	2.70		3.20	13.50		13.50					20.10
WAYNE TWP.	.20	3.20		1.00	1.20		2.20	10.40	.80	11.20					16.80

New Holland Village Cemetery Added 1 Mill.

CERTIFICATE

Circleville, Ohio, Dec. 20, 1956.

I hereby certify that the levies set forth on this sheet are correct and in accordance with the provisions of the statutes.

VERNA M. O'HARA, Auditor of Pickaway County, Ohio

Tax books will close Feb. 1, 1957, for the first half of the 1956 taxes.

R. G. COLVILLE, Treasurer of Pickaway County, Ohio

Classified
Phone 782

To order a classified ad just telephone 782 and ask for an ad-taker. She will quote rates and help you write your ad. You may mail your ad to The Circleville Herald if you prefer.

WORD RATE

Per word, one insertion 5c
Per word, 3 consecutive insertions 10c
Per word, 6 insertions 20c
Minimum charge one time ... 60c
Obituaries $2.00 minimum
Card of Thanks $1.50 per insertion. 75 word maximum on obituaries and cards of thanks. Each additional word 5 cents.

Publisher reserves the right to edit or reject all classified advertising copy. Ads ordered for more than one time and cancelled before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appears and adjustments made at the rate earned. Publishers reserve the right to classify ads under the appropriate headings.

Publishers are responsible for only one incorrect insertion of an ad. Out of town advertising must be cash with the order.

Classified ads must be in The Herald office before 1:30 p. m. the day before publication.

Business Service

FOR QUICK, dependable TV ond radio service Ph. Johnston TV and Radio Sales and Service. Dealer for RCA and Zenith TV and radios.

BARTHELMAS SHEET METAL AND PLUMBING
241 E. Main St. Phone 127

IKE'S
Septic Tank & sewer cleaning service. Phone 784-L or 253.

PLASTERING
And Stucco Work
New and Repair
GEORGE R. RAMEY
722 S. Scioto St. Phone 1040L or 313Y

FOR EXPERT lubrication and car washes, go to 514 E. Main St. Pick-up and delivery anywhere in town. H. B. Conrad, 514 E. Main.

FOR NEW homes or to remodel see RAYMOND MOATS — PH. 1941

ALUMINUM and asbestos siding, roofing and spouting. Clarence Miller, Kingston, Ph. Ni. 2-3493.

ED HELWAGEN
PONTIAC AGENCY
400 N. Court St. Phone 843

SEWER AND DRAIN SERVICE
Inexpensive and effective. Only Roto Rooter can give complete cleaning service without unnecessary digging. Circleville 455 or Lancaster 3663.

WATER WELL DRILLING
JOE CHRISTY Ph. 987 and 1730

HOUSEHOLD DRAIN SERVICE
See E. W. Weiler. Newest types of equipment. Ph. 1012R Evenings

E. W. WEILER
Bldg. contractor, Heating, Plumbing Remodeling
Phone 616 Evenings 1012-R

Ward's Upholstery
225 E. Main St. Phone 135

BODY REPAIR
PAINTING
Over 50 Years Experience
By The Two Best Body
Repair Men In The Country
LEE VALENTINE
LLOYD FISHER
Let Us Give You An Estimate
YATES BUICK CO.
1220 S. Court St.

FARM EQUIPMENT
RALPH Strahler, Agt. for MARIETTA SILOS Bloomingburg Ph. 77336.

OLIVER AND NEW IDEA
Sales and Service
BECKETT IMPLEMENT CO.
119 E. Franklin St. Phone 122

Personal

NO NEED to wax, just relax. Use Glaxo transparent linoleum coating. Lasts months. Circleville Hardware.

Financial

NEXT TIME! Save when you borrow for any worthy purpose. Use a low-cost BancPlan Loan on your own security. Call at The Second National Bank.

FARMERS' LOANS: At low cost and convenient terms to refinance debts, purchase machinery, livestock, appliances, automobiles, fertilizer, seeds, land and all farm needs. See Don Clump, Production Credit, 231 North Court Street.

NOTICE OF STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Scioto Building and Loan Company, Circleville, Ohio will be held at its office at 157 West Main Street, Circleville Ohio at 4 o'clock p. m. on Monday, January 14, 1957 for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

F. W. Sieverts, Secretary

Dec. 24, 31, Jan. 7.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Detailed Reference to Business Facilities of Circleville

DAIRY PRODUCTS DEALERS

PICKAWAY DAIRY ASSN.
Pickaway Butter Phone 28

ELECTRIC APPLIANCES

PETTIT'S
130 S. Court St. Phone 214

LOCKER PLANT

CIRCLEVILLE FAST FREEZE
Slaughtering, processing and curing
P. J. Griffin, owner-operator
161 Edison Ave. Phone 133

L. B. Dailey
Custom Butchering
Lovers Lane Phone 68

LOANS

AMERICAN LOAN and FINANCE CO.
120 E. Main St. Phone 286

MOLDED PRODUCTS

JONES AND BROWN INC.
Corwin and Clinton Sts. Phone 984

RETAIL LUMBER DEALERS

CIRCLEVILLE BUILDING SUPPLIES INC.
766 S. Pickaway St. Phone 976

ANRKOM LUMBER AND SUPPLY
325 W. Main St. Phone 237

CIRCLEVILLE LUMBER CO.
150 Edison Ave. Phone 269

Bargain Basement

NEW BRASS Magazine racks. Regular $2.98 now $1.50. Ford Furniture.

FOLD-A-WAY travel iron, reg. $7.95 now $4.95. Mac's, 113 E. Main.

NEW large size Base rockers $29.95. Ford Furniture.

USED LETZ Burr Mill with dust collector. Beckett Implement Co., 119 E. Franklin.

CLOSE OUT — New Blonde Mahogany end tables and coffee tables $5.95 each. Ford Furniture 155 W. Main St.

BELL CENTER Ice Cream cut and wrapped 8 slices per quart 62c a qt. Paul's Dairy Store, W. Main St.

LARGE SELECTION good used furniture of all kind. Ford Furniture, 155 W. Main St.

2 LAYER 8 inch Holiday Eggnog Cake with rum cream icing, just 99c. Lindsey Bakery, W. Main.

5 PIECE Maple bedroom suite, only one to go $85.00. Ford Furniture.

GOOD used maple desk just $10.00. Ford Furniture, 155 W. Main.

Employment

SOME ONE to live in and care for three small children aged from 1½ to 8 yrs. Ph. 1093X Tuesday only.

MAN WANTED for General Service work. Experience helpful. Must have references. Company paid benefits and paid vacation. Apply Mr. Hadsell, Manager Firestone Store, 116 W. Main St. Phone 410.

MAN IN wheel chair desires work, shoe shiner, etc. Wm. A. Varney, R 3 Circleville c-o Montford Pollick.

SALESMAN
$12,000 YEARLY POSSIBLE
A GENUINE OPPORTUNITY
AGE 28 - 38

Salary of $90.00 per week plus hotel allowances during training. Liberal commission with drawing account upon commencement on territory. Excellent opportunities for alert, aggressive, qualified man to associate himself with America's leading good service equipment and supply company. Schooling in Chicago to sell China, glassware, silverware, kitchen utensils, and equipment, furniture and furnishings, linens, paper goods, janitor supplies to hotels, restaurants, hospitals, clubs, and institutions. Territory now available consists of: Circleville, Zanesville, Steubenville, Barnesville, Ashland, Portsmouth, Chillicothe Area. Free profit sharing and retirement plan, hospitalization asd surgical benefits.

Current model car required or we will help finance one. We will keep all correspondence confidential. Write full particulars to:

PHILIP J. GREEN
SALES PERSONNEL DIRECTOR
EDWARD DON & COMPANY
2201 SOUTH LA SALLE STREET
CHICAGO 16, ILLINOIS

Wanted To Buy

BIG TYPE Poland China Boar between 300 and 400 lbs. Milton Renick, Phone Ashville 3137.

LEGHORNS AND heavy hens. Drake Produce. Ph. 260 Circleville or 3187 Williamsport.

WILL PAY premium for good yellow corn. Lloyd Reiterman and Son, Kingston. Ph. Ni 2-3484 Kingston ex.

USED FURNITURE
WEAVER FURNITURE
159 W. Main St. Phone 210

Highest Prices Paid
FOR YELLOW CORN
Kingston Farmers Exchange
Kingston, Ohio—Ph. Ni 2-2781

Used Furniture
FORD'S
153 W. Main St. Ph. 898

RAW FURS. John Hooks, 4 miles north Williamsport on Cronover Mill Rd.

For Rent

4 ROOM House with bath, located Main & Harrison in Tarlton, Don Ricketts, Tarlton.

APARTMENT, 3 rooms and bath, close uptown. Contact Del Puckett Ph. 3600 after 6 p. m.

Real Estate For Sale

NEW and older houses, all sizes and locations with G.I., F.H.A. and conventional financing.
GEORGE C. BARNES, Realtor

For Prompt and Efficient Real Estate Action, Call
EASTERN REALTY CO.
WILLIAM BRESLER, Broker Ph. 3023

MACK D. PARRETT, Realtor
HOMES- INVESTMENT PROPERTIES
214 E. Main St. Phone 303

WOODED LOTS
in
KNOLLWOOD VILLAGE
All types of Real Estate
ED WALLACE, Realtor
Phone 1063
Salesmen
Tom Bennett Phone 7015
Mrs. Paul McGinnis Phone 399

ADKINS REALTY
BOB ADKINS, BROKER
Mortgage Loans
Masonic Temple
Call 107 or 1176R

DARRELL
Hatfield Realty
133 W. Main St.
Phone Office 889
Residence 1089-J

2 Bedrooms and Bath, Large Living Room, Kitchen, Plenty Cabinets and Utility Room, Gas Furnace, 1½ Car Garage. Easy Financing.

2 Bedrooms, Bath, Living Room, Kitchen and Utility Room, Gas Furnace. FHA mortgage can be assumed.

New National Homes—Bloom-Dale Addition. Small Down Payment. Low Monthly Payments.

FRANK L. GORSUCH,
Realtor
603 W. Wheeling St. Lancaster, O.
Phone OL 3-3583
Call Lancaster Collect
PHONE EVENINGS
Ken Smith—Phone OL 3-2938
Bill Turner—OL 4-0466
Dave Grove—Phone OL 3-7801

Articles For Sale

BANK RUN gravel. Fine, medium, coarse. Will load or haul. Raleigh Spradlin at Red River Bridge on Island Rd. Ph. 6011.

SINGER Sewing Center. Ph. 197.

FACTORY REBUILT generators and Starters.
CLIFTON AUTO PARTS
116 E. High St. Ph. 75

TERRAMYCIN Egg Formula increases production 6 to 37 per cent. Get it at Croman's Chick Store.

JAMESWAY thermostatic controlled electric ventilation will keep your hen house warm and dry. We carry in stock the right size to meet your requirements. See them in operation here.
BOWERS
WHITE LEGHORNS
4 miles north, just off Route 23
Ph. 5034

FURNITURE SLIP COVERS
For chairs, davenports, sofa beds, studio couches. Well made in beautiful materials. Fit perfectly. Mason Furniture. Ph. 225.

Crawford Door Sales
Delco-Matic Operator
Installation and Service
GEORGE NEFF
Ph. 676 471 E. Franklin St

EAST END AUTO SALES
E. Mound St. Ph. 6066

COAL, Phone 338 Roy Parks Coal Yard, 215 W. Ohio St.

CIRCLEVILLE MOTORS. Ph. 1202.

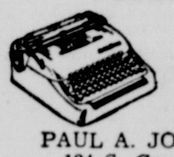
Storm Windows — Doors,
Jalousies — Awnings
F. B. GOEGLEIN
DEALER
Ph. 1133Y
Mrs. Paul McGinnis, Agt. Ph. 399

Get
DEAN and BARRY
PAINTS
at
Goeller's Paint Store
219 E. Main St. Phone 546

OK Used Cars & Trucks
The Harden Chevrolet Co.
Your Chevrolet Dealer Since 1928
132 E. Franklin Phone 522

Concrete Blocks
Ready Mixed Concrete
Brick and Tile
Truscon Steel Windows
Basement Sash
Allied Building Materials
BASIC
Construction Materials
E. Corwin St. Phone 461

IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFTS



No Down Payment
Only $1.00 per week
PAUL A. JOHNSON
124 S. Court St.

One 10 cubic ft. International Harvester Refrigerator only 1½ years old. Like new, just $129.95.
Used T.V. Sets
12½ Inch Screen $29.95
17 Inch Screen $39.95
21 Inch Screens
As Low As $99.95
B. F. Goodrich Co.
115 E. Main Phone 140

Place Orders Now
Heavy Duty
Cattle Feed Racks
For Hay and Ground Feeds
Standard Sizes for Immediate Delivery
Special Sizes Made To Order
DELIVERY SERVICE
McAfee Lumber & Supply Company
Kingston, Ohio Phone NI-23431

Real Estate For Sale

Farms, City Property and Business Locations
B. S. (TIM) MILLAR, Realtor
Phone 5172 Ashville
Robert Bausum, Salesman
Phone 3331 Ashville
Milton H. Renick, Salesman
Phone 3137 Ashville

Farms—City Property—Loans
W. D. HEISKELL and SON
REALTORS
Williamsport
Phones: Office 3261 — Res. 2751
CIRCLEVILLE BRANCH OFFICE
129½ W. Main St.
Ph. 707

All Types South Central Ohio Real Estate
DONALD H. WATT
and Associates
Realtors
88 W. Main St. Chillicothe
112½ N. Court St. Circleville
745 S. High St. Columbus
Largest Real Estate Sales Organization in South Central Ohio

Articles For Sale

USED POP case. Inq. Puckett's Hamburger Inn, 113 N. Court St.

YOU'LL be glad you read this ad, when you buy Sanidyne for dandruff. Bingman Drugs.

CLIFTON MOTOR SALES
FOR THE best in used cars stop at the Ford Sign — Pickaway Motors 596 North Court St Our selection is complete—our cars are clean—our prices are right.

ED STARKEY—good Ohio, lump, egg and oil treated stoker coal Ph 622R

1950 PONTIAC convertible. Good top, good tires, excellent condition. $345. 'Wes' Edstrom Motors, 150 E. Main St. Ph. 321.

HEADQUARTERS for vitamins and cold medicines. Rexal Drugs.

8 PONIES 36 ro 46 inches high, saddles, new and used. Harness, carts, pony colts all colors out of 38 inch mares. H. J. Swaim, McArthur, Ohio. Phone 795.

B. F. GOODRICH
115 E. Main St. Ph. 140

HARDWOOD lumber for industrial and farm use, fence boards. O V McFadden, Rt. 1 Laurelville, Ph. 3180.

BSA 1956 CF will trade. Cy's Garage, 105 Highland Ave. Ph. 457.

JOE MOATS MOTOR SALES—Ph. 301

USE PLENTY fresh eggs for nutritious eating—ask for Pickaway Dairy Eggs at your favorite stores.

FOR THAT useful gift that everyone enjoys at Christmas time, shop Kochheisers Hardware Co., 113 W. Main.

MAC'S Tires, Appliances and sporting goods, 113 E. Main St. Ph. 689.

ASK ABOUT W T. Grant's "Charge-it" plan. New revolving credit — easy monthly payments

Articles For Sale

FLANAGAN MOTORS

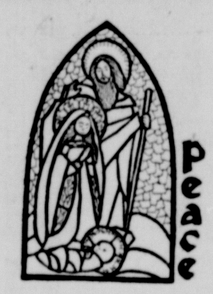
BOYER'S HARDWARE 810 S. Court St Ph. 635 Open every eve 'till 9 o'clock.

WHITT LUMBER YARD
Ph. 1067 — Pickaway and Ohio Sts.

POLE BARNS
We will build them or draw your plans and show you how. Largest retail stock of poles & creosoted lumber in Ohio. Phone 2721
LaRay Farm Lumber Co.
Pataskala Ohio
Ohio. Phone 2723. Pataskala, Ohio.

Just popped in with a bright 'n cheerful Yuletide message for you. We hope you enjoy a holiday season that's really jolly.

B. S. "Tim" Millar
Realtor

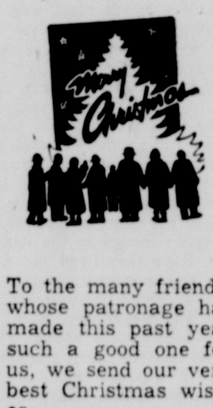


May the true spirit of Christmas inspire us all to live together in peace and brotherhood.

Mecca Restaurant
128 W. Main

May the bright and shining joys of Christmas light your way to a whole new year of health and happiness . . . deep contentment and peace.

George R. Ramey
722 So. Scioto
Ph. 1040L or 313Y



To the many friends, whose patronage has made this past year such a good one for us, we send our very best Christmas wishes.

D&W Meat Market
116 E. Main

"Wes" Edstrom Motors
150 E. Main

Christmas Greetings

It isn't too late to get that new Portable typewriter for only
$5.00 per month
and NO down payment
PAUL A. JOHNSON
Office Equipment — 124 S. Court Street

Since we can't visit all of you during this joyous holiday season, this is our way of letting you know how much we have appreciated your patronage and friendship throughout the past year. We promise to serve you as well in the future as we have in the past, to continue to deserve your loyalty and trust.

TINKS TAVERN

Merry Christmas!

May your Holiday be filled with Happiness!

LINDSEY BAKERY

No other words say it so well— MERRY CHRISTMAS

JIM COCKRELL

Our heartiest wishes for a Merry Christmas!

CIRCLEVILLE PLUMBING and HEATING

Phone 1012-R

We wish you the blessings of this Christmas season . . .

JOE MOATS MOTOR SALES

May your holiday be brimming with Joy and Happiness.

MACK D. PARRETT

REALTOR

214 E. Main

CY'S GARAGE

105 Highland Ave.

Our wish to all our friends and customers— A MERRY CHRISTMAS!

PICKAWAY MOTORS FORD

May all your dreams come true at Christmastime!

SONNY'S BARBER SHOP

Good cheer! Good luck! May happy days be yours!

WELL'S RESTAURANT

Route 23 North

Jolliest wishes for a MERRY CHRISTMAS!

GIB and JOE'S SUNOCO SERVICE

600 No. Court

May all the joys of Christmas be yours!

ADKINS REALTY

Phone 107

May the gaiety and joy of Christmas always be with you!

WARD'S UPHOLSTERY

225 E. Main—Phone 135

SEASON'S GREETINGS

ARNOLD MOATS USED CARS

Our wish— The Season's best to all!

PALM'S RESTAURANT

Cordially wishing you all the joys of a very . . . MERRY CHRISTMAS

Frank L. Gorsuch, Realtor
Phone Evenings
Ken Smith
Phone OL 3-2938
Bill Turner—OL 4-0466
Dave Grove
Phone OL 3-7801

We're Hoping That Your Christmas Is The Merriest Ever!

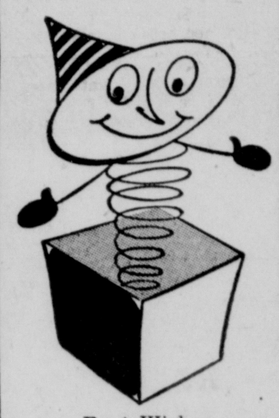
MARY and LOWELL BEAUTY SALON

JACK'S BAR

105 Walnut

CIRCLEVILLE MOTORS

Route 23 North



Best Wishes

BOWERS WHITE LEGHORNS

Your Jamesway Dealer
4 Mi. North Off Rt. 23

To wish our many friends Holiday Greetings

CIRCLEVILLE IRON and METAL CO.

Once in a blue moon we have a chance to wish our friends a Merry Christmas

WHITT LUMBER CO.

Phone 1067

RAYMOND MOATS

Phone 1941

We Sing Out Our Warmest Wishes That Your Christmas May Be Merry!

BOYER'S HARDWARE

810 So. Court

Season's Greetings

. . . and our thanks for your patronage!

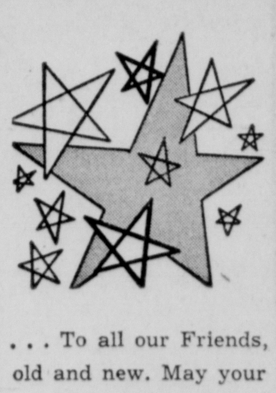
YATES BUICK

Cheery Christmas Greetings

HANLEY'S TEA ROOM

McAFEE LUMBER and SUPPLY CO.

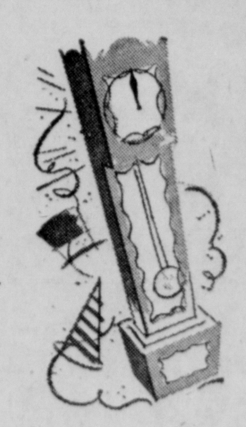
Kingston, Ohio
Phone NI 23431



. . . To all our Friends, old and new. May your fondest wishes all come true!

F. L. EASTERDAY

Standard Service



Joyous Yuletide

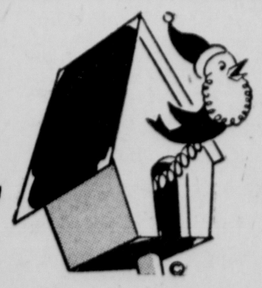
HARDEN CHEVROLET

132 E. Franklin Phone 522

Wishing you joy, peace and blessings of this Holy Season!

GEORGE C. BARNES

Realtor



May this Holiday be your Happiest Ever!

WHITE BROS. CONSTRUCTION CO.

Phone 933

Christmas Greetings to all our friends

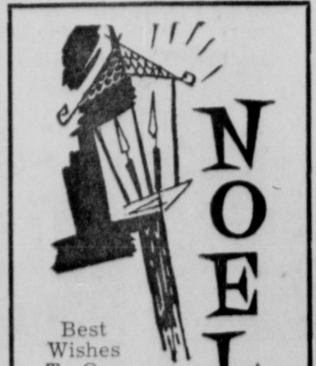
FORD FURNITURE

To wish you Joy and Thank You for your patronage

CLAYT G. CHALFIN

In sincere appreciation for your patronage, we wish you A Very Merry Christmas Bob and Millie Knopf

SINGER SEWING CENTER

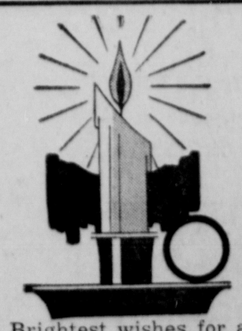


Best Wishes To One and All

THE TOP HAT

May the blessings of the Holiday bring you— A Joyous Christmas

PAUL'S DAIRY STORE



Brightest wishes for a Jolly Christmas

RITTER'S CONFECTIONARY

Our warmest wishes to all

CIRCLE D RECREATION and BOWLING

Merry Christmas!

May your Holiday be filled with Happiness!

LINDSEY BAKERY

No other words say it so well— MERRY CHRISTMAS

JIM COCKRELL

Our heartiest wishes for a Merry Christmas!

CIRCLEVILLE PLUMBING and HEATING
Phone 1012-R

We wish you the blessings of this Christmas season . . .

JOE MOATS MOTOR SALES

May your holiday be brimming with Joy and Happiness.

MACK D. PARRETT
REALTOR
214 E. Main

CY'S GARAGE
105 Highland Ave.

Our wish to all our friends and customers— A MERRY CHRISTMAS!

PICKAWAY MOTORS FORD

May all your dreams come true at Christmastime!

SONNY'S BARBER SHOP

Good cheer! Good luck! May happy days be yours!

WELL'S RESTAURANT
Route 23 North

Jolliest wishes for a MERRY CHRISTMAS!

GIB and JOE'S SUNOCO SERVICE
600 No. Court

May all the joys of Christmas be yours!

ADKINS REALTY
Phone 107

May the gaiety and joy of Christmas always be with you!

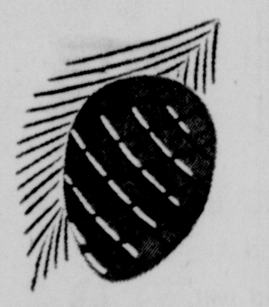
WARD'S UPHOLSTERY
225 E. Main—Phone 135

SEASON'S GREETINGS

ARNOLD MOATS USED CARS

Our wish— The Season's best to all!

PALM'S RESTAURANT



Cordially wishing you all the joys of a very . . . MERRY CHRISTMAS

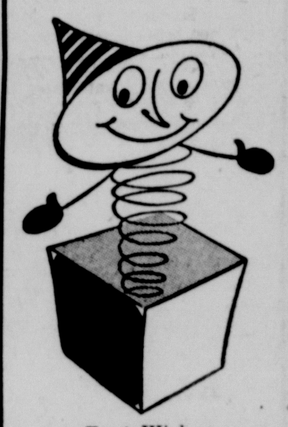
Frank L. Gorsuch, Realtor
Phone Evenings
Ken Smith
Phone OL 3-2938
Bill Turner—OL 4-0466
Dave Grove
Phone OL 3-7801

We're Hoping That Your Christmas Is The Merriest Ever!

MARY and LOWELL BEAUTY SALON

JACK'S BAR
105 Walnut

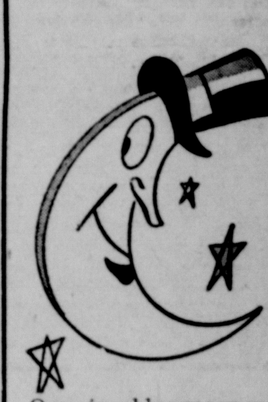
CIRCLEVILLE MOTORS
Route 23 North



Best Wishes
BOWERS WHITE LEGHORNS
Your Jamesway Dealer
4 Mi. North Off Rt. 23

To wish our many friends Holiday Greetings

CIRCLEVILLE IRON and METAL CO.



Once in a blue moon we have a chance to wish our friends a Merry Christmas

WHITT LUMBER CO.
Phone 1067

RAYMOND MOATS
Phone 1941

We Sing Out Our Warmest Wishes That Your Christmas May Be Merry!

BOYER'S HARDWARE
810 So. Court

Season's Greetings

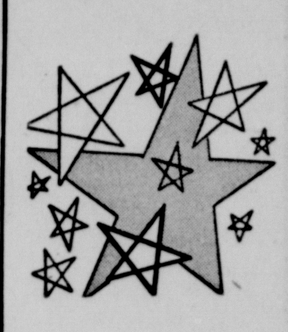
. . . and our thanks for your patronage!

YATES BUICK

Cheery Christmas Greetings

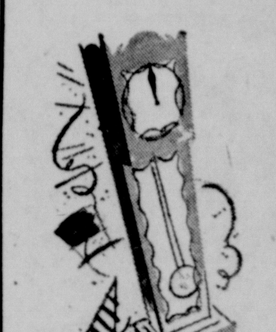
HANLEY'S TEA ROOM

McAFEE LUMBER and SUPPLY CO.
Kingston, Ohio
Phone NI 23431



. . . To all our Friends, old and new. May your fondest wishes all come true!

F. L. EASTERDAY
Standard Service



Joyous Yuletide

HARDEN CHEVROLET
132 E. Franklin Phone 522

Wishing you joy, peace and blessings of this Holy Season!

GEORGE C. BARNES
Realtor

May this Holiday be your Happiest Ever!

WHITE BROS. CONSTRUCTION CO.
Phone 933

Christmas Greetings to all our friends

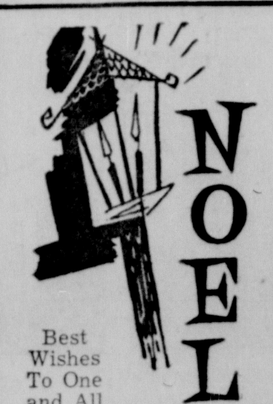
FORD FURNITURE

To wish you Joy and Thank You for your patronage

CLAYT G. CHALFIN

In sincere appreciation for your patronage, we wish you A Very Merry Christmas Bob and Millie Knopf

SINGER SEWING CENTER

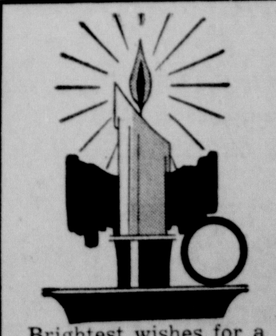


Best Wishes To One and All

THE TOP HAT

May the blessings of the Holiday bring you— A Joyous Christmas

PAUL'S DAIRY STORE



Brightest wishes for a Jolly Christmas

RITTER'S CONFECTIONARY

Our warmest wishes to all

CIRCLE D RECREATION and BOWLING

Noble Mince Pie Is Old Tradition

Original Was Shape Of Manger; Recipe Given For Nine-Inch Pie

Lo and behold the mince pie! This noble holiday dessert, one of America's longtime favorites, claims an ancestry rich in religious and historical significance. Some of the interesting highlights from its colorful background are presented here.

Its close tie with Christmas dates back to the time when mince pie was made up of the choicest products of the East, symbolizing the gifts of the Wise Men to the Christ Child.

In its original form, the pie assumed the shape of the manger. Oftentimes, mince pie was covered with a latticed crust which represented the hayrack of the Stable of Bethlehem.

At first these Christmas pies were called shrid pye; that is, shredded or minced pie. And there was an old saying that you would have as many happy months in the coming year as you had tasted mince pies at Christmas time. That still sounds like a wonderful reason for eating all the pie you want!

According to legend, mince pies were always an appreciated item. In olden days they had to be watched very carefully after baking on Christmas Eve for fear thieves would make off with them.

Today this same problem often exists, though the thieves are usually members of the family — small boys — (and some not so small) who snitch just a little wedge at a time until there may be not enough left for a family serving. The obvious solution is to make plenty of pies!

* * *

INGREDIENTS for a double crust nine inch pie are: two cups sifted enriched flour, one teaspoon salt, ¾ cup vegetable shortening and four tablespoons water.

Combine flour and salt in mixing bowl. Cut in shortening with pastry blender or two knives until mixture is uniform and very fine. Sprinkle water over shortening mixture, a tablespoon at a time, tossing lightly with a fork.

Shape into a ball with hands. Divide into two portions. Roll each portion to ⅛ inch thickness on floured board or pastry cloth. Line pie plate and trim with scissors ½ inch beyond edge of plate. Roll out other half of dough to a diameter of about 10 inches.

Cut ¾ inch pastry strips and weaver across filling about ½ inch apart. Trim ends even with lower edge of pastry. Fold bottom edge up over strips and flute with fingers or fork.

Bake in hot oven (425 degrees) 10 minutes, then lower temperature to 350 degrees and continue baking for about 25 minutes.

Mincement filling: 2¾ cups (28 ounce jar) mincemeat and ¾ cup chopped tart apples.

Combine mincemeat and tart apples; place filling in pastry lined plate. Top with lattice crust above.

Our Girls and Boys IN SERVICE

Pfc Paul E. Wood, son of Harry W. Wood of Circleville Route 3, participated with the 31st Surgical Hospital in a 10-day field training exercise in Germany.

Wood entered the Army in November 1954 and arrived in Europe last December. He completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

* * *

Army S-1C Junior Hollenback, son of Frank Hollenback of Ashville Route 2, is a member of the 510th FieldArtiller y Battalion in Italy.

Sergeant Hollenback, a section chief, arrived in Europe in September 1954.

A veteran of 11 years of Army service, the sergeant holds the Combat Infantryman Badge and the Purple Heart. His wife, Mathilde, is with him in Italy.

The sergeant was graduated fromAshvill e High School in 1945.

* * *

Charles Richard Knece Jr., SA, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Knece of Circleville, has completed nine weeks of recruit training at the United States Naval Training center, Bainbridge, Md.

Seaman Knece, a former student at Scioto High School will spend a 14-day leave with his family before reporting to Newport, R. I. to attend service school.

He successfully completed the transition from civilian to military life which included instruction in, seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, firefighting, military bearing, military drill, shipbbard drill, and citizenship, and is now well on the way towards a Navy career.

Canadian City Mishap Toll Up

MONTREAL (AP)—This city had 330 traffic accidents within 12 hours Friday, a police spokesman reported. He said drivers apparently "went crazy."

Carelessness and drinking were the main causes, the spokesman said. Damage was estimated at more than $35,000. Few persons were badly injured, however, and no fatalities were reported. Most accidents occurred during the evening when drivers were heading home from Christmas parties.

Couple Wed 73 Years Tells Secret

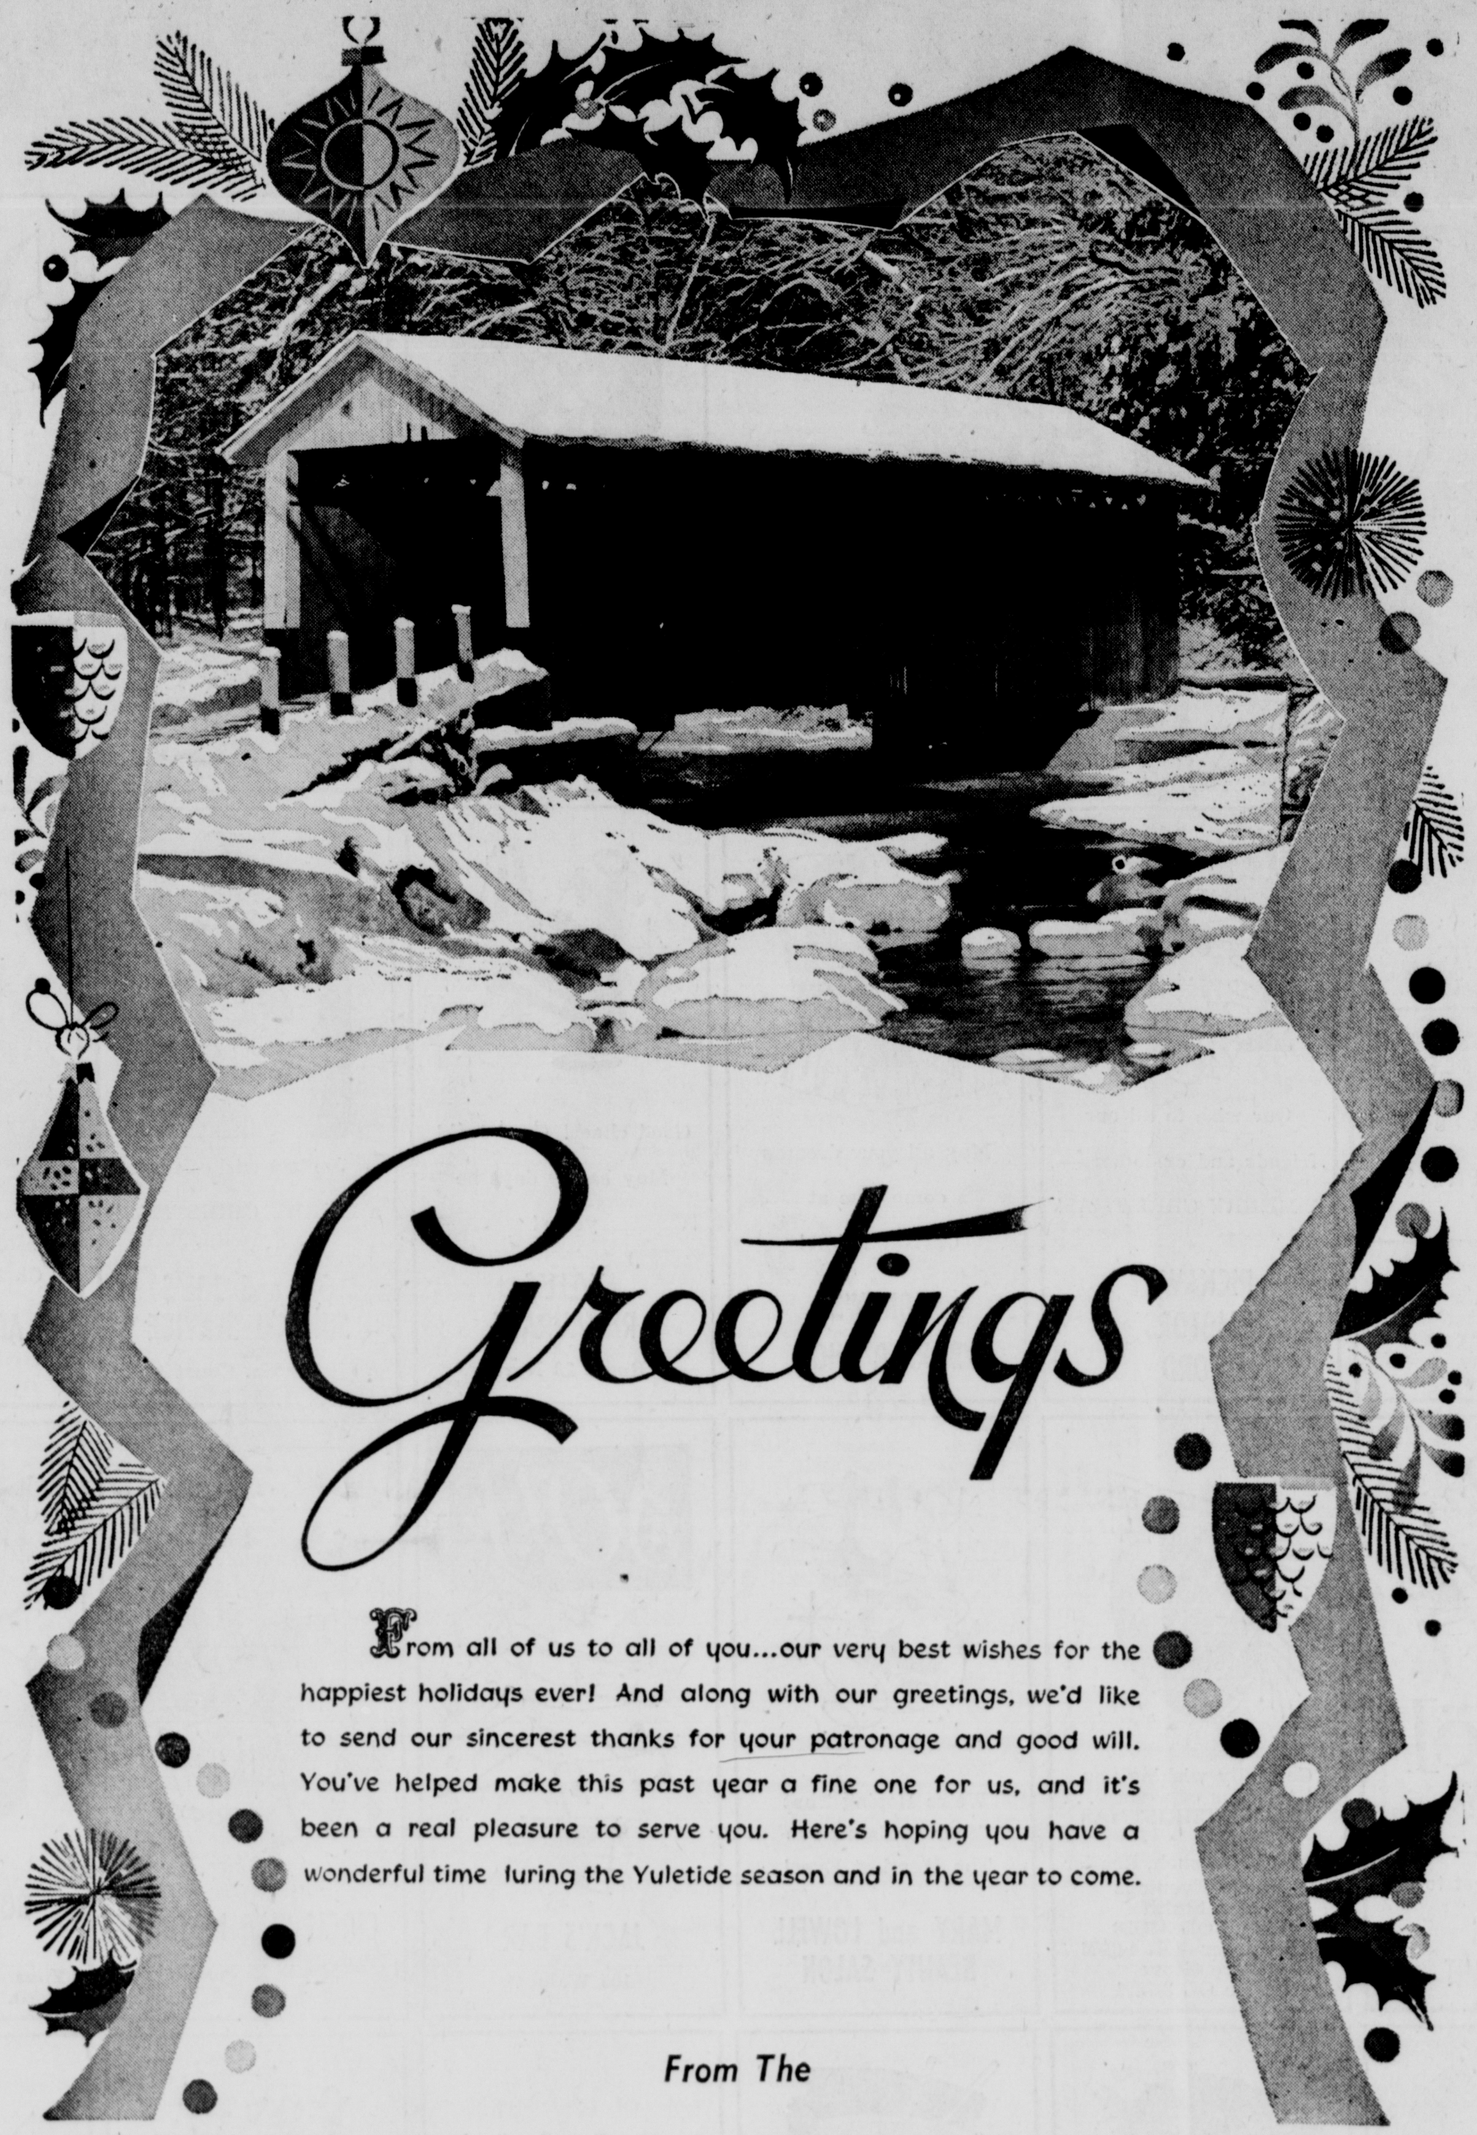
BARRINGTON, N. Y. (AP) — Edward and Eva Sprague, married 73 years Sunday, recommend "hard work and good fellowship" as the way to a happy life.

Sprague, a retired farmer, is 95. His wife is 91. They have spent their entire married life in this Finger Lakes hamlet of west-central New York. Both are in good health and handle all the household chores.

Light the tree! Hang the holly!
It's time to wish you, everyone—
A MERRY, MERRY CHRISTMAS!

WEBBE GROCERY

Corner Mound and Mingo



From all of us to all of you...our very best wishes for the happiest holidays ever! And along with our greetings, we'd like to send our sincerest thanks for your patronage and good will. You've helped make this past year a fine one for us, and it's been a real pleasure to serve you. Here's hoping you have a wonderful time during the Yuletide season and in the year to come.

From The

Circleville Oil Co.

And It's Employees:

Theodore C. Steele
Arthur L. Steele
Robert Call
Ralph E. Young
Leroy Garrett
Logan Sowers
Richard McCollister
Max A. Spangler
Helen F. Gunning
Alma Binkley
Sherman G. Dresbach
Harold Binkley
Royce Conaway
William R. Betts
Charles Young
Fred Davis
Jack Young

Noble Mince Pie Is Old Tradition

Original Was Shape Of Manger; Recipe Given For Nine-Inch Pie

Lo and behold the mince pie! This noble holiday dessert, one of America's longtime favorites, claims an ancestry rich in religious and historical significance. Some of the interesting highlights from its colorful background are presented here.

Its close tie with Christmas dates back to the time when mince pie was made up of the choicest products of the East, symbolizing the gifts of the Wise Men to the Christ Child.

In its original form, the pie assumed the shape of the manger. Oftentimes, mince pie was covered with a latticed crust which represented the hayrack of the Stable of Bethlehem.

At first these Christmas pies were called shrid pye; that is, shredded or minced pie. And there was an old saying that you would have as many happy months in the coming year as you had tasted mince pies at Christmas time. That still sounds like a wonderful reason for eating all the pie you want!

According to legend, mince pies were always an appreciated item. In olden days they had to be watched very carefully after baking on Christmas Eve for fear thieves would make off with them.

Today this same problem often exists, though the thieves are usually members of the family — small boys — (and some not so small) who snitch just a little wedge at a time until there may be not enough left for a family serving. The obvious solution is to make plenty of pies!

* * *

INGREDIENTS for a double crust nine inch pie are: two cups sifted enriched flour, one teaspoon salt, ⅔ cup vegetable shortening and four tablespoons water.

Combine flour and salt in mixing bowl. Cut in shortening with pastry blender or two knives until mixture is uniform and very fine. Sprinkle water over shortening mixture, a tablespoon at a time, tossing lightly with a fork.

Shape into a ball with hands. Divide into two portions. Roll each portion to ⅛ inch thickness on floured board or pastry cloth. Line pie plate and trim with scissors ½ inch beyond edge of plate. Roll out other half of dough to a diameter of about 10 inches.

Cut ¾ inch pastry strips and weaver across filling about ½ inch apart. Trim ends even with lower edge of pastry. Fold bottom edge up over strips and flute with fingers or fork.

Bake in hot oven (425 degrees) 10 minutes, then lower temperature to 350 degrees and continue baking for about 25 minutes.

Mincement filling: 2¾ cups (28 ounce jar) mincemeat and ¾ cup chopped tart apples.

Combine mincemeat and tart apples; place filling in pastry lined plate. Top with lattice crust above.

Our Girls and Boys IN SERVICE

Pfc Paul E. Wood, son of Harry W. Wood of Circleville Route 3, participated with the 31st Surgical Hospital in a 10-day field training exercise in Germany.

Wood entered the Army in November 1954 and arrived in Europe last December. He completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

* * *

Army S-1C Junior Hollenback, son of Frank Hollenback of Ashville Route 2, is a member of the 510th FieldArtiller y Battalion in Italy.

Sergeant Hollenback, a section chief, arrived in Europe in September 1954.

A veteran of 11 years of Army service, the sergeant holds the Combat Infantryman Badge and the Purple Heart. His wife, Mathilde, is with him in Italy.

The sergeant was graduated fromAshvill e High School in 1945.

* * *

Charles Richard Knece Jr., SA, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Knece of Circleville, has completed nine weeks of recruit training at the United States Naval Training center, Bainbridge, Md.

Seaman Knece, a former student at Scioto High School will spend a 14-day leave with his family before reporting to Newport, R. I. to attend service school.

He successfully completed the transition from civilian to military life which included instruction in, seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, firefighting, military bearing, military drill, shipbbard drill, and citizenship, and is now well on the way towards a Navy career.

Canadian City Mishap Toll Up

MONTREAL (AP)—This city had 330 traffic accidents within 12 hours Friday, a police spokesman reported. He said drivers apparently "went crazy."

Carelessness and drinking were the main causes, the spokesman said. Damage was estimated at more than $35,000. Few persons were badly injured, however, and no fatalities were reported. Most accidents occurred during the evening when drivers were heading home from Christmas parties.

Couple Wed 73 Years Tells Secret

BARRINGTON, N. Y. (AP) — Edward and Eva Sprague, married 73 years Sunday, recommend "hard work and good fellowship" as the way to a happy life.

Sprague, a retired farmer, is 95. His wife is 91. They have spent their entire married life in this Finger Lakes hamlet of west-central New York. Both are in good health and handle all the household chores.

Greetings

Light the tree! Hang the holly!
It's time to wish you, everyone—
A MERRY, MERRY CHRISTMAS!

WEBBE GROCERY

Corner Mound and Mingo

Greetings

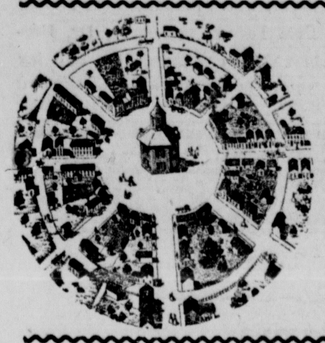
From all of us to all of you...our very best wishes for the happiest holidays ever! And along with our greetings, we'd like to send our sincerest thanks for your patronage and good will. You've helped make this past year a fine one for us, and it's been a real pleasure to serve you. Here's hoping you have a wonderful time during the Yuletide season and in the year to come.

From The

Circleville Oil Co.

And It's Employees:

Theodore C. Steele
Arthur L. Steele
Robert Call
Ralph E. Young
Leroy Garrett
Logan Sowers
Richard McCollister
Max A. Spangler
Helen F. Gunning
Alma Binkley
Sherman G. Dresbach
Harold Binkley
Royce Conaway
William R. Betts
Charles Young
Vred Davis
Jack Young



Roundtown Retrospect

By Mac Noggle

Wasn't it Dickens who said — "Reflect upon your blessings, of which every man has many"? Do we—even at Christmas time?

Dr. Nelson Jones, in his book "The Squirrel Hunters of Ohio", tells of an aged couple he had known, when he was a youngster down in Ross County, and the story they had to tell about their first Christmas in Ohio — "the dearest and most enchanting of all others."

They left their home in eastern Pennsylvania, father, mother, three little children, dog and gun and their worldly goods, crossed, on foot, the mountains, guided by Indian trails, and on reaching the Ohio River, floated to the mouth of the Scioto on a temporary raft.

From there, in a dugout, they worked their way up the winding Scioto for about fifty miles, landing at "High Bank Prairie", about where Chillicothe now is. Their arrival was on April 25 1798 — just 63 days from the time they left their home in Pennsylvania.

The family's first Christmas in the new home was not unlike that of hundreds of others at that time. Always, the day before Christmas was set aside for exacting from nature, the wherewithal for the Christmas dinner. Bright and early, on December 24th, with dog and gun, this Ross County pioneer started out for big game—could be a deer, moose, bear or a wild turkey.

Even before the sun had reached the high-noon point, he was back home with three turkeys and two grouse. So impressed was this newcomer with the country he now called home, that, shortly after Christmas, he sent a letter to a friend in Pennsylvania, who had never been in Ohio, telling him of what joy was their first Christmas in this lovely country. Only his own words can tell of the happiness and the Christian atmosphere of this pioneer home.

"After dressing the game and making a present of a turkey and two grouse to a widow and her two children across the river, I told my wife that the man who got hurt by a falling tree, should have a turkey, too, and with her understanding and approbation, I shouldered a dressed gobbler and delivered the kind remembrances of my good wife to this unfortunate."

"When I got back home, it was quite dark, but something else bothered me greatly—shouldn't we better take the other turkey to Reverend Dixon? He hadn't much time for hunting and a bird like this would appear quite becoming in the presence of a large family of children at a Christmas dinner.

"The suggestion met hearty approval, and soon I was off with the great, dressed gobbler in one hand, my gun in the other and my dog leading the way. On arrival, I found the latch-string drawn in, but a knock on the door soon caused an opening, just large enough for our procession. The presentation having been made and with a wish of a Merry Christmas to the minister, his Quaker mission and his family, I turned my steps towards home."

"On reaching home, my wife wanted to know what we were to have for our Christmas dinner—remembering we were to have company. I'd been thinking about that on my way back from the minister's and also that Doctor Hamberger and his wife, who lived up at the ferry, and were such nice people and that the Doc had been so busy lately, and that Jack and I could go early Christmas morning, up to the beech bottom, and get a turkey for him and one for us — "won't we, Jack?' Jack agreed, with the wag of his tail."

"On Christmas morning, even before breakfast, we were back with two big gobblers. As I reached the cabin door, a "Merry Christmas" from my wife rang out on the bare and frosty forest, I expect for the first time ever heard in these parts."

We hope your Christmas will be rich in memories—memories made richer by thoughts of those quick-fleeting holidays of your youth and halowed by an old-time atmosphere of the true significance of Christmas Day.

Even Then They Had Rough Going

GREEBUSH, Wis.—A 100-year old ledger pertaining to the State Road School, which now stands abandoned, was located recently.

The first entry, dated Oct. 5, 1856, showed that the teacher had signed a contract to teach for $10 a month.

Aliens Reminded Address Report Due In January

H. J. Boutton, officer in charge of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Cincinnati, has estimated that 20,000 aliens under the jurisdiction of the Cincinnati office will report their address in January under the Federal Alien Address Report Program.

The Immigration official said that 18,000 aliens reported their address during January 1956. The announcement followed a statement from Washington in which Immigration and Naturalization Commissioner J. M. Swing estimated that more than 2,750,000 aliens in the United States will report their address next month in compliance with the law.

Commissioner Swing said in Washington that with few exceptions every alien in the United States must report his address to the service under the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Boutton said that all non-citizens except those in diplomatic status, foreign representatives assigned to the United Nations, and Mexican national contract laborers are required to file the address report.

HE ADDED that any alien who willfully violates the address report requirement may be fined up to $200, imprisoned for 30 days, and deported.

In addition, aliens who are not in the United States during January must report their address to the Service within 10 days after their return.

The Officer in Charge said that address report cards will be available at the Immigration Service office at Cincinnati, Ohio, and local United States post offices beginning January 1, 1957.

Gains Noted In State Cash For Counties

Exclusive of money spent on state highways, parks, lakes and public buildings, the State of Ohio returned more than $426 million in cash to the counties during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1956, State Auditor James A. Rhodes reports.

This distribution of state funds included money for local governments, for schools, old age pensions poor relief and other welfare purposes, police and firemen's pensions, TB subsidy, etc.

Total distributions for all purposes were almost six million dollars higher than during the previous year.

Federal funds provided approximately $61 million of the money distributed and state funds, $365 million.

Funds designated for local government purposes accounted for $145,693,133.80 of the state distributions. This was made up of $47,556,960 in gasoline taxes; $53,827,492.25 in motor vehicle license fees; $22,020,000 from the sales tax; $21,431,520.96 from the intangible tax; $318,526 state subsidy and $381,957.83 in federal grants for health purposes, and $156,676.76 from the public utilities motor transportation tax.

Unmilitary Report

HAMDEN, Conn. — The town plan and zoning commission has recorded its opposition to "unaesthetic housing developments with row on row of houses resembling military barracks."

Hi!

Just poppin' in to wish you a very, very Merry Christmas!

Helen, Melba, Don At

MILLER-JONES SHOES

112 W. Main

Many thanks for giving us the opportunity to serve you in 1956. Hope we continue to be so favored in 1957. Happy holidays!

PHONE 195

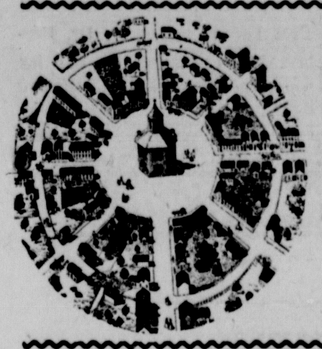
HORN'S GIFT SHOP and GREENHOUSE

BINGMAN'S SUPER DRUGS

148 W. Main Circleville, Ohio Phone 343

GOELLER'S PAINT STORE

DONALD P. GOELLER



Roundtown Retrospect

By Mac Noggle

Wasn't it Dickens who said — "Reflect upon your blessings, of which every man has many"? Do we—even at Christmas time?

Dr. Nelson Jones, in his book "The Squirrel Hunters of Ohio", tells of an aged couple he had known, when he was a youngster down in Ross County, and the story they had to tell about their first Christmas in Ohio — "the dearest and most enchanting of all others."

They left their home in eastern Pennsylvania, father, mother, three little children, dog and gun and their worldly goods, crossed, on foot, the mountains, guided by Indian trails, and on reaching the Ohio River, floated to the mouth of the Scioto on a temporary raft.

From there, in a dugout, they worked their way up the winding Scioto for about fifty miles, landing at "High Bank Prairie", about where Chillicothe now is. Their arrival was on April 25 1798 — just 63 days from the time they left their home in Pennsylvania.

The family's first Christmas in the new home was not unlike that of hundreds of others at that time. Always, the day before Christmas was set aside for exacting from nature, the wherewithal for the Christmas dinner. Bright and early, on December 24th, with dog and gun, this Ross County pioneer started out for big game—could be a deer, moose, bear or a wild turkey.

Even before the sun had reached the high-noon point, he was back home with three turkeys and two grouse. So impressed was this newcomer with the country he now called home, that, shortly after Christmas, he sent a letter to a friend in Pennsylvania, who had never been in Ohio, telling him of what joy was their first Christmas in this lovely country. Only his own words can tell of the happiness and the Christian atmosphere of this pioneer home.

"After dressing the game and making a present of a turkey and two grouse to a widow and her two children across the river, I told my wife that the man who got hurt by a falling tree, should have a turkey, too, and with her understanding and approbation, I shouldered a dressed gobbler and delivered the kind remembrances of my good wife to this unfortunate."

"When I got back home, it was quite dark, but something else bothered me greatly—shouldn't we better take the other turkey to Reverend Dixon? He hadn't much time for hunting and a bird like this would appear quite becoming in the presence of a large family of children at a Christmas dinner.

"The suggestion met hearty approval, and soon I was off with the great, dressed gobbler in one hand, my gun in the other and my dog leading the way. On arrival, I found the latch-string drawn in, but a knock on the door soon caused an opening, just large enough for our procession. The presentation having been made and with a wish of a Merry Christmas to the minister, his Quaker mission and his family, I turned my steps towards home."

"On reaching home, my wife wanted to know what we were to have for our Christmas dinner—remembering we were to have company. I'd been thinking about that on my way back from the minister's and also that Doctor Hamberger and his wife, who lived up at the ferry, and were such nice people and that the Doc had been so busy lately, and that Jack and I could go early Christmas morning, up to the beech bottom, and get a turkey for him and one for us — "won't we, Jack?' Jack agreed, with the wag of his tail."

"On Christmas morning, even before breakfast, we were back with two big gobblers. As I reached the cabin door, a "Merry Christmas" from my wife rang out on the bare and frosty forest, I expect for the first time ever heard in these parts."

We hope your Christmas will be rich in memories—memories made richer by thoughts of those quick-fleeting holidays of your youth and halowed by an old-time atmosphere of the true significance of Christmas Day.

Even Then They Had Rough Going

GREEBUSH, Wis.—A 100-year old ledger pertaining to the State Road School, which now stands abandoned, was located recently.

The first entry, dated Oct. 5, 1856, showed that the teacher had signed a contract to teach for $10 a month.

Aliens Reminded Address Report Due In January

H. J. Boutton, officer in charge of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Cincinnati, has estimated that 20,000 aliens under the jurisdiction of the Cincinnati office will report their address in January under the Federal Alien Address Report Program.

The Immigration official said that 18,000 aliens reported their address during January 1956. The announcement followed a statement from Washington in which Immigration and Naturalization Commissioner J. M. Swing estimated that more than 2,750,000 aliens in the United States will report their address next month in compliance with the law.

Commissioner Swing said in Washington that with few exceptions every alien in the United States must report his address to the service under the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Boutton said that all non-citizens except those in diplomatic status, foreign representatives assigned to the United Nations, and Mexican national contract laborers are required to file the address report.

HE ADDED that any alien who willfully violates the address report requirement may be fined up to $200, imprisoned for 30 days, and deported.

In addition, aliens who are not in the United States during January must report their address to the Service within 10 days after their return.

The Officer in Charge said that address report cards will be available at the Immigration Service office at Cincinnati, Ohio, and local United States post offices beginning January 1, 1957.

Gains Noted In State Cash For Counties

Exclusive of money spent on state highways, parks, lakes and public buildings, the State of Ohio returned more than $426 million in cash to the counties during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1956, State Auditor James A. Rhodes reports.

This distribution of state funds included money for local governments, for schools, old age pensions poor relief and other welfare purposes, police and firemen's pensions, TB subsidy, etc.

Total distributions for all purposes were almost six million dollars higher than during the previous year.

Federal funds provided approximately $61 million of the money distributed and state funds, $365 million.

Funds designated for local government purposes accounted for $145,693,133.80 of the state distributions. This was made up of $47,556,960 in gasoline taxes; $53,827,492.25 in motor vehicle license fees; $22,020,000 from the sales tax; $21,431,520.96 from the intangible tax; $318,526 state subsidy and $381,957.83 in federal grants for health purposes, and $156,676.76 from the public utilities motor transportation tax.

Unmilitary Report

HAMDEN, Conn. — The town plan and zoning commission has recorded its opposition to "unaesthetic housing developments with row on row of houses resembling military barracks."

Hi!

Just poppin' in to wish you a very, very Merry Christmas!

Helen, Melba, Don At

MILLER-JONES SHOES

112 W. Main

Many thanks for giving us the opportunity to serve you in 1956. Hope we continue to be so favored in 1957. Happy holidays!

PHONE 195

HORN'S GIFT SHOP and GREENHOUSE

GOELLER'S PAINT STORE

DONALD P. GOELLER

BINGMAN'S SUPER DRUGS

148 W. Main Circleville, Ohio Phone 343

Let's All Go Shopping!

★ ★

By MRS. LEORA SAYRE
Home Economics Agent
Extension Service

As another year draws to a close Let's All Look Back on the over all situation and count our modernized blessings!

There are so many different food items available in stores that one can not pin down the exact number. A reasonable estimate is 7,000. (one-third are items that did not exist 10 years ago.)

Around 7,000 food industry researchers are busy developing recipes and whole menus to inspire use of the old favorites and exciting new products. We can be grateful to about 135 countries that contribute to this well stocked "pantry".

In this modern age, most of us first see our food at the neighborhood grocery. We remove it from the shelves, roll it up to the checking counter in a cart and send or take it home — seldom thinking about how and from where the food got to the grocery.

Those who live and or work on farms — realize the part played by labor and the forces of nature.

The rate per acre of land food production is steadily increasing. However the acres used for production is decreasing.

In 1910, 35 per cent of the U. S. population lived on farms. In 1956, 13 per cent of the population or about 22 million people live on farms. The percentage of farmers to total population is less in Ohio than in the United States.

Economists, nutritionists and other investigators are studying ways of increasing food sources so that food production, with decrease of land to use, can keep pace with an ever increasing population.

A 1956 Congressional Record reports that the Census Bureau estimates that our population by 1975 will exceed 200 million, and it is generally agreed by authorities that to meet the food demands of this larger population we will need an increase in production of food and fiber of about 40 per cent over the present production.

* * *

New sources of food are being discovered from both land and sea. An acre is sea is estimated to produce nearly three times as much as an acre of land. A recent Nutrition Foundation Report states that more than 71 per cent of the earth surface is water covered and contains relatively untapped food reserves.

Have you had any of Bangkok's Plankton Paste — a high-protein food?

Per capita food consumption in the United States has changed little since 1900. Would you figure that you had consumed that average estimate of 1,537 pounds of food per person for 1956. The annual average has fluctuated between 1,500 and 1,550 pounds per person since 1910.

In all those pounds the average person is eating around 225 pounds more of items lower in calories — such as meat, eggs, fruits and vegetables — than 50 years ago.

The latest issue of "Agriculture Outlook" gives $7.68 as the average estimated amount spent a week for food by each person in the United States. For the average family the estimate is $27.00 per week. ($5.00 of this for meals and snacks away from home)

According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, at least one-fifth of the money that people in the United States spend for food, now goes to the restaurant industry. If the population grows, as expected, and if the pattern of "eating out" continues, the number of meals purchased away from home will probably increase 75 percent by 1975.

The farmer who toils on the land and makes the first step toward making this eating and spending possible, gets an "average" of 41 cents of each retail food dollar.

* * *

Securing and preparing food — from any source—is rapidly and amazingly being simplified. We can soon rearrange and add to Shakespeare's thoughts and writing and say, "The quality of mercy is not only strained, it is tenderized, ready-cooked, homogenized, pasteurized, enriched, filtered, powdered, artifically colored and flavored, and can be purchased at an electronic store and cooked (if necessary?) in an electronic range.'

A recent weekly publication reports that an Electronic Store has been developed and will probably be installed in some of the large cities soon. The shopper assembles no merchandise as she walks through the store —she merely pushes buttons in front of displays to indicate her choice of merchandise.

These selections are recorded on a large key which she was given when entering the store. When she —(or he!) finishes, the key is presented to the checker. The order is then assembled electronically (60 items in 30 seconds) while the total bill is computed, also electronically; the order is sacked and the customer is on her way in seconds.

Was there ever a woman in the world who had so much help in planning meals and shopping as the American woman? But she must take advantage of the aid by reading food advertisements, package information and other available help, printed and otherwise.

Tone Of Voice Important In Pup Training

Ralph Wallace, dog warden, had timely advice today for those who want to start out at Christmas time to train a gift puppy.

"Your dog is very sensitive to sound and his reponse to your command depends on the shading and inflection that you put into your voice," Wallace explained.

"For instance, you can say 'Here, Rover' in an ominous tone and the dog will stand off and eye you dubiously or he will slink away. You can say it disapprovingly and he will react as if he did something wrong. Or you can put a lot of enthusiasm into it and Rover will bound over to you in one joyous leap."

The important thing to remember, stresses Wallace, is that your dog pays more attention to how you say something than to what you say.

And while on the subject of using language to communicate with your dog, adds the dog warden, try limiting your words to one or two syllables. Long words or "baby talk" will only serve to confuse your dog, not enlighten him.

Dog's Best Friend

WESTPORT, Conn. — When his Irish setter broke through a thin coating of ice on the Saugatuck River, which prevented the animal from swimming ashore, Dr. Herbert Simon plunged into the icy waters of the stream and rescued it.

Bill DING Says:

© LOCAL TRADEMARKS, Inc.

MAY WE EXTEND TO ALL OF YOU
The Most Joyous MERRY CHRISTMAS

Circleville "THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME ...BUILD ONE"
BUILDING SUPPLIES
766 S. PICKAWAY ST. Telephone 976

Christmas Message

Let our thoughts this Christmas turn to Him who was born in Bethlehem. Let us remember and cherish His message.

FLASH ELECTRIC CO.
129 W. MILL (REAR) PHONE 975

Holiday Cheer

Along with our thanks for your kind patronage in the past year, we extend our best wishes for the holidays.

Wardell's Carpet & Rugs
146 W. MAIN PHONE 160

Christmas Greetings

As the three kings of ancient time brought to our Saviour their precious gifts, let us bring to Christmas the supreme gift of love and good will toward all, and thus express in fullest measure the true spirit of the Day.

Hummel & Plum Insurance
103½ E. Main Phone 143

Merry Christmas

It's the season to be joyful... to exchange with family and friends the greetings of the Yuletide. We gladly join in, with happy holiday wishes to each and every one of you.

LORING E. DAVIS
Your Supplier of
Cities Service Products — Phone 582

Let's All Go Shopping!

★ ★

By MRS. LEORA SAYRE
Home Economics Agent
Extension Service

As another year draws to a close Let's All Look Back on the over all situation and count our modernized blessings!

There are so many different food items available in stores that one can not pin down the exact number. A reasonable estimate is 7,000. (one-third are items that did not exist 10 years ago.)

Around 7,000 food industry researchers are busy developing recipes and whole menus to inspire use of the old favorites and exciting new products. We can be grateful to about 135 countries that contribute to this well stocked "pantry".

In this modern age, most of us first see our food at the neighborhood grocery. We remove it from the shelves, roll it up to the checking counter in a cart and send or take it home — seldom thinking about how and from where the food got to the grocery.

Those who live and or work on farms — realize the part played by labor and the forces of nature.

The rate per acre of land food production is steadily increasing. However the acres used for production is decreasing.

In 1910, 35 per cent of the U. S. population lived on farms. In 1956, 13 per cent of the population or about 22 million people live on farms. The percentage of farmers to total population is less in Ohio than in the United States.

Economists, nutritionists and other investigators are studying ways of increasing food sources so that food production, with decrease of land to use, can keep pace with an ever increasing population.

A 1956 Congressional Record reports that the Census Bureau estimates that our population by 1975 will exceed 200 million, and it is generally agreed by authorities that to meet the food demands of this larger population we will need an increase in production of food and fiber of about 40 per cent over the present production.

* * *

New sources of food are being discovered from both land and sea. An acre is sea is estimated to produce nearly three times as much as an acre of land. A recent Nutrition Foundation Report states that more than 71 per cent of the earth surface is water covered and contains relatively untapped food reserves.

Have you had any of Bangkok's Plankton Paste — a high-protein food?

Per capita food consumption in the United States has changed little since 1900. Would you figure that you had consumed that average estimate of 1,537 pounds of food per person for 1956. The annual average has fluctuated between 1,500 and 1,550 pounds per person since 1910.

In all those pounds the average person is eating around 225 pounds more of items lower in calories — such as meat, eggs, fruits and vegetables — than 50 years ago.

The latest issue of "Agriculture Outlook" gives $7.68 as the average estimated amount spent a week for food by each person in the United States. For the average family the estimate is $27.00 per week. ($5.00 of this for meals and snacks away from home)

According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, at least one-fifth of the money that people in the United States spend for food, now goes to the restaurant industry. If the population grows, as expected, and if the pattern of "eating out" continues, the number of meals purchased away from home will probably increase 75 percent by 1975.

The farmer who toils on the land and makes the first step toward making this eating and spending possible, gets an "average" of 41 cents of each retail food dollar.

* * *

Securing and preparing food — from any source—is rapidly and amazingly being simplified. We can soon rearrange and add to Shakespeare's thoughts and writing and say, "The quality of mercy is not only strained, it is tenderized, ready-cooked, homogenized, pasteurized, enriched, filtered, powdered, artifically colored and flavored, and can be purchased at an electronic store and cooked (if necessary?) in an electronic range.'

A recent weekly publication reports that an Electronic Store has been developed and will probably be installed in some of the large cities soon. The shopper assembles no merchandise as she walks through the store —she merely pushes buttons in front of displays to indicate her choice of merchandise.

These selections are recorded on a large key which she was given when entering the store. When she —(or he!) finishes, the key is presented to the checker. The order is then assembled electronically (60 items in 30 seconds) while the total bill is computed, also electronically; the order is sacked and the customer is on her way in seconds.

Was there ever a woman in the world who had so much help in planning meals and shopping as the American woman? But she must take advantage of the aid by reading food advertisements, package information and other available help, printed and otherwise.

Tone Of Voice Important In Pup Training

Ralph Wallace, dog warden, had timely advice today for those who want to start out at Christmas time to train a gift puppy.

"Your dog is very sensitive to sound and his reponse to your command depends on the shading and inflection that you put into your voice," Wallace explained.

"For instance, you can say 'Here, Rover' in an ominous tone and the dog will stand off and eye you dubiously or he will slink away. You can say it disapprovingly and he will react as if he did something wrong. Or you can put a lot of enthusiasm into it and Rover will bound over to you in one joyous leap."

The important thing to remember, stresses Wallace, is that your dog pays more attention to how you say something than to what you say.

And while on the subject of using language to communicate with your dog, adds the dog warden, try limiting your words to one or two syllables. Long words or "baby talk" will only serve to confuse your dog, not enlighten him.

Dog's Best Friend

WESTPORT, Conn. — When his Irish setter broke through a thin coating of ice on the Saugatuck River, which prevented the animal from swimming ashore, Dr. Herbert Simon plunged into the icy waters of the stream and rescued it.

Christmas Message

Let our thoughts this Christmas turn to Him who was born in Bethlehem. Let us remember and cherish His message.

FLASH ELECTRIC CO.

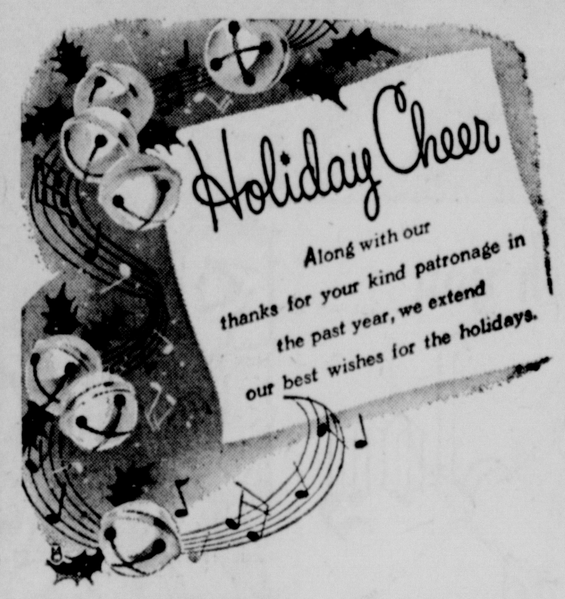
129 W. MILL (REAR) PHONE 975

Bill DING Says:

© LOCAL TRADEMARKS, Inc.

MAY WE EXTEND TO ALL OF YOU
The Most Joyous MERRY CHRISTMAS

Circleville BUILDING SUPPLIES
THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME BUILD ONE
766 S PICKAWAY ST Telephone 976



Wardell's Carpet & Rugs

146 W. MAIN PHONE 160

Christmas Greetings

As the three kings of ancient time brought to our Saviour their precious gifts, let us bring to Christmas the supreme gift of love and good will toward all, and thus express in fullest measure the true spirit of the Day.

Hummel & Plum Insurance

103½ E. Main Phone 143

It's the season to be joyful... to exchange with family and friends the greetings of the Yuletide. We gladly join in, with happy holiday wishes to each and every one of you.

LORING E. DAVIS

Your Supplier of
Cities Service Products — Phone 582

Rosanne McWilliams, a museum guide, sets into motion some of the dancing dolls that are on exhibit.

Museum Gathers Recorded Music

Perhaps in all the world there's not such a unique museum as in Scarsdale, N. Y. It is drawing visitors from all parts of the country, as word of it spreads.

It's the Museum of Recorded Music. In a mansion, surrounded by four acres of beautiful landscaping, and in an atmosphere of luxury there's a veritable fairyland of mechanical musical instruments gathered in every part of the globe.

Music boxes that are virtual objects of art, strange and humorous figures that dance or motion to you, birds that fly and sing charmingly, snuff boxes that, when lifted, play delightful tunes, these are merely a few of the many exhibits.

The mansion that houses the museum, purchased some years ago by Lewis Graham, television producer, is in itself of interest. For it has a theater on the third floor, and this is the main exhibition room of the museum.

THE EXHIBITS, however, begin at the entrance on the first floor, tastefully arranged. One sometimes believes he is examining an art object when, lo, it begins to tune!

On a landing there is a grandfather clock of majestic proportions, and while one stands admiring it, it likewise begins performing. One lingers then on the second floor, and again an art object turns out to be a muscial contrivance.

On the intriguing third floor, one really sees the development of mechanical musical instruments from the farthest date back to the present.

Some bring nostalgia, those a person recalls from his childhood days. All, however, depict the ingenuity of man, searching for a way to mechanization, yet maintaining the integrity of masterpieces of music.

However, it is in the accumulation of records that the museum may prove to be of chief benefit to future generations. Graham asserts that failure in the past, even in the immediate past, to preserve recorded music has been a distinct loss.

Graham's plans are to make this museum the custodian of recorded music, from its inception to the present. To that end, he has scoured the world not only for mechanical musical instruments, but for recorded music, from the old steel discs to the modern tape recordings. Today one can hear recordings in the museum that are unattainable elsewhere.

* * *

THE MUSEUM, in other words, is a historical exhibit of the development of mechanical instruments and recordings. Visitors find it vastly entertaining as well as instructive.

Groups of young folk and old come via motor coach from New York City or the surrounding area for escorted tours. And there always are persons dropping in from various parts of America.

Safety Council Warns 75 MPH Driver Can Hit Like Hurricane

Are you a hurricane driver?

You are if you drive 75 miles an hour or more, the National Safety Council declares.

For at that pace, warned the council, you can destroy yourself and anything in your path as quickly as a hurricane.

"The U. S. weather bureau considers winds of 75 miles and over of hurricane proportion," said Ned H. Dearborn, president of the Council, "and motorists should remember that a car driven at the same speed is propelled with the same destructive force."

Because of the emergency traffic situation, with its rising toll, Dearborn said a year-round "Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents" campaign, launched this December, will continue through 1957. The purpose of the campaign is to encourage public officials to step up the attack and to stimulate citizens to back the attack on traffic accidents.

* * *

DURING December campaign emphasis has been on speed, drinking drivers and pedestrians, night driving and pedestrian hazards.

Speed was a large factor last year in the 609 Christmas traffic deaths, the council said. Driving too fast for conditions or in excess of the speed limit was a factor in 85 per cent of the fatal accidents, compared with an annual average of 35 per cent.

At high speeds the human body becomes increasingly vulnerable, the Council pointed out. If an accident occurs at 60 miles an hour or more the victim is eight times more likely to die than if he had been injured in an accident at 20 miles an hour.

"Speed not only increases your chances of having an accident—it decreases your chances of coming out alive if you do have one," said Dearborn.

But How Many Believed The Guy?

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — A citizen who called police at midnight to report he saw a kangaroo galloping along a street was sober and telling the truth, officers learned three hours later.

At 3 a. m. Patrolman John J. Brown lassoed the animal, a wallaby, a small-size cousin of the kangaroo, after chasing him at 30 miles an hour in a patrol car. The wallaby was returned to the zoo.

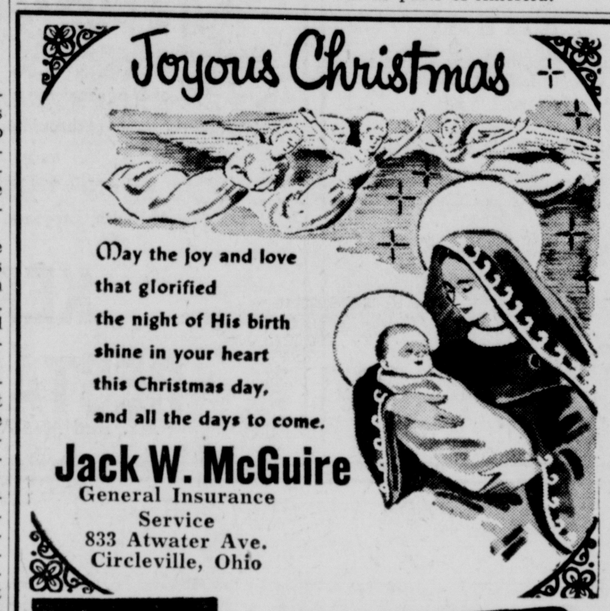
Warm Wishes

May the glow of holiday cheer brighten the homes of our many kind friends whose patronage we value so highly. Our thanks to you all.

MRS. GEORGE FISHPAW

THE HAMILTON STORE

Read The Daily Herald Classifieds



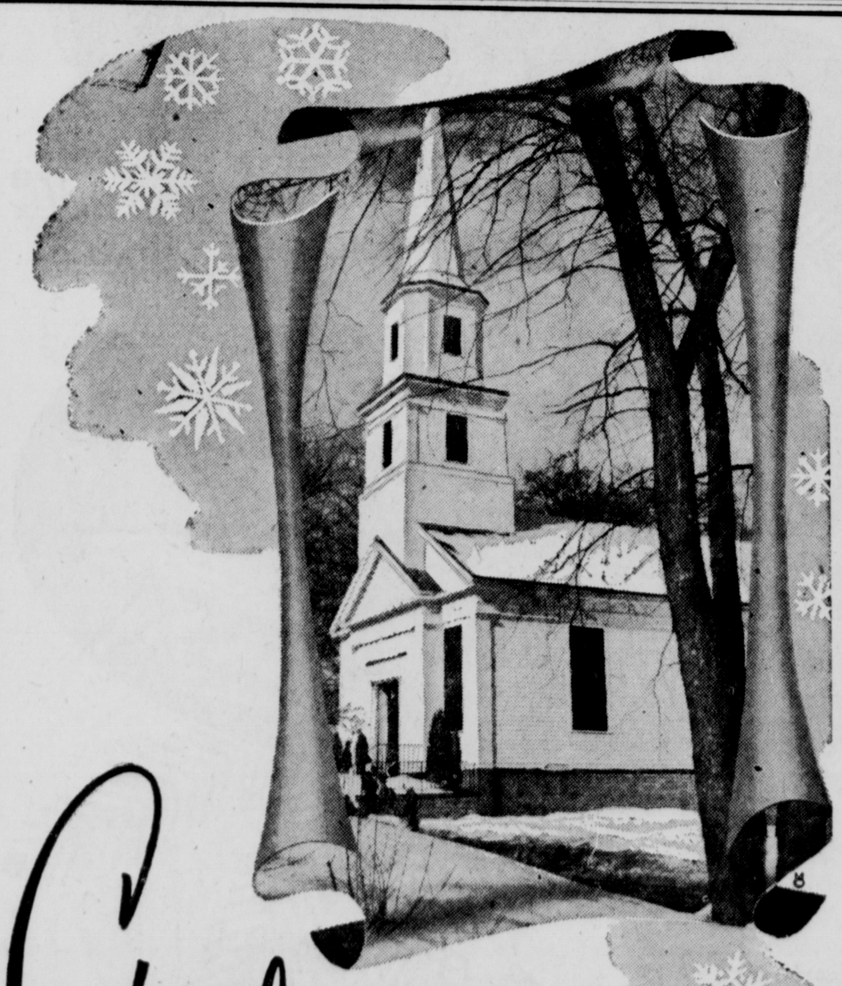
Joyous Christmas

May the joy and love that glorified the night of His birth shine in your heart this Christmas day, and all the days to come.

Jack W. McGuire
General Insurance Service
833 Atwater Ave.
Circleville, Ohio

SEE YOUR FRIENDLY AGENT

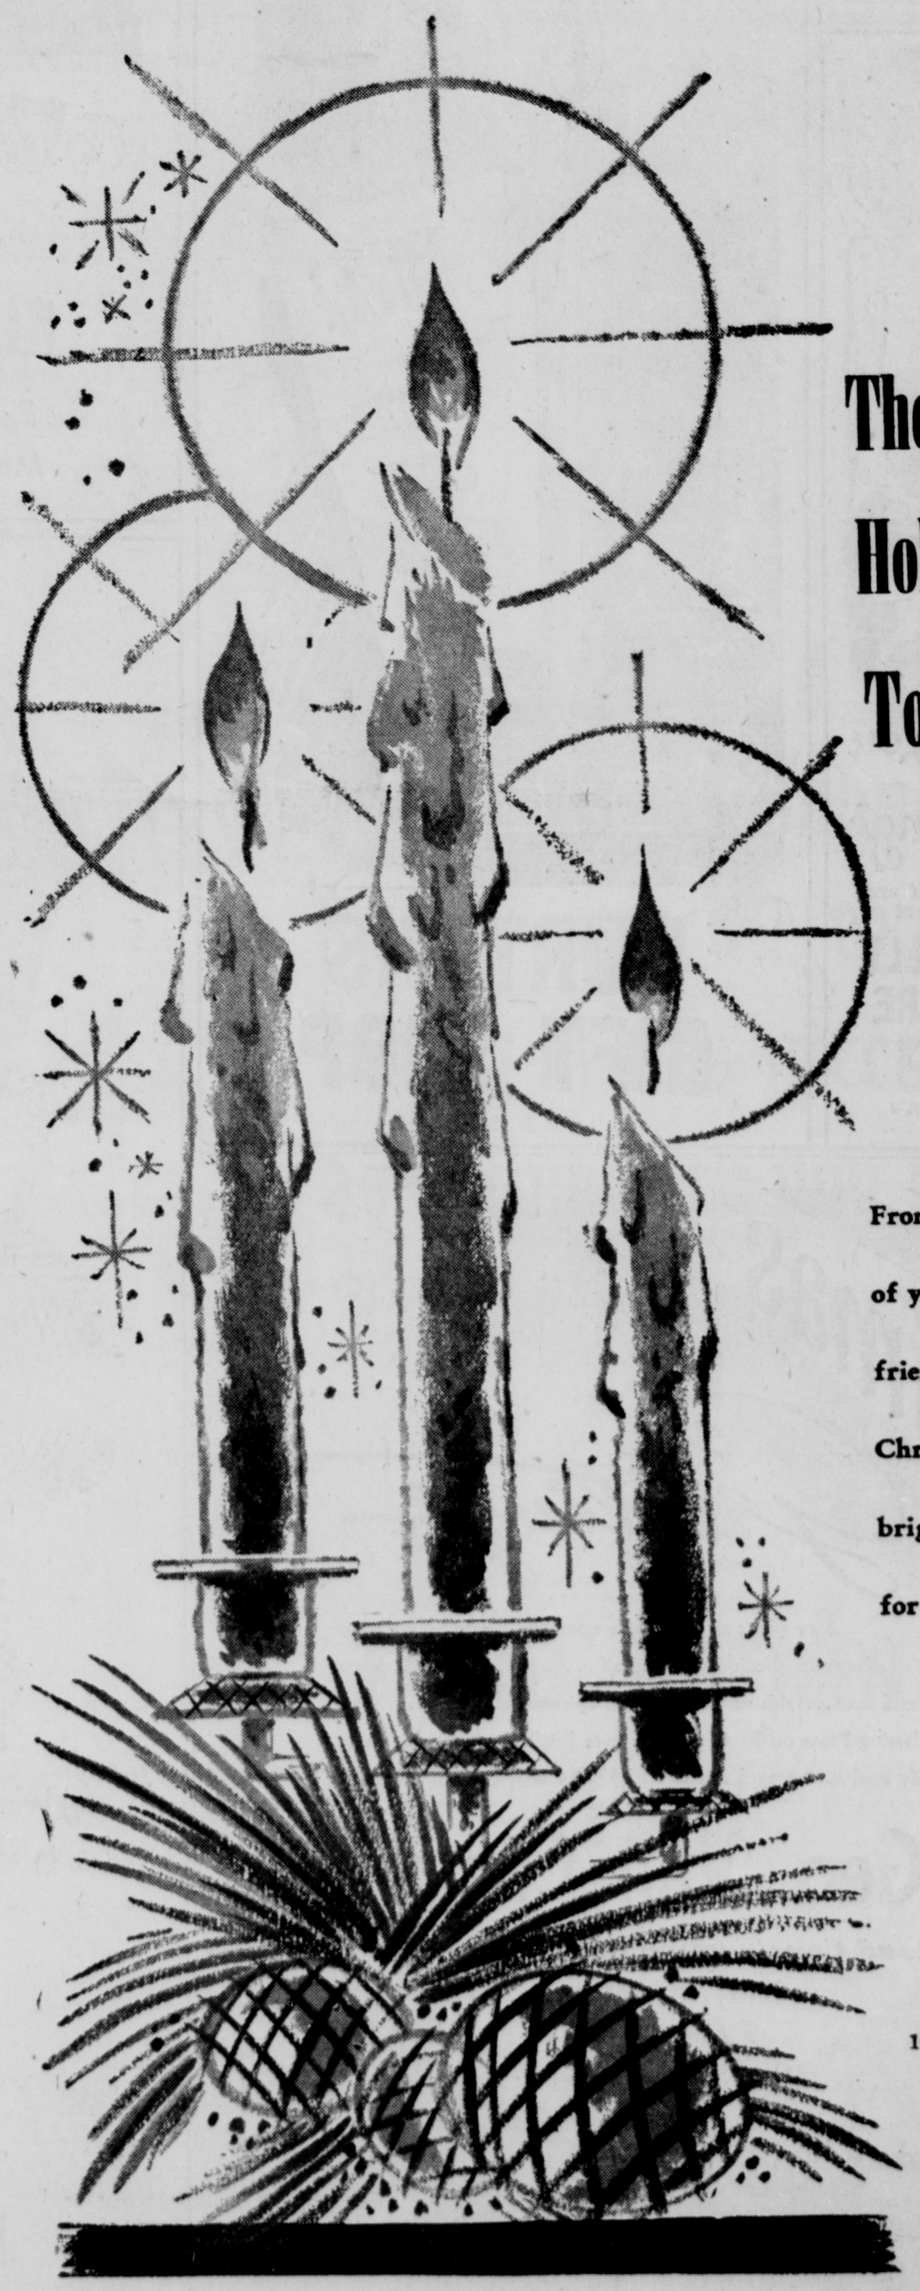
MOTORISTS MUTUAL
Dependable Fire and Casualty Insurance
"The Best Company at Time of Loss"



Greetings

Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without the glad warmth of greetings given and received. So, from all of us to all of you, here's a hearty, friendly greeting for a happy holiday.

JOHN W. Eshelman & SONS
Red Rose
ESTABLISHED 1842



The Brightest Holiday Greetings To You All!

From all of us here to all of you, we send warm and friendly wishes that this Christmas will shine as a bright spot in your memory for years to come!

All the Gang At

BOB LITTER'S

163 W. Main Phone 821
Circleville, Ohio

Rosanne McWilliams, a museum guide, sets into motion some of the dancing dolls that are on exhibit.

Museum Gathers Recorded Music

Perhaps in all the world there's not such a unique museum as in Scarsdale, N. Y. It is drawing visitors from all parts of the country, as word of it spreads.

It's the Museum of Recorded Music. In a mansion, surrounded by four acres of beautiful landscaping, and in an atmosphere of luxury there's a veritable fairyland of mechanical musical instruments gathered in every part of the globe.

Music boxes that are virtual objects of art, strange and humorous figures that dance or motion to you, birds that fly and sing charmingly, snuff boxes that, when lifted, play delightful tunes, these are merely a few of the many exhibits.

The mansion that houses the museum, purchased some years ago by Lewis Graham, television producer, is in itself of interest. For it has a theater on the third floor, and this is the main exhibition room of the museum.

THE EXHIBITS, however, begin at the entrance on the first floor, tastefully arranged. One sometimes believes he is examining an art object when, lo, it begins to tune!

On a landing there is a grandfather clock of majestic proportions, and while one stands admiring it, it likewise begins performing. One lingers then on the second floor, and again an art object turns out to be a muscial contrivance.

On the intriguing third floor, one really sees the development of mechanical musical instruments from the farthest date back to the present.

Some bring nostalgia, those a person recalls from his childhood days. All, however, depict the ingenuity of man, searching for a way to mechanization, yet maintaining the integrity of masterpieces of music.

However, it is in the accumulation of records that the museum may prove to be of chief benefit to future generations. Graham asserts that failure in the past, even in the immediate past, to preserve recorded music has been a distinct loss.

Graham's plans are to make this museum the custodian of recorded music, from its inception to the present. To that end, he has scoured the world not only for mechanical musical instruments, but for recorded music, from the old steel discs to the modern tape recordings. Today one can hear recordings in the museum that are unattainable elsewhere.

* * *

THE MUSEUM, in other words, is a historical exhibit of the development of mechanical instruments and recordings. Visitors find it vastly entertaining as well as instructive.

Groups of young folk and old come via motor coach from New York City or the surrounding area for escorted tours. And there always are persons dropping in from various parts of America.

Safety Council Warns 75 MPH Driver Can Hit Like Hurricane

Are you a hurricane driver?

You are if you drive 75 miles an hour or more, the National Safety Council declares.

For at that pace, warned the council, you can destroy yourself and anything in your path as quickly as a hurricane.

"The U. S. weather bureau considers winds of 75 miles and over of hurricane proportion," said Ned H. Dearborn, president of the Council, "and motorists should remember that a car driven at the same speed is propelled with the same destructive force."

Because of the emergency traffic situation, with its rising toll, Dearborn said a year-round "Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents" campaign, launched this December, will continue through 1957. The purpose of the campaign is to encourage public officials to step up the attack and to stimulate citizens to back the attack on traffic accidents.

* * *

DURING December campaign emphasis has been on speed, drinking drivers and pedestrians, night driving and pedestrian hazards.

Speed was a large factor last year in the 609 Christmas traffic deaths, the council said. Driving too fast for conditions or in excess of the speed limit was a factor in 85 per cent of the fatal accidents, compared with an annual average of 35 per cent.

At high speeds the human body becomes increasingly vulnerable, the Council pointed out. If an accident occurs at 60 miles an hour or more the victim is eight times more likely to die than if he had been injured in an accident at 20 miles an hour.

"Speed not only increases your chances of having an accident—it decreases your chances of coming out alive if you do have one," said Dearborn.

But How Many Believed The Guy?

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — A citizen who called police at midnight to report he saw a kangaroo galloping along a street was sober and telling the truth, officers learned three hours later.

At 3 a. m. Patrolman John J. Brown lassoed the animal, a wallaby, a small-size cousin of the kangaroo, after chasing him at 30 miles an hour in a patrol car. The wallaby was returned to the zoo.

Warm Wishes

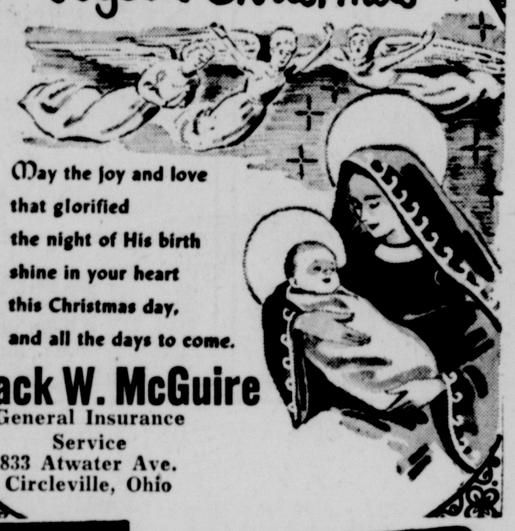
May the glow of holiday cheer brighten the homes of our many kind friends whose patronage we value so highly. Our thanks to you all.

MRS. GEORGE FISHPAW

THE HAMILTON STORE

Read The Daily Herald Classifieds

Joyous Christmas



May the joy and love that glorified the night of His birth shine in your heart this Christmas day, and all the days to come.

Jack W. McGuire
General Insurance Service
833 Atwater Ave.
Circleville, Ohio

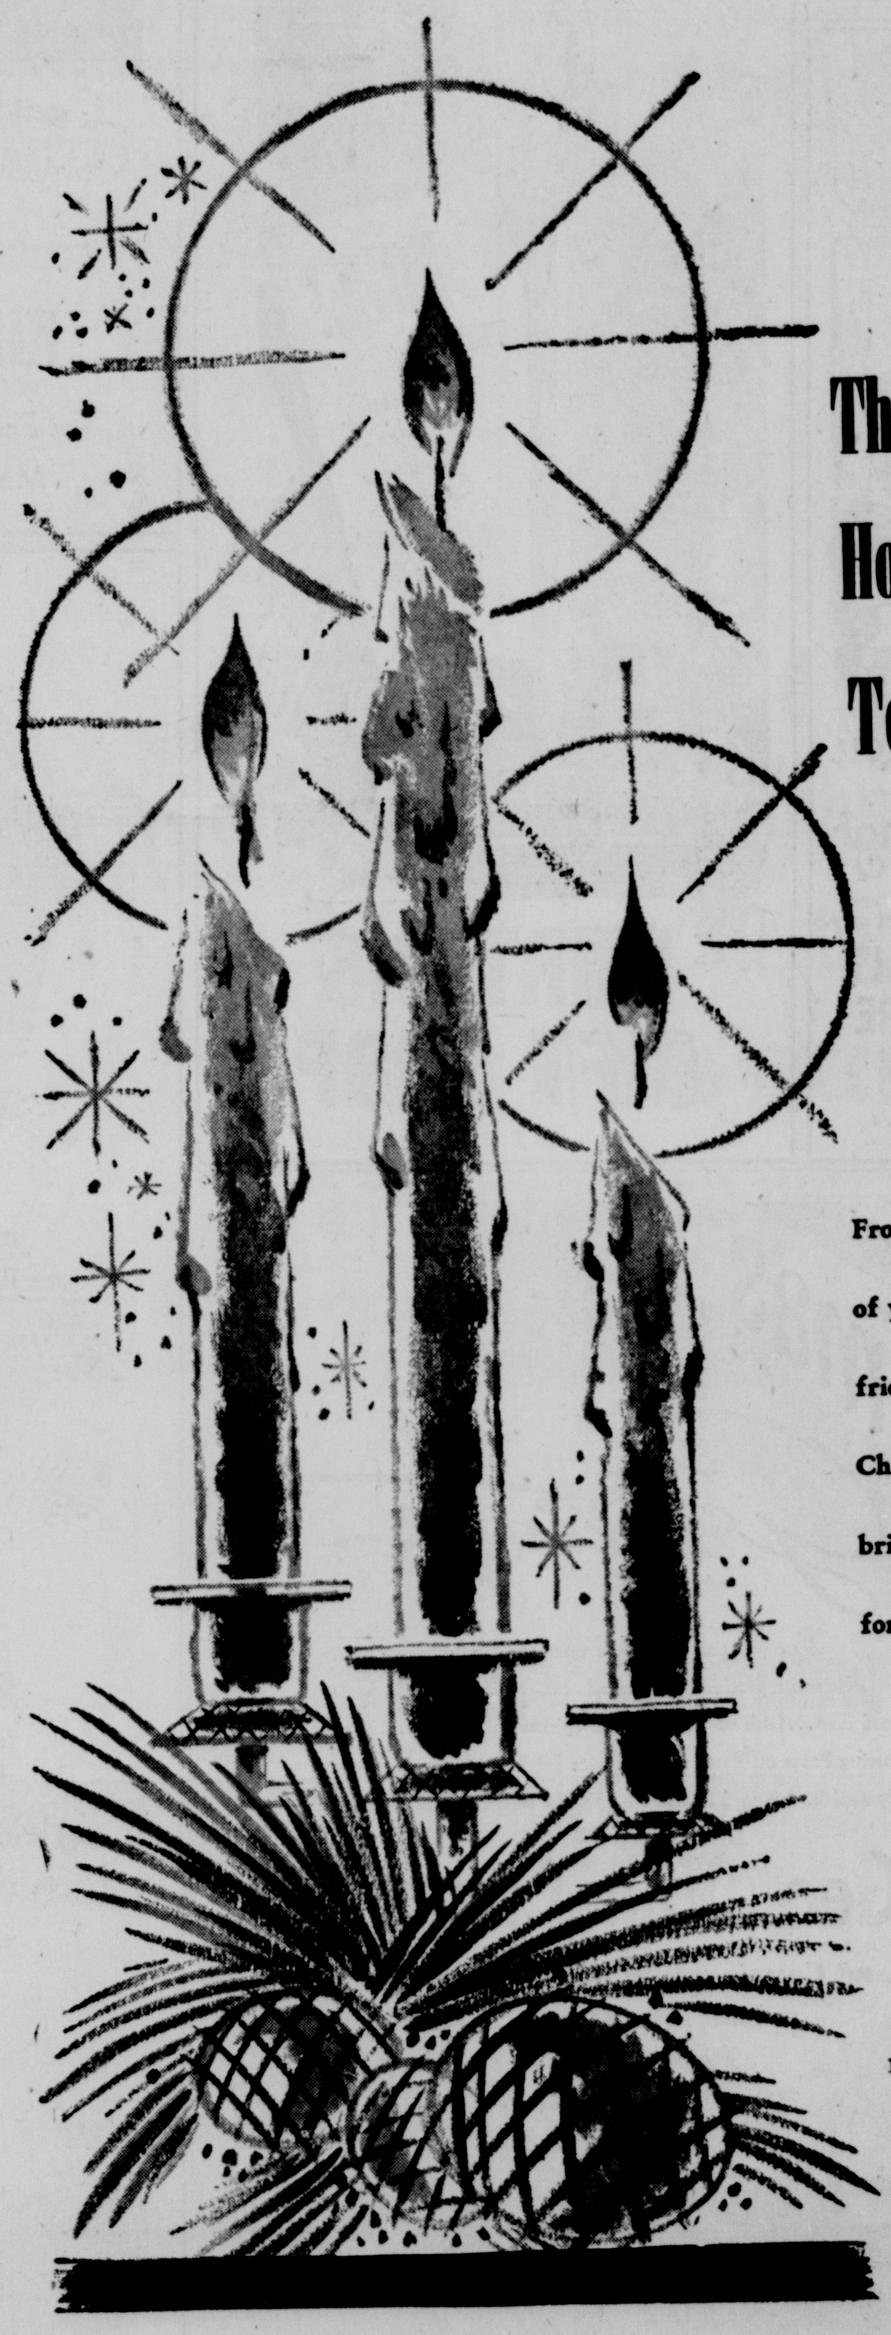
SEE YOUR FRIENDLY AGENT

MOTORISTS MUTUAL
Dependable Fire and Casualty Insurance
"The Best Company at Time of Loss"

Greetings

Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without the glad warmth of greetings given and received. So, from all of us to all of you, here's a hearty, friendly greeting for a happy holiday.

JOHN W. Eshelman & SONS
RED ROSE
ESTABLISHED 1842



The Brightest Holiday Greetings To You All!

From all of us here to all of you, we send warm and friendly wishes that this Christmas will shine as a bright spot in your memory for years to come!

All the Gang At

BOB LITTER'S

163 W. Main Phone 821
Circleville, Ohio

What Were Better Known Foods In Judea At First Christmastide?

By Ida Bailey Allen

What foods were displayed in the open market places of Judea nearly 2000 years ago?

What might have been selected for service to her family by the mother of the Virgin Mary?

What lessons in marketing and food selection were imparted to this dedicated young girl by her mother?

And later, what foods might Mary herself have prepared for her own family and her son, Jesus?

* * *

FOR THE answers to these questions I turned to Florence Marvyne Bauer, distinguished authority on Bible times and author of "Behold Your King," and the heart-stirring new book "Daughter of Nazareth."

"What major protein foods were served in the time of Mary?" I asked this gracious woman.

"The meat was mostly lamb and mutton, but not much more than flavoring for stew among the poor. Goat's meat was eaten, too," she answered. "Quail, pigeon and partridge were also considered clean food by the Hebrews. Fish was pickled or salted, and fresh fish was roasted over embers or upon hot stones."

"How about fats?" I asked.

"Butter was a delicacy; olive oil was common; fat from sheep tails also was used," continued Mrs. Bauer. "Bread was made of pounded whole grains, not always leavened. Nuts and a variety of fresh and dried vegetables were used.

"Fruits included melons, figs, pomegranates, grapes, mulberries, olives and probably others of citrus varieties. Honey and seasonings such as onions, garlic, leeks and salt were commonly used.

"Spices must have been very costly," she added. "They are always mentioned with gold and precious stones. I can think of no place in the Bible where spices are mentioned for cooking."

"WHAT type of menu might Mary have prepared for a feast day meal?" I asked.

"That would depend on whether the family was rich or poor.

"Fruits, vegetables and grains were basic foods even at feasts. So was cheese made from camel's and goat's milk. The Paschal lamb was roasted, and according to Mosaic law, not less than ten could partake and not more than twenty.

"Wine was obligatory and served four times during the meal, even in poor families. No after dish—dessert—was allowed."

Now Drink This

NORFOLK, Va. — Overheard on the Norfolk police radio: "Pick up an intoxicated man on Bourbon Ave."

No Thumb Tacks?

MEXICO CITY—Got the whooping cough? Mexican herb doctors claim quick relief with a concoction of gougainvillea flowers, prune juice and a sliver of resinous ocote wood. Anyway, they've used it for centuries.

Mrs. Lou Gehrig, national campaign chairman for Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc., is among thousands of volunteers who will call on their neighbors during the Thanksgiving March for Muscular Dystrophy for funds to fight the crippling and fatal disease. More than 200,000 are victims, most of them children.

FIVE NEW YORK transit employes sing Christmas carols in a subway as the Transit authority initiates a program of "live" carol singing for riders. This is a shuttle train at Grand Central station. Singers (from left) are trackman John R. Batik, conductor John W. Peck, transit policeman Eugene Soden, stenographer Mrs. Marie de Luca and motorman George R. Goodman. An official said it was an experiment, and if the riders don't like it, it will stop. (International Soundphoto)

Mixing Piccalilli With Politics Can Coax Out Votes

WICHITA, Kas.—Attorney John Stice, elected judge of the Court of Common Pleas, listed these campaign expenses:

Gauze (1 roll), 18 cents.
Mercurochrome, 39 cents.
Shoes (1 pair), $17.50
Piccalilli (2 jars), 98 cents.
Total $19.05.

He wore out a pair of shoes campaigning, he said; bought the mercurochrome and gauze for his left hand when his wife hit it with a sledge putting up campaign signs; and he furnished the piccalilli for sandwiches at a Democratic rally.

Rise Stevens Concert Date Moved Back

Ohio State University has announced postponement of a concert by Rise Stevens, Metropolitan Opera mezzo-soprano, until Tuesday, April 23.

Miss Stevens previously had been scheduled to appear in the university's Guest Artist Series on Jan. 9.

Prof. Eugene J. Weigel, chairman of the Concert Series Committee, said the postponement was arranged because the university's new Mershon Auditorium, now under construction, will not be completed by the original concert date.

The April 23 concert will open a two-week Festival of Music to be presented by Ohio State's School of Music as an event of the current year-long 50th anniversary celebration of the university's College of Education.

HOLIDAY Greetings

We chime in with our best wishes to one and all for a happy holiday season.

May the joy of this Yuletide shine brightly in your memories throughout the year to come.

KINSEY'S MEN'S SHOP

Exchanges Cheerfully Made Until January 1

GREETINGS

Loads of thanks to our many good friends for your loyal patronage throughout the year. May you all enjoy a very happy Holiday Season and a New Year filled with 365 days of health, happiness and good fellowship.

KERNS RESTAURANT

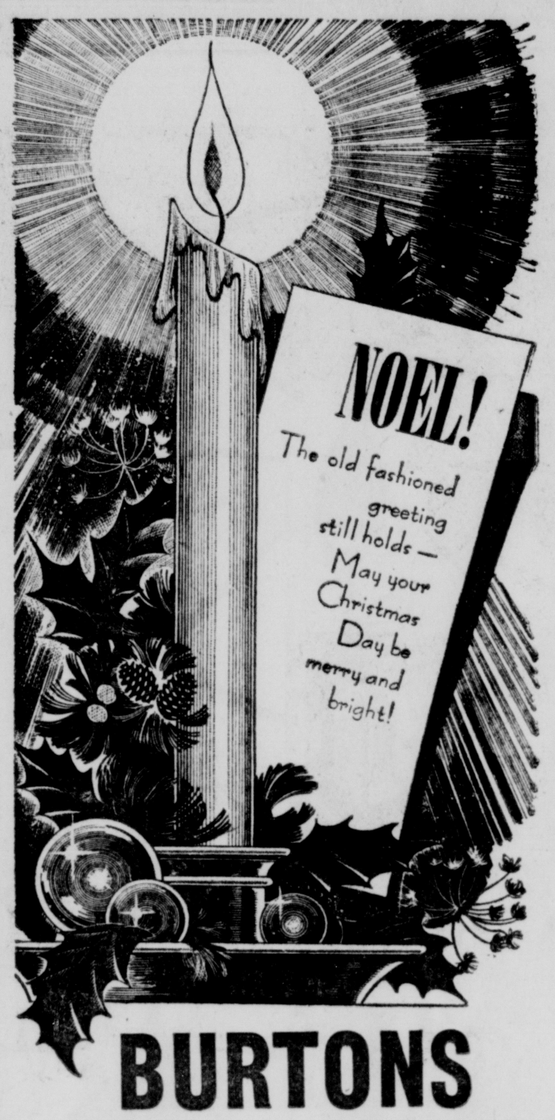
Mr. and Mrs. John N. Kerns

We send You Greetings

The Entire Staff and The Owners of

CIRCLEVILLE HARDWARE

Extend To All A Very Happy Christmas and Joyous Season's Greetings



BURTONS GIFT SHOP

105 E. MAIN

Gladness in your heart, joy in your home and good cheer wherever you go... all these we wish for you, this holiday season. May the Yuletide be one you'll long and happily remember.

OHIO MIDLAND LIGHT and POWER CO.

Canal Winchester, Ohio

For you and your dear ones at Christmas, we wish the most precious gifts of all... the gifts of faith, hope and love... faith sustained by the spirit of Christmas... hope for lasting Peace on Earth... love ever bright with the blessings of family and home, and enriched by good will toward all men.

Geo. Van Camp

Road Construction & Maintenance
Hot Mix Plant
Phone 6016

What Were Better Known Foods In Judea At First Christmastide?

By Ida Bailey Allen

What foods were displayed in the open market places of Judea nearly 2000 years ago?

What might have been selected for service to her family by the mother of the Virgin Mary?

What lessons in marketing and food selection were imparted to this dedicated young girl by her mother?

And later, what foods might Mary herself have prepared for her own family and her son, Jesus?

* * *

FOR THE answers to these questions I turned to Florence Marvyne Bauer, distinguished authority on Bible times and author of "Behold Your King," and the heart-stirring new book "Daughter of Nazareth."

"What major protein foods were served in the time of Mary?" I asked this gracious woman.

"The meat was mostly lamb and mutton, but not much more than flavoring for stew among the poor. Goat's meat was eaten, too," she answered. "Quail, pigeon and partridge were also considered clean food by the Hebrews. Fish was pickled or salted, and fresh fish was roasted over embers or upon hot stones."

"How about fats?" I asked.

"Butter was a delicacy; olive oil was common; fat from sheep tails also was used," continued Mrs. Bauer. "Bread was made of pounded whole grains, not always leavened. Nuts and a variety of fresh and dried vegetables were used.

"Fruits included melons, figs, pomegranates, grapes, mulberries, olives and probably others of citrus varieties. Honey and seasonings such as onions, garlic, leeks and salt were commonly used.

"Spices must have been very costly," she added. "They are always mentioned with gold and precious stones. I can think of no place in the Bible where spices are mentioned for cooking."

"WHAT type of menu might Mary have prepared for a feast day meal?" I asked.

"That would depend on whether the family was rich or poor.

"Fruits, vegetables and grains were basic foods even at feasts. So was cheese made from camel's and goat's milk. The Paschal lamb was roasted, and according to Mosaic law, not less than ten could partake and not more than twenty.

"Wine was obligatory and served four times during the meal, even in poor families. No after dish—dessert—was allowed."

Now Drink This

NORFOLK, Va. — Overheard on the Norfolk police radio: "Pick up an intoxicated man on Bourbon Ave."

No Thumb Tacks?

MEXICO CITY—Got the whooping cough? Mexican herb doctors claim quick relief with a concoction of gougainvillea flowers, prune juice and a sliver of resinous ocote wood. Anyway, they've used it for centuries.

Mrs. Lou Gehrig, national campaign chairman for Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc., is among thousands of volunteers who will call on their neighbors during the Thanksgiving March for Muscular Dystrophy for funds to fight the crippling and fatal disease. More than 200,000 are victims, most of them children.

FIVE NEW YORK transit employes sing Christmas carols in a subway as the Transit authority initiates a program of "live" carol singing for riders. This is a shuttle train at Grand Central station. Singers (from left) are trackman John R. Batik, conductor John W. Peck, transit policeman Eugene Soden, stenographer Mrs. Marie de Luca and motorman George R. Goodman. An official said it was an experiment, and if the riders don't like it, it will stop. (International Soundphoto)

Mixing Piccalilli With Politics Can Coax Out Votes

WICHITA, Kas.—Attorney John Stice, elected judge of the Court of Common Pleas, listed these campaign expenses:

Gauze (1 roll), 18 cents.
Mercurochrome, 39 cents.
Shoes (1 pair), $17.50
Piccalilli (2 jars), 98 cents.
Total $19.05.

He wore out a pair of shoes campaigning, he said; bought the mercurochrome and gauze for his left hand when his wife hit it with a sledge putting up campaign signs; and he furnished the piccalilli for sandwiches at a Democratic rally.

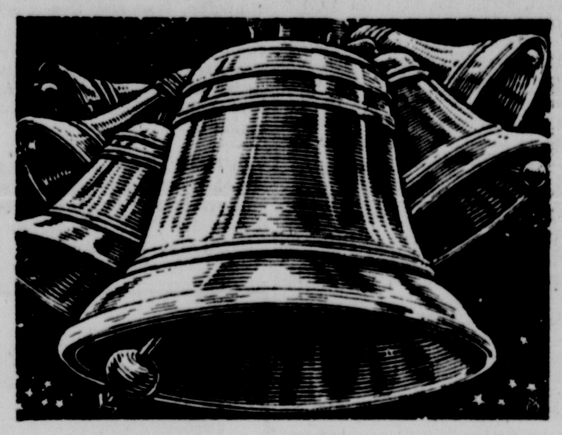
Rise Stevens Concert Date Moved Back

Ohio State University has announced postponement of a concert by Rise Stevens, Metropolitan Opera mezzo-soprano, until Tuesday, April 23.

Miss Stevens previously had been scheduled to appear in the university's Guest Artist Series on Jan. 9.

Prof. Eugene J. Weigel, chairman of the Concert Series Committee, said the postponement was arranged because the university's new Mershon Auditorium, now under construction, will not be completed by the original concert date.

The April 23 concert will open a two-week Festival of Music to be presented by Ohio State's School of Music as an event of the current year-long 50th anniversary celebration of the university's College of Education.



HOLIDAY Greetings

We chime in with our best wishes to one and all for a happy holiday season.

May the joy of this Yuletide shine brightly in your memories throughout the year to come.

KINSEY'S MEN'S SHOP

Exchanges Cheerfully Made Until January 1

GREETINGS

Loads of thanks to our many good friends for your loyal patronage throughout the year. May you all enjoy a very happy Holiday Season and a New Year filled with 365 days of health, happiness and good fellowship.

KERNS RESTAURANT

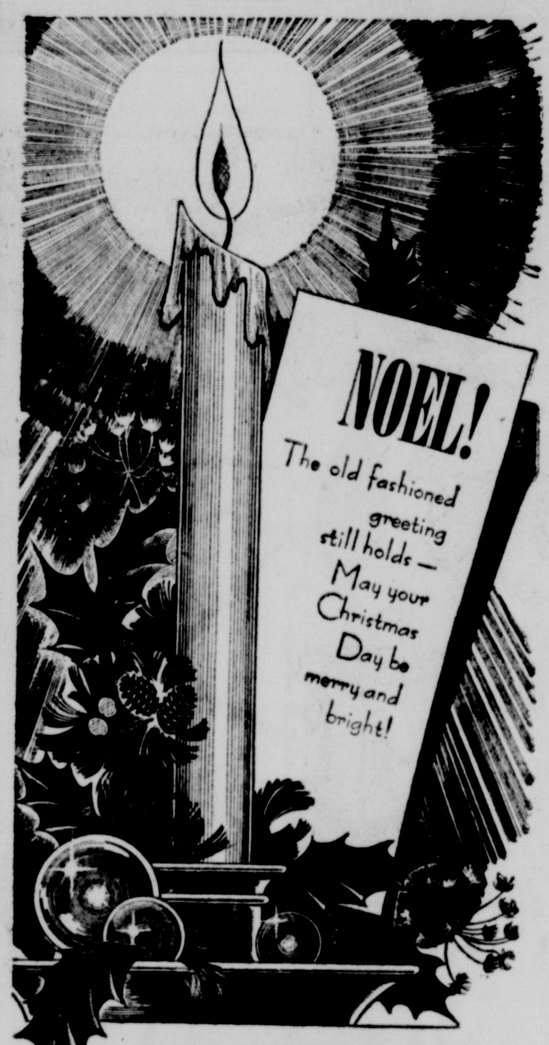
Mr. and Mrs. John N. Kerns

We send You Greetings

The Entire Staff and The Owners of

CIRCLEVILLE HARDWARE

Extend To All A Very Happy Christmas and Joyous Season's Greetings



BURTONS GIFT SHOP

105 E. MAIN

For you and your dear ones at Christmas, we wish the most precious gifts of all . . . the gifts of faith, hope and love . . . faith sustained by the spirit of Christmas . . . hope for lasting Peace on Earth . . . love ever bright with the blessings of family and home, and enriched by good will toward all men.

Geo. Van Camp

Road Construction & Maintenance
Hot Mix Plant
Phone 6016

Gladness in your heart, joy in your home and good cheer wherever you go . . . all these we wish for you, this holiday season. May the Yuletide be one you'll long and happily remember.

OHIO MIDLAND LIGHT and POWER CO.

Canal Winchester, Ohio

Coroner Warns Motorists On Yuletide Drinks

"Alcohol and gasoline are a deadly combination. Don't mix them if you want to keep on living."

That advice was offered to local motorists today by Dr. Ray Carroll, county coroner.

The drinking driver and his counterpart, the drinking walker, are among the targets of the Pickaway County Traffic Safety Committee and the National Safety Council in their current holiday hazards program. And the drinking driver is also one of the traffic law violators the Circleville police are gunning for in their stepped-up attack on traffic accidents.

"Drinking drivers and walkers contribute heavily to the high annual traffic accident toll," Dr. Carroll said. The National Safety Council reports that in 26 out of 100 fatal traffic accidents last year a driver or an adult pedestrian had been drinking.

BUT AT Christmas time drinking drivers become a still greater problem. Last year they were involved in half of the fatal traffic accidents that occurred over the Christmas weekend.

Dr. Carroll advised party-goers to leave their cars at home when they attend gatherings at which they know they will be drinking alcoholic beverages. He also warned against walking home after imbibing freely.

"A few drinks may make you the life of the party, but they can also make you the death of some innocent bystander," Dr. Carroll said. "Play it safe. Call a taxi or ask some non-drinking friend to drive you home."

Box Offices Give Oldsters Break

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—San Diego's senior citizens are going to get a break at the box office, thanks to Squire A. Russell, a 76-year-old retired plumber.

Squire, who lives alone, has wondered for years why a pensioned person over 75 couldn't get the same cut-rate admission as juveniles at movies and other entertainment spots.

He explained this to the manager of a chain of 10 motion picture theaters in the San Diego area, and to officials of the San Diego Zoo. They agreed.

So with proper identification, persons over 75 on a pension will pay reduced admission prices at the 10 theaters, and nothing at the zoo.

SANTA'S HELPER Peggy Hanson, 18, was hoisted five stories above the ground in a cement pouring bucket to decorate a Christmas tree on a new building in Miami, Fla. She also filled that big stocking with presents for workers. (International)

To you, our friends and patrons, we extend every good wish for a happy holiday season, with our sincere thanks for the privilege of serving you over the years.

Ullman's Flowers

Phone 26

Today, as of old, the promise of Peace and Good Will inspires mankind with new hope as Christmastime approaches. May the blessings of the season be yours — Merry Christmas to all!

The Bastian Family

ASHVILLE

Gasoline Tax Distribution Tops Last Year

With the December distribution of $5,049,456 in gasoline tax money to cities, villages, counties and townships for streets and highways, local governments have received nearly $4½ million more from this source in 1956 than they received in 1955, according to State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

Under the final 1956 distribution, county highway departments are getting $1,760,000 or $20,000 for each county. Townships get $533,000, or $400 for each township. Cities and villages are sharing $2,755,856 at the rate of $1 for each registered motor vehicle in the municipality.

This makes $49,747,779 that local governments have received from the gasoline tax this year, an increase of $4,494,327 over last year.

Municipalities received $21,662,979 this year, $19,995,852 last year. Counties got $18,480,000 in 1956; $16,720,000 in 1955. Townships received $9,604,800 this year and $8,537,000 last year.

Each county's share in 1956 was $210,000 or $20,000 more than it received in 1955. Each township received $7,200 this year, an increase of $800 over last year.

The biggest bats are found in the tropics. Some of them have a wingspread of more than five feet.

No Gas Shortage In Scandinavia

American motorists driving through Scandinavia will face no gasoline shortages there during the 1957 travel season, nor will they or tourists traveling by other means of transportation suffer any other inconveniences whatsoever as a result of the recent delays in oil shipments brought about by the Suez Canal crisis, a survey of the four Scandinavian countries shows.

Denmark, Finland, Norway, and Sweden each report an ample supply of both motor and heating fuels.

Therefore, the minor restrictions on automobile driving announced by two of the countries soon after the blocking of the Suez Canal are purely precautionary and temporary measures, and, on the basis of already improved oil deliveries, officials predict that all restrictions will be removed by Spring.

No rail or bus schedules in Scandinavia have been affected at all, and hotels are as comfortably heated as ever.

GRIFFITH'S

Closed All Day Wednesday This Week--

Season's Greetings

from

Saltcreek - Tarlton Volunteer Firemen's Association

At this season of the year we would like to thank everyone who helped make the past year the success it has been!

There is a deep sense of friendliness and a special warm feeling in this greeting as it comes to you this Joyous Christmas..

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

Coroner Warns Motorists On Yuletide Drinks

"Alcohol and gasoline are a deadly combination. Don't mix them if you want to keep on living."

That advice was offered to local motorists today by Dr. Ray Carroll, county coroner.

The drinking driver and his counterpart, the drinking walker, are among the targets of the Pickaway County Traffic Safety Committee and the National Safety Council in their current holiday hazards program. And the drinking driver is also one of the traffic law violators the Circleville police are gunning for in their stepped-up attack on traffic accidents.

"Drinking drivers and walkers contribute heavily to the high annual traffic accident toll," Dr. Carroll said. The National Safety Council reports that in 26 out of 100 fatal traffic accidents last year a driver or an adult pedestrian had been drinking.

BUT AT Christmas time drinking drivers become a still greater problem. Last year they were involved in half of the fatal traffic accidents that occurred over the Christmas weekend.

Dr. Carroll advised party-goers to leave their cars at home when they attend gatherings at which they know they will be drinking alcoholic beverages. He also warned against walking home after imbibing freely.

"A few drinks may make you the life of the party, but they can also make you the death of some innocent bystander," Dr. Carroll said. "Play it safe. Call a taxi or ask some non-drinking friend to drive you home."

Box Offices Give Oldsters Break

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—San Diego's senior citizens are going to get a break at the box office, thanks to Squire A. Russell, a 76-year-old retired plumber.

Squire, who lives alone, has wondered for years why a pensioned person over 75 couldn't get the same cut-rate admission as juveniles at movies and other entertainment spots.

He explained this to the manager of a chain of 10 motion picture theaters in the San Diego area, and to officials of the San Diego Zoo. They agreed.

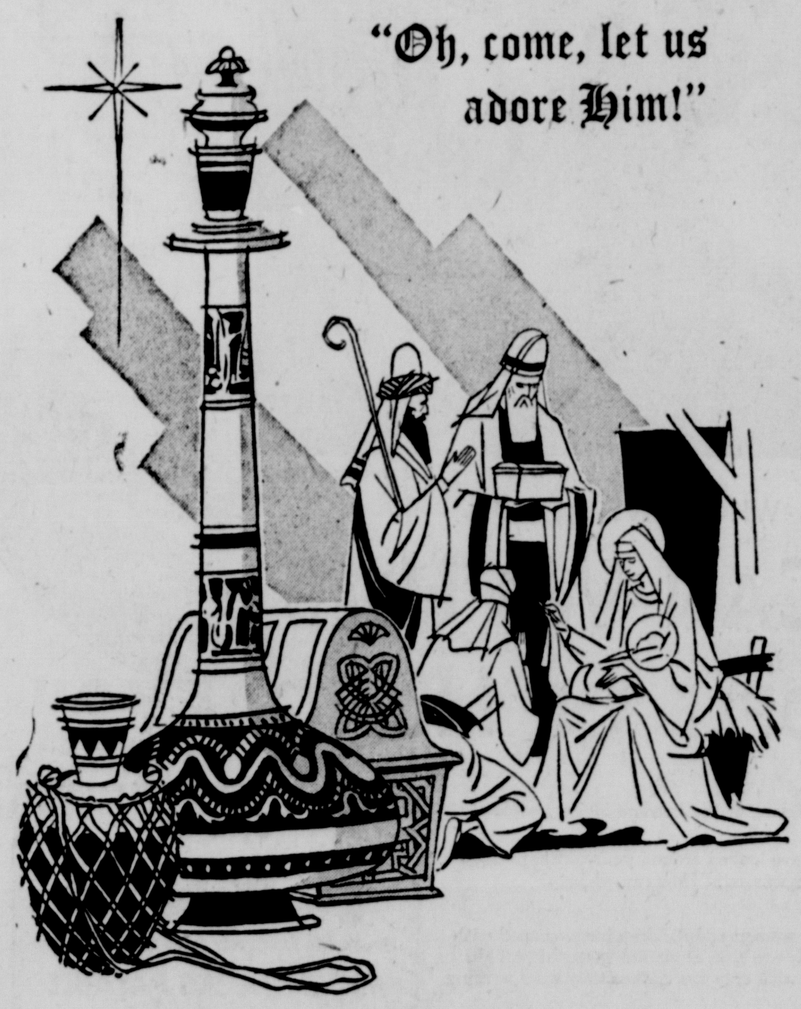
So with proper identification, persons over 75 on a pension will pay reduced admission prices at the 10 theaters, and nothing at the zoo.

SANTA'S HELPER Peggy Hanson, 18, was hoisted five stories above the ground in a cement pouring bucket to decorate a Christmas tree on a new building in Miami, Fla. She also filled that big stocking with presents for workers. (International)

To you, our friends and patrons, we extend every good wish for a happy holiday season, with our sincere thanks for the privilege of serving you over the years.

Ullman's Flowers

Phone 26



Today, as of old, the promise of Peace and Good Will inspires mankind with new hope as Christmastime approaches. May the blessings of the season be yours — Merry Christmas to all!

The Bastian Family

ASHVILLE

Gasoline Tax Distribution Tops Last Year

With the December distribution of $5,049,456 in gasoline tax money to cities, villages, counties and townships for streets and highways, local governments have received nearly $4½ million more from this source in 1956 than they received in 1955, according to State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

Under the final 1956 distribution, county highway departments are getting $1,760,000 or $20,000 for each county. Townships get $533,000, or $400 for each township. Cities and villages are sharing $2,755,856 at the rate of $1 for each registered motor vehicle in the municipality.

This makes $49,747,779 that local governments have received from the gasoline tax this year, an increase of $4,494,327 over last year.

Municipalities received $21,662,979 this year, $19,995,852 last year. Counties got $18,480,000 in 1956; $16,720,000 in 1955. Townships received $9,604,800 this year and $8,537,000 last year.

Each county's share in 1956 was $210,000 or $20,000 more than it received in 1955. Each township received $7,200 this year, an increase of $800 over last year.

The biggest bats are found in the tropics. Some of them have a wingspread of more than five feet.

No Gas Shortage In Scandinavia

American motorists driving through Scandinavia will face no gasoline shortages there during the 1957 travel season, nor will they or tourists traveling by other means of transportation suffer any other inconveniences whatsoever as a result of the recent delays in oil shipments brought about by the Suez Canal crisis, a survey of the four Scandinavian countries shows.

Denmark, Finland, Norway, and Sweden each report an ample supply of both motor and heating fuels.

Therefore, the minor restrictions on automobile driving announced by two of the countries soon after the blocking of the Suez Canal are purely precautionary and temporary measures, and, on the basis of already improved oil deliveries, officials predict that all restrictions will be removed by Spring.

No rail or bus schedules in Scandinavia have been affected at all, and hotels are as comfortably heated as ever.

GRIFFITH'S

Closed All Day Wednesday This Week--

Season's Greetings

from

Saltcreek - Tarlton Volunteer Firemen's Association

At this season of the year we would like to thank everyone who helped make the past year the success it has been!

There is a deep sense of friendliness and a special warm feeling in this greeting as it comes to you this Joyous Christmas..

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

SANTA'S OWN TAILOR SHOP!

California Couple Operate a Firm Which Produces Saint Nick Suits Only!

Mrs. Gerletti poses before the Santa Claus suit shop.

By ELLEN SAUNDERS
Central Press Association Correspondent

SUNSET BEACH, Calif.—Everyone should be able to afford the fun of playing Santa Claus. That's the theory held by Santa's personal tailors, Fred and Sonia Gerletti, whose tiny tailor shop, here in Sunset Beach, is the only one in the world which caters exclusively to Saint Nick.

Putting theory into practice, the Gerlettis sell their most inexpensive Santa suit, which they have nicknamed "The Uncle Albert" because of its popularity with uncles of all ages, for $12.50.

The suit is a red satin outfit consisting of coat, pants, cap and oilcloth boots. Deluxe suits of red plush, trimmed with white fur and decorated with jeweled handmade belts and buttons run as high as $100.

Although the Gerlettis prefer the traditional red for Santa they will cater to personal whims as they did in the case of the Hollywood movie producer who ordered an entire white velvet outfit trimmed with matching fur.

The idea for this unique business started 10 years ago when Mrs. Gerletti, angered because she was asked to pay an exorbitant price for a rented suit, bought some red flannel and, using her husband's pajamas as a pattern, whipped one up—and sold it 24 hours later.

* * *

ALTHOUGH neither of the Gerlettis had had any previous tailoring experience, the demand for their suits reached such proportions that, in 1951, Gerletti gave up a successful advertising career to launch the business on a full time basis.

Now they are turning out about 250 suits a year. In addition, they sell all such accessories as belts, mittens, hats and snowy white beards and wigs.

As soon as the Gerlettis realized that women enjoy playing Santa, too, they did something about it. Now, when Dad purchases his suit he can buy a replica of it for junior and a smart looking outfit, with a flared skirt, for Mom.

Dad need never fear that the costumes won't fit because they all come in one adjustable size guaranteed to fit any Santa regardless of height or weight.

Thanks to Mrs. Gerletti, the thin man no longer has an excuse for not being Santa. A special piece of underwear she has patented will build his 135 pounds up to a comfortable 300 in a matter of seconds!

* * *

WORRIED but enthusiastic grandfathers who are playing Saint Nick for the first time are among the Gerlettis' favorite customers.

"They pace up and down the store," says Mrs. Gerletti, "trying to get a 'Ho-Ho-Ho!' which has some pep in it, and asking our advice on the proper way to walk. Our customers expect us to know the answers and we try not to disappoint them."

So widely known has this business become that orders pour in from all parts of the world. One of the most unique was from an Eskimo who wrote from his igloo near Fairbanks, Alaska, that for 10 years he'd been satisfied to play Santa to his 11 children in his red flannel underwear and white fox furs, but now he wanted a "real Santa Claus suit."

Christmas Eve always finds the Gerlettis' store open until long after midnight. "We wouldn't want to let Santa down at the last minute," they explain.

Real Estate Transfers

Earl and Tennie M. Perkins to Woodrow Perkins, lots 13 and 14, Darbyville.

John M. Downs to Helen A. Downs, undivided ½ interest lot 1655, Circleville.

Helen A. Downs to Albert Kiger and Wife, lot 1655, Circleville.

Martha J. Peters to James E. Peters, 0.1516 acres, Circleville Township.

George E. Frank et al to George and Mary Lee Wickline, lot 7 (Joseph C. Moats subdivision), Circleville.

Richard W. Penn to Highly Jane Adams, undivided ½ lot 1654.

W. T. and Amanda Spradlin to Dannie R. and Bessie E. Hettinger, part lots 11-12 (W. O. Beavers proposed subdivision).

Lawrence J. and Mary L. Welsh to Russell and Virginia L. Rodgers 21 acres 117 poles, Scioto Twp.

Fred Prindle to Elbert L. and Ida M. Beaker, 164.24 acres, Scioto Twp.

Daniel H. and Mary E. Albright to City of Circleville, 365 sq. ft., Circleville.

Norman L. Bowman to John R. and Corda M. Owens, two acres, Wayne Twp.

Rosie Isaac, deceased, to Lawrence and Floyd Emma Roll, lot 1656, Circleville.

Charles and Elizabeth Isaac to Lawrence and Floyd Emma Roll, lot 1656, Circleville.

Rosie Isaac, deceased, to Oscar J. and Betty Smith, lot 43, Circleville Twp.

Charles and Elizabeth Isaac to Oscar J. and Betty Smith, lot 43, Circleville Twp.

Lucille Roese Welsh and Ira to Tremardo Corp., part lots 9 and 10 (0.330 arres), South Bloomfield.

George N. Brokaw to Leonard S. Van Buskirk and wife, 20,000 sq. ft., Washington Twp.

Paul A. Johnson et al to Joseph and Rosie B. Wolfe, lot 10 (Joseph C. and Frances R. Moats subdivision), Circleville.

Myrtle Wolf to J. Leo and Dora B. Hedges, part lot 1392, Circleville.

L. E. and Florence L. Binns to Floyd A. and Maxine O. Woolever, 0.25 acres, Atlanta.

George E. Wagner et al to William L. Juhn, part outlots 6 and 7.

Marvin Howard to Alice L. Dickinson, lot 93, Circleville.

Wilbert O. Riegel et al to Walter E. and Ruth A. Malone, lot 10 (Hoovers 2nd addition), Ashville.

George A. Stein (partnership contracting co.) to Dorothy P. Stein, 118 acres 35 poles, Saltcreek Twp.

Ventures Inc. to Central Development Co., 33 lots (Joseph C. Moats subdivision), Circleville.

Central Development Co. to Circleville Building Supplies Inc., lots 34-39 (Joseph C. Moats subdivision), Circleville.

Sidney A. and Margaret Stein to Dorothy P. Stein, 118 acres, 35 poles, Saltcreek Twp.

Jennie L. Strous, deceased, to Pearl Strous et al, certificate for transfer.

Fred M. Strous et al to Helen A. Strous, undivided ½ interest 279.14 acres, Saltcreek Twp.

Leo C. and Emeline M. Zwayer to Alton Brooks Jr. and Billie Lou Campbell, 0.3379 acres, Harrison Twp.

Edward C. Dalton, deceased, to Roberta D. Valentine and Mary M. Johnson, part lots 857 and 858, Circleville.

Lulu H. Huston to Cecil W. Briggs, lot 50, New Holland.

Albert F. Whiting et al to Lucille Roese, 5⅞ acres, Walnut Twp.

Dora and Thomas A. Williard to Dudley S. and Fannie L. Consolver, two acres, Saltcreek Twp.

William A. Schofield, deceased, to Bertha A. Schofield et al, certificate for transfer.

Wilbert O. and Grace Riegel et al to Gerald P. and Dorothy P. Riegel, lot 11 (Hoovers 2nd addition), Ashville.

Robert M. and Agnes C. Coleman to Lena Campbell, part lot 859, Circleville.

Calvin M. Scothorn to Samuel U. and Alice V. Scothorn, 66.22 acres, Walnut Twp.

James R. Armstrong, lot 22 (Chamber of Commerce addition), Circleville.

C. L. Brokaw to Susie Brokaw, undivided ½ interest lot 34 (Jefferson subdivision, 2nd part.).

Leo Alva and Mary H. LaPointe, to Charles E. and Barbara J. Rihl, lot 19 (Goellers Atwater subdivision), Circleville.

Herschel J. Funk to William D. Heiskell Jr., lot 19 (Chamber of Commerce addition), Circleville.

Dean Drake et al to David and Moses Block, 1.146 acres, Circleville Twp.

Caution Urged By Fire Chief

Circleville Fire Chief Talmer Wise warned the holiday-minded public today that it is almost impossible to extinguish the flames by ordinary methods when a Christmas tree begins to blaze.

"Most of the time," he said, "they burn so fast, once they start, that you usually can't do much about it in the average home. Therefore, a burning Christmas tree should mean an immediate call to the fire department.

"Don't delay the call in hopes of checking the blaze yourself."

Chief Wise thus joined in a similar warning issued by the National Safety Council. The council pointed out that Christmas trees, filled with natural pitch and resin, "are among the most combustible objects known."

Local residents were also reminded to double-check the wiring arrangement used around Christmas trees, with special precautions against overloading a circuit.

Mexico Planning Long-Range Light

MEXICO CITY—A beacon which officials believe may be seen from coast to coast of Mexico is being planned for installation atop 17,872-foot mount Popocatepetl.

The beacon will aid domestic and international air navigation. Experts believe it will be visible in the Gulf of Mexico area around Veracruz, and Acapulco, on the Pacific coast.

Nothin but a HOUNDed DOG?

SEE US FOR CA$H...

THE CITY LOAN & SAVINGS CO.

108 W. Main St. — Phone 90 — R. W. Sapp, Mgr.

Season's Greetings

CIRCLEVILLE MOTORS

Route 23 North Phone 1202

HUNGARIAN EMERGENCY RELIEF

© WIDE WORLD PHOTOS

TO THE MILLIONS OF AMERICANS WHO HAVE ASKED:

"HOW CAN WE HELP THE BRAVE PEOPLE OF HUNGARY?"

You have read about the incredible suffering of the freedom-loving people of Hungary.

You and millions of other Americans have looked around your own safe homes—looked at your warm clothes and asked: "How can we help?"

Here is your answer.

To date, over 100,000 Hungarian men, women and children have escaped with their lives to neighboring Austria. Many are sick. Some are wounded. All are hungry. And most of them face winter with only the clothes they were wearing when they escaped.

But their ordeal is not over. For generous Austria's meager supplies have been stripped bare. There is little food, little medicine, little coal, little shelter. And new thousands of refugees arrive daily. In Hungary itself, hundreds of thousands must be fed through the cold winter. The lives of these people depend upon your generosity.

Your money will buy desperately needed supplies for those tens of thousands stranded in Austria. Your money will reach into the ruins of Budapest and help feed the hungry people there.

Literally every dollar you send will be used for on-the-spot relief.

The need is terrible and the need is now. Please give to HERO (Hungarian Emergency Relief Organizations). And please give today!

Give To HERO

HUNGARIAN EMERGENCY RELIEF ORGANIZATIONS

MAKE CHECKS PAYABLE TO ONE OF THESE:

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS—your local chapter, or simply "Washington, D. C."

CARE—your local CARE office or "CARE, New York 16, N. Y."

YOUR PROTESTANT CHURCH or "Church World Service, New York 3, N. Y."

YOUR CATHOLIC CHURCH or "Catholic Relief Services, New York 1, N. Y."

YOUR SYNAGOGUE or "United Jewish Appeal, New York 36, N. Y."

The Circleville Herald

JOIN THE SAFE DRIVER LEAGUE

B.F.Goodrich FIRST IN RUBBER B.F.Goodrich

115 E. Main St. Phone 140

SANTA'S OWN TAILOR SHOP!

California Couple Operate a Firm Which Produces Saint Nick Suits Only!

Mrs. Gerletti poses before the Santa Claus suit shop.

By ELLEN SAUNDERS
Central Press Association Correspondent

SUNSET BEACH, Calif.—Everyone should be able to afford the fun of playing Santa Claus. That's the theory held by Santa's personal tailors, Fred and Sonia Gerletti, whose tiny tailor shop, here in Sunset Beach, is the only one in the world which caters exclusively to Saint Nick.

Putting theory into practice, the Gerlettis sell their most inexpensive Santa suit, which they have nicknamed "The Uncle Albert" because of its popularity with uncles of all ages, for $12.50.

The suit is a red satin outfit consisting of coat, pants, cap and oilcloth boots. Deluxe suits of red plush, trimmed with white fur and decorated with jeweled handmade belts and buttons run as high as $100.

Although the Gerlettis prefer the traditional red for Santa they will cater to personal whims as they did in the case of the Hollywood movie producer who ordered an entire white velvet outfit trimmed with matching fur.

The idea for this unique business started 10 years ago when Mrs. Gerletti, angered because she was asked to pay an exorbitant price for a rented suit, bought some red flannel and, using her husband's pajamas as a pattern, whipped one up—and sold it 24 hours later.

• • •

ALTHOUGH neither of the Gerlettis had had any previous tailoring experience, the demand for their suits reached such proportions that, in 1951, Gerletti gave up a successful advertising career to launch the business on a full time basis.

Now they are turning out about 250 suits a year. In addition, they sell all such accessories as belts, mittens, hats and snowy white beards and wigs.

As soon as the Gerlettis realized that women enjoy playing Santa, too, they did something about it. Now, when Dad purchases his suit he can buy a replica of it for junior and a smart looking outfit, with a flared skirt, for Mom.

Dad need never fear that the costumes won't fit because they all come in one adjustable size guaranteed to fit any Santa regardless of height or weight.

Thanks to Mrs. Gerletti, the thin man no longer has an excuse for not being Santa. A special piece of underwear she has patented will build his 135 pounds up to a comfortable 300 in a matter of seconds!

• • •

WORRIED but enthusiastic grandfathers who are playing Saint Nick for the first time are among the Gerlettis' favorite customers.

"They pace up and down the store," says Mrs. Gerletti, "trying to get a 'Ho-Ho-Ho!' which has some pep in it, and asking our advice on the proper way to walk. Our customers expect us to know the answers and we try not to disappoint them."

So widely known has this business become that orders pour in from all parts of the world. One of the most unique was from an Eskimo who wrote from his igloo near Fairbanks, Alaska, that for 10 years he'd been satisfied to play Santa to his 11 children in his red flannel underwear and white fox furs, but now he wanted a "real Santa Claus suit."

Christmas Eve always finds the Gerlettis' store open until long after midnight. "We wouldn't want to let Santa down at the last minute," they explain.

Real Estate Transfers

Earl and Tennie M. Perkins to Woodrow Perkins, lots 13 and 14, Darbyville.

John M. Downs to Helen A. Downs, undivided ½ interest lot 1655, Circleville.

Helen A. Downs to Albert Kiger and Wife, lot 1655, Circleville.

Martha J. Peters to James E. Peters, 0.1516 acres, Circleville Township.

George E. Frank et al to George and Mary Lee Wickline, lot 7 (Joseph C. Moats subdivision), Circleville.

Richard W. Penn to Highly Jane Adams, undivided ½ lot 1654.

W. T. and Amanda Spradlin to Dannie R. and Bessie E. Hettinger, part lots 11-12 (W. O. Beavers proposed subdivision).

Lawrence J. and Mary L. Welsh to Russell and Virginia L. Rodgers 21 acres 117 poles, Scioto Twp.

Fred Prindle to Elbert L. and Ida M. Beaker, 164.24 acres, Scioto Twp.

Daniel H. and Mary E. Albright to City of Circleville, 365 sq. ft., Circleville.

Norman L. Bowman to John R. and Corda M. Owens, two acres, Wayne Twp.

Rosie Isaac, deceased, to Lawrence and Floyd Emma Roll, lot 1656, Circleville.

Charles and Elizabeth Isaac to Lawrence and Floyd Emma Roll, lot 1656, Circleville.

Rosie Isaac, deceased, to Oscar J. and Betty Smith, lot 43, Circleville Twp.

Charles and Elizabeth Isaac to Oscar J. and Betty Smith, lot 43, Circleville Twp.

Lucille Roese Welsh and Ira to Tremardo Corp., part lots 9 and 10 (0.330 arres), South Bloomfield.

George N. Brokaw to Leonard S. Van Buskirk and wife, 20,000 sq. ft., Washington Twp.

Paul A. Johnson et al to Joseph and Rosie B. Wolfe, lot 10 (Joseph C. and Frances R. Moats subdivision), Circleville.

Myrtle Wolf to J. Leo and Dora B. Hedges, part lot 1392, Circleville.

L. E. and Florence L. Binns to Floyd A. and Maxine O. Woolever, 0.25 acres, Atlanta.

George E. Wagner et al to William L. Juhn, part outlots 6 and 7.

Marvin Howard to Alice L. Dickinson, lot 93, Circleville.

Wilbert O. Riegel et al to Walter E. and Ruth A. Malone, lot 10 (Hoovers 2nd addition), Ashville.

George A. Stein (partnership contracting co.) to Dorothy P. Stein, 118 acres 35 poles, Saltcreek Twp.

Ventures Inc. to Central Development Co., 33 lots (Joseph C. Moats subdivision), Circleville.

Central Development Co. to Circleville Building Supplies Inc., lots 34-39 (Joseph C. Moats subdivision), Circleville.

Sidney A. and Margaret Stein to Dorothy P. Stein, 118 acres, 35 poles, Saltcreek Twp.

Jennie L. Strous, deceased, to Pearl Strous et al, certificate for transfer.

Fred M. Strous et al to Helen A. Strous, undivided ½ interest 279.14 acres, Saltcreek Twp.

Leo C. and Emeline M. Zwayer to Alton Brooks Jr. and Billie Lou Campbell, 0.3379 acres, Harrison Twp.

Edward C. Dalton, deceased, to Roberta D. Valentine and Mary M. Johnson, part lots 857 and 858, Circleville.

Lulu H. Huston to Cecil W. Briggs, lot 50, New Holland.

Albert F. Whiting et al to Lucille Roese, 57/8 acres, Walnut Twp.

Dora and Thomas A. Williard to Dudley S. and Fannie L. Consolver, two acres, Saltcreek Twp.

William A. Schofield, deceased, to Bertha A. Schofield et al, certificate for transfer.

Wilbert O. and Grace Riegel et al to Gerald P. and Dorothy P. Riegel, lot 11 (Hoovers 2nd addition), Ashville.

Robert M. and Agnes C. Coleman to Lena Campbell, part lot 859, Circleville.

Calvin M. Scothorn to Samuel U. and Alice V. Scothorn, 66.22 acres, Walnut Twp.

James R. Armstrong, lot 22 (Chamber of Commerce addition), Circleville.

C. L. Brokaw to Susie Brokaw, undivided ½ interest lot 34 (Jefferson subdivision, 2nd part.).

Leo Alva and Mary H. LaPointe, to Charles E. and Barbara J. Rihl, lot 19 (Goellers Atwater subdivision), Circleville.

Herschel J. Funk to William D. Heiskell Jr., lot 19 (Chamber of Commerce addition), Circleville.

Dean Drake et al to David and Moses Block, 1.146 acres, Circleville Twp.

Caution Urged By Fire Chief

Circleville Fire Chief Talmer Wise warned the holiday-minded public today that it is almost impossible to extinguish the flames by ordinary methods when a Christmas tree begins to blaze.

"Most of the time," he said, "they burn so fast, once they start, that you usually can't do much about it in the average home. Therefore, a burning Christmas tree should mean an immediate call to the fire department.

"Don't delay the call in hopes of checking the blaze yourself."

Chief Wise thus joined in a similar warning issued by the National Safety Council. The council pointed out that Christmas trees, filled with natural pitch and resin, "are among the most combustible objects known."

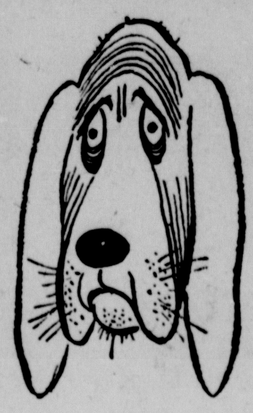
Local residents were also reminded to double-check the wiring arrangement used around Christmas trees, with special precautions against overloading a circuit.

Mexico Planning Long-Range Light

MEXICO CITY—A beacon which officials believe may be seen from coast to coast of Mexico is being planned for installation atop 17,872-foot mount Popocatepetl.

The beacon will aid domestic and international air navigation. Experts believe it will be visible in the Gulf of Mexico area around Veracruz, and Acapulco, on the Pacific coast.

Nothin but a HOUNDed DOG?



SEE US FOR CA$H...

THE CITY LOAN & SAVINGS CO.

108 W. Main St. — Phone 90 — R. W. Sapp, Mgr.

Season's Greetings

CIRCLEVILLE MOTORS

Route 23 North Phone 1202

HUNGARIAN EMERGENCY RELIEF

© WIDE WORLD PHOTOS

TO THE MILLIONS OF AMERICANS WHO HAVE ASKED:

"HOW CAN WE HELP THE BRAVE PEOPLE OF HUNGARY?"

You have read about the incredible suffering of the freedom-loving people of Hungary.

You and millions of other Americans have looked around your own safe homes—looked at your warm clothes and asked: "How can we help?"

Here is your answer.

To date, over 100,000 Hungarian men, women and children have escaped with their lives to neighboring Austria. Many are sick. Some are wounded. All are hungry. And most of them face winter with only the clothes they were wearing when they escaped.

But their ordeal is not over. For generous Austria's meager supplies have been stripped bare. There is little food, little medicine, little coal, little shelter. And new thousands of refugees arrive daily. In Hungary itself, hundreds of thousands must be fed through the cold winter. The lives of these people depend upon your generosity.

Your money will buy desperately needed supplies for those tens of thousands stranded in Austria. Your money will reach into the ruins of Budapest and help feed the hungry people there.

Literally every dollar you send will be used for on-the-spot relief.

The need is terrible and the need is now. Please give to HERO (Hungarian Emergency Relief Organizations). And please give today!

Give To

HERO

HUNGARIAN EMERGENCY RELIEF ORGANIZATIONS

MAKE CHECKS PAYABLE TO ONE OF THESE:

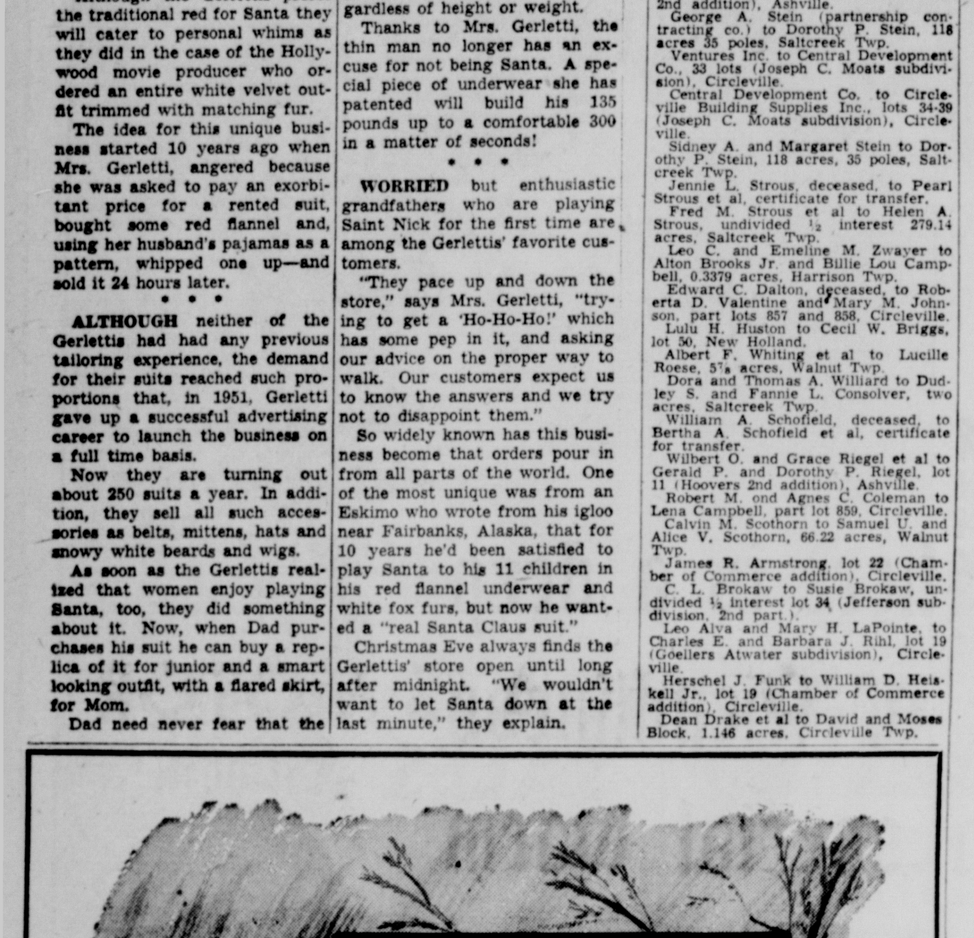
THE AMERICAN RED CROSS—your local chapter, or simply "Washington, D. C."

CARE—your local CARE office or "CARE, New York 16, N. Y."

YOUR PROTESTANT CHURCH or "Church World Service, New York 3, N. Y."

YOUR CATHOLIC CHURCH or "Catholic Relief Services, New York 1, N. Y."

YOUR SYNAGOGUE or "United Jewish Appeal, New York 36, N. Y."



JOIN THE SAFE DRIVER LEAGUE

B.F.Goodrich FIRST IN RUBBER B.F.Goodrich

115 E. Main St. Phone 140

The Circleville Herald

Operation Toylift Flies Joy To 50,000 Needy Children

Originating eight years ago in the storybook village of North Pole, N. Y., high on Whiteface mountain, "Operation Toylift," established as a national charity in 1955, again this year delivers more than 20 tons of toys to orphaned, crippled and under-privileged children in 13 states, the District of Columbia and three provinces of Canada.

Landing at 34 major airports in northeastern United States, Santa's "Sky Reindeer," loaned to Santa's workshop by an oil company, carries St. Nick and all the things that jolly old gent betides to more than 50,000 children.

In eight flights, each on successive days, this airborne Santa journeys all over the East, through New England, north to Canada; to Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa, and as far west as Cleveland.

Operation Toylift, the outgrowth of an unexpectedly successful "tourist venture," is carried out as a combined effort of Santa's Workshop, Inc., and the many community groups who work to provide Christmas for the unfortunate children of their area.

* * *

TOYS, CONTRIBUTED by nearly 100 different business concerns, and purchased with donations from more than 500,000 visitors to Santa's Workshop during the Summer, are delivered by truck, parcel post, and by Santa himself in the "Sky Reindeer."

Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions clubs, the American Legion, and many others; along with city agencies, Children's Aid societies, and the homes maintained for these unfortunate youngsters, take part in this great Christmas project.

Nine years ago, two Lake Placid, N. Y., businessmen, Julian Reiss and Harold G. Fortune, conceived the idea of bringing Santa Claus into closer proximity with these children.

On a tract of nearly 3,000 acres in the most scenic area of the Adirondacks, they installed a real "North Pole" (it remains covered with ice on even the hottest July day), and from all over the world they collected a complete menagerie of Santa's gentle animal friends.

They employed nearly 200 people to depict all of storyland's famous characters and to be Santa's helpers. They even found a "Santa Claus" with genuine whiskers, a detail which has reaffirmed many youngsters' faith, for tugging Santa's beard is a crucial test.

* * *

ON MAY 9, 1949, the village of North Pole was officially opened, with even a government post office. During the first Summer nearly a quarter-million (mostly adults) came to pay their off-season respects to Santa.

In the last nine years, more than five million have come to see the workshop and its many attractions; to roam through this quaint and peaceful village of brightly colored pine-log buildings.

The following year, Operation Toylift was inaugurated, and the two men, using Reiss' private plane, distributed toys among 2,000 children of New York state.

In 1955, Toylift was incorporated into a national, non-profit charity. A Rocky Mountain chapter was formed in Colorado, and Fortune, who is now executive vice-president of Santa's Workshop, Inc., is hopeful of eventually having committees in every state in connection with this annual toy distribution.

Santa Claus with two of his helpers checks the condition of his reindeer at North Pole, N. Y.

Some Kids Start Off Fast In Life

SOUTH CHARLESTON, W. Va. — Detectives John W. Fenimore Jr. and Robert W. Parkins chased the stolen car for several miles, on a wild, 60-mile-an-hour ride through city streets.

When it finally screeched to a halt at a a dead-end road, out stepped a 14-year-old who admitted three other auto thefts and one motorcycle theft. He said he had been driving "since I was 6 years old."

THE DRIVER'S SEAT

The Air Force's 14th Fighter Group, stationed at Ethan Allen airfield near Winooski, Vermont, should have a Sergeant Gulliver named after the hero of Gulliver's Travels.

Sergeant Gulliver would be an appropriate member of this safety-conscious group, for it has built a unique little town that might have been inspired by this famous book about the adventures of a man visiting a world of tiny people.

Members of the 14th Fighter Group recently erected a miniature village — complete with churches, schools and homes that line real asphalt streets—in which safety is taught to children. Overhead blinker signals, true-to-life reflective signs, traffic control lanes and airmen-policemen add realism to the village. The signs help teach the importance of safety after dark as well as in daylight.

Called Safetyville, U.S.A., the miniature town, logically, is a popular attraction for children of the area.

* * *

SAFETYVILLE programs, conducted every Saturday afternoon, include bicycle and automobile safety, family automobile safety and safety in play.

A motion picture made for the children features a lead character, Dopey, by name, who insists on doing everything wrong. His heroic counterpart is Safety Sam, an airman dressed as a clown, who rides the streets of Safetyville in a battery-powered car.

A string of children in pedal cars follow close behind Sam, and when he signals for a turn, the youngsters copy his lead.

No wonder the children love Safetyville. What youngster could resist the appeal of a child-size village, a free movie and a clown to lead all proceedings?

You may ask if the town teaches any lasting lessons. Or does it just keep children from underfoot Saturday afternoons?

Some indication of the effects of the program can be measured by the report from a father rebuked by a six-year-old boy when he started to leave the car on the street side. "Hey, Dad, you're getting out on Dopey's side," said the youngster.

* * *

THERE'S ALSO the story about the six-year-old belle who asked her mother to stop because her door of the car wasn't locked. And an 11-year-old boy who had been attending Safetyville classes insisted that his father check his bike for safe working order.

Perhaps the most significant measure of the Safetyville program is in the greater care taken by children at school crossings and pedestrian crosswalks. The actions of Safety Sam have replaced careless impetuousness. The 14th Fighter Group has done something significant—made safety education both entertaining and effective.

Everybody agrees that there is a vital need for safety education, and the 14th Fighter Group has shown how it can be made fun for all concerned.

Stop! We Resign!

MISSOULA, Mont. — Ten Missoula men, with a yen for exotic foods, have formed a Gourmet Club. Each month one has the job of serving the others. The first menu included snails bordelaise and salted grasshoppers.

Curiosity Nearly Ended The Cat

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Okla. — The Norman Roark household was upset for several days when the family's pet cat was missing.

They began to hear cat cries but couldn't trace it down.

Finally, an all-out search was conducted and the cat was found in a small attic above the front porch. Carpenters had left a small opening and the cat crawled through. The carpenters nailed up the hole before the cat got out.

GREETINGS

As we celebrate the day of His birth, may its inspiration bring you the peace and love He wished for the world... may all the blessings of Christmas dwell in your home and your heart always.

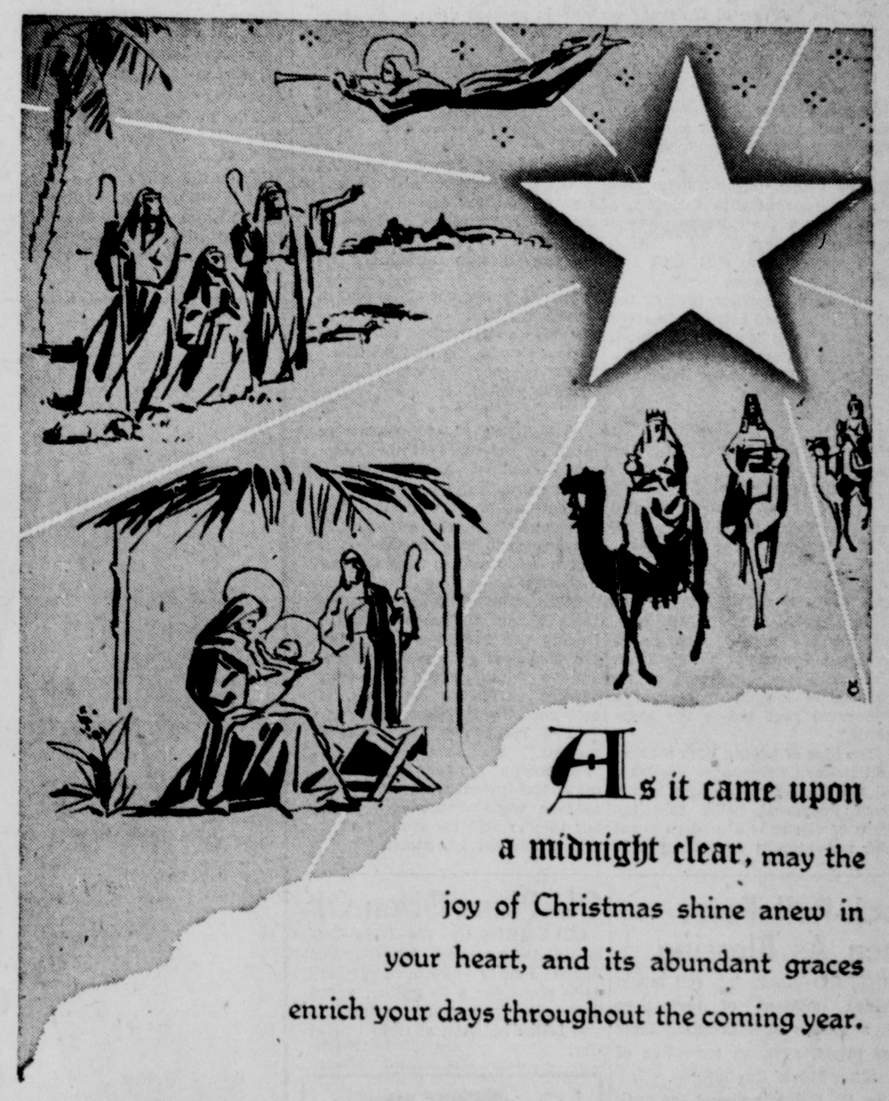
CONRAD'S SERVICE STATION
CITIES SERVICE PRODUCTS
E. Main at Lancaster Pike

Just a friendly wish that under the glittering ornaments on your Christmas tree you may find a double measure of happiness.

To you and your loved ones —

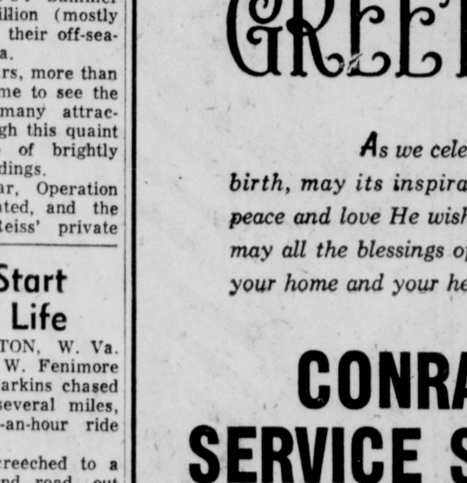
A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Lindsey's Bake Shop
127 W. Main Circleville, O.



As it came upon a midnight clear, may the joy of Christmas shine anew in your heart, and its abundant graces enrich your days throughout the coming year.

JOE MOATS MOTOR
DESOTO SALES PLYMOUTH
213 LANCASTER PIKE



Peace on earth...

May The Blessed Spirit Of This Joyous Season Fill Your Heart With Peace, Goodwill and Happiness

Caddy Miller's HAT SHOP

Peace on earth, good will to men

Second National Bank
CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

Operation Toylift Flies Joy To 50,000 Needy Children

Originating eight years ago in the storybook village of North Pole, N. Y., high on Whiteface mountain, "Operation Toylift," established as a national charity in 1955, again this year delivers more than 20 tons of toys to orphaned, crippled and under-privileged children in 13 states, the District of Columbia and three provinces of Canada.

Landing at 34 major airports in northeastern United States, Santa's "Sky Reindeer," loaned to Santa's workshop by an oil company, carries St. Nick and all the things that jolly old gent betides to more than 50,000 children.

In eight flights, each on successive days, this airborne Santa journeys all over the East, through New England, north to Canada; to Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa, and as far west as Cleveland.

Operation Toylift, the outgrowth of an unexpectedly successful "tourist venture," is carried out as a combined effort of Santa's Workshop, Inc., and the many community groups who work to provide Christmas for the unfortunate children of their area.

* * *

TOYS, CONTRIBUTED by nearly 100 different business concerns, and purchased with donations from more than 500,000 visitors to Santa's Workshop during the Summer, are delivered by truck, parcel post, and by Santa himself in the "Sky Reindeer."

Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions clubs, the American Legion, and many others; along with city agencies, Children's Aid societies, and the homes maintained for these unfortunate youngsters, take part in this great Christmas project.

Nine years ago, two Lake Placid, N. Y., businessmen, Julian Reiss and Harold G. Fortune, conceived the idea of bringing Santa Claus into closer proximity with these children.

On a tract of nearly 3,000 acres in the most scenic area of the Adirondacks, they installed a real "North Pole" (it remains covered with ice on even the hottest July day), and from all over the world they collected a complete menagerie of Santa's gentle animal friends.

They employed nearly 200 people to depict all of storyland's famous characters and to be Santa's helpers. They even found a "Santa Claus" with genuine whiskers, a detail which has reaffirmed many youngsters' faith, for tugging Santa's beard is a crucial test.

* * *

ON MAY 9, 1949, the village of North Pole was officially opened, with even a government post office. During the first Summer nearly a quarter-million (mostly adults) came to pay their off-season respects to Santa.

In the last nine years, more than five million have come to see the workshop and its many attractions; to roam through this quaint and peaceful village of brightly colored pine-log buildings.

The following year, Operation Toylift was inaugurated, and the two men, using Reiss' private plane, distributed toys among 2,000 children of New York state.

In 1955, Toylift was incorporated into a national, non-profit charity. A Rocky Mountain chapter was formed in Colorado, and Fortune, who is now executive vice-president of Santa's Workshop, Inc., is hopeful of eventually having committees in every state in connection with this annual toy distribution.

Santa Claus with two of his helpers checks the condition of his reindeer at North Pole, N. Y.

Some Kids Start Off Fast In Life

SOUTH CHARLESTON, W. Va. — Detectives John W. Fenimore Jr. and Robert W. Parkins chased the stolen car for several miles, on a wild, 60-mile-an-hour ride through city streets.

When it finally screeched to a halt at a a dead-end road, out stepped a 14-year-old who admitted three other auto thefts and one motorcycle theft. He said he had been driving "since I was 6 years old."

THE DRIVER'S SEAT

The Air Force's 14th Fighter Group, stationed at Ethan Allen airfield near Winooski, Vermont, should have a Sergeant Gulliver named after the hero of Gulliver's Travels.

Sergeant Gulliver would be an appropriate member of this safety-conscious group, for it has built a unique little town that might have been inspired by this famous book about the adventures of a man visiting a world of tiny people.

Members of the 14th Fighter Group recently erected a miniature village — complete with churches, schools and homes that line real asphalt streets—in which safety is taught to children. Overhead blinker signals, true-to-life reflective signs, traffic control lanes and airmen-policemen add realism to the village. The signs help teach the importance of safety after dark as well as in daylight.

Called Safetyville, U.S.A., the miniature town, logically, is a popular attraction for children of the area.

* * *

SAFETYVILLE programs, conducted every Saturday afternoon, include bicycle and automobile safety, family automobile safety and safety in play.

A motion picture made for the children features a lead character, Dopey, by name, who insists on doing everything wrong. His heroic counterpart is Safety Sam, an airman dressed as a clown, who rides the streets of Safetyville in a battery-powered car.

A string of children in pedal cars follow close behind Sam, and when he signals for a turn, the youngsters copy his lead.

No wonder the children love Safetyville. What youngster could resist the appeal of a child-size village, a free movie and a clown to lead all proceedings?

You may ask if the town teaches any lasting lessons. Or does it just keep children from underfoot Saturday afternoons?

Some indication of the effects of the program can be measured by the report from a father rebuked by a six-year-old boy when he started to leave the car on the street side. "Hey, Dad, you're getting out on Dopey's side," said the youngster.

* * *

THERE'S ALSO the story about the six-year-old belle who asked her mother to stop because her door of the car wasn't locked. And an 11-year-old boy who had been attending Safetyville classes insisted that his father check his bike for safe working order.

Perhaps the most significant measure of the Safetyville program is in the greater care taken by children at school crossings and pedestrian crosswalks. The actions of Safety Sam have replaced careless impetuousness. The 14th Fighter Group has done something significant—made safety education both entertaining and effective.

Everybody agrees that there is a vital need for safety education, and the 14th Fighter Group has shown how it can be made fun for all concerned.

Stop! We Resign!

MISSOULA, Mont. — Ten Missoula men, with a yen for exotic foods, have formed a Gourmet Club. Each month one has the job of serving the others. The first menu included snails bordelaise and salted grasshoppers.

Curiosity Nearly Ended The Cat

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Okla. — The Norman Roark household was upset for several days when the family's pet cat was missing.

They began to hear cat cries but couldn't trace it down.

Finally, an all-out search was conducted and the cat was found in a small attic above the front porch. Carpenters had left a small opening and the cat crawled through. The carpenters nailed up the hole before the cat got out.

GREETINGS

As we celebrate the day of His birth, may its inspiration bring you the peace and love He wished for the world... may all the blessings of Christmas dwell in your home and your heart always.

CONRAD'S SERVICE STATION
CITIES SERVICE PRODUCTS
E. Main at Lancaster Pike

Just a friendly wish that under the glittering ornaments on your Christmas tree you may find a double measure of happiness.

To you and your loved ones —

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Lindsey's Bake Shop
127 W. Main Circleville, O.

As it came upon a midnight clear, may the joy of Christmas shine anew in your heart, and its abundant graces enrich your days throughout the coming year.

JOE MOATS MOTOR
DESOTO SALES PLYMOUTH
213 LANCASTER PIKE

Peace on earth, good will to men

Second National Bank
CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

SANTONS—UNIQUE FIGURINES MARK A FRENCH CHRISTMAS

A row of Christmas santons—in peasant dress.

By JOSEPH WHITT
Central Press Association Correspondent

MARSEILLES, France—"Every country has contributed something special to the celebration of Christmas," said the craftsman, in a shop situated on a narrow street in Marseilles, "and France has contributed the santons."

He pointed at the small, brightly-colored clay figurines standing on his bench. Among them were a musician playing a drum and flute, a peasant with a basket, and an old woman carrying a long loaf of bread—all dressed in costumes of the Provence, a region in southern France.

"I suppose you still don't see how they fit into Christmas," he said. "They are santons."

Moving to another part of the shop, he stopped before a familiar scene—a replica of a manger, with the Christ Child, Mary, Joseph, the Three Wise Men and several shepherds.

Then he brought over the clay musician and the peasant and set them in the doorway of the manger.

* * *

"THIS IS HOW the wonderful manger looks to the people of the Provence," the craftsman said. "Santons represent not only traditional Biblical characters but also contemporary persons. The scene is Bethlehem of olden days, but we see nothing strange in having a figurine of a Nineteenth Century French biologist standing beside Joseph, or that of a Provencal poet beside the shepherds."

The idea of having both Biblical and modern personages assemble at the Christmas manger stems from Provencal belief that the birth of Christ is a modern event and not merely something that happened in ancient times and in a faraway land.

"This belief inspired our shepherds to make the first santons," he explained. "They carved them of olive wood."

* * *

THE FIRST clay figurines were made at the start of the Nineteenth Century. A Marseilles artisan, called d'Agnel, created the earliest series of santons based on local folk, including the baker, the fisherman and the fish-seller, whom he dressed in their Sunday costumes.

Since then santons have become a minor French industry. During the holiday season they are displayed and sold throughout the country; and a great fair, devoted exclusively to them, is held annually in Marseilles.

"I've spent my life creating santons," the craftsman said. "I'm happy I have. It's more than 150 years since the first santons were shown at a fair, but they're still the symbol of a real Provencal Christmas."

Scholars Believe Christ's Birth Date Was Not Dec. 25

Millions all over the world once again will celebrate Christmas, blissfully unaware that scholars have disputed for centuries the exact date when Jesus Christ was born.

If one thing is certain, it is that the Savior was not born Dec. 25, the date generally observed as His natal day. On that, scholars are agreed.

The Bible rules out December 25 as a possibility. Although most people observe that date now, Christmas has been celebrated on previous occasions on November 17, March 28, April 19 or 20, and May 20.

Russian Orthodox and some others still observe January 6 as Christmas.

While the Bible does not furnish many clues as to the date of Christ's birth, it does make it pretty clear that it did not occur December 25. Because Luke wrote at the time of His birth ". . .there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock at night."

* * *

BETHLEHEM is situated in the temperate zone, about the same latitude as El Paso, Tex. December is bitterly cold there and the rainy season is underway.

During this period of inclement weather, the shepherds kept their sheep in shelters during the night.

Luke gives a clue to when the Christ child was born. During the hot months, the sheep will not graze in the fields while the sun is shining. Thus, in summer, the shepherds were wont to lead their charges to the pasture at night.

On the basis of this, scholars estimate that Christ was born in late August or September.

Why then December 25? One theory is that the date was selected by an early Christian ruler in Rome because the Saturnalia, a great Roman holiday, was observed from December 19 to 26.

It is speculated that this ruler felt that observance of Christmas at this time would lessen the impact of the pagan holiday.

THE ROMAN festival had many of the features of our Christmas observance. Gifts were exchanged, candles were lighted, government and business offices were closed, school children were given a holiday, and Romans greeted each other with "Io saturnalia." Today, we say "Merry Christmas."

December 25 also was observed by early Britons, long before they became Christians, but as the first day of the new year.

During several periods in history, Christians banned the observance of Christmas. The British Parliament did so at one time, as did the Pilgrims. The latter thought it was a sacrilege to observe it in a festive manner.

In what year was Christ born? Here again no one knows. A Roman monk set the date at A.D. 1 about 600 years after His birth, but scholar now virtually are agreed he erred.

Astronomers have speculated that the Star of Bethlehem, which directed the three wise men to Bethlehem, actually was a conjunction of the planets Saturn and Jupiter. Astronomers say this phenomena occurred in 7 B.C.

However, some historians think Christ was born in 4, 5 or 6 B.C.

Anyway, Merry Christmas!

The area of India is one-half that of the United States, but it has about three times the population.

Couple Of Meals Offered With Dog

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—This ad appeared in the classified section of a Cheyenne newspaper: 'Great dane, female, fawn with black masks, 11 months old, gentle and affectionate disposition, $150. Approximately 100 lbs deer meat free with sale."

Rock-Roll Fever Seen As Blessing

CHICAGO—Rock 'n' roll music provides millions of teen-agers with a means of expressing their inner urges, says an executive of American Music Conference.

John W. Fulton believes the rock 'n' roll craze may turn out to be a blessing for the younger set by directing the tensions of growing up into harmless channels.

"Remember the 'Charleston' and the 'Lindy Hop' and the 'Black Bottom'" he asked. "They were crazes of other days and 99 per cent of the kids who went crazy over this music and the crooners have turned out to be good citizens."

Sounds Like He Rates City Bonus

MILWAUKEE — Charles Gleason drew compliments from the police department when he recovered his own stolen car.

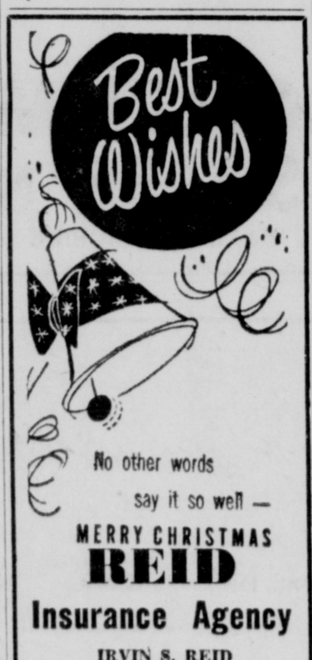
The auto had been missing for more than two weeks when Gleason saw it whiz past as he was driving to work in another car. He got the license number.

From the motor vehicle department Gleason found the name of the man to whom the plates were issued. He then called the man's home and found out where he worked. On arriving at the man's place of employment he saw the car parked nearby and called police.

Two officers helped him make the arrest and reocver the car.

OU Plans Given OK

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Capital Planning and Improvement Board Friday approved preliminary plans for a $1 million education college classroom, laboratory and office building at Ohio University.



No other words say it so well —
MERRY CHRISTMAS
REID
Insurance Agency
IRVIN S. REID
137 E. Main Phone 69-L
Associate Agent
Raymond Reichelderfer

We want you to know we value your patronage and wish you all the good things the Christmas Season offers.

PICKAWAY FARM BUREAU CO-OP., INC.
312 W. Mound St. Phone 834

TOM GILLILAND
CHARLIE FULLEN
ED FRERICKS
DAVE FULLEN
JOE BALDWIN
CLARENCE HAPPENY

NED GARRETT

Merry Christmas to all our friends! May it be a truly festive and joyous one!

R. E. NAU
ELECTRIC SERVICE
960 S. PICKAWAY ST.

Just as candy canes and evergreens are symbols of Christmas, let this greeting be a symbol of our appreciation of your good will and patronage. May you enjoy a full measure of good cheer throughout the Holiday Season.

SHERWIN WILLIAMS PAINTS
113 S. Court St.
CHARLES MOWERY, JR.
JACK E. RUSSELL

"Peace on earth . . . good will to men"

COLUMBUS AND SOUTHERN OHIO ELECTRIC COMPANY

SANTONS—UNIQUE FIGURINES MARK A FRENCH CHRISTMAS

A row of Christmas santons—in peasant dress.

By JOSEPH WHITT
Central Press Association Correspondent

MARSEILLES, France—"Every country has contributed something special to the celebration of Christmas," said the craftsman, in a shop situated on a narrow street in Marseilles, "and France has contributed the santons."

He pointed at the small, brightly-colored clay figurines standing on his bench. Among them were a musician playing a drum and flute, a peasant with a basket, and an old woman carrying a long loaf of bread—all dressed in costumes of the Provence, a region in southern France.

"I suppose you still don't see how they fit into Christmas," he said. "They are santons."

Moving to another part of the shop, he stopped before a familiar scene—a replica of a manger, with the Christ Child, Mary, Joseph, the Three Wise Men and several shepherds.

Then he brought over the clay musician and the peasant and set them in the doorway of the manger.

* * *

"THIS IS HOW the wonderful manger looks to the people of the Provence," the craftsman said. "Santons represent not only traditional Biblical characters but also contemporary persons. The scene is Bethlehem of olden days, but we see nothing strange in having a figurine of a Nineteenth Century French biologist standing beside Joseph, or that of a Provencal poet beside the shepherds."

The idea of having both Biblical and modern personages assemble at the Christmas manger stems from Provencal belief that the birth of Christ is a modern event and not merely something that happened in ancient times and in a faraway land.

"This belief inspired our shepherds to make the first santons," he explained. "They carved them of olive wood."

* * *

THE FIRST clay figurines were made at the start of the Nineteenth Century. A Marseilles artisan, called d'Agnel, created the earliest series of santons based on local folk, including the baker, the fisherman and the fish-seller, whom he dressed in their Sunday costumes.

Since then santons have become a minor French industry. During the holiday season they are displayed and sold throughout the country; and a great fair, devoted exclusively to them, is held annually in Marseilles.

"I've spent my life creating santons," the craftsman said. "I'm happy I have. It's more than 150 years since the first santons were shown at a fair, but they're still the symbol of a real Provencal Christmas."

Scholars Believe Christ's Birth Date Was Not Dec. 25

Millions all over the world once again will celebrate Christmas, blissfully unaware that scholars have disputed for centuries the exact date when Jesus Christ was born.

If one thing is certain, it is that the Savior was not born Dec. 25, the date generally observed as His natal day. On that, scholars are agreed.

The Bible rules out December 25 as a possibility. Although most people observe that date now, Christmas has been celebrated on previous occasions on November 17, March 28, April 19 or 20, and May 20.

Russian Orthodox and some others still observe January 6 as Christmas.

While the Bible does not furnish many clues as to the date of Christ's birth, it does make it pretty clear that it did not occur December 25. Because Luke wrote at the time of His birth ". . .there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock at night."

* * *

BETHLEHEM is situated in the temperate zone, about the same latitude as El Paso, Tex. December is bitterly cold there and the rainy season is underway.

During this period of inclement weather, the shepherds kept their sheep in shelters during the night.

Luke gives a clue to when the Christ child was born. During the hot months, the sheep will not graze in the fields while the sun is shining. Thus, in summer, the shepherds were wont to lead their charges to the pasture at night.

On the basis of this, scholars estimate that Christ was born in late August or September.

Why then December 25? One theory is that the date was selected by an early Christian ruler in Rome because the Saturnalia, a great Roman holiday, was observed from December 19 to 26.

It is speculated that this ruler felt that observance of Christmas at this time would lessen the impact of the pagan holiday.

THE ROMAN festival had many of the features of our Christmas observance. Gifts were exchanged, candles were lighted, government and business offices were closed, school children were given a holiday, and Romans greeted each other with "Io saturnalia." Today, we say "Merry Christmas."

December 25 also was observed by early Britons, long before they became Christians, but as the first day of the new year.

During several periods in history, Christians banned the observance of Christmas. The British Parliament did so at one time, as did the Pilgrims. The latter thought it was a sacrilege to observe it in a festive manner.

In what year was Christ born? Here again no one knows. A Roman monk set the date at A.D. 1 about 600 years after His birth, but scholar now virtually are agreed he erred.

Astronomers have speculated that the Star of Bethlehem, which directed the three wise men to Bethlehem, actually was a conjunction of the planets Saturn and Jupiter. Astronomers say this phenomena occurred in 7 B.C.

However, some historians think Christ was born in 4, 5 or 6 B.C.

Anyway, Merry Christmas!

The area of India is one-half that of the United States, but it has about three times the population.

Couple Of Meals Offered With Dog

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—This ad appeared in the classified section of a Cheyenne newspaper:

'Great dane, female, fawn with black masks, 11 months old, gentle and affectionate disposition, $150. Approximately 100 lbs deer meat free with sale."

Rock-Roll Fever Seen As Blessing

CHICAGO—Rock 'n' roll music provides millions of teen-agers with a means of expressing their inner urges, says an executive of American Music Conference.

John W. Fulton believes the rock 'n' roll craze may turn out to be a blessing for the younger set by directing the tensions of growing up into harmless channels.

"Remember the 'Charleston' and the 'Lindy Hop' and the 'Black Bottom'" he asked. "They were crazes of other days and 99 per cent of the kids who went crazy over this music and the crooners have turned out to be good citizens."

Sounds Like He Rates City Bonus

MILWAUKEE — Charles Gleason drew compliments from the police department when he recovered his own stolen car.

The auto had been missing for more than two weeks when Gleason saw it whiz past as he was driving to work in another car. He got the license number.

From the motor vehicle department Gleason found the name of the man to whom the plates were issued. He then called the man's home and found out where he worked. On arriving at the man's place of employment he saw the car parked nearby and called police.

Two officers helped him make the arrest and reocver the car.

OU Plans Given OK

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Capital Planning and Improvement Board Friday approved preliminary plans for a $1 million education college classroom, laboratory and office building at Ohio University.

No other words say it so well —
MERRY CHRISTMAS
REID
Insurance Agency
IRVIN S. REID
137 E. Main Phone 69-L
Associate Agent
Raymond Reichelderfer

We want you to know we value your patronage and wish you all the good things the Christmas Season offers.

PICKAWAY FARM BUREAU CO-OP., INC.
312 W. Mound St. Phone 834

TOM GILLILAND
CHARLIE FULLEN
ED FRERICKS
DAVE FULLEN
JOE BALDWIN
CLARENCE HAPPENY
NED GARRETT

Merry Christmas to all our friends! May it be a truly festive and joyous one!

R. E. NAU
ELECTRIC SERVICE
960 S. PICKAWAY ST.

Just as candy canes and evergreens are symbols of Christmas, let this greeting be a symbol of our appreciation of your good will and patronage. May you enjoy a full measure of good cheer throughout the Holiday Season.

SHERWIN WILLIAMS PAINTS
113 S. Court St.
CHARLES MOWERY, JR.
JACK E. RUSSELL

"Peace on earth . . . good will to men"

COLUMBUS AND SOUTHERN OHIO ELECTRIC COMPANY

Dried-Out Tree Has Makings Of Tragic Blaze

Christmas without a tree would hardly be Christmas. But that tree decked with tinsel and gleaming with lights may bring tragedy at a time that is supposed to be the happiest in the year.

An evergreen tree that has been in a warm room for days is a fire hazard, warns William Stuckey, extension safety specialist of the Ohio State University. A short circuit in the wiring or a hot bulb too close to a flammable decoration may literally cause a dried-out tree to explode, Stuckey reminds.

In Guernsey County this year, a home demonstration council provided all dealers in Christmas trees with tags. The tags carried the following instructions on reducing the fire hazard from Christmas decorations:

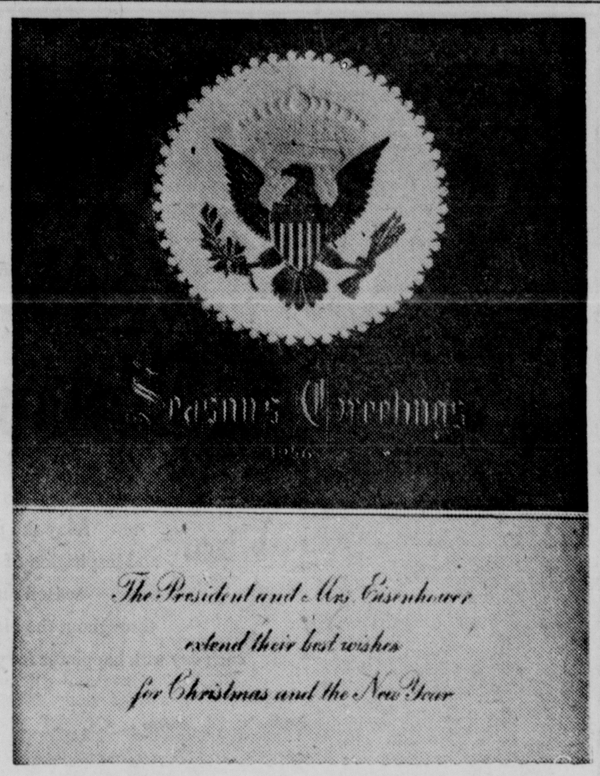
1. Keep tree in a container of water.
2. Turn off tree lights when no one is around.
3. Use flameproof tinsel, flake asbestos or powdered mica instead of paper and cotton for snow.
4. Have a fire extinguisher or bucket of water handy.
5. Remove the tree soon after Christmas before it becomes a fire hazard.

Trees Prominent In Nation's Story

Trees have played an important role in the growth and development of the United States. Besides providing lumber for the building of homes, stores, churches, schools and factories, trees have had a special historical significance.

The Charter Oak in Hartford, Conn., for example, helped that state maintain its independence from England. In 1687, when James II sought to revoke the local sovereignty of Connecticut, the giant oak was used as a hiding place for a charter which guaranteed the state its freedom from British Colonialism. The charter remained secreted in the trunk of the oak until 1689 when, during the reign of William and Mary, it was brought out with safety.

Other trees with a prominent role in American history include the Washington Elm at Cambridge, Mass., under which George Washington took command of the Continental Army in 1775, and the Liberty Tree in Boston where the Sons of Liberty held meetings.



THIS IS A COPY of the Christmas card which President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower sent out this year. The card is gold in color, with the Presidential seal in center. The greeting is inscribed inside the card. Special greetings were sent to the U. S. armed forces.

To our many friends --
our deep felt appreciation
for your loyalty and friendship
during the past year . . .
we wish you a Very Happy Holiday!

ROTHMAN'S
Pickaway at Franklin Circleville, Ohio

PETTIT,S
130 S. COURT ST.

Ashville

The annual Jenkins Christmas party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hodge and family of South Charleston. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hickman and Barbara and Bill; and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hickman of Ashville; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jenkins and Steve and Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forman and Donna, Shelby and Mike of London; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baker and Ronald, Nancy and Danny, and Miss Judy Mayes of Dayton; and the hosts Mr. and Mrs. Hodge and children, Bill Jr., Kenny, and Janet.

Ashville

Miss Helen Bowers of Columbus was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Dore' and Marty and Billy.

Ashville

Harold Tosca has returned to his home after being confined to a Columbus hospital with a slipped spinal disc.

Ashville

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilcox and Richard and Patty were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilcox of Ravenna.

The giant clam of the East Indies is the greatest living molusca. Hollowed shells may weigh 500 pounds.

A Stone's Throw

HIKA, Wis. — Jacob Vollrath of Sheboygan checked on the house he is having built near Hika and then complained to the Manitowoc County sheriff of a really grand larceny. Someone had stolen 15 tons of stone from the building site.

"A Merry Christmas To All Our Friends and Past Customers"

Raney and Marguerite Bellamy
Box 453, Port Orange, Fla.

May your Christmas be as joyful, as full of peace and beauty, and as rich in meaning as a Christmas carol.

BRINK'S FOOD MARKET
396 E. Mound — Phone 417

To Our Many Friends:
Best Wishes For a
Very Merry Christmas!

Groce Shoe Store

As old as Christmas itself is the spirit of giving. For, nearly two thousand years ago there was the gift of the first Christmas and its offering of peace and good will to all men. . . . On this Christmas, perhaps more than any other, it is time for all of us to remember the spirit of giving with which Christmas began. And as we offer gifts to our families—to our friends—to all those who mean so much to us—let us not forget the gifts of understanding, patience, peace and good will which Christmas brought. . . . These are gifts which we, too, can give. We can make no greater gift than to offer them freely to our fellow men today and throughout the year to come.

GENERAL ELECTRIC

Circleville Lamp Plant

Dried-Out Tree Has Makings Of Tragic Blaze

Christmas without a tree would hardly be Christmas. But that tree decked with tinsel and gleaming with lights may bring tragedy at a time that is supposed to be the happiest in the year.

An evergreen tree that has been in a warm room for days is a fire hazard, warns William Stuckey, extension safety specialist of the Ohio State University. A short circuit in the wiring or a hot bulb too close to a flammable decoration may literally cause a dried-out tree to explode, Stuckey reminds.

In Guernsey County this year, a home demonstration council provided all dealers in Christmas trees with tags. The tags carried the following instructions on reducing the fire hazard from Christmas decorations:

1. Keep tree in a container of water.
2. Turn off tree lights when no one is around.
3. Use flameproof tinsel, flake asbestos or powdered mica instead of paper and cotton for snow.
4. Have a fire extinguisher or bucket of water handy.
5. Remove the tree soon after Christmas before it becomes a fire hazard.

Trees Prominent In Nation's Story

Trees have played an important role in the growth and development of the United States. Besides providing lumber for the building of homes, stores, churches, schools and factories, trees have had a special historical significance.

The Charter Oak in Hartford, Conn., for example, helped that state maintain its independence from England. In 1687, when James II sought to revoke the local sovereignty of Connecticut, the giant oak was used as a hiding place for a charter which guaranteed the state its freedom from British Colonialism. The charter remained secreted in the trunk of the oak until 1689 when, during the reign of William and Mary, it was brought out with safety.

Other trees with a prominent role in American history include the Washington Elm at Cambridge, Mass., under which George Washington took command of the Continental Army in 1775, and the Liberty Tree in Boston where the Sons of Liberty held meetings.

THIS IS A COPY of the Christmas card which President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower sent out this year. The card is gold in color, with the Presidential seal in center. The greeting is inscribed inside the card. Special greetings were sent to the U. S. armed forces.

Greetings

To our many friends --
our deep felt appreciation
for your loyalty and friendship
during the past year . . .
we wish you a Very Happy Holiday!

ROTHMAN'S
Pickaway at Franklin Circleville, Ohio

PETTIT,S
130 S. COURT ST.

Ashville

The annual Jenkins Christmas party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hodge and family of South Charleston. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hickman and Barbara and Bill; and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hickman of Ashville; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jenkins and Steve and Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forman and Donna, Shelby and Mike of London; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baker and Ronald, Nancy and Danny, and Miss Judy Mayes of Dayton; and the hosts Mr. and Mrs. Hodge and children, Bill Jr., Kenny, and Janet.

Ashville

Miss Helen Bowers of Columbus was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Dore' and Marty and Billy

Ashville

Harold Tosca has returned to his home after being confined to a Columbus hospital with a slipped spinal disc.

Ashville

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilcox and Richard and Patty were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilcox of Ravenna.

The giant clam of the East Indies is the greatest living molusca. Hollowed shells may weigh 500 pounds.

A Stone's Throw

HIKA, Wis. — Jacob Vollrath of Sheboygan checked on the house he is having built near Hika and then complained to the Manitowoc County sheriff of a really grand larceny. Someone had stolen 15 tons of stone from the building site.

"A Merry Christmas To All Our Friends and Past Customers"

Raney and Marguerite Bellamy
Box 453, Port Orange, Fla.

May your Christmas be as joyful, as full of peace and beauty, and as rich in meaning as a Christmas carol.

BRINK'S FOOD MARKET
396 E. Mound — Phone 417

To Our Many Friends:
Best Wishes For a
Very Merry Christmas!

Groce Shoe Store

The Gifts of Christmas

As old as Christmas itself is the spirit of giving. For, nearly two thousand years ago there was the gift of the first Christmas and its offering of peace and good will to all men. . . . On this Christmas, perhaps more than any other, it is time for all of us to remember the spirit of giving with which Christmas began. And as we offer gifts to our families—to our friends—to all those who mean so much to us—let us not forget the gifts of understanding, patience, peace and good will which Christmas brought. . . . These are gifts which we, too, can give. We can make no greater gift than to offer them freely to our fellow men today and throughout the year to come.

GENERAL ELECTRIC

Circleville Lamp Plant

Theater Hits Had Influence On Milady's Styles In 1956

By Dorothy Roe
Associated Press Women's Editor

Two Broadway shows shaped the major fashion trends of 1956, and changed the way women looked, walked and wore their hats all over the country.

"My Fair Lady," with its nostalgic 1912 costumes designed by Cecil Beaton, started a return to feminine frills and elegant formality throughout the fashion industry. "Auntie Mame," with its hilarious recap of post-flapper foibles of 1930 in costumes by Travis Banton, started a rage for outsize muffs, cloche hats and the debutante slouch of the era.

Never in recent history has the theater so influenced the nation's vast fashion business, and seldom have women accepted so eagerly a drastic change in mood and silhouette, destined to carry over into 1957.

This was the year when it was fashionable to be lady-like, and the casual little-boy look so beloved by women of all shapes and ages became passe.

THIS WAS the year when manners returned to fashion, and it became important once more to dress correctly for varying occasions; sports clothes no longer looked right at a cocktail party and full-length evening gowns blossomed once more on dance floors.

This was the year when hats came back in style, and a woman who went bareheaded into a fashionable restaurant for lunch all at once felt self-conscious.

Along with the return of greater formality came all the other little refinements of dress in the lady-like era—proper attention to gloves and accessories, more formal hair styles, an increased consciousness of the importance of being correctly shod. This year you didn't see so many open-toed or plastic shoes worn with street clothes.

The unadorned pump, with closed toe and heel and a slightly more pointed look, came into its own.

In 1956, fashion preferred understatement in the silhouette, and avoided exaggerations. The nipped waist and the accentuated bosom went out of style, and most daytime clothes, though still slender in line, had a looser, easier fit, so that the body could move inside them.

Women enjoyed being romantic again this year, in appearance as well as mood. They rediscovered the magic of such feminine frou-frou as lacy jabots, delicate embroidery, clinging fabrics, sashes, roses and little furs.

SKIRTS became discreetly longer, but not much, except for after-five occasions. The new demi-length dinner and theater costume, with hemline just above the ankles, gained importance, and the formal full-length evening gown returned in force, more often an elaborately draped sheath or a slender column of floating layers of chiffon than the wide-skirted ball gown of other seasons.

Even beachwear and sportswear grew modest and ladylike, with a covered-up look in bathing suits and a feminine look in sports clothes. Even on the golf course or the tennis court it was more fashionable to look girlish than boyish this year.

The revival of styles of 1930 brought back fox furs in stoles, muffs and trimmings such as collars or hemline borders.

Fur hats were the big millinery craze of this Winter, the white fur plateau being the most popular and the fez and the pill-box notable in all tones of mink as well as fox, broadtail and Persian lamb.

Suits had shorter, semi-fitted jackets or cape effects, skirts took on a peg-top look in many instances and belts were likely to be worn just beneath the bosom.

Hats, whether or fur or flowers, were big and important, providing the dramatic focal point for an understated costume. Evening hats and headdresses were back in fashion, adding a new elegance to the after-dark scene.

This was a year when fashion, prodded by Broadway, looked backward and found much of value and charm in the romantic past.

The twinkling of stars is caused by the irregularity of the density of masses of air through which the light from stars comes to us.

Some Competitors Get Early Start

PONCA CITY, Okla—At the pet contest held here, a young lad presented the judges with a jar filled with water.

"Why, son, you've lost your entry," the judge told the boy.

"Oh, no sir. You see they were just born yesterday," he replied. The judge squinted, and sure enough, there were two guppies in the jar.

The University of Hawaii, in Honolulu, was founded in 1907.

A tropical frog carefully builds a circular wall of mud in a stream or pond, creating a sheltered nursery where the young can hatch.

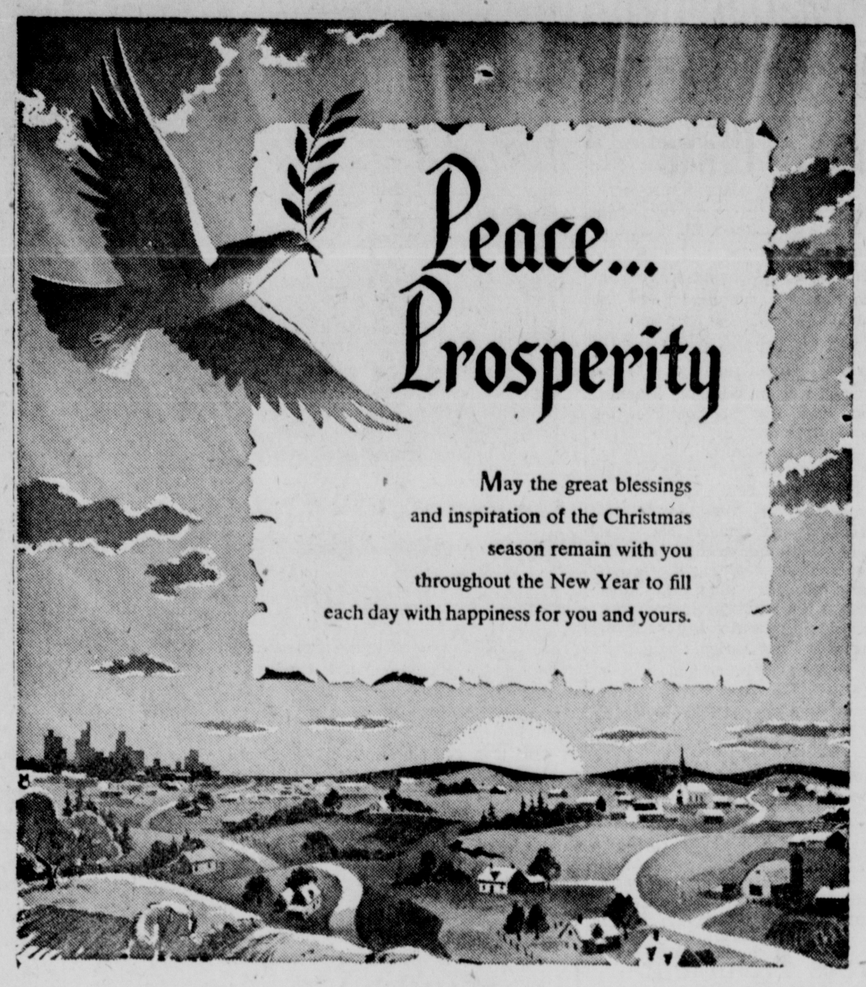
Records on ancient monuments have enabled man to trace the history of agriculture back at least to the year 3,000 B.C.

Here is a hope that the joy of the Christmas season will abide with you always. May its spirit of good fellowship live in your heart throughout the new year.

CARL AGIN

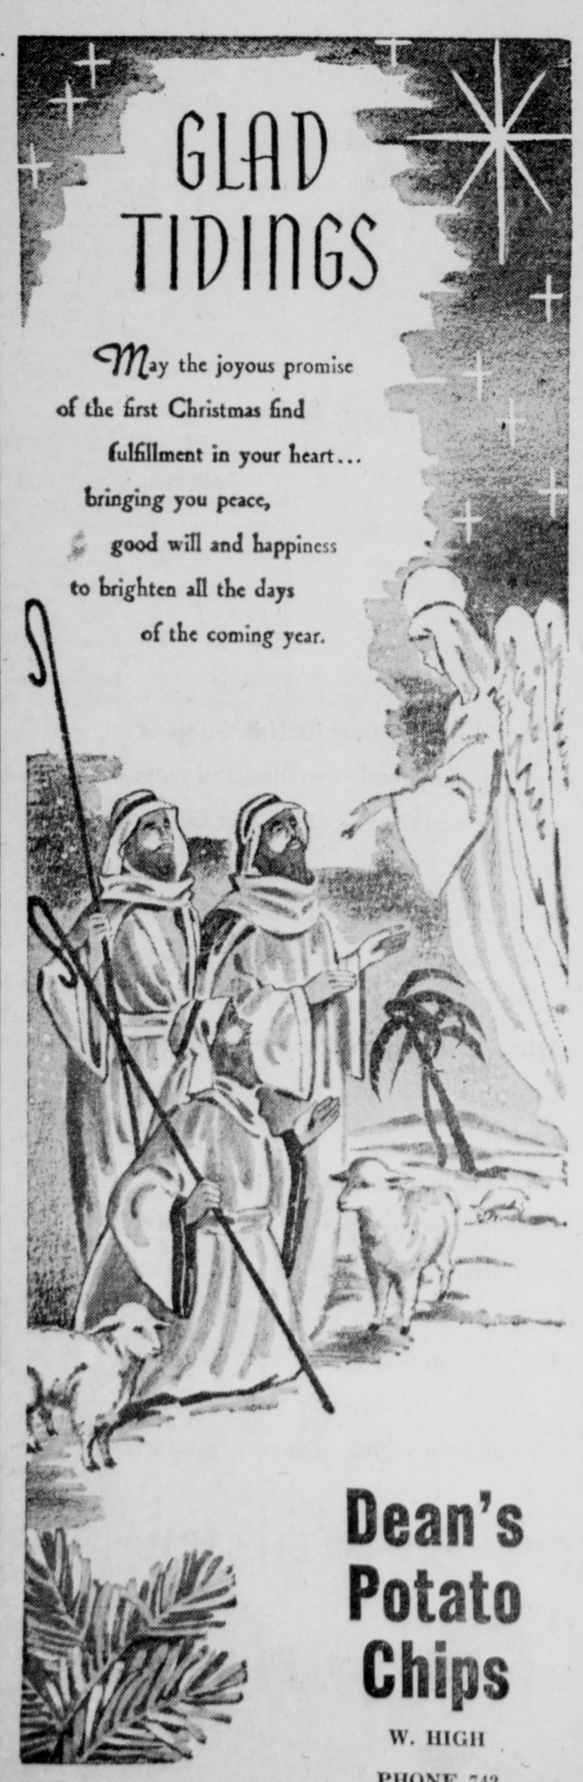
A & H TIRE CO.

N. SCIOTO AND WATER PHONE 246



ANKROM LUMBER & SUPPLY

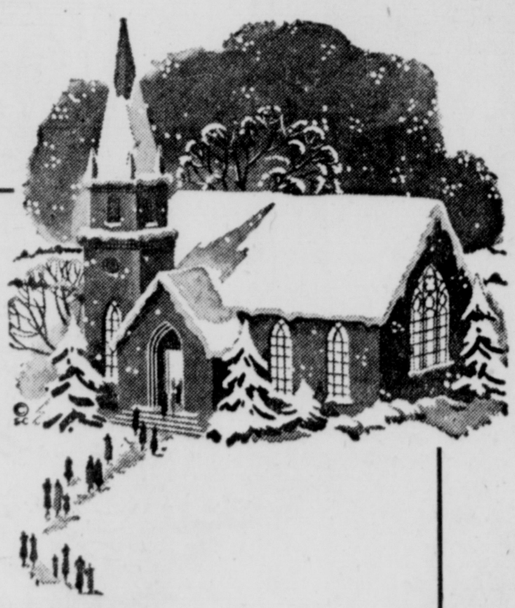
PHONE 237 W. MAIN ST.



Dean's Potato Chips

W. HIGH

PHONE 742



Each Christmas Season we realize anew that our most treasured possessions are our many enriching friendships. And so to all our friends and customers we wish a Very Merry Christmas!

75TH ANNIVERSARY L. M. Butch Co. JEWELERS

Famous for Diamonds

We're In Market for Your Grain At All Times
Custom Grinding and Mixing

Pickaway Grain Co.

NOW 4 LOCATIONS:
Circleville — Phone 91
West Side Elevator — Phone 194
Elmwood Farm — Phone 1901
Yellowbud Branch — Phone Chillicothe 2-4516

Theater Hits Had Influence On Milady's Styles In 1956

By Dorothy Roe
Associated Press Women's Editor

Two Broadway shows shaped the major fashion trends of 1956, and changed the way women looked, walked and wore their hats all over the country.

"My Fair Lady," with its nostalgic 1912 costumes designed by Cecil Beaton, started a return to feminine frills and elegant formality throughout the fashion industry. "Auntie Mame," with its hilarious recap of post-flapper foibles of 1930 in costumes by Travis Banton, started a rage for outsize muffs, cloche hats and the debutante slouch of the era.

Never in recent history has the theater so influenced the nation's vast fashion business, and seldom have women accepted so eagerly a drastic change in mood and silhouette, destined to carry over into 1957.

This was the year when it was fashionable to be lady-like, and the casual little-boy look so beloved by women of all shapes and ages became passe.

THIS WAS the year when manners returned to fashion, and it became important once more to dress correctly for varying occasions; sports clothes no longer looked right at a cocktail party and full-length evening gowns blossomed once more on dance floors.

This was the year when hats came back in style, and a woman who went bareheaded into a fashionable restaurant for lunch all at once felt self-conscious.

Along with the return of greater formality came all the other little refinements of dress in the lady-like era—proper attention to gloves and accessories, more formal hair styles, an increased consciousness of the importance of being correctly shod. This year you didn't see so many open-toed or plastic shoes worn with street clothes.

The unadorned pump, with closed toe and heel and a slightly more pointed look, came into its own.

In 1956, fashion preferred understatement in the silhouette, and avoided exaggerations. The nipped waist and the accentuated bosom went out of style, and most daytime clothes, though still slender in line, had a looser, easier fit, so that the body could move inside them.

Women enjoyed being romantic again this year, in appearance as well as mood. They rediscovered the magic of such feminine frou-frou as lacy jabots, delicate embroidery, clinging fabrics, sashes, roses and little furs.

SKIRTS became discreetly longer, but not much, except for after-five occasions. The new demi-length dinner and theater costume, with hemline just above the ankles, gained importance, and the formal full-length evening gown returned in force, more often an elaborately draped sheath or a slender column of floating layers of chiffon than the wide-skirted ball gown of other seasons.

Even beachwear and sportswear grew modest and ladylike, with a covered-up look in bathing suits and a feminine look in sports clothes. Even on the golf course or the tennis court it was more fashionable to look girlish than boyish this year.

The revival of styles of 1930 brought back fox furs in stoles, muffs and trimmings such as collars or hemline borders.

Fur hats were the big millinery craze of this Winter, the white fur plateau being the most popular and the fez and the pill-box notable in all tones of mink as well as fox, broadtail and Persian lamb.

Suits had shorter, semi-fitted jackets or cape effects, skirts took on a peg-top look in many instances and belts were likely to be worn just beneath the bosom.

Hats, whether or fur or flowers, were big and important, providing the dramatic focal point for an understated costume. Evening hats and headdresses were back in fashion, adding a new elegance to the after-dark scene.

This was a year when fashion, prodded by Broadway, looked backward and found much of value and charm in the romantic past.

The twinkling of stars is caused by the irregularity of the density of masses of air through which the light from stars comes to us.

Some Competitors Get Early Start

PONCA CITY, Okla—At the pet contest held here, a young lad presented the judges with a jar filled with water.

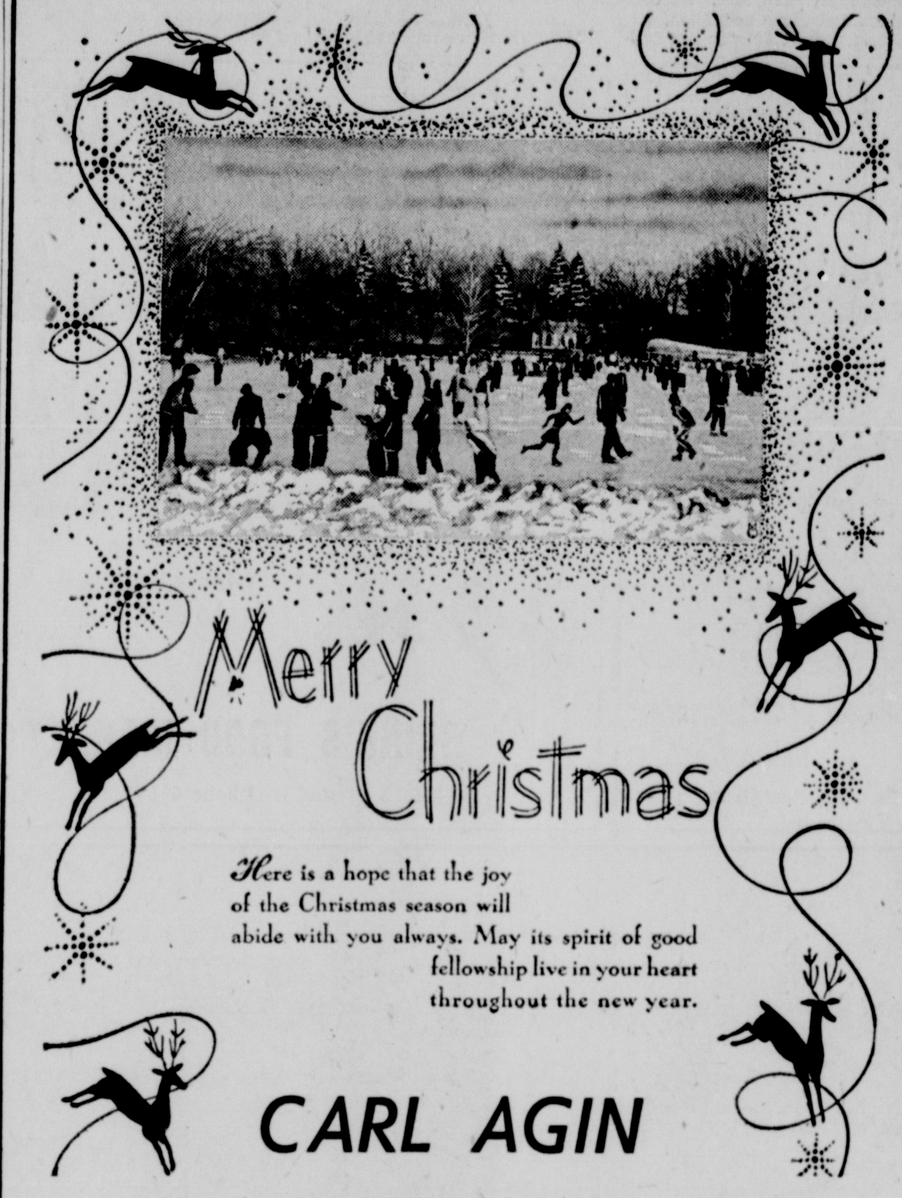
"Why, son, you've lost your entry," the judge told the boy.

"Oh, no sir. You see they were just born yesterday," he replied. The judge squinted, and sure enough, there were two guppies in the jar.

The University of Hawaii, in Honolulu, was founded in 1907.

A tropical frog carefully builds a circular wall of mud in a stream or pond, creating a sheltered nursery where the young can hatch.

Records on ancient monuments have enabled man to trace the history of agriculture back at least to the year 3,000 B.C.

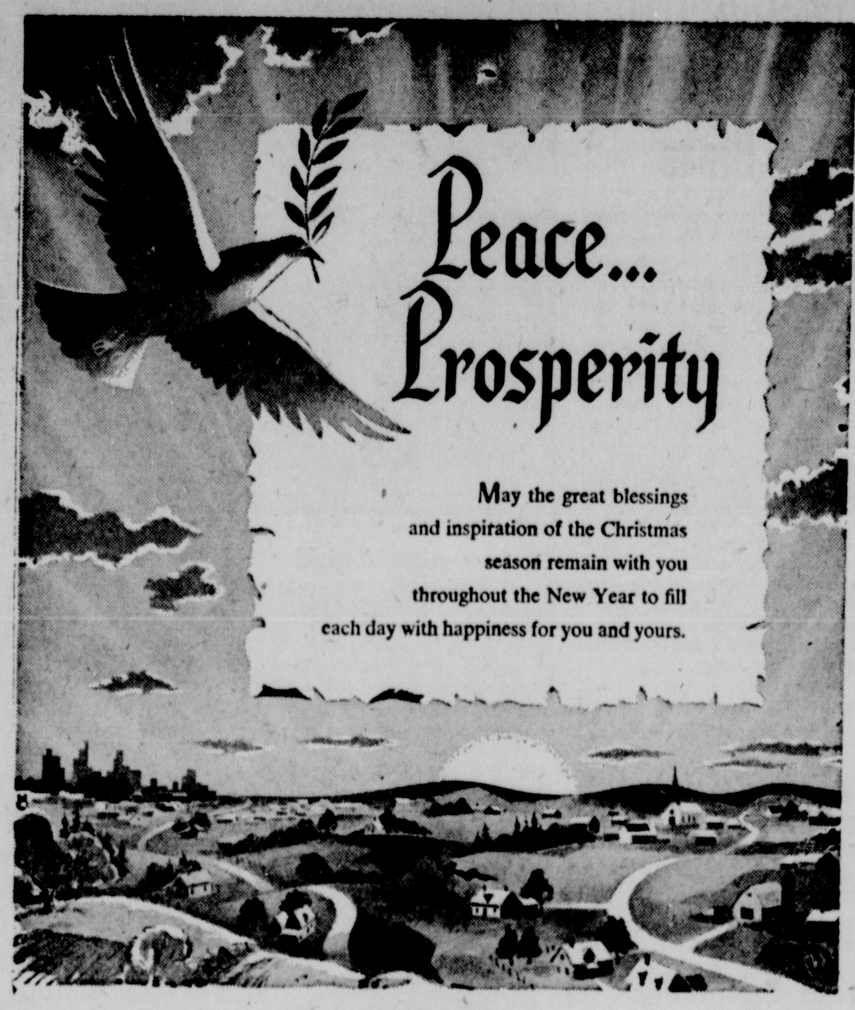


Here is a hope that the joy of the Christmas season will abide with you always. May its spirit of good fellowship live in your heart throughout the new year.

CARL AGIN

A & H TIRE CO.

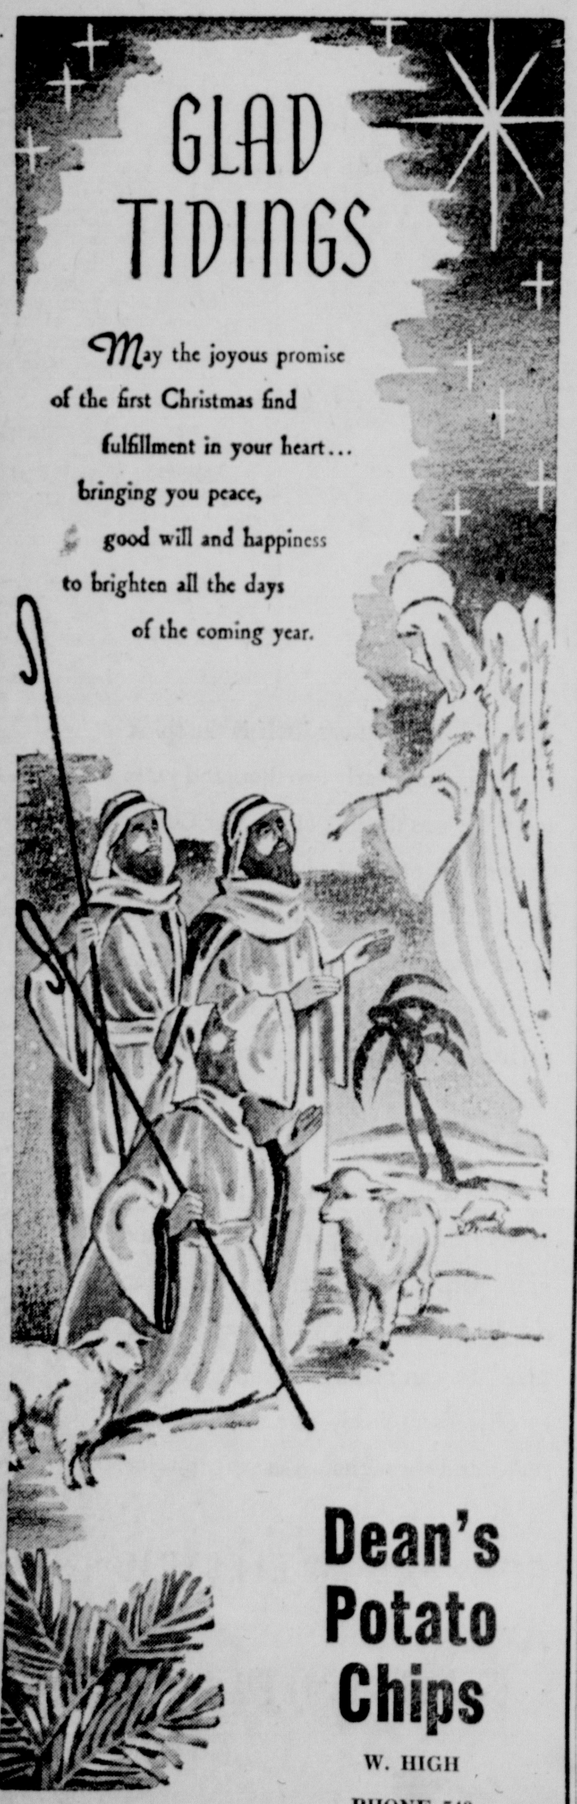
N. SCIOTO AND WATER PHONE 246



May the great blessings and inspiration of the Christmas season remain with you throughout the New Year to fill each day with happiness for you and yours.

ANKROM LUMBER & SUPPLY

PHONE 237 W. MAIN ST.



May the joyous promise of the first Christmas find fulfillment in your heart... bringing you peace, good will and happiness to brighten all the days of the coming year.

Dean's Potato Chips

W. HIGH PHONE 742

Each Christmas Season we realize anew that our most treasured possessions are our many enriching friendships. And so to all our friends and customers we wish a Very Merry Christmas!

75TH ANNIVERSARY L. M. Butch Co. JEWELERS Famous for Diamonds

We're In Market for Your Grain At All Times
Custom Grinding and Mixing

Pickaway Grain Co.

NOW 4 LOCATIONS:
Circleville — Phone 91
West Side Elevator — Phone 194
Elmwood Farm — Phone 1901
Yellowbud Branch — Phone Chillicothe 2-4516

Nearly All Of Pickaway County Schools Planning Improvements

In efforts to keep their buildings in the best possible condition, almost all schools in Pickaway County have undertaken improvement projects, ranging from remodeling to construction of new buildings.

During the past few months, 13 schools have completed improvements, mostly in the remodeling line. In addition to work already completed, many schools have itemized lists of projects that will probably be undertaken in the near future.

According to George D. McDowell, county superintendent, area schools completed improvements as follows:

Deercreek, rooms and halls painted, basement ceilings plastered, electrical work; Jackson, interior redecoration, dishwasher, new furniture and equipment, parking lot improvement; Madison, cleaning and painting of cafeteria.

* * *

MONROE, upper section of roof resurfaced with asphalt; Muhlenberg, new roof, painting, new water fountains, new steps and concrete slaps outside building, flooring repair; New Holland, 26 new laboratory chairs, new desks and seats, interior painting, outside repair of building.

Perry, interior painting, installation of fence and drainage tile; Pickaway, floors refinished, heat pipes re-insulated; Saltcreek, cafeteria expanded, dishwasher installed, interior painting, new addition under construction.

Scioto, six new classrooms, one multi-purpose room; Walnut, lockers installed, new work benches, venetian blinds, painting inside and outside; Washington, new asphalt tile floors, roof repaired, playground area blacktopped, new tables and chairs; Wayne, electric clock, drinking fountain and playground slide installed.

November Rainfall Low; 3rd Straight Month Below Par

The Ohio Division of Water reports that rainfall during November was below normal at all index stations except Dayton.

This is the third consecutive month in which this condition has existed. The total deficiency for the three months is reaching drought proportions.

The ground-water trend was generally down again this month also. Mean levels in all but one well were below those of last month, in five wells mean levels fell below those of a year ago, and in four wells they were below the five year average.

To date there is no evidence of recharge beginning anywhere in the state, the division reports.

Stream flow in both stream gauging stations was only about half of the normal flow for the month. Runoff at both gauges was the lowest for the month since 1953.

High Schools Swinging To Auto Training

Fifty-one per cent of the public high schools in the United States now provide driver education, which the National Safety Council declares is one of the most promising methods to reduce the traffic accident toll.

At the end of the 1948-49 school year, only 29 percent of the nation's public high schools offered driver education, according to the council.

Recognition of the importance of driver education has been growing among educators and parents, the council said, with many women's club and parent-teacher organizations taking the lead.

Laurelville

Mrs. Ola Jinks was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chester McDaniel and son Larry. The event honored Mrs. Jinks' birthday.

Laurelville

Mrs. Roger Egar and baby daughter have left by plane to join Pfc. Egan at his station in Japan.

Laurelville

Mrs. Dora Mowery of Columbus is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George Swepston.

Laurelville

Pvt. Stanley Huggins of Ft. Bragg, N. C., is spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Huggins.

Laurelville

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stout of Columbus were afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Poling.

Laurelville

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Karr and son Johny were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rooney of Columbus.

CHRISTMAS comes early at a Tokyo department store, where a Yuletide party is being held for a group of Japanese orphans. Also present were American school children. The youngsters are shown eagerly reaching for presents distributed by Santa. (International)

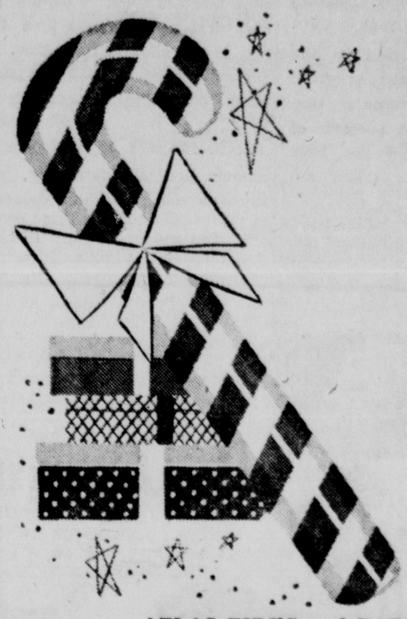
Fruit Growers Forming Ohio Market Group

Ohio fruit growers have taken first steps to form a state-wide fruit marketing organization.

In a meeting at Columbus, growers gave unanimous approval to a plan which would set up a sales group to market fruit produced by members. They also named an 11-man temporary board of directors which now is preparing articles of incorporation and bylaws for the new group. The board will meet January 2 on the Ohio State University campus to put final touches on the articles and bylaws.

Patterned after the Ohio Potato Growers, the organization will market fruit which has been graded according to government grades and is subject to inspection. Brand names will be selected and fruit sold under these brand names.

The fruit growers named George Downes of Magnolia their temporary chairman and Vernon Patterson, Ohio State University extension horticulturist, temporary secretary.



Greetings

May This Holiday Season Be the Nicest You've Ever Had!

ARLEDGE and BRANNON

SOHIO SERVICE

N. Court St. at Reber Ave.

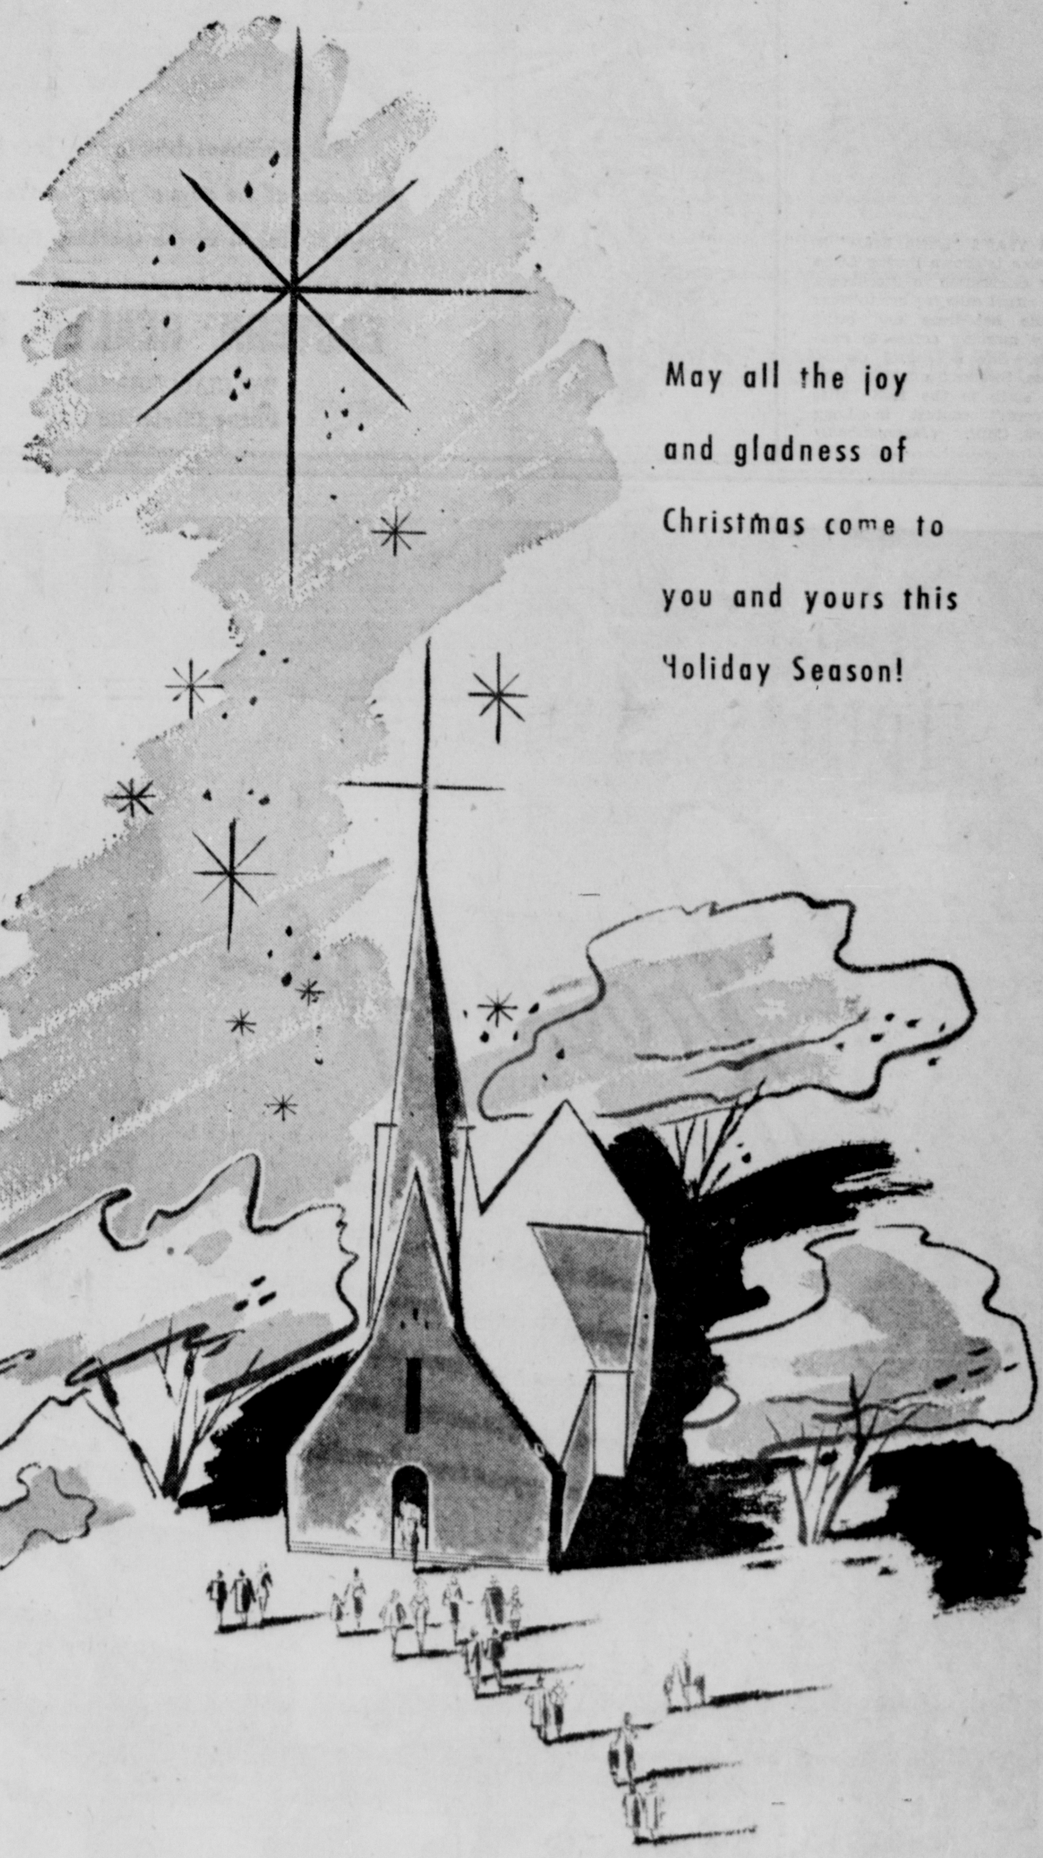
ATLAS TIRES and BATTERIES — BORON GASOLINE

Read The Daily Herald Classifieds

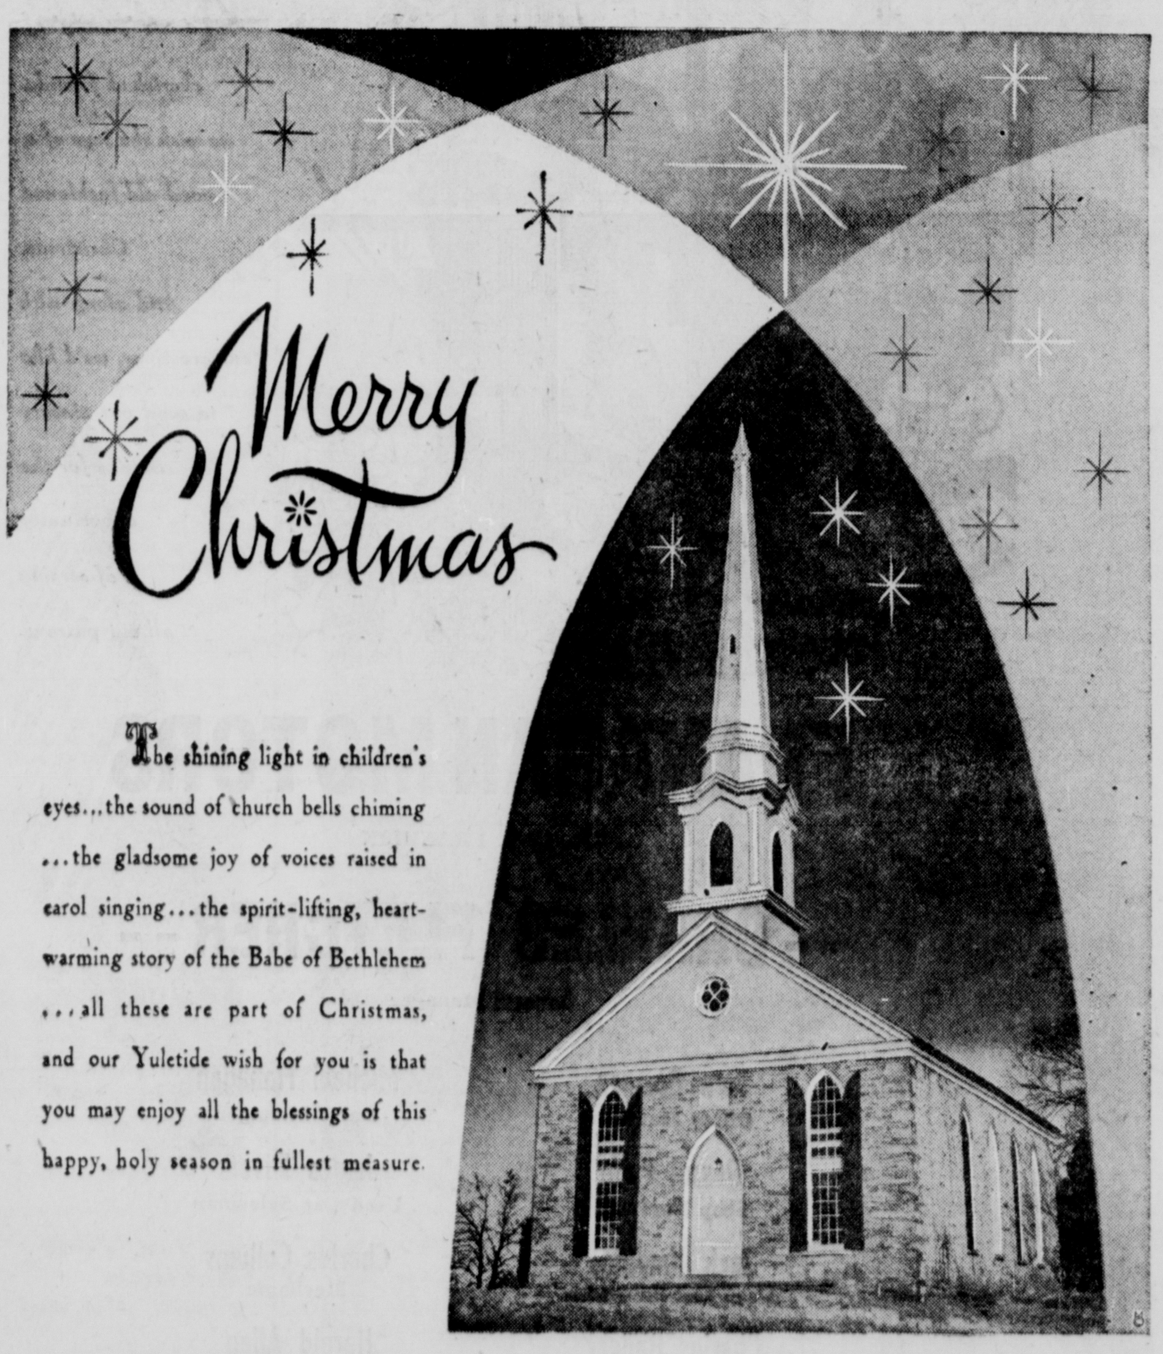
Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks and best wishes for a happy holiday to our friends and patrons.

Wardell Party Home



May all the joy and gladness of Christmas come to you and yours this Holiday Season!



Merry Christmas

The shining light in children's eyes...the sound of church bells chiming ...the gladsome joy of voices raised in carol singing...the spirit-lifting, heart-warming story of the Babe of Bethlehem ...all these are part of Christmas, and our Yuletide wish for you is that you may enjoy all the blessings of this happy, holy season in fullest measure.

The Sturm & Dillard Co.

SINCE 1906

PLANT ISLAND RD. PHONE 273

Kochheiser Hardware

113 W. MAIN ST. PHONE 100

Nearly All Of Pickaway County Schools Planning Improvements

In efforts to keep their buildings in the best possible condition, almost all schools in Pickaway County have undertaken improvement projects, ranging from remodeling to construction of new buildings.

During the past few months, 13 schools have completed improvements, mostly in the remodeling line. In addition to work already completed, many schools have itemized lists of projects that will probably be undertaken in the near future.

According to George D. McDowell, county superintendent, area schools completed improvements as follows:

Deercreek, rooms and halls painted, basement ceilings plastered, electrical work; Jackson, interior redecoration, dishwasher, new furniture and equipment, parking lot improvement; Madison, cleaning and painting of cafeteria.

* * *

MONROE, upper section of roof resurfaced with asphalt; Muhlenberg, new roof, painting, new water fountains, new steps and concrete slaps outside building, flooring repair; New Holland, 26 new laboratory chairs, new desks and seats, interior painting, outside repair of building.

Perry, interior painting, installation of fence and drainage tile; Pickaway, floors refinished, heat pipes re-insulated; Saltcreek, cafeteria expanded, dishwasher installed, interior painting, new addition under construction.

Scioto, six new classrooms, one multi-purpose room; Walnut, lockers installed, new work benches, venetian blinds, painting inside and outside; Washington, new asphalt tile floors, roof repaired, playground area blacktopped, new tables and chairs; Wayne, electric clock, drinking fountain and playground slide installed.

November Rainfall Low; 3rd Straight Month Below Par

The Ohio Division of Water reports that rainfall during November was below normal at all index stations except Dayton.

This is the third consecutive month in which this condition has existed. The total deficiency for the three months is reaching drought proportions.

The ground-water trend was generally down again this month also. Mean levels in all but one well were below those of last month, in five wells mean levels fell below those of a year ago, and in four wells they were below the five year average.

To date there is no evidence of recharge beginning anywhere in the state, the division reports.

Stream flow in both stream gauging stations was only about half of the normal flow for the month. Runoff at both gauges was the lowest for the month since 1953.

High Schools Swinging To Auto Training

Fifty-one per cent of the public high schools in the United States now provide driver education, which the National Safety Council declares is one of the most promising methods to reduce the traffic accident toll.

At the end of the 1948-49 school year, only 29 percent of the nation's public high schools offered driver education, according to the council.

Recognition of the importance of driver education has been growing among educators and parents, the council said, with many women's club and parent-teacher organizations taking the lead.

Laurelville

Mrs. Ola Jinks was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chester McDaniel and son Larry. The event honored Mrs. Jinks' birthday.

Laurelville

Mrs. Roger Egar and baby daughter have left by plane to join Pfc. Egan at his station in Japan.

Laurelville

Mrs. Dora Mowery of Columbus is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George Swepston.

Laurelville

Pvt. Stanley Huggins of Ft. Bragg, N. C., is spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Huggins.

Laurelville

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stout of Columbus were afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Poling.

Laurelville

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Karr and son Johny were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rooney of Columbus.

CHRISTMAS comes early at a Tokyo department store, where a Yuletide party is being held for a group of Japanese orphans. Also present were American school children. The youngsters are shown eagerly reaching for presents distributed by Santa. (International)

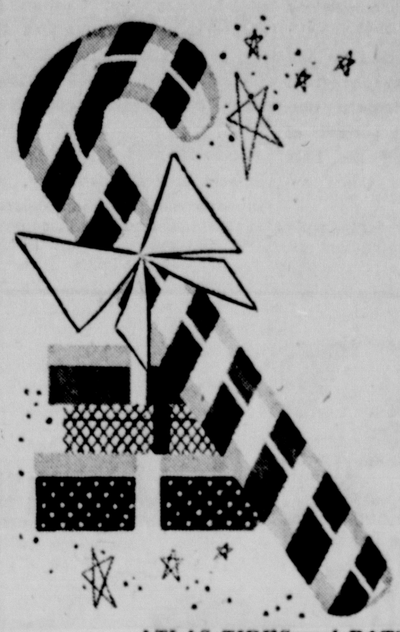
Fruit Growers Forming Ohio Market Group

Ohio fruit growers have taken first steps to form a state-wide fruit marketing organization.

In a meeting at Columbus, growers gave unanimous approval to a plan which would set up a sales group to market fruit produced by members. They also named an 11-man temporary board of directors which now is preparing articles of incorporation and bylaws for the new group. The board will meet January 2 on the Ohio State University campus to put final touches on the articles and bylaws.

Patterned after the Ohio Potato Growers, the organization will market fruit which has been graded according to government grades and is subject to inspection. Brand names will be selected and fruit sold under these brand names.

The fruit growers named George Downes of Magnolia their temporary chairman and Vernon Patterson, Ohio State University extension horticulturist, temporary secretary.



Greetings

May This Holiday Season Be the Nicest You've Ever Had!

ARLEDGE and BRANNON

SOHIO SERVICE

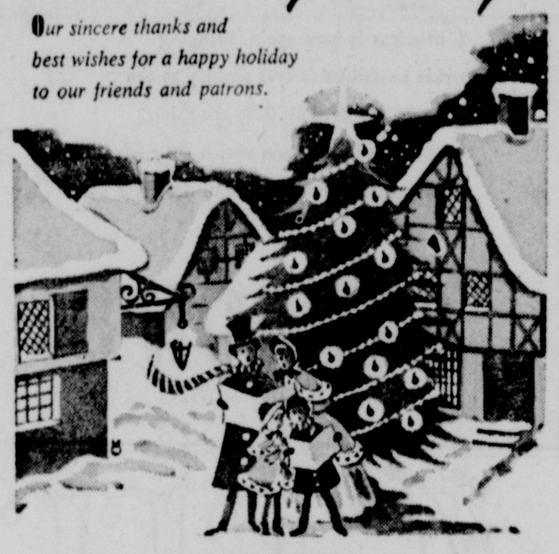
N. Court St. at Reber Ave.

ATLAS TIRES and BATTERIES — BORON GASOLINE

Read The Daily Herald Classifieds

Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks and best wishes for a happy holiday to our friends and patrons.



Wardell Party Home

May all the joy and gladness of Christmas come to you and yours this Holiday Season!

Merry Christmas

The shining light in children's eyes...the sound of church bells chiming ...the gladsome joy of voices raised in carol singing...the spirit-lifting, heart-warming story of the Babe of Bethlehem ...all these are part of Christmas, and our Yuletide wish for you is that you may enjoy all the blessings of this happy, holy season in fullest measure.

The Sturm & Dillard Co.

SINCE 1906

PLANT ISLAND RD. PHONE 273

Kochheiser Hardware

113 W. MAIN ST. PHONE 100

Reduced Corn Allotments Seen Likely In 1957

Farmers in Ohio's 71 commercial corn counties face the prospects of reduced corn allotments following defeat of the corn bsse program in last week's national referendum.

While Ohio farmers gave the base acreage reserve program more than the necessary two-thirds majority, (71 percent of those voting favored the base program), the issue failed nationally.

Defeat of the base acreage plan puts into effect an allotment program which will give participating Ohio farmers about 15 percent less corn acreage next year than they had in the allotment for 1956. The Ohio allotment for 1957 is 2,156,784 acres, compared to 2,534,035 this year.

Since farmers approved the allotment program nationally, price supports will be at 75 to 90 percent of parity. The support price for the 1957 crop will be $1.36 a bushel nationally, and slightly higher in Ohio. Price supports this year for farmers participating in the corn acreage reserve phase of the Soil Bank or planting within their allotments was $1.50 a bushel.

* * *

PARTICIPATION in the Soil Bank's corn acreage reserve program will call for a reduction in acreage below the allotment, says Wallace Barr, Ohio State University extension economist.

Results of the referendum vote may cause some Ohio farmers to change their decisions on compliance with the wheat acreage reserve program, Barr explains, since regulations require that farmers who sign up for the wheat acreage reserve must also comply with their corn allotments.

Within the next few weeks county ASC offices will send farmers new notices listing their 1957 corn allotments. Farmers have 15 days after the postmark date on their notices to cancel their wheat acreage reserve contracts.

In the referendum only 6 Ohio counties had more votes in favor of allotments than base acreages. They were Clinton, Darke, Henry, Preble, Putnam and Sandusky. Total Ohio vote was 23,547.

THIS YEAR'S "Lucia Bride" in Sweden is shown during Lucia Day celebration in Stockholm. The ritual calls for her to wear candle headdress and bring early morning coffee to relatives. She is Ingrid Goude, "Miss Sweden" of 1956. She ran sixth in the 1956 "Miss Universe" contest in Long Beach, Calif. (International)

May Christmas cheer light up your home and make all the days of your New Year as glowingly bright as the sparkling lights on your tree on this happiest of all holidays.

EASTERN REALTY CO.

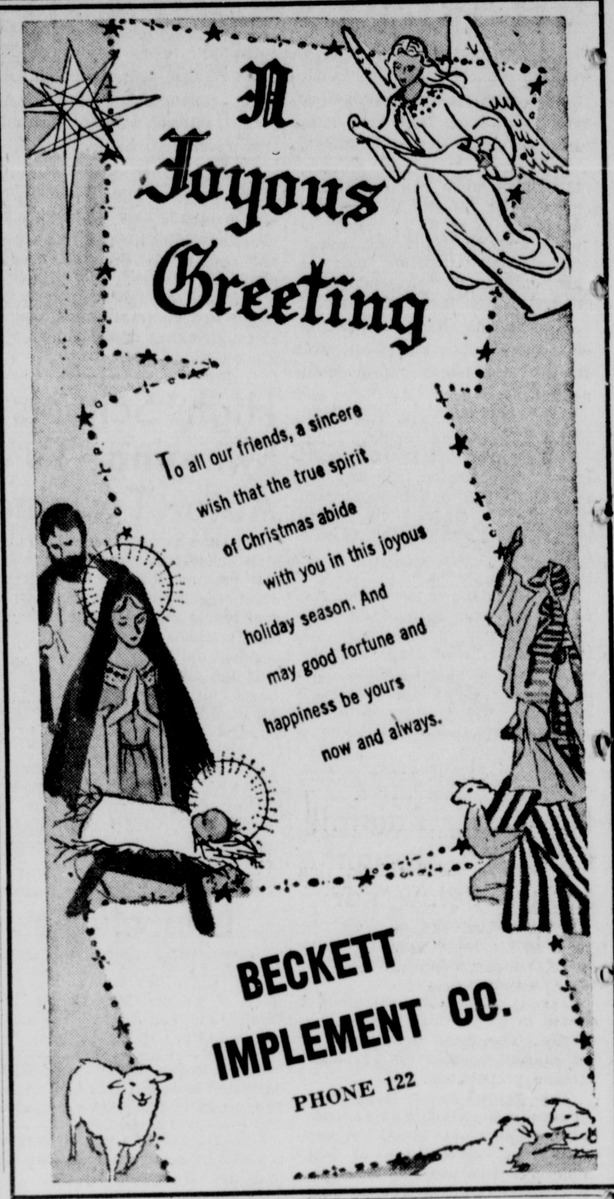
WILLIAM BRESLER

Phone Circleville 5023

Christmas is here again, bringing a sparkle to children's eyes and joy to the hearts of all. May the spirit of the season enrich your life with its blessings, now and throughout the New Year.

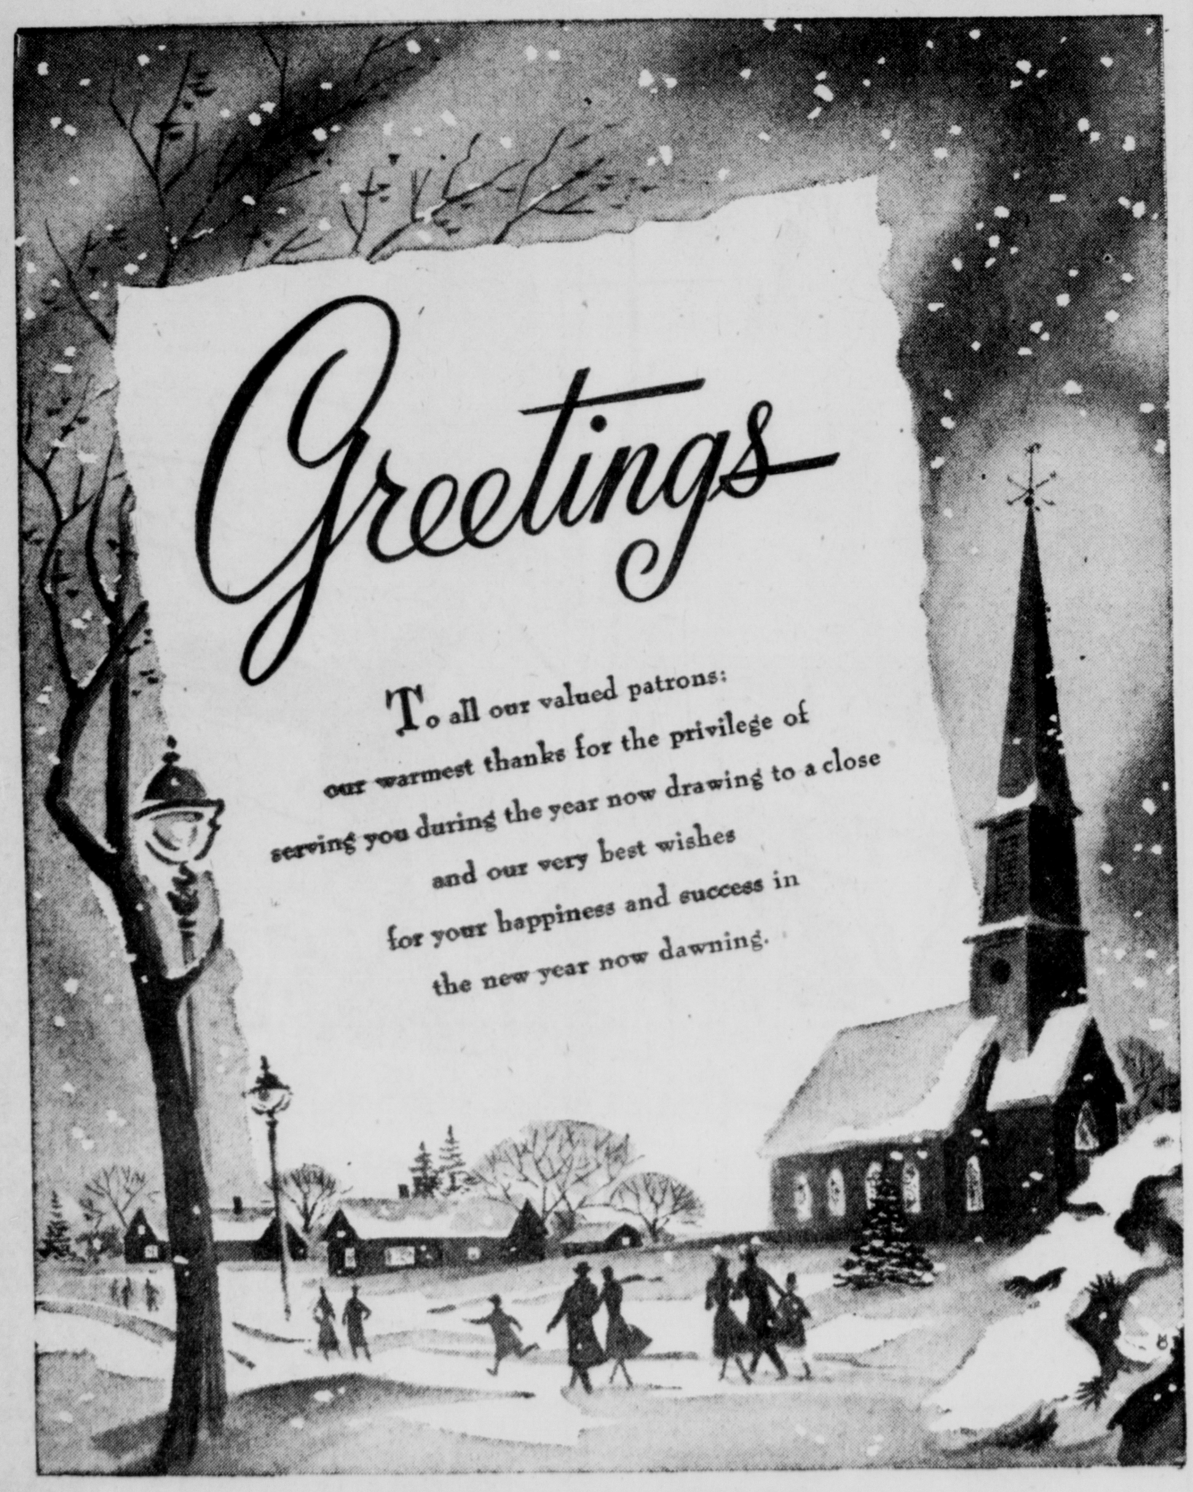
GORDON'S

MAIN and SCIOTO



BECKETT IMPLEMENT CO.

PHONE 122



BOYER'S HARDWARE

RALPH BOYER
GUY BOYER
WAYNE BOYER
CHET SHARP
JOHN CLARKE
HAROLD MYERS
ELMA NOYES

To our "family" of cherished friends, we wish the joys of a good old-fashioned Christmas. And along with our greetings, we'd like to send our sincere thanks for the opportunity of serving all our patrons.

FLANAGAN MOTORS

120 - 22 E. FRANKLIN

--CHARLES FLETCHER--

General Manager

Fern Bozman — Office Manager
Dessel Fyffe — Shop Foreman
Jack Hamilton — Used Car Salesman
Charles Hancer — Lubrication and Undercoating
Micheal Flanagan — Parts Manager
James Stivers — Used Car Salesman
Charles Cullums — Mechanic
Harold Allen — New Car Salesman

Reduced Corn Allotments Seen Likely In 1957

Farmers in Ohio's 71 commercial corn counties face the prospects of reduced corn allotments following defeat of the corn bsse program in last week's national referendum.

While Ohio farmers gave the base acreage reserve program more than the necessary two-thirds majority, (71 percent of those voting favored the base program), the issue failed nationally.

Defeat of the base acreage plan puts into effect an allotment program which will give participating Ohio farmers about 15 percent less corn acreage next year than they had in the allotment for 1956. The Ohio allotment for 1957 is 2,156,784 acres, compared to 2,534,035 this year.

Since farmers approved the allotment program nationally, price supports will be at 75 to 90 percent of parity. The support price for the 1957 crop will be $1.36 a bushel nationally, and slightly higher in Ohio. Price supports this year for farmers participating in the corn acreage reserve phase of the Soil Bank or planting within their allotments was $1.50 a bushel.

* * *

PARTICIPATION in the Soil Bank's corn acreage reserve program will call for a reduction in acreage below the allotment, says Wallace Barr, Ohio State University extension economist.

Results of the referendum vote may cause some Ohio farmers to change their decisions on compliance with the wheat acreage reserve program, Barr explains, since regulations require that farmers who sign up for the wheat acreage reserve must also comply with their corn allotments.

Within the next few weeks county ASC offices will send farmers new notices listing their 1957 corn allotments. Farmers have 15 days after the postmark date on their notices to cancel their wheat acreage reserve contracts.

In the referendum only 6 Ohio counties had more votes in favor of allotments than base acreages. They were Clinton, Darke, Henry, Preble, Putnam and Sandusky. Total Ohio vote was 23,547.

THIS YEAR'S "Lucia Bride" in Sweden is shown during Lucia Day celebration in Stockholm. The ritual calls for her to wear candle headdress and bring early morning coffee to relatives. She is Ingrid Goude, "Miss Sweden" of 1956. She ran sixth in the 1956 "Miss Universe" contest in Long Beach, Calif. (International)

May Christmas cheer light up your home and make all the days of your New Year as glowingly bright as the sparkling lights on your tree on this happiest of all holidays.

EASTERN REALTY CO.

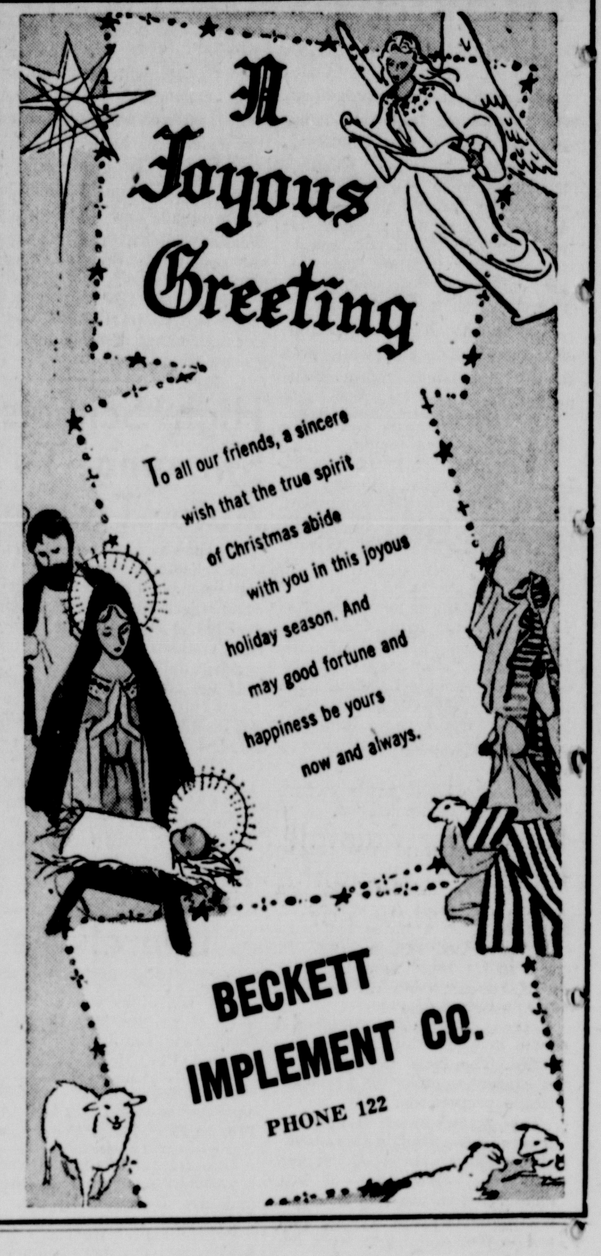
WILLIAM BRESLER

Phone Circleville 5023

Christmas is here again, bringing a sparkle to children's eyes and joy to the hearts of all. May the spirit of the season enrich your life with its blessings, now and throughout the New Year.

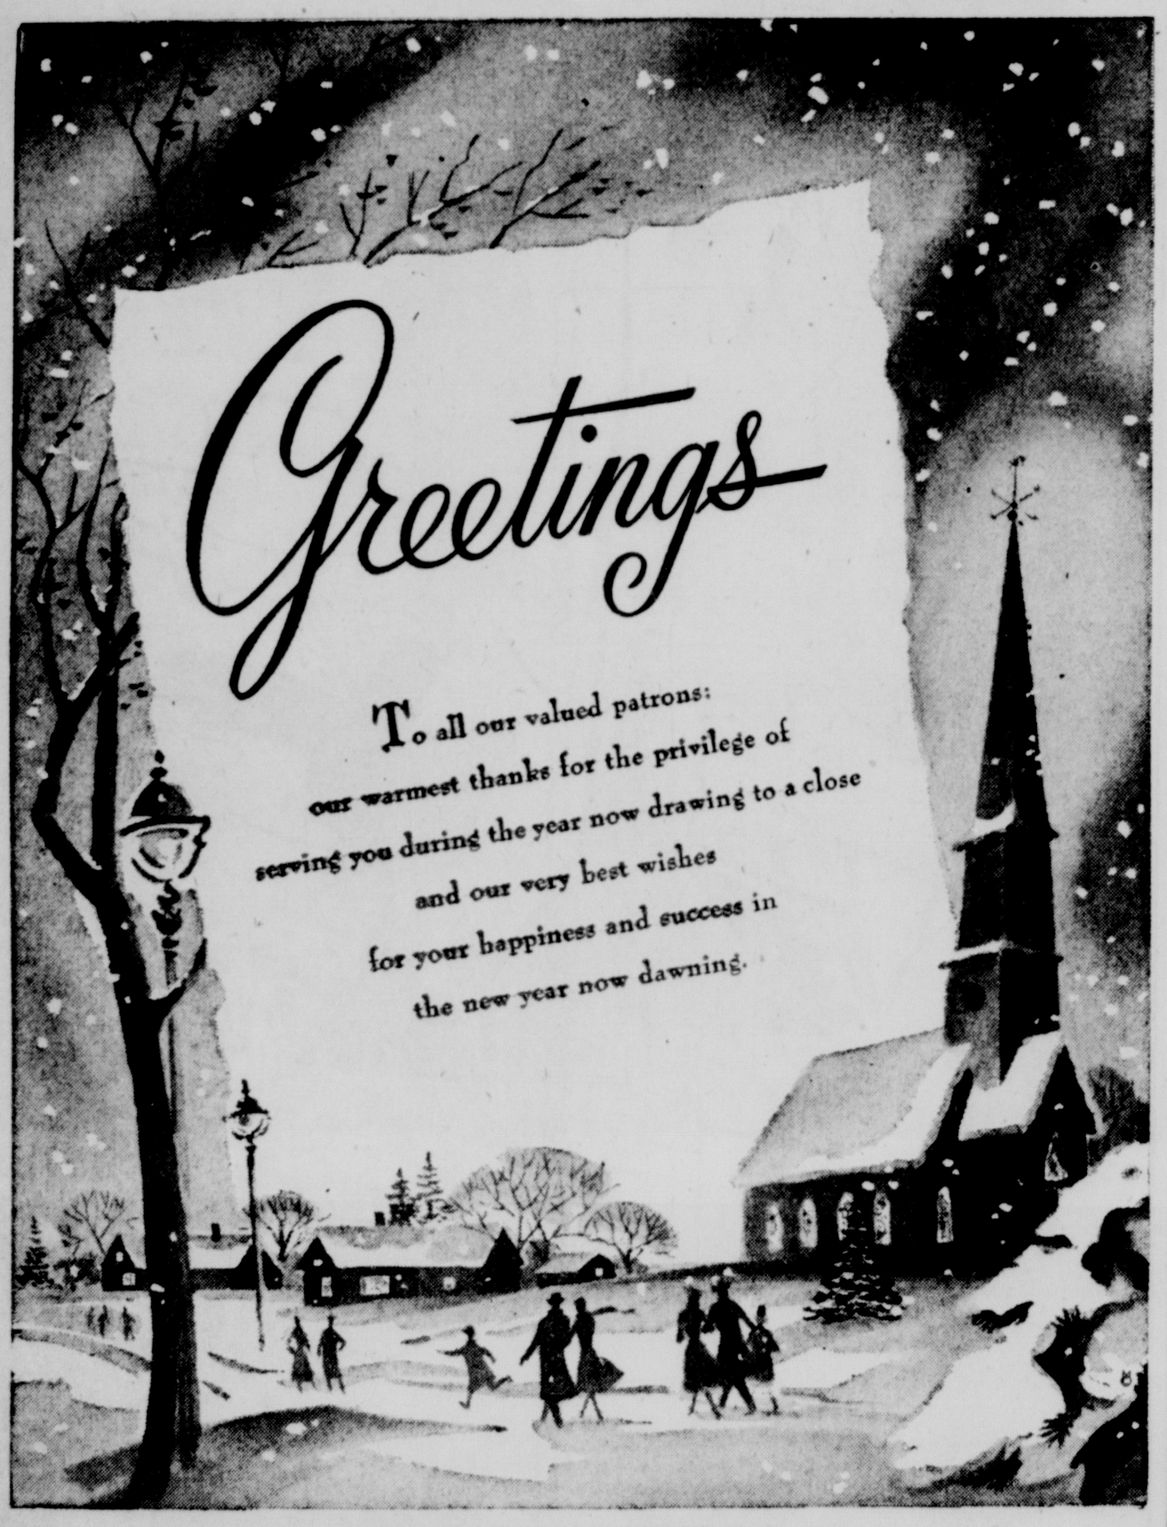
GORDON'S

MAIN and SCIOTO



BECKETT IMPLEMENT CO.

PHONE 122



To all our valued patrons:
our warmest thanks for the privilege of serving you during the year now drawing to a close and our very best wishes for your happiness and success in the new year now dawning.

BOYER'S HARDWARE

RALPH BOYER
GUY BOYER
WAYNE BOYER
CHET SHARP
JOHN CLARKE
HAROLD MYERS
ELMA NOYES

GREETINGS...

To our "family" of cherished friends, we wish the joys of a good old-fashioned Christmas. And along with our greetings, we'd like to send our sincere thanks for the opportunity of serving all our patrons.

FLANAGAN MOTORS

120 - 22 E. FRANKLIN

--CHARLES FLETCHER--

General Manager

Fern Bozman — Office Manager
Micheal Flanagan — Parts Manager
Dessel Fyffe — Shop Foreman
James Stivers — Used Car Salesman
Jack Hamilton — Used Car Salesman
Charles Cullums — Mechanic
Charles Hancer — Lubrication and Undercoating
Harold Allen — New Car Salesman

'Unto Us A Child Is Born' Leaving Mark On All World

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last in a series of studies of the birth and times of Christ. It sets out to measure, as best man can, the impact of the historic event to be joyously commemorated in churches throughout the Christian world on Tuesday.

By George Cornell
AP Newsfeatures

His footprints are on the earth. They are etched in the hills of Palestine and echo on the sidewalks of every city. His path stretches across all the continents. His mark is on the whole world.

It has felt, millions affirm, the reverberating tread of the Most High.

He arrived on a clear midnight —a Baby Boy.

Few recognized Him. He was born in poverty in an obscure corner of the ancient Roman empire, which took no notice of His coming, and He never journeyed more than 300 miles from His birthplace.

But He left His imperishable calling card at homes in every nation.

* * *

HE WAS a healthy Baby, and precocious, but He never invented any new devices, originated any architectural techniques, or won any medals. He didn't leave any classic art or solve any equations of astronomy, chemistry or physics.

But He unmasked the deepest mystery of all.

He was a likable Child, but many thought He grew impractical. He never acquired any property, or owned anything but the cloak on his back, never held any office, or composed any written work, except some scribbling in the sand, and the wind blew this away.

But to much of mankind, He disclosed what God is like.

He was God, become man, so men could know God better.

This is the essence of those "tidings of great joy" to all people which the heavens proclaimed when He came. The good news was that "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us."

* * *

AT THE time, the world was ful of dramatic, ingeniously conceived gods. Glittering Rome was at its zenith of power, and Alexandria was the crown jewel of literature and learning, with philosophy exuding fine subtleties.

But the real, unknown capitol of life was in Bethlehem.

Some say there are no miracles. But read the record of that Child —reared in drab surroundings, known as a roving carpenter-preacher in rustic villages, finally hung as a criminal—Who raised a scepter over humanity.

From Him, here radiated a rushing, invincible force that swept past the resistance of swords, dungeons, executions, battlements and slaughter to burn His name into the pillars of civilization.

But the coming of one Child, into a poor family in a beaten and bled vassal province, but through the murk of flamboyant mythology and vaunted theories to convince men that God walked with them.

All the mental gymnastics of various cultures — of the Greek analysts who offered their sleek explanations shortly before Him, of the Stoics who called God an impersonal logos unconcerned with individuals, of the Epicureans who termed religion nonsense and only the body real, of the sweeping "mysteries," the idols backed by entrenched priesthoods and wealth —all this shriveled before the impact of a Child.

Why?

* * *

AN ANSWER trumpets through the record:

Because He is "the Image of the Invisible God."

Because He is "the Way, the Truth and the Life."

It must be that He lived, spoke and acted in a way that made the few around Him know, beyond all doubt, that their deepest aspiration was inherent in this Man — that they were seeing God.

From ages past, Judaism, that most ancient of faiths believing in the supreme God, had recognized men were His creatures — His children created in "His own image." But what was this image?

To those who bear His name, the Christ Child gave the answer:

"I and My Father are One . . . He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father."

And when He departed the earth, He said God will "give you another comforter . . . the Holy Ghost . . .that He may abide with you forever . . . even the Spirit of Truth."

* * *

HE GAVE to them a clearer view, an earthly demonstration, of just what God constituted on this earth-bound plane, and laid the goal before men—to guide them on their course.

What did He do, or say, or be that gave such revelation?

He was a plain-talking, sympathetic, forthright man Who liked flowers and fields and livestock, Who held youngsters on His knee, Who considered every man, rich, poor, learned or simple, of the same priceless worth.

His message was that all men are related to God, free to husband that divine part of themselves as they choose in seeking fulfillment, and He described the ultimate potentiality:

"That they all may be one, as thou Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us."

But this Child of Bethlehem didn't shut Himself off in some ethereal realm during His earthly sojourn. He plunged into the world itself, walking a breathing definition of forgiveness, kindness, understanding, and gentleness; a living condemnation of hypocrisy, of pompous technicalities that have nothing to do with justice, and of greed and the pursuit of shallow objectives.

* * *

AND THE kernel of all He did and said was in one word: "Love."

"Love the Lord thy God, and thy neighbor as thyself . . . as I have loved you."

That, men hold, was what God was like during His visit to earth: He came here out of love, to help men find their way, and that is what He was while here—the embodiment of love.

"God is Love. And he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God and God in him."

He bridged a gap of loneliness separating men from their God. He marked the hidden trail by which lost sheep could find the fold. But He didn't expect men to understand it all, or all of what He is, or what they are, or can be. And so He passed on this advice through His apostles.

"Now we cannot yet see all things. . .But we see Jesus."

In declaring these aspects of God, He displayed a mystic diffusion, The Trinity—God, His Incarnation as Man, His Spirit, all united — "and those Three are One."

But it was in that birth in Bethlehem "in the likeness of men. . . in the fashion as a man"—of One called both wholly man and wholly God—that the world received the lamp unto its feet.

* * *

HE CAME as a living, tangible manifestation of the divinity that all men share—a quality to be enlarged or diminished within themselves on both sides of the grave.

Until He came, men had felt they didn't know exactly what that godly element was in human life, or how to go about nurturing it, or what pitfalls might limit it — until He showed them God, in flesh and word and deed.

The Japanese empire was founded in 660 B.C. by Jimmu Tenno, legendary descendant of the sun goddess.

Mistletoe Has History Of Many Legends

Mistletoe has a romantic role at Christmastime.

During the work-a-day months of the year, however, it is a plant pest, a flowering parasite that grows on trees, according to Dr. Philip L. Rusden of well known tree research laboratories.

Birds feeding on sticky berries of mistletoe clean their bills by rubbing them against the bark of a tree. The seeds cling to the bark, and eventually grow there.

Mistletoe has long been associated with charms and legends. One legend says that mistletoe once was a full grown tree, but when its timber was cut for the cross on which Christ was crucified it dwindled to its present low estate.

* * *

IN GERMANY long ago mistletoe was said to make ghosts appear. Ancient Druids believed mistletoe was a symbol of spirit because it grew on the sacred oak. When they cut it down with a golden sickle they made sure no twig touched the earth.

People then made bracelets and rings out of mistletoe. They fastened it in doorways in the belief it would ward off evil.

Eventually it acquired romantic qualities. For years now, mistletoe seems to make boys bold and girls blush.

2 Ohioans Plan Windjammer Voyage To Go Around World

CINCINNATI — If you ever dreamed of sailing around the world aboard your own windjammer, then you know what lures these two men.

They're Jack O'Shea, 43, and Ed Brown, 24, both of Portsmouth.

They've got the boat. And they were ready to shove off, down the Ohio River to the Mississippi, then to New Orleans for fitting-out.

This is actually the second stage of the voyage to the seas, that began three days ago in Portsmouth.

The boat started taking shape more than three years ago when O'Shea and his family came to Portsmouth.

The boat is the reason why O'Shea started there. The region has oak timber of the quality he wanted to go in the hull.

He set to work, using a talent for carpentry he "just picked up" to shape the keel, fit the ribs and plank the hull.

The 23-ton finished hull, christened "Antonia K", slid down the ways into the muddy Ohio River last week.

The craft is 44 feet overall, built along traditional lines, with the emphasis on rugged construction. She has a 13 foot beam, draws 5½ feet and sleeps 12.

O'Shea plans to rig her as a ketch at New Orleans, and complete fitting out, including adding galley equipment.

The Skipper said that tentative plans call for visits in the Carbbean, then through the Panama Canal and westward for some "island-hopping."

The crew is still uncertain. Mrs. O'Shea and daughter Antonia—the boat's namesake — balked at the trip downriver, but may join them in New Orleans.

So far only Brown has "caught the old wanderlust" and signed aboard.

Brown said, "At first I thought this was a hairbrain scheme, but now I'm all for it."

The oldest contemporary portrait of an English sovereign is the portrait of Richard II in Westminster Abbey.

WINNER 12TH NATIONAL TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

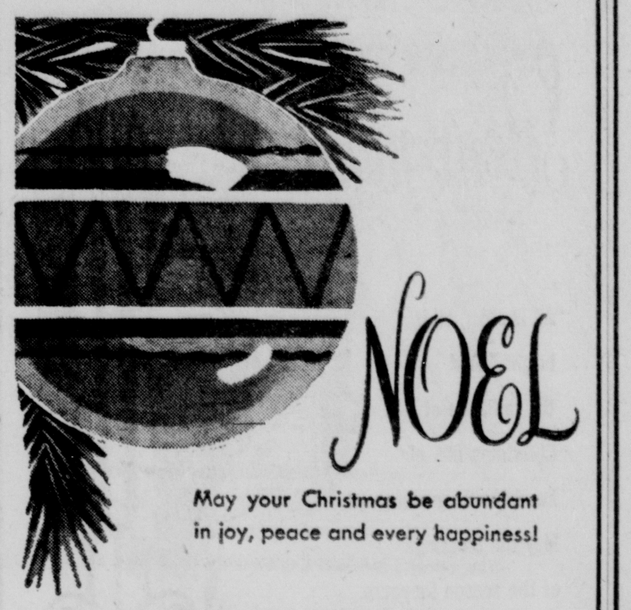
Greetings to All

Our sincere thanks and much holiday cheer to all our friends and patrons.

GRAY'S MARATHON SERVICE

Court and Watt St. Phone 9506

WE WILL CLOSE ALL DAY CHRISTMAS



NOEL

May your Christmas be abundant in joy, peace and every happiness!

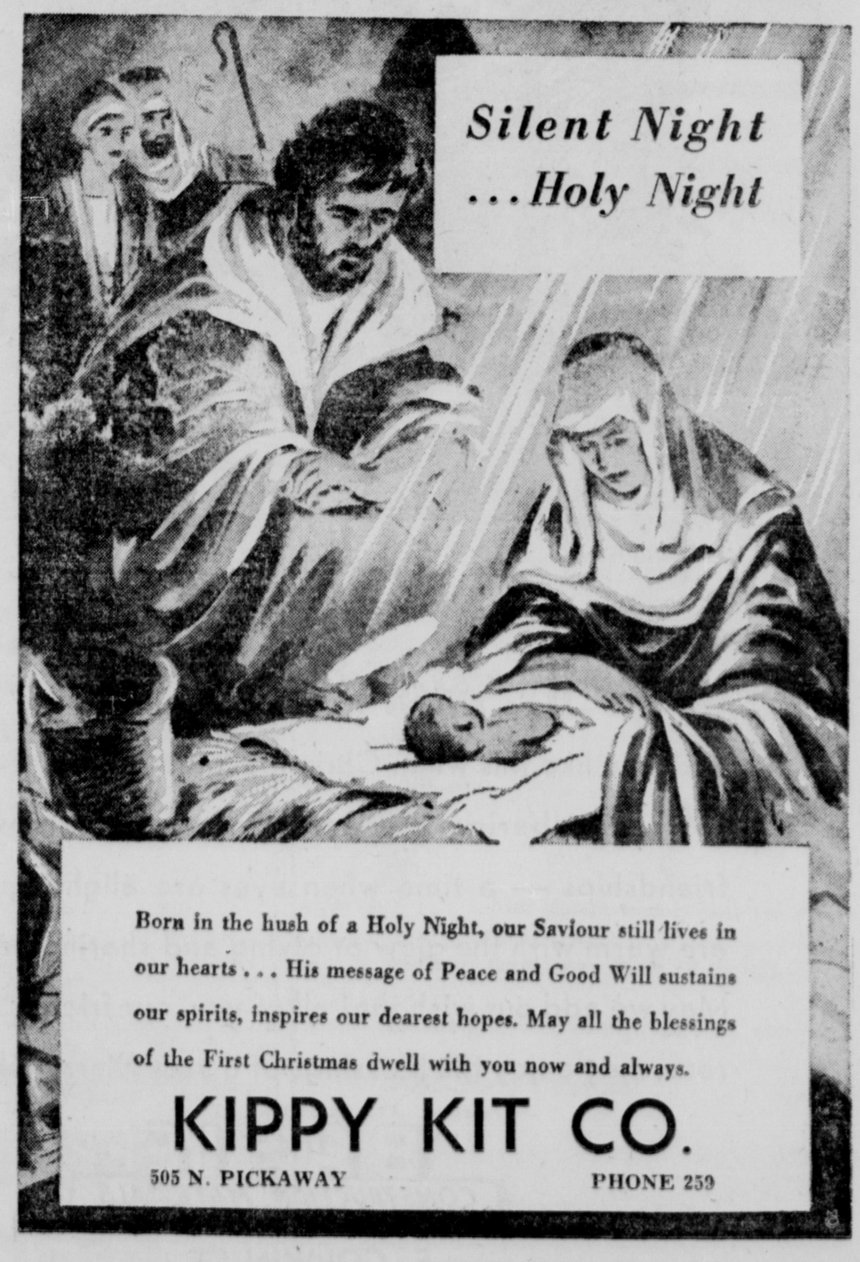
Norman Kutler
Circleville Rexall Drugs

Christmas Cheer

We're coming your way to wish you a good old-fashioned Merry Christmas abounding in the great gifts of health, happiness and contentment.

CIRCLEVILLE IRON and METAL CO.

Clinton St.



Silent Night ...Holy Night

Born in the hush of a Holy Night, our Saviour still lives in our hearts . . . His message of Peace and Good Will sustains our spirits, inspires our dearest hopes. May all the blessings of the First Christmas dwell with you now and always.

KIPPY KIT CO.

505 N. PICKAWAY PHONE 259

May your Christmas be as bright as the star that guided the wisemen to the crib in Bethlehem, and may your gifts be health, wealth and happiness!

HOOVER MUSIC

134 W. MAIN CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

ROBERT STOLL, 6, uses his hands and nose to feel and smell a Christmas tree at the Pittsburgh School for Blind Children. Santa Claus (Clarence Elwood) is standing by. Members of the city's Lions Club are selling trees at the school for the benefit of the youngsters, an annual project of the club. (International)

'Unto Us A Child Is Born' Leaving Mark On All World

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last in a series of studies of the birth and times of Christ. It sets out to measure, as best man can, the impact of the historic event to be joyously commemorated in churches throughout the Christian world on Tuesday.

By George Cornell
AP Newsfeatures

His footprints are on the earth. They are etched in the hills of Palestine and echo on the sidewalks of every city. His path stretches across all the continents. His mark is on the whole world.

It has felt, millions affirm, the reverberating tread of the Most High.

He arrived on a clear midnight —a Baby Boy.

Few recognized Him. He was born in poverty in an obscure corner of the ancient Roman empire, which took no notice of His coming, and He never journeyed more than 300 miles from His birthplace.

But He left His imperishable calling card at homes in every nation.

* * *

HE WAS a healthy Baby, and precocious, but He never invented any new devices, originated any architectural techniques, or won any medals. He didn't leave any classic art or solve any equations of astronomy, chemistry or physics.

But He unmasked the deepest mystery of all.

He was a likable Child, but many thought He grew impractical. He never acquired any property, or owned anything but the cloak on his back, never held any office, or composed any written work, except some scribbling in the sand, and the wind blew this away.

But to much of mankind, He disclosed what God is like.

He was God, become man, so men could know God better.

This is the essence of those "tidings of great joy" to all people which the heavens proclaimed when He came. The good news was that "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us."

* * *

AT THE time, the world was ful of dramatic, ingeniously conceived gods. Glittering Rome was at its zenith of power, and Alexandria was the crown jewel of literature and learning, with philosophy exuding fine subtleties.

But the real, unknown capitol of life was in Bethlehem.

Some say there are no miracles. But read the record of that Child —reared in drab surroundings, known as a roving carpenter-preacher in rustic villages, finally hung as a criminal—Who raised a scepter over humanity.

From Him, here radiated a rushing, invincible force that swept past the resistance of swords, dungeons, executions, battlements and slaughter to burn His name into the pillars of civilization.

But the coming of one Child, into a poor family in a beaten and bled vassal province, but through the murk of flamboyant mythology and vaunted theories to convince men that God walked with them.

All the mental gymnastics of various cultures — of the Greek analysts who offered their sleek explanations shortly before Him, of the Stoics who called God an impersonal logos unconcerned with individuals, of the Epicureans who termed religion nonsense and only the body real, of the sweeping "mysteries," the idols backed by entrenched priesthoods and wealth —all this shriveled before the impact of a Child.

Why?

* * *

AN ANSWER trumpets through the record:

Because He is "the Image of the Invisible God."

Because He is "the Way, the Truth and the Life."

It must be that He lived, spoke and acted in a way that made the few around Him know, beyond all doubt, that their deepest aspiration was inherent in this Man — that they were seeing God.

From ages past, Judaism, that most ancient of faiths believing in the supreme God, had recognized men were His creatures — His children created in "His own image." But what was this image?

To those who bear His name, the Christ Child gave the answer:

"I and My Father are One . . . He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father."

And when He departed the earth, He said God will "give you another comforter . . . the Holy Ghost . . .that He may abide with you forever . . . even the Spirit of Truth."

* * *

HE GAVE to them a clearer view, an earthly demonstration, of just what God constituted on this earth-bound plane, and laid the goal before men—to guide them on their course.

What did He do, or say, or be that gave such revelation?

He was a plain-talking, sympathetic, forthright man Who liked flowers and fields and livestock, Who held youngsters on His knee, Who considered every man, rich, poor, learned or simple, of the same priceless worth.

His message was that all men are related to God, free to husband that divine part of themselves as they choose in seeking fulfillment, and He described the ultimate potentiality:

"That they all may be one, as thou Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us."

But this Child of Bethlehem didn't shut Himself off in some ethereal realm during His earthly sojourn. He plunged into the world itself, walking a breathing definition of forgiveness, kindness, understanding, and gentleness; a living condemnation of hypocrisy, of pompous technicalities that have nothing to do with justice, and of greed and the pursuit of shallow objectives.

* * *

AND THE kernel of all He did and said was in one word: "Love."

"Love the Lord thy God, and thy neighbor as thyself . . . as I have loved you."

That, men hold, was what God was like during His visit to earth: He came here out of love, to help men find their way, and that is what He was while here—the embodiment of love.

"God is Love. And he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God and God in him."

He bridged a gap of loneliness separating men from their God. He marked the hidden trail by which lost sheep could find the fold. But He didn't expect men to understand it all, or all of what He is, or what they are, or can be. And so He passed on this advice through His apostles.

"Now we cannot yet see all things. . .But we see Jesus."

In declaring these aspects of God, He displayed a mystic diffusion, The Trinity—God, His Incarnation as Man, His Spirit, all united — "and those Three are One."

But it was in that birth in Bethlehem "in the likeness of men. . . in the fashion as a man"—of One called both wholly man and wholly God—that the world received the lamp unto its feet.

* * *

HE CAME as a living, tangible manifestation of the divinity that all men share—a quality to be enlarged or diminished within themselves on both sides of the grave.

Until He came, men had felt they didn't know exactly what that godly element was in human life, or how to go about nurturing it, or what pitfalls might limit it — until He showed them God, in flesh and word and deed.

The Japanese empire was founded in 660 B.C. by Jimmu Tenno, legendary descendant of the sun goddess.

Mistletoe Has History Of Many Legends

Mistletoe has a romantic role at Christmastime.

During the work-a-day months of the year, however, it is a plant pest, a flowering parasite that grows on trees, according to Dr. Philip L. Rusden of well known tree research laboratories.

Birds feeding on sticky berries of mistletoe clean their bills by rubbing them against the bark of a tree. The seeds cling to the bark, and eventually grow there.

Mistletoe has long been associated with charms and legends. One legend says that mistletoe once was a full grown tree, but when its timber was cut for the cross on which Christ was crucified it dwindled to its present low estate.

* * *

IN GERMANY long ago mistletoe was said to make ghosts appear. Ancient Druids believed mistletoe was a symbol of spirit because it grew on the sacred oak. When they cut it down with a golden sickle they made sure no twig touched the earth.

People then made bracelets and rings out of mistletoe. They fastened it in doorways in the belief it would ward off evil.

Eventually it acquired romantic qualities. For years now, mistletoe seems to make boys bold and girls blush.

2 Ohioans Plan Windjammer Voyage To Go Around World

CINCINNATI — If you ever dreamed of sailing around the world aboard your own windjammer, then you know what lures these two men.

They're Jack O'Shea, 43, and Ed Brown, 24, both of Portsmouth.

They've got the boat. And they were ready to shove off, down the Ohio River to the Mississippi, then to New Orleans for fitting-out.

This is actually the second stage of the voyage to the seas, that began three days ago in Portsmouth.

The boat started taking shape more than three years ago when O'Shea and his family came to Portsmouth.

The boat is the reason why O'Shea started there. The region has oak timber of the quality he wanted to go in the hull.

He set to work, using a talent for carpentry he "just picked up" to shape the keel, fit the ribs and plank the hull.

The 23-ton finished hull, christened "Antonia K", slid down the ways into the muddy Ohio River last week.

The craft is 44 feet overall, built along traditional lines, with the emphasis on rugged construction. She has a 13 foot beam, draws 5½ feet and sleeps 12.

O'Shea plans to rig her as a ketch at New Orleans, and complete fitting out, including adding galley equipment.

The Skipper said that tentative plans call for visits in the Carbbean, then through the Panama Canal and westward for some "island-hopping."

The crew is still uncertain. Mrs. O'Shea and daughter Antonia—the boat's namesake — balked at the trip downriver, but may join them in New Orleans.

So far only Brown has "caught the old wanderlust" and signed aboard.

Brown said, "At first I thought this was a hairbrain scheme, but now I'm all for it."

The oldest contemporary portrait of an English sovereign is the portrait of Richard II in Westminster Abbey.

WINNER 12TH NATIONAL TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

NOEL

May your Christmas be abundant in joy, peace and every happiness!

Norman Kutler
Circleville Rexall Drugs

Christmas Cheer

We're coming your way to wish you a good old-fashioned Merry Christmas abounding in the great gifts of health, happiness and contentment.

CIRCLEVILLE IRON and METAL CO.
Clinton St.

Greetings to All

Our sincere thanks and much holiday cheer to all our friends and patrons.

GRAY'S MARATHON SERVICE
Court and Watt St. Phone 9506
WE WILL CLOSE ALL DAY CHRISTMAS

May your Christmas be as bright as the star that guided the wisemen to the crib in Bethlehem, and may your gifts be health, wealth and happiness!

HOOVER MUSIC
134 W. MAIN CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

Born in the hush of a Holy Night, our Saviour still lives in our hearts . . . His message of Peace and Good Will sustains our spirits, inspires our dearest hopes. May all the blessings of the First Christmas dwell with you now and always.

KIPPY KIT CO.
505 N. PICKAWAY PHONE 259

ROBERT STOLL, 6, uses his hands and nose to feel and smell a Christmas tree at the Pittsburgh School for Blind Children. Santa Claus (Clarence Elwood) is standing by. Members of the city's Lions Club are selling trees at the school for the benefit of the youngsters, an annual project of the club. (International)

Choir Music Rings Out In Leningrad Cathedral

Estonian-born guide Tanya strolls in Leningrad. In the background is a former cathedral, now used as a museum of religious history.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The author is an American student studying in Sweden.

By FREDRIK HETTER
Central Press Association Correspondent

LENINGRAD, Russia—One Sunday our group of American and Scandinavian students stood outside the beautiful Nikolsky cathedral, with its onion-shaped domes rising above many-colored walls, and were astounded to hear magnificent choir music rolling out from the opening door.

Inside, the power of the adoration of hundreds of Russians at worship was a shock as the Russian Orthodox church has been forced, since the revolution, to fight for its existence. Many churches have become museums, and seminaries are closed. However, here we were now, a group of westerners, witnessing a resplendent religious service in Soviet Russia's second city. We looked on in wonder.

In the cool interior, the glow of thousands of candles lighted up the faces of the priests celebrating mass.

We climbed up to the balcony and looked down at the service. A peasant woman fell to her knees and touched the floor with her forehead. Mothers brought young babies to be blessed by a veritable young giant of a priest, assisted by another wearing a gold robe.

• • •

THE CHIEF PRIEST, standing with the dignity of a patriarch, watched and benignly supervised the ceremony, holding aloft a glistening gold crucifix.

Behind the young mothers stood the older people, who well may have been born before the revolution. One could not tell. Their faces and bodies looked as if they toiled many long years.

Then suddenly I saw something I never had expected to see, a tall, rather good looking man of about 35, wearing in his buttonhole the emblem of one of the Communist organizations! I turned my head quickly to keep from being caught staring at him and looked straight at another! Darker, smaller, perhaps a Ukranian. And he stared right back at me, shifted his weight for a moment, and obviously was ill at ease.

It seemed unbelievable to be here in a church, where the splendor contrasted greatly with the shabbiness of the worshippers, in the city of Lenin, the cradle of the revolution. The priests, seven in all, clothed in traditional garments, conducted a service in the ancient manner. The presence of the younger priests confirmed the Soviet announcement that the seminaries had been reopened.

Our girl guide, little, blond Tanya, could not help us understand the meaning of what we had seen. She just shrugged.

Sales Tax Data Shows Heavy Yuletide Buying

For the second consecutive week in the pre-Christmas buying season, collections from the sale of prepaid tax receipts topped five million dollars, according to State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy's sales tax report for the week ending Dec. 8, 1956.

Total revenues for the third week before the Holidays amounted to $5,407,937, which exceeded collections of $5,215,266 for the corresponding week last year by $192,671, or 3.69 per cent.

The cumulative revenues from last July 1, when the current fiscal year began, passed the hundred million dollar mark with a grand total of $100,373,663. A year ago the over-all figure was $100,601,990.

A breakdown of sales by counties shows that 31 counties, including Cuyahoga, Franklin, Mahoning, Stark and Summit of the eight major urban counties, have cumulative revenues for the year in excess of last year.

At the same time, 25 other counties, including Lucas and Montgomery, reported collections for the week in excess of the same week a year ago.

Koch Appointed

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche has designated Robert Koch of Van Wert to be chairman of the state liquor board to replace Frank M. Krebs of Dayton who resigned. Koch will serve until next February when Krebs' term expires.

'Village' Gets Hit Hard And Often

There's a wide open town near Grafenwohr, Germany, complete with a swinging door saloon, that's the toughest, roughest frontier town north of the Danube River.

It's the only community in Western Europe where bullets whistle up and down each of its two main streets, and not a single irate taxpayer is around to raise his voice.

The small town, setting in the middle of a vast wasteland, has been attacked, sacked, burned, smashed, and shot full of holes—but it keeps getting to its feet and asking for ore.

Its only friend—and worst enemy—is the U. S. Army in Europe. "MOCK VILLAGE" is an important spot within the Army's tremendous training grund in eastern Bavaria.

More than 4000 U. S. soldiers attack the village each month, pouring small arms fire into it, setting it afire, and fighting house-to-house through its narrow streets. During its unique existence, it's been attacked by more than 200,000 troops.

Silent night

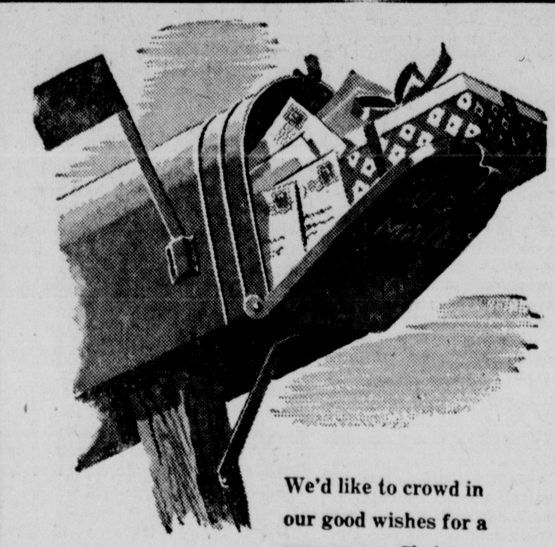
"All is calm, all is bright." And the radiance of Christmas fills our hearts with rejoicing. May the blessings of the season be yours.

Culligan Soft Water Service
Phone 723
Circleville, Ohio

A-Glow with Good Wishes

Our warmest wishes to all for a bright holiday.

Western Auto Associate Store



We'd like to crowd in our good wishes for a very merry Christmas packed with happiness!

JOE CHRISTY
Plumbing and Heating
158 W. Main — Phone 987

Season's Greetings

With all the traditional good will and warmth of the Holiday season, we wish the best of everything to our loyal patrons and thank them most heartily for the opportunity of serving them during the past year.

FROM YOUR CHEVROLET DEALER

HARDEN CHEVROLET CO.

Your Chevrolet Dealer Since 1928

It's always such a pleasure to get in touch with you like this when Christmastime is here. It is a time for remembering old acquaintances, renewing old friendships — a time when eyes are alight and hearts are warm with the glow of giving and sharing happiness. May we add our wish that all of you, our friends and patrons, may enjoy the blessings of a very Merry Christmas!

BASIC CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS
E. CORWIN ST.

Choir Music Rings Out In Leningrad Cathedral

Estonian-born guide Tanya strolls in Leningrad. In the background is a former cathedral, now used as a museum of religious history.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The author is an American student studying in Sweden.

By FREDRIK HETTER
Central Press Association Correspondent

LENINGRAD, Russia—One Sunday our group of American and Scandinavian students stood outside the beautiful Nikolsky cathedral, with its onion-shaped domes rising above many-colored walls, and were astounded to hear magnificent choir music rolling out from the opening door.

Inside, the power of the adoration of hundreds of Russians at worship was a shock as the Russian Orthodox church has been forced, since the revolution, to fight for its existence. Many churches have become museums, and seminaries are closed. However, here we were now, a group of westerners, witnessing a resplendent religious service in Soviet Russia's second city. We looked on in wonder.

In the cool interior, the glow of thousands of candles lighted up the faces of the priests celebrating mass.

We climbed up to the balcony and looked down at the service. A peasant woman fell to her knees and touched the floor with her forehead. Mothers brought young babies to be blessed by a veritable young giant of a priest, assisted by another wearing a gold robe.

• • •

THE CHIEF PRIEST, standing with the dignity of a patriarch, watched and benignly supervised the ceremony, holding aloft a glistening gold crucifix.

Behind the young mothers stood the older people, who well may have been born before the revolution. One could not tell. Their faces and bodies looked as if they toiled many long years.

Then suddenly I saw something I never had expected to see, a tall, rather good looking man of about 35, wearing in his buttonhole the emblem of one of the Communist organizations! I turned my head quickly to keep from being caught staring at him and looked straight at another! Darker, smaller, perhaps a Ukranian. And he stared right back at me, shifted his weight for a moment, and obviously was ill at ease.

It seemed unbelievable to be here in a church, where the splendor contrasted greatly with the shabbiness of the worshippers, in the city of Lenin, the cradle of the revolution. The priests, seven in all, clothed in traditional garments, conducted a service in the ancient manner. The presence of the younger priests confirmed the Soviet announcement that the seminaries had been reopened.

Our girl guide, little, blond Tanya, could not help us understand the meaning of what we had seen. She just shrugged.

Sales Tax Data Shows Heavy Yuletide Buying

For the second consecutive week in the pre-Christmas buying season, collections from the sale of prepaid tax receipts topped five million dollars, according to State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy's sales tax report for the week ending Dec. 8, 1956.

Total revenues for the third week before the Holidays amounted to $5,407,937, which exceeded collections of $5,215,266 for the corresponding week last year by $192,671, or 3.69 per cent.

The cumulative revenues from last July 1, when the current fiscal year began, passed the hundred million dollar mark with a grand total of $100,373,663. A year ago the over-all figure was $100,601,990.

A breakdown of sales by counties shows that 31 counties, including Cuyahoga, Franklin, Mahoning, Stark and Summit of the eight major urban counties, have cumulative revenues for the year in excess of last year.

At the same time, 25 other counties, including Lucas and Montgomery, reported collections for the week in excess of the same week a year ago.

Koch Appointed

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche has designated Robert Koch of Van Wert to be chairman of the state liquor board to replace Frank M. Krebs of Dayton who resigned. Koch will serve until next February when Krebs' term expires.

'Village' Gets Hit Hard And Often

There's a wide open town near Grafenwohr, Germany, complete with a swinging door saloon, that's the toughest, roughest frontier town north of the Danube River.

It's the only community in Western Europe where bullets whistle up and down each of its two main streets, and not a single irate taxpayer is around to raise his voice.

The small town, setting in the middle of a vast wasteland, has been attacked, sacked, burned, smashed, and shot full of holes—but it keeps getting to its feet and asking for ore.

Its only friend—and worst enemy—is the U. S. Army in Europe, "MOCK VILLAGE" is an important spot within the Army's tremendous training grund in eastern Bavaria.

More than 4000 U. S. soldiers attack the village each month, pouring small arms fire into it, setting it afire, and fighting house-to-house through its narrow streets. During its unique existence, it's been attacked by more than 200,000 troops.

A-Glow with Good Wishes

Our warmest wishes to all for a bright holiday.

Western Auto Associate Store

We'd like to crowd in our good wishes for a very merry Christmas packed with happiness!

JOE CHRISTY
Plumbing and Heating
158 W. Main — Phone 987

Silent night

"All is calm, all is bright." And the radiance of Christmas fills our hearts with rejoicing. May the blessings of the season be yours.

Culligan Soft Water Service
Phone 723
Circleville, Ohio

Season's Greetings

With all the traditional good will and warmth of the Holiday season, we wish the best of everything to our loyal patrons and thank them most heartily for the opportunity of serving them during the past year.

FROM YOUR CHEVROLET DEALER

HARDEN CHEVROLET CO.

Your Chevrolet Dealer Since 1928

It's always such a pleasure to get in touch with you like this when Christmastime is here. It is a time for remembering old acquaintances, renewing old friendships — a time when eyes are alight and hearts are warm with the glow of giving and sharing happiness. May we add our wish that all of you, our friends and patrons, may enjoy the blessings of a very Merry Christmas!

BASIC CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS
E. CORWIN ST.

alice in wonderland

A Christmas Classic

(Clark Kinnaird, author, editor, historian and literary critic, tells the story of classic Christmas books in a series written especially for Central Press Association and this newspaper.)

* * * *

WE should not be surprised if some eminent atomic physicist were to write a fairy story which delighted children.

The classic Christmas poem, A Visit From St. Nicholas, was composed by C. C. Moore when professor of Hebrew and Greek at General Theological Seminary in New York. The greatest of all English stories for children, Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, was written by Charles L. Dodgson, a lecturer (professor) at Christ Church, Oxford.

The latter's previous books had been as far removed from fantasy and entertainment as A from Z. They bore such titles as Curiosa Mathematica, Euclid and His Modern Works, etc. It almost certainly never entered Dodgson's head that his name would not be remembered primarily for his achievements as a mathematician.

Dodgson was a bachelor. His friend and fellow scholar, Henry George Liddell, had three small daughters whom it pleased Dodgson to take on picnics, photograph and amuse with stories he contrived.

Alice Liddell, for whom Charles L. Dodgson wrote Alice's Adventures in Wonderland. He made this photo of her.

An entry in his diary, July 4, 1862, notes:

"I made an expedition up the river to Godstow with three Liddells; we had tea on the bank there, and did not reach Christ Church until half-past eight."

July 4, 1862, was a momentous date in literature, for that day Dodgson told the three little girls about Alice's Adventures Underground, which he afterward wrote out for the eldest of the Liddell girls. She was the make-believe heroine of the story.

The manuscript got into the hands of a publisher, who persuaded the Oxford don to publish the story in extended form. Dodgson did so, with illustrations by John Tenniel, and under a nom-de-plume, Lewis Carroll.

Chances are strong that there are few of the millions of persons who have an indelible memory of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and its sequels, Through the Looking-Glass and The Hunting of the Snark, to whom mention of Charles Lutwidge Dodgson's name has any significance.

It is possible that Dodgson's stories and verses were influenced to some extent by Edward Lear, inventor of the limerick and writer of the Nonsense books popular with children when Dodgson was a youth. It seems logical that Lear's The Owl and the Pussy Cat, with its lines,

The Owl and the Pussy-Cat went to sea
In a beautiful pea-green boat,
They took some honey, and plenty of money,
Wrapped in a five-pound note

was ringing in Dodgson's head when he wrote The Hunting of the Snark. Lear's Nonsense Stories and Nonsense Rhymes have retained an undiminished appeal to the young heart everywhere.

Selections from Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and other Lewis Carroll creations appealing to persons of all ages are found with choice portions of Lear's Nonsense books and other classics in the extraordinary 512-page Illustrated Treasury of Children's Literature, edited by Margaret E. Martignoni (Grosset & Dunlap). The illustrations, printed in color, are in most cases the original or best loved drawings for the stories.

There is a new Doubleday edition of Edward Lear's Nonsense Book, enjoyed by children aged 3 and up. It has illustrations by Tony Palazzo.

A hippo may weigh up to three tons and have skin two inches thick.

The weight of a fowl after it has been dressed is about 15 to 20 per cent less.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. George Betts spent an afternoon visiting in Chillicothe.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Huffman and David and Norman had as their guests, the Rev. and Mrs. Edward Streitenberger and Bobbie of Springfield.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred (Bobby) Nelson Jr. have left to make their home in Chicago, Ill., where the former entered Belmont College for a two years' course in architectural drafting. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Young of Atlanta accompanied them and remained for a few days visit. Mr. Nelson is a member of the 1956 graduating class from Atlanta School.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bogard and Mary and David were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jordan.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. John Shaffer of Williamsport were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ercel Speakman.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morris will have as their Christmas day guests: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brenner and family of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ervin and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Popovich and children of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stephenson and daughters of Washington C. H., Mr. and Mrs. Forest Morris and Ilo, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morris and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morris and children and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Osterle and family.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keaton and son Danny and Wynonia Bennett visited Mrs. Edith Keaton of Washington C. H.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bush and Trevor, Steve, and Kay had as their supper guests Mr. and Mrs. George Neal.

Atlanta

Mrs. James Willis and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hiser visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Armstrong.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Graves and family had as their house guests, Phil and Larry Cooper of Circleville.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Ercel Speakman will be Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Speakman and family of Columbus.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Huffman and David and Norman will be among guests on Christmas in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Johnson and Duane, Shelia and Sharon of Hamilton.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morris visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morris and Paul, Terry and Debbie.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. George Neal were afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Neal of Pataskala.

Atlanta

Mrs. John Farmer Jr. was a guest of Mrs. Valerie White of Ashville and John Clellan of South Bloomfield.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Day and children had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armentrout.

Practical Nurse School Is Open For Applications

The Columbus and Franklin County Practical Nurse School announced today that applications are now being accepted for the next class of the school which will start in February.

The course is open to women between the ages of 18 and 50 and is of twelve-month duration.

The Practical Nurse School is sponsored jointly by the Columbus Board of Education, Columbus Hospitals and the Community Chest.

Yak milk is very rich and yields excellent butter and curd.

There are 26 national wild life refuges in the United States, containing 10,164,346 acres.

The Irrawaddy river, in Burma, is navigable for some 900 miles.

Water that has been heated will freeze quicker than water that has not.

Here's Santa with a package of good wishes for your joyous Holiday Season!

SHARFF'S
Circleville's Leading Store for Men and Women

May we, with gratitude and humility, with reverence and rejoicing, celebrate this Christmas as He would have us do.
To all, heartfelt wishes for a blessed Christmas.

HELWAGEN PONTIAC
PHONE 843

THE CIRCLEVILLE SAVINGS AND BANKING COMPANY
118-120 COURT ST.
CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

To our many friends both old and new, we wish the joys of the season in fullest measure. May your holidays sparkle with the merriment of good times and good cheer, and glow with the radiance of warm friendships, family and home.

W. D. HEISKELL & SON
Phone 707 Circleville Branch Office
Phone 3261 or 2751 Williamsport, Ohio

Here's a toast to you, our customers and friends, and to your good health, happiness and success in 1957. We're certainly wishing you all of the best, and we especially want to say how much we appreciate your loyalty and good will.

RADCLIFFE CLEANERS
215 E. Main Phone 71

Our sincere wish is that you and your family may know all the old-fashioned, yet ever new, joys of the season. Merry Christmas!

BREHMER GREENHOUSES

alice in wonderland

A Christmas Classic

(Clark Kinnaird, author, editor, historian and literary critic, tells the story of classic Christmas books in a series written especially for Central Press Association and this newspaper.)

* * * *

WE should not be surprised if some eminent atomic physicist were to write a fairy story which delighted children.

The classic Christmas poem, A Visit From St. Nicholas, was composed by C. C. Moore when professor of Hebrew and Greek at General Theological Seminary in New York. The greatest of all English stories for children, Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, was written by Charles L. Dodgson, a lecturer (professor) at Christ Church, Oxford.

The latter's previous books had been as far removed from fantasy and entertainment as A from Z. They bore such titles as Curiosa Mathematica, Euclid and His Modern Works, etc. It almost certainly never entered Dodgson's head that his name would not be remembered primarily for his achievements as a mathematician.

Dodgson was a bachelor. His friend and fellow scholar, Henry George Liddell, had three small daughters whom it pleased Dodgson to take on picnics, photograph and amuse with stories he contrived.

Alice Liddell, for whom Charles L. Dodgson wrote Alice's Adventures in Wonderland. He made this photo of her.

An entry in his diary, July 4, 1862, notes:

"I made an expedition up the river to Godstow with three Liddells; we had tea on the bank there, and did not reach Christ Church until half-past eight."

July 4, 1862, was a momentous date in literature, for that day Dodgson told the three little girls about Alice's Adventures Underground, which he afterward wrote out for the eldest of the Liddell girls. She was the make-believe heroine of the story.

The manuscript got into the hands of a publisher, who persuaded the Oxford don to publish the story in extended form. Dodgson did so, with illustrations by John Tenniel, and under a nom-de-plume, Lewis Carroll.

Chances are strong that there are few of the millions of persons who have an indelible memory of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and its sequels, Through the Looking-Glass and The Hunting of the Snark, to whom mention of Charles Lutwidge Dodgson's name has any significance.

It is possible that Dodgson's stories and verses were influenced to some extent by Edward Lear, inventor of the limerick and writer of the Nonsense books popular with children when Dodgson was a youth. It seems logical that Lear's The Owl and the Pussy Cat, with its lines,

The Owl and the Pussy-Cat went to sea
In a beautiful pea-green boat,
They took some honey, and plenty of money,
Wrapped in a five-pound note

was ringing in Dodgson's head when he wrote The Hunting of the Snark. Lear's Nonsense Stories and Nonsense Rhymes have retained an undiminished appeal to the young heart everywhere.

Selections from Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and other Lewis Carroll creations appealing to persons of all ages are found with choice portions of Lear's Nonsense books and other classics in the extraordinary 512-page Illustrated Treasury of Children's Literature, edited by Margaret E. Martignoni (Grosset & Dunlap). The illustrations, printed in color, are in most cases the original or best loved drawings for the stories.

There is a new Doubleday edition of Edward Lear's Nonsense Book, enjoyed by children aged 3 and up. It has illustrations by Tony Palazzo.

A hippo may weigh up to three tons and have skin two inches thick.

The weight of a fowl after it has been dressed is about 15 to 20 per cent less.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. George Betts spent an afternoon visiting in Chillicothe.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Huffman and David and Norman had as their guests, the Rev. and Mrs. Edward Streitenberger and Bobbie of Springfield.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred (Bobby) Nelson Jr. have left to make their home in Chicago, Ill., where the former entered Belmont College for a two years' course in architectural drafting. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Young of Atlanta accompanied them and remained for a few days visit. Mr. Nelson is a member of the 1956 graduating class from Atlanta School.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bogard and Mary and David were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jordan.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. John Shaffer of Williamsport were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ercel Speakman.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morris will have as their Christmas day guests: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brenner and family of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ervin and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Popovich and children of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stephenson and daughters of Washington C. H., Mr. and Mrs. Forest Morris and Ilo, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morris and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morris and children and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Osterle and family.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keaton and son Danny and Wynonia Bennett visited Mrs. Edith Keaton of Washington C. H.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bush and Trevor, Steve, and Kay had as their supper guests Mr. and Mrs. George Neal.

Atlanta

Mrs. James Willis and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hiser visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Armstrong.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Graves and family had as their house guests, Phil and Larry Cooper of Circleville.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Ercel Speakman will be Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Speakman and family of Columbus.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Huffman and David and Norman will be among guests on Christmas in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Johnson and Duane, Shelia and Sharon of Hamilton.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morris visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morris and Paul, Terry and Debbie.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. George Neal were afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Neal of Pataskala.

Atlanta

Mrs. John Farmer Jr. was a guest of Mrs. Valerie White of Ashville and John Clellan of South Bloomfield.

Atlanta

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Day and children had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armentrout.

Practical Nurse School Is Open For Applications

The Columbus and Franklin County Practical Nurse School announced today that applications are now being accepted for the next class of the school which will start in February.

The course is open to women between the ages of 18 and 50 and is of twelve-month duration.

The Practical Nurse School is sponsored jointly by the Columbus Board of Education, Columbus Hospitals and the Community Chest.

Yak milk is very rich and yields excellent butter and curd.

There are 26 national wild life refuges in the United States, containing 10,164,346 acres.

The Irrawaddy river, in Burma, is navigable for some 900 miles.

Water that has been heated will freeze quicker than water that has not.

JUST TO SAY,
"Merry Christmas"
AND
"Thank You"
FOR YOUR FRIENDLY PATRONAGE DURING THE PAST YEAR

THE CIRCLEVILLE SAVINGS AND BANKING COMPANY
118-120 COURT ST.
CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

May we, with gratitude and humility, with reverence and rejoicing, celebrate this Christmas as He would have us do.
To all, heartfelt wishes for a blessed Christmas.

HELWAGEN PONTIAC
PHONE 843

Here's Santa with a package of good wishes for your joyous Holiday Season!

SHARFF'S

Our sincere wish is that you and your family may know all the old-fashioned, yet ever new, joys of the season. Merry Christmas!

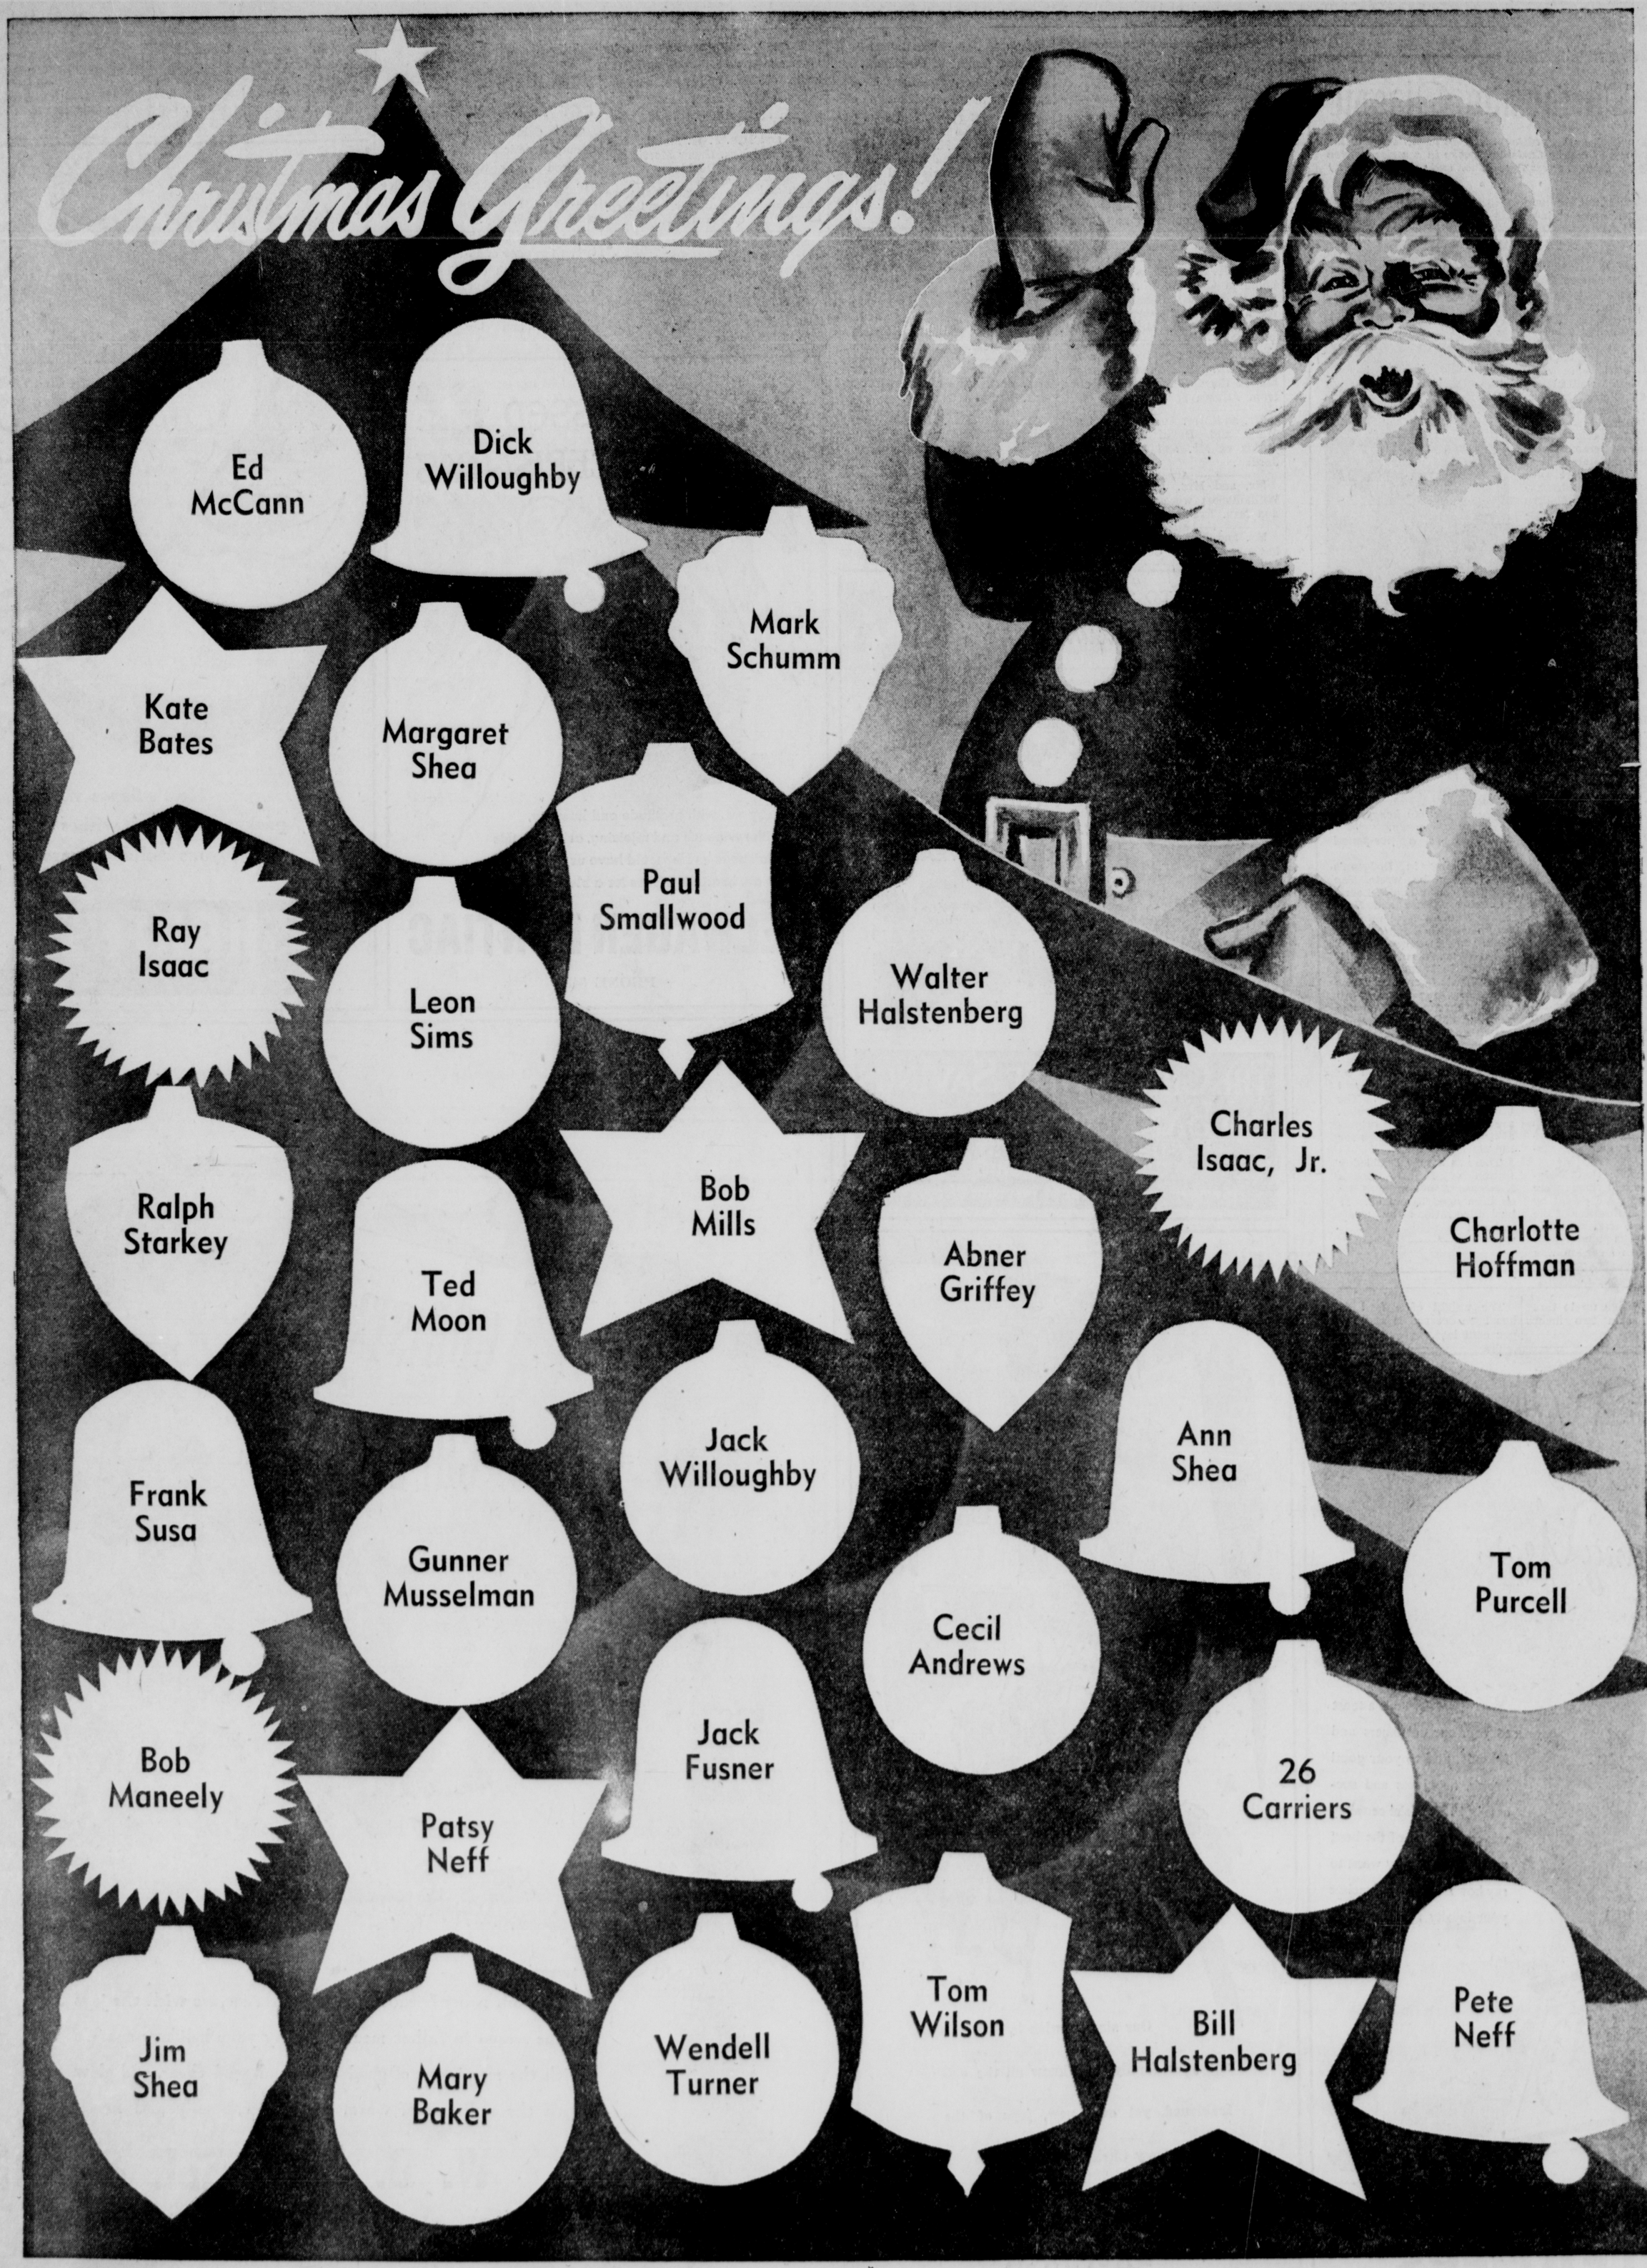
BREHMER GREENHOUSES

To our many friends both old and new, we wish the joys of the season in fullest measure. May your holidays sparkle with the merriment of good times and good cheer, and glow with the radiance of warm friendships, family and home.

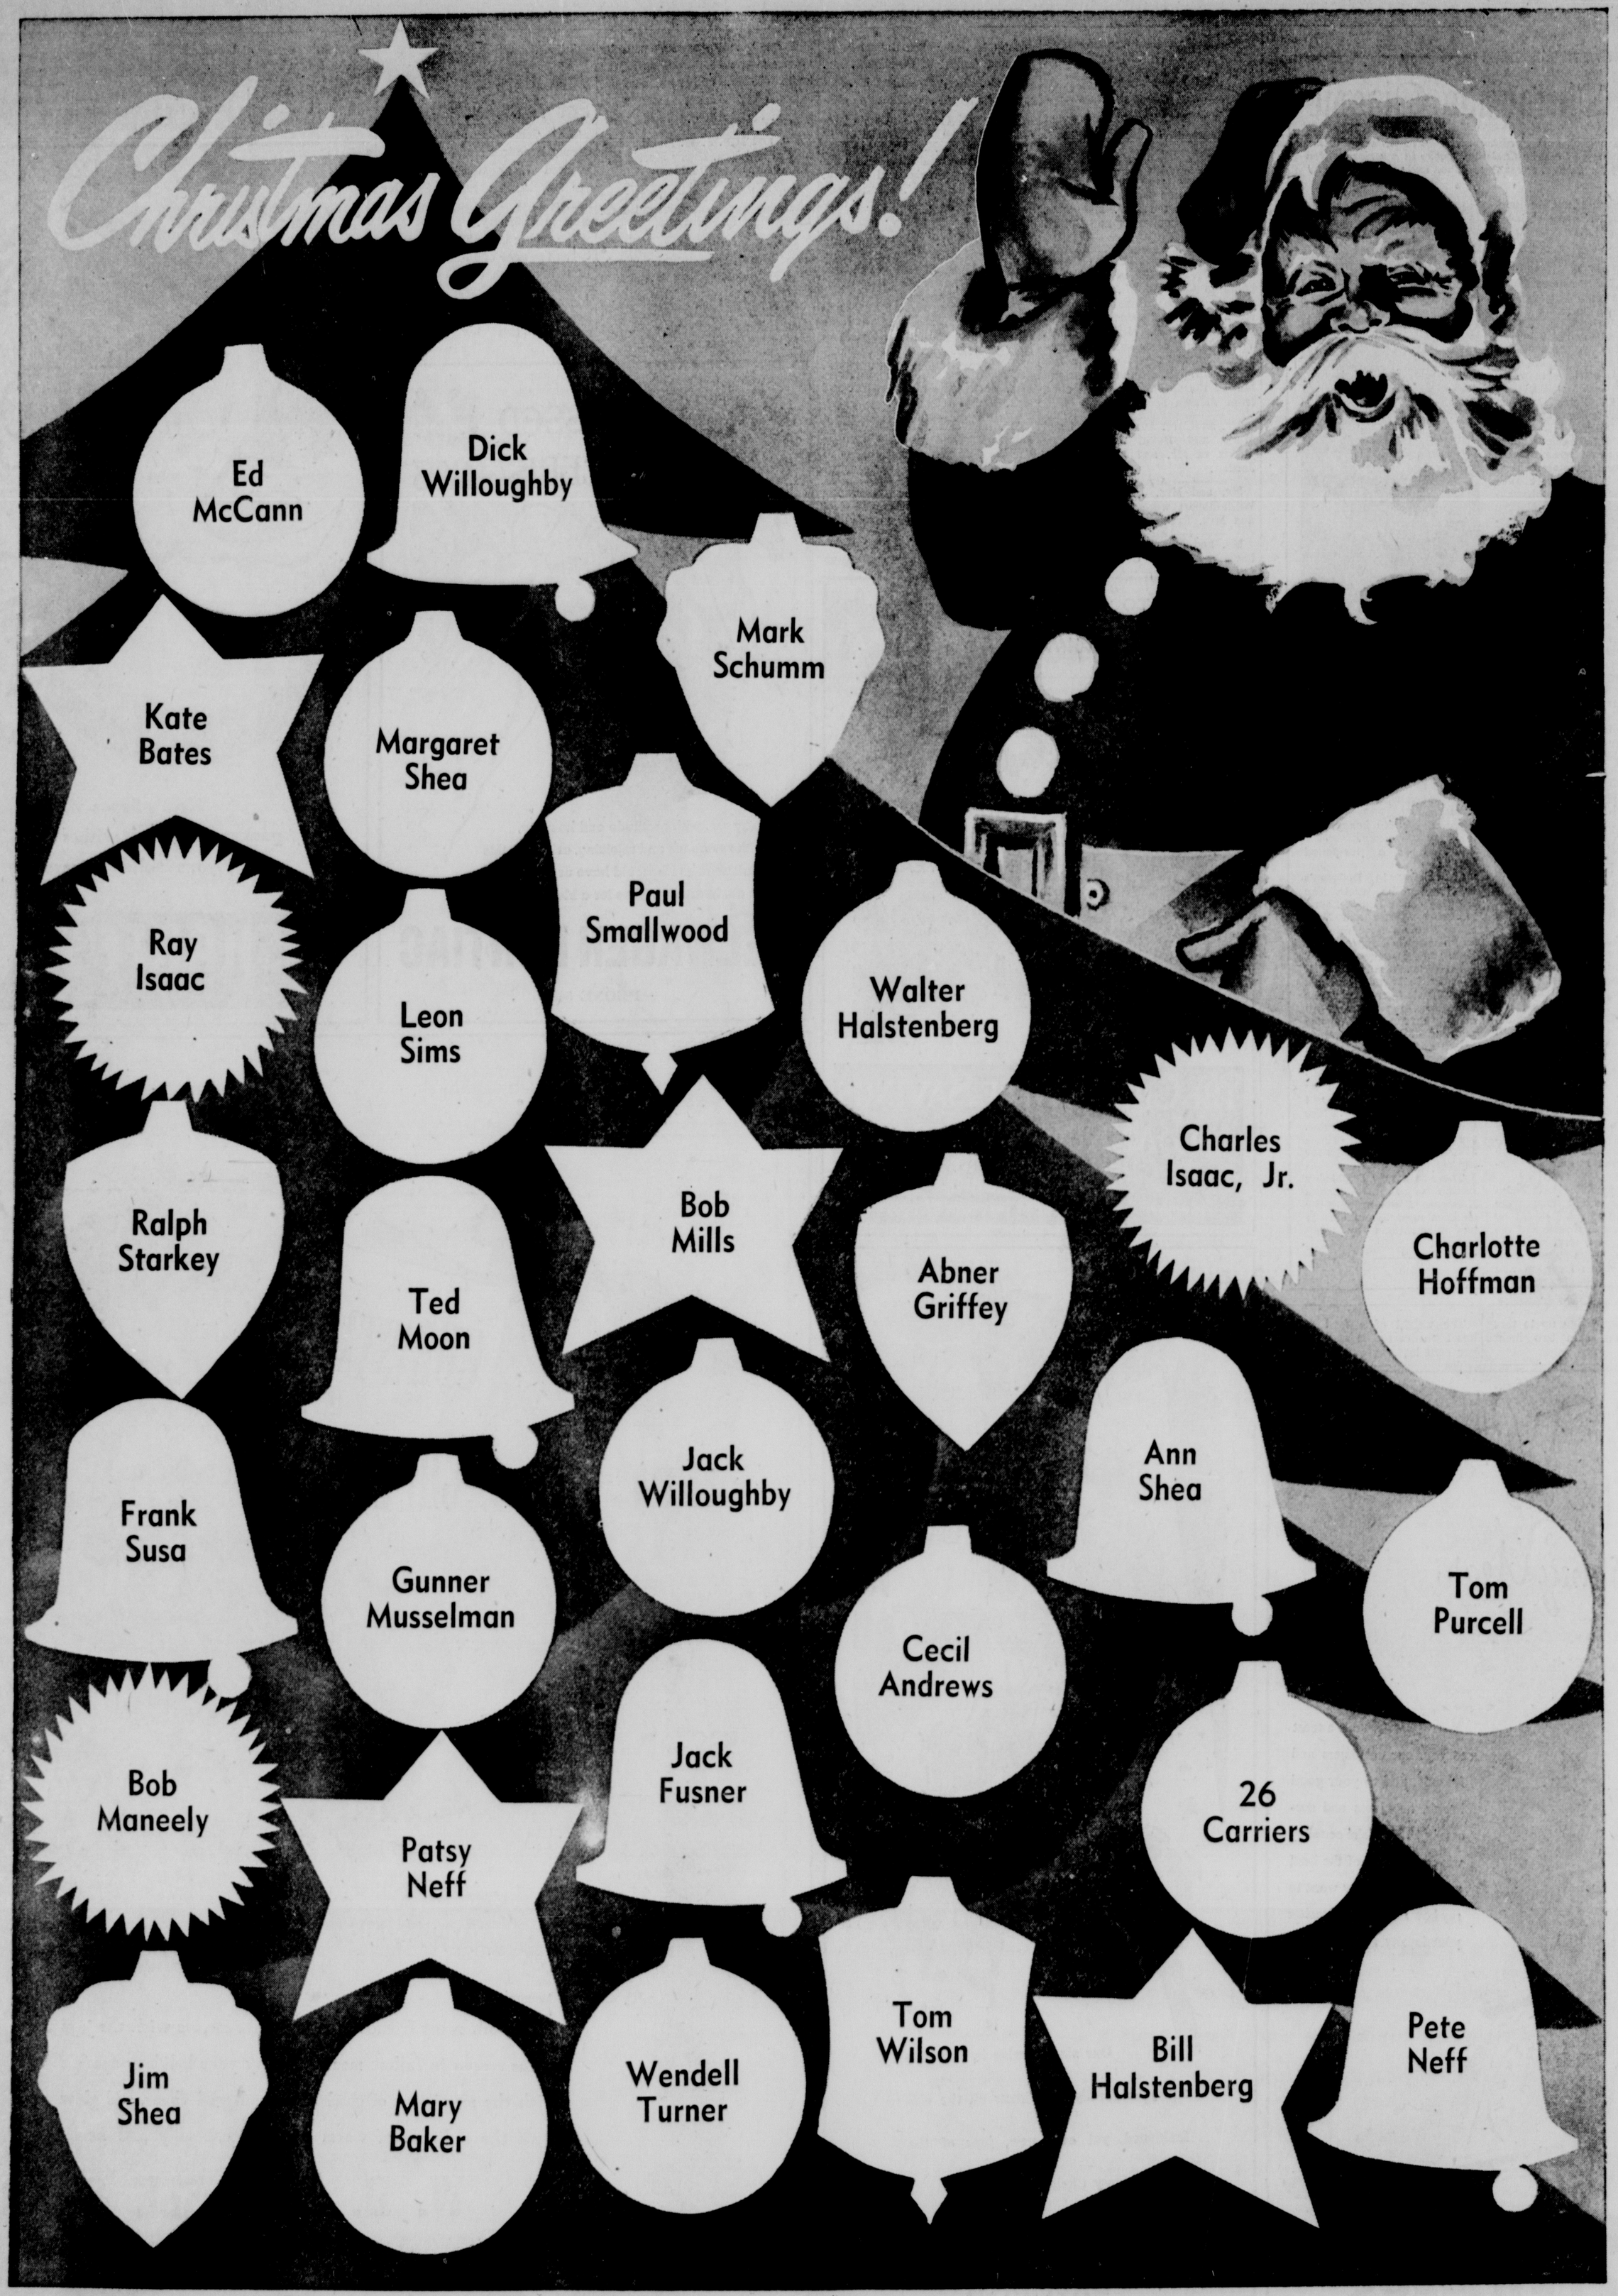
W. D. HEISKELL & SON
Phone 707 Circleville Branch Office
Phone 3261 or 2751 Williamsport, Ohio

Here's a toast to you, our customers and friends, and to your good health, happiness and success in 1957. We're certainly wishing you all of the best, and we especially want to say how much we appreciate your loyalty and good will.

RADCLIFFE CLEANERS
215 E. Main Phone 71



THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD



THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD